LATEST WAR NEWS.

Continued Hostilities to the Turkish Government Reported To-day.

Special to Evening Herald. LONDON, April 24.—War dispatches are less conflicting to-day, as the Central News Telegrams admit the Turkish reverses. The change of command of the Turkish army is everywhere regarded as an important index to the condition of affairs. The correspondent of the London Times, who is with the troops, says, however, that the ultimate result of the war is beyond doubt. The Turks are certain of success. Bulgaria has refused the Porte's request to break off diplomatic relations with Greece. This is regarded as foreshadowing a declaration of independence by Bulgaria. An insurrection has broken out in Armenia and several regiments of Turkish troops have revolted. At Athens it is reported that Edhem Pasha died from wounds received in battle. The Greeks have scored a victory in Macedonia and the Turks have won in Epirus. Macedonia has risen to support Greece. Spirit, too, is Greek to the backbone and only a spark is needed to set the Balkans on fire. The Greeks have penetrated Turkish territory at the rear of Elasson. This is most serious for the Turks, it is said. An important battle is likely to be fought soon in Epirus. Four Albanian divisions of the Turkish army in Epirus are reported as having deserted to the Greeks. CONSTANTINOPLE, April 24.—Bulgaria, after consideration, declines to meet the Turkish demands and says she will observe neutrality during the war. ATHENS, April 24.—The Greek western squadron left Corfu yesterday and in the bay of Suisunara a line of battle was formed. For two hours bombardment continued with great destruction, and soon the Turkish garrison left the fort. The Greeks landed and took the fort with large quantities of food stored there for the Turkish forces in Epirus. A big battle was fought around Mati. The Turks were repulsed up to five o'clock last night and no news has been received since. SOFIA, Apr. 24.—Bulgarian insurgents have crossed the Macedonian border and many troops in Macedonia are declaring for Greece. A beautiful line of hats regularly sold for $1.50 and $2.00, we sell them for $1.00. FAMOUS CLOTHING HOUSE.

THE JUSTICES' CASES. Action at Harrisburg Next Week on the Protest. Protests have been filed against the granting of commissions to the applicants who claim election to the office of Borough Justices of the Peace in Shenandoah, Mahanoy City and McDowell. These protests have been filed by the present incumbents, Messrs. Lawler, Cardin and others, who claim, as a basis for the protest, that at the time of the borough elections last February no vacancies existed, and there could be no legal elections of Borough Justices. Before acting in the matter the Governor will ask the Attorney General to give an opinion on the protests and the accompanying circumstances. That official is now absent from Harrisburg and nothing will be done until he returns to that city next week. Caserata stimulate liver, kidneys and bowels. Never sicken, weaken or gripe, etc.

The Curtains Didn't Rise. The O'Neill Dramatic Company has been holding the boards at the Girardville theatre, and during the week business was fair. The agreement between the home manager and the company was that the latter should receive 35 per cent of the door receipts. When the time drew near last evening for the curtain rise, a discussion arose between the two managers about the percentage, and the consequence was the curtain did not rise. The audience, numbering 200, was notified that the admission money would be refunded at the box office. There was a great rush and many of the patrons failed to see it materialize. This ended the engagement of the O'Neill Dramatic Company which was composed largely of Girardville and Shenandoah talent. A runaway took place on South Main street this morning. A double team belonging to outkiss William Hartman, of Ringtown, was standing in front of Dosto's barber shop. They took a sudden fright and started up Main street, first colliding with the delivery team of the City Supply Company and then with one of the beer teams of S. J. Moke. FIRST WARD SENSATION!

A Woman's Queer Actions and a Ghastly Discovery.

BUT EVIDENCES ARE SWEEP AWAY

The Report Has the Appearance of a Hoax. But Several Citizens Stoutly Assert That It is Founded Upon Facts and They Saw the Body.

