Rewards for Lynchers of Ryder.

Atlanta, July 25.—After giving a secret hearing yesterday to two of the brothers of Dr. W. L. Ryder, the white man lynched in Talbot county last week, Governor Atkinson offered the following rewards: Five hundred dollars for the arrest and conviction of the first two members of the mob that lynched Ryder; $100 for each subsequent arrest and conviction, and $250 for the arrest and conviction of any persons hindering or interfering with the bringing of lynchers to justice. The governor announced that he has in his possession the names of several of the guilty ones, which numbered only 15, with positive proof against three of them. He expresses his determination to exert the full power of his office to punish the guilty parties.

Removed to the Hospital.

The parents of John Layton, Jr., who suffered a fracture of the right ankle bone at the Indian Ridge colliery yesterday morning, have decided to send their son to the Miners' hospital for treatment. He was sent to that institution this afternoon.

Face Disfigured.

While riding a bicycle at Trotting park on Thursday evening, Daniel Egan, engaged at the Maple Hill colliery, had his face somewhat disfigured by falling off the bike. His face was cut in several places by the fall.

Sworn In.

Edward Devers, who was elected High Constable at the borough Council meeting last evening, was sworn in by Chief Burgess Taber this morning. He immediately entered upon his new duties.

Bank Statement.

The report of the condition of the First National bank appears in another column of today's issue. The statistic is an interesting one as well as a glowing one and bespeaks prosperity for the institution.

Team Disobeyed.

A brewery team belonging to Christ Schmidt, agent for Lauer's celebrated Reading beer, was disabled at the Cambridge colliery this morning by the harness breaking in several places. It was found for Gilbertson and Mahanoy Place with a heavy load.

Gleanings Throughout the Country

Chronicle for Heavy Pursual.

Mr. Carmel has 37 vacant dwelling houses. The Bertlet washer at Girardville, has resumed operations. Draining has been added to the Pottsville High school curriculum. The bonded indebtedness of Shamokin is $99,100 and the total indebtedness $28,753.27. George Molson received possibly fatal injuries in a headlong fall from his bicycle at Leak Haven. The Democrats of Northumberland county will hold their county convention at Southbury on August 20th. The Normal Chautauqua, which has been attended by 130 teachers at Stroudsburg, closed yesterday. Superintendent voted by 242 majority against increasing the borough debt $10,000 for an electric light plant. With his seven and nine-year-old sons, John Barnett, of Reading, has started on a 1000-mile cycling jaunt. Minersville claims $1453 damages for culm washed down the creek by the thorough preloids from four adjacent collieries. Charles Daubney and William Burke, miners at No. 5 Pennsylvania shaft, Port Griffith, were fatally burned by an explosion of gas. Real Estate Dealer Alexander Legatski filed at his home in Allegheny City, the result of a "header" while trying to ride his son's bicycle. Mrs. Catharine Dietrich, aged 70, of Pottsville, fell down stairs, receiving fatal injuries. One leg was broken and she sustained serious internal injuries. Near Blair's Island, in the Susquehanna, the body of Fanny Crowell, of Fife's Eddy, York county, was found, and it is a case of supposed suicide. For a post-mortem examination fee of $185 in a suicide case, which Lebanon County Commissioners voted to allow, Dr. J. R. Buckley, of Lebanon, has brought suit. A barking dog summoned people, who saved W. B. Hollis' fine residence from destruction in Blair township, Lancaster county after the house had been fired by an incendiary. Postoffice Inspector Gorman was in Southbury and gave the order to Postmaster Mann for free delivery, which goes into effect October 1st. There will be three regular carriers and one substitute. Harry Coleman exploded a shot in the Romance mine, near Shamokin, and fragments of coal struck his eye. He may become blind as he had lost the other some time ago in a similar way. James Gibbs has been awarded the contract for the erection of the new brewery at Mt. Carmel. The gentlemen interested in the concern are: P. J. Ferguson, Shenandoah; James May, Shamokin; and Daniel Macaulay, of Mt. Carmel. Ask your grocer for Lee "Royal Patent" flour, and take no other brand. It is the best flour made.

A Mistletoe.