No little excitement was occasioned in town to-day by a report that the mutilated remains of an infant child had been found in the creek near the Indian Ridge cemetery. Matrimonial being coupled with the find led to many expressions of indignation and condemnation. Dr. C. S. Phillips was the first to be informed of the discovery and he notified Health Officer Conroy. This handling of the information tended to increase the interest which had been aroused and for several hours additional information concerning the matter was eagerly sought. Later developments gave the report the complexion of a hoax, but there were some very unpleasant facts in connection with it. This morning Detective Amour and a reporter went to the place at which the discovery was alleged to have been made and could see no remains of a child, or any trace of the paste board shoe box in which the body was supposed to have been hidden. When the detective and newspaper men were about to leave the place satisfied that the report was a hoax they met two well known residents of the locality who vouched for the truth of the story. One of them stated that shortly after ten o'clock last night he observed a woman walking along the creek upon a package which she had thrown into the water and then walked hurriedly away. The suspicions of the informant were aroused by the woman's actions and the part of the creek where the package had been thrown was visited by several men who had been told of the occurrence. With the aid of a microscope the package was inspected and all who gazed upon it were convinced that the contents of the paste board shoe box they found were the remains of an apparently new born child which had been terribly mutilated. None in the party would touch the ghastly find and it was decided to leave it in its resting place until the morning, when the authorities would be notified. This morning the only trace left was a piece of red twine with which the box had been tied. What became of the rest of the find no one is able to tell. Some believe a dash in the water carried it down the creek, while others think the party who threw the package into the creek were in a hurry to get away and did not have time to do so. The informant is positive in his recital and says the woman he saw was about 5 feet 1 inch high, weighs between 150 and 160 pounds, and wore a black sun bonnet and a light wrapper. She hurried away in a westerly direction, towards the Lehigh Valley railroad. When asked why he didn't try to intercept the woman when his suspicions were aroused, he replied that she was too quick for him, and it was not until after he had been in the hospital for some time that he realized the conditions. It is not likely that there will be any more developments in connection with the matter, as the basis of operations would be the possession of the remains, and they appear to have passed into complete oblivion. The people of the First ward certainly much exercised over the matter, however.

ROMANCE OF A DOUBLE LIFE.

Secret of a Lifetime Recalled in a Dead Man's Will.

St. Louis, April 24.—William J. Craig, of Catawago, Pa., is here to try to obtain what he claims is his mother's dower and his own right in the estate of his alleged father, James Craig. If the story he tells can be substantiated it will dispose of two prominent women of an estate worth $250,000, and bring affluence to the closing days of life of a woman whose eyes have grown dim with 50 years' watching for her husband's return from America. W. J. Craig, the claimant, is 64 years of age, and is manager of large iron works in Catawago. As he tells the story, he was born in Ireland, James Craig being his father. While he was yet a babe in arms his father came to America, leaving his wife penniless. When young Craig was 10 years old his mother sent him to America, and he settled at Catawago, Pa. While these things had been happening an Irishman named James Craig, who said he was a widower, had fought his way to wealth in St. Louis. In the course of time he married and had a family of two daughters, who are now middle-aged. A month ago James Craig died, aged 85. When his will was probated it caused surprise, for the second paragraph read: "I give and bequeath the sum of $1, and no more, to my son, William Craig." This was the first his family had heard of the existence of a son. George McIntyre knew the story of the missing father, and wrote to Catawago.

To Discourage Offense-making. Washington, April 23.—Mr. Lanham, of Texas, yesterday introduced a bill entitled "To reduce the expenditures of the government, to decrease federal salaries and to discourage the office seeking industry." The bill provides for a reduction in the salaries of all persons on the rolls of the United States 3-1/2 per cent. The preamble declares that there is abnormal disproportion between the compensation of government employees and citizens in private occupations, which causes an unseemly race for office. New York's Anti-Caricature Bill Killed. Albany, April 23.—In the assembly yesterday the Ellsworth anti-caricature bill was practically killed by the adoption of amendments, by a vote of 101 to 44, that there should be no amendments. The adoption of the amendments renders it impossible for the bill to get through at this session, which ends tomorrow.

A Driver Boy's Terrible Death. Williamsport, Pa., April 24.—John McElroy, a driver boy employed in the Duray mine, carried a pint of kerosene oil in his pocket when he went to work yesterday. While working the bottle burst, the contents saturating his clothes. McElroy attempted to dry his pants alone by exposing them to a naked light. The light ignited the oil, and an explosion followed. The boy was enveloped in a sea of flames and burned to death before the clothes could be torn from his back. Harry Defeats Anthony. San Francisco, April 24.—Fifty thousand people saw Jimmie Barry and Jimmy Anthony, bantamweight, fight 29 rounds before the National Athletic club, last night. The fight was for a $2,000 purse, 75 per cent to the winner, at 115 pounds. The men were well trained, and the battle was vigorously contested. Throughout the fight Barry showed his superiority, however, and was given the decision.