A musicale was given by the young pupils of Mrs. Ehrhart, in honor of Miss Ellen France, last evening, in the parlors of the France mansion. The young folks taking part were: Rose and Grace Clary of Mahanoy City; Emma and Millie Zimmerman, Violet Feider, Belle and Sadie Malach, Edith Hoehner, Mary Malone, Edith Link, Nellie Little, Lizzie Whelan, Agnes Bradigan, Julia Higgins, Mattie, Ella and Irene France. All acquitted themselves in a creditable manner, their various parts were artistically and gracefully rendered, and highly appreciated by all present. Mrs. Ehrhart also delighted those present by rendering several piano solos. At the close of the musicale the young hostess invited all present to the dining room, where ice cream and other delicacies were served. A musicale will also be given by Mrs. Ehrhart's older pupils this evening at the residence of Miss Gertrude Neiswarter, on North Main street.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Thatcher returned to her home in Tamaqua to-day.

F. J. Wille was a noon passenger to Philadelphia to-day.

Miss Elma Ford and Mable and Carrie Weidman are visiting friends in Hamburg.

Miss Gusie Reese has gone to Pottsville and Fort Carbon to spend a week among friends.

D. P. Brown and children, of Lost Creek, were passengers to Pottsville this morning.

Miss Mary Reese, of New York, to-day removed to Lost Creek, to take up her future residence.

James McElheny, Mahanoy City's leading landlord, was a town visitor yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. G. C. Clasper left town to-day to spend a month's vacation at Millersburg, Dauphin county.

Leo Bamberger, Shenandoah's popular commercial traveler, enjoyed the best breezes at Pottsville yesterday.

Messrs. Eph. Boddall and Benj. Dunlap, of Wan. Dun, rode to Pottsville on their wheels this morning to visit friends there.

Miss Theresa Kelly and her nephew, of Philadelphia, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Wingo, of West Cherry street.

Messrs. F. J. Mithoff, W. M. Brewer, H. J. Muldown and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Honk were Pottsville passengers this morning.

Misses Louisa and Edith Shelly, of Hatzboro, near Philadelphia, were the guests of C. I. Pollockman James Daniell and family, yesterday.

Miss Julia Cressy entertained about 50 of her friends at her residence on West Coal street, last evening. Several hours were pleasantly spent.

S. M. Hollinger, with the fear of excitement visible in his countenance because of "their whiskers," left for Philadelphia to visit his family to-day.

Mrs. Graeber and sons, William and John, Mrs. Jesse Metz and Jesse Kline, left at noon to-day for Treverton, where they will attend the funeral of Herman Gross to-morrow.

Ex-Judge John Stanton was made the happy father of a baby girl by his wife last evening. The father is completely overcome with joy by the first addition to the household.

See this Pail!

Frank Keenan, a member of the Sons of Veterans, while assisting in the entertainment of the members of the visiting camp at Kater's hall last night, had the index and middle finger of the right hand severely lacerated by the explosion of a ginger ale bottle while trying to open it. Between 300 and 400 people attended the German Lutheran picnic at Lakeside yesterday.

Mrs. Parson Price, of Brooklyn, wife of a well known adjudicator at Eisteddfods, was the guest of Mrs. Henry Rickett, yesterday. She was accompanied by Mrs. J. J. Price, of Shenandoah, and Mrs. D. W. Price, of Pottsville.

John Ryan was straitened before Justice May last night on a charge of assault and battery preferred by George Wluoravage. While the defendant was being chased off Wluoravage's porch he became enraged and hit the plaintiff on the mouth with a stone. A second missile hurled inflicted a wound above the left eye. He was held in $300 bail.

At a meeting of the committee of the Young Men's Association, held on Thanksgiving day, Dr. H. Clark, of Philadelphia, and Prof. J. Haydn Morris, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., were chosen as adjudicators.

An adjourned meeting of the Board of Health was held last night, one of the members, Wm. Doherty, complained that the Health Officer was delinquent in performing his duties, and directed the attention of the board to several cases of alleged duties of delinquency. He reported that a midwife had been attending several foreign women in the First Ward and that in one instance a woman who was attended by this midwife, had stated that she would have lost her life had not a local physician been called in at the critical moment. During July 27 burial permits were issued, of which 7 were non-residents. Nine births were also reported.