Bucklet Shops Raided by Police. New York, April 24.—The police of this city yesterday raided the offices of three New York street firms on the allegation that they were conducting the business illegally. The alleged "bucklet" shops all transact a considerable amount of business, dealing chiefly with small customers. Eight persons were arrested. Wild scenes of confusion occurred when the patrons discovered that the offices were in the possession of the police. An Inhuman Murderer. Lansing, Mich., April 24.—At Williamston, Mich., 14 miles east of this city, Mrs. Albert Hovey, aged 22 years, murdered her aged mother-in-law with an axe yesterday. She severed the head entirely from the body with a large butcher knife and then poured oil on the lifeless body and set it on fire. MADE ASSISTANT SECRETARY!

Judge Day For Secretary Sherman's Chief Lieutenant.

STORER MINISTER TO BELGIUM!

Senator Foraker, Who Opposed the Latter's Selection as First Assistant Secretary of State, Will Not Object to His Diplomatic Appointment.

Washington, April 24.—President McKinley has decided to nominate William H. Day, of Canton, O., to be first assistant secretary of state, and ex-Representative Bellamy Storer, of Cincinnati, O., to be minister to Belgium. These nominations were to have been sent to the senate yesterday, but owing to that body's adjournment over until Monday will not go until next week. The filling of the office of first assistant secretary of state presents a serious problem that both the president and the senate are considering. Mr. Storer was slated originally for this appointment, but the nomination was opposed strenuously by Senator Foraker and other well known Ohio Republicans. The selection of Judge Day to be first assistant secretary of state overturns the plans of the president to send him to Cuba as special counsel to watch the prosecution of the Ruiz investigation. It would be without precedent for such an official as the first assistant secretary to go to another country to prosecute a case when later on he might have to engage in diplomatic negotiations with that same country on other subjects. Judge Day said today that as he had been selected for the position of assistant secretary of state he would not make the trip to Havana to conduct the investigation into Ruiz's death. The investigation, however, would not be abandoned, but would be made by someone else, but who would conduct it he did not know. He admitted that his selection for the assistant secretaryship was a surprise to him, as he had made all his arrangements to go to Havana. Senator Foraker will not oppose Mr. Storer's nomination to be minister to Belgium, his objections not extending to a foreign mission. Bellamy Storer, the new minister to Belgium, is a native of Cincinnati, where he was born in 1847, and has lived since his graduation from Harvard in 1871. He is a practicing lawyer, and was first elected to the Fifty-first congress, serving on the foreign affairs committee and taking a prominent part in debates on diplomatic questions, and also on interstate commerce legislative problems.

Philippine Insurgents Victorious. Tacoma, Wash., April 24.—News just received from Hong Kong by steamer contradicts the story from Madrid that the Philippine rebellion is practically stamped out. On the contrary, two important engagements have been fought recently, in both of which the insurgents were victorious. On March 29 a large column of Spanish troops under command of Colonel Salido met with a serious rout by the insurgent forces. The rebel force is reported to have been 8,000 strong. It was a hand to hand conflict. The royalist troops lost over 200 men and the insurgents 30.

THE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Preparations to Organize It Under the Latest Law. A meeting of the public library committee was held last evening and was attended by Superintendent Cooper, Daniel Ogden, John H. Martin and W. J. Watkins, members of the committee, and Frank Hanna, secretary of the School Board. The meeting was held in pursuance of a recent resolution of the School Board instructing the Library Committee to confer and make a report on what should be done to bring the library within the jurisdiction of the laws of 1895. Daniel Ogden presided at the meeting. After the reading of the old and new laws and a discussion of the effects and advantages that would follow a compliance with the latter, the committee adopted a resolution recommending that the School Board proceed to elect six trustees for the public library at the next regular meeting, in accordance with the laws of 1895. The law calls for a board of nine trustees, but three are ex-officio members consisting of the Superintendent of Schools and officers of the School Board.