Ninety-four Sons of Veterans were mustered in as members of General Old Camp last night. This is the largest number ever mustered in at a single mustering ever held in the state. The new applicants assembled in Kater's hall. At nine o'clock, headed by a drum corps, they marched to the G. A. R. hall. Here the mustering officer, John A. Whitehead, of Mt. Carmel, and Division Commander Wilton Scott, of Milton, Pa., organized the new camp. Delegations of camps were present from Mt. Carmel, Shamokin, Hazleton, Shenandoah and Ashland. The officers of the new camp are as follows: Captain, William Warner; 1st Lieutenant, L. L. Brecker; Chaplain, Rev. Otho Brandt; 1st Sergeant, William Beutinger; Quartermaster, M. J. Musser; Sergeant, A. Delcamp; Color Sergeant, Frank Henricks; corporal of guard, James Dietrich; camp guard, Jacob Warner; picket guard, Jacob Kranck; camp council, Frank Henricks, L. L. Brecker and John Warner. At the conclusion of the ceremonies all present repaired to Kater's hall where the ladies of the Women's Relief corps had prepared a bounteous spread. Speeches were made by Rev. Otho Brandt, John Logan and others. Fifteen members of Henry Horneback Camp, No. 49, of V. of Shenandoah, were in attendance.

Schuykill's Population. EXTON HERALD.—Will you kindly publish the following item, regarding the population, according to the last census, and greatly obliged. A. F. P. Wm. Penn, July 31st, 1907.

The population of Schuylkill county, 1890, was 154,103, and of this number 31,185 are males and 78,938 females; 122,630 native born and 31,333 foreign.—Etc.]

It heals everything except a broken heart, may be said of Dr. Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. Piles and rectal diseases, cuts, lacerations, burns, scalds, sores, and all skin troubles may be cured by its quick and permanent. C. H. Hagenbuch.

Church Notices. Rev. D. R. Griffiths, of Calasauqua, will preach in the Welsh Congregational church to-morrow morning, at 10 o'clock, in the Welsh language, and at 6 o'clock in the evening, in English, Sunday school at 2 p. m. Rev. Alfred Heelner preaches in the M. E. church to-morrow. Subject, five sermons in the morning: "One of the most eloquent sentences in the Bible." The pastor will meet his class of young men in the afternoon. Evening subject at 6:30, some lessons from the Bible, "Story of the Raven and the Dove." The Ushers' Association attend to the comfort of the congregation. All are invited.

Wandered From Home. Yesterday afternoon the seven-year-old son of Frank A. Everset, of Brandonville, wandered away from home and caused his parents much uneasiness. The residents in that neighborhood formed a searching party, extending their search to Mahanoy City and to the state prison, but he was not found. A little wanderer turned up at the home of his uncle, Peter Heinbach, on North Jardin street, and his parents were immediately notified. It is thought he followed a powder wagon to town.

Base Ball. The second of a series of three games will be played at the Trotting park to-morrow afternoon between the Lincoln team, of town, and the Silver Leaf Club, of Mt. Carmel. The first game resulted in a draw, ending contest at Mt. Carmel several weeks ago in which the home team won by a score of 6 to 5. Indications point to a good article of ball playing.

The Colliery Resumes. The Lehigh Valley Coal Company has decided to re-open the old Continental mine, at North Ashland, which was abandoned several years ago. This, home, assistant foreman at Continental colliery, has been appointed foreman at the Continental mine, and has a large force of men at work re-entraining and getting the mine in workable shape.

Iron Workers Strike at Scottsdale. Scottsdale, Pa., July 21.—Wild excitement prevails here. As the afternoon turn of non-union men who have taken the places of striking iron workers at the Scottsdale iron works were going home, one of them, said to be a man named Painter, became incensed at the remarks of some boys and deliberately fired at them. A large crowd was gathered about the station at the time, and they started after the non-union man, who fired four or five shots into the crowd before he reached the Geyer house, where he boards. Another non-union man, whose name could not be learned, drew his revolver on Pittsburgh street and fired several shots. He was knocked down and reached by the officers and taken to his boarding house. The excited crowd in massed about the station, and the balance of the men in the mill are afraid to venture out.

Germany and the Dingley Bill. Hamburg, July 21.—The Hamburgischer Correspondent, a semi-official organ, discusses the Dingley tariff, apparently indicating the attitude of the German government in regard to the tariff. The paper says: "Although Germany has entered a protest against a differential duty on raw sugar, it cannot be overlooked that it constitutes a very doubtful question of international law whether or not a violation of the favored nation treatment is entailed by increasing the duty on articles enjoying a bounty from exporting countries. In all other cases where the Dingley tariff imposes increased duties, there will be violation of the favored nation treatment as the increases apply not only to German, but to all other imports."

Personally-Conducted Tours via Pennsylvania Railroad. That the public have come to recognize the fact that the best and most convenient method of pleasure travel is that presented by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's personally-conducted tours, is evidenced by the increasing popularity of these tours. Under this system the lowest rates are obtained, for both transportation and hotel accommodations. An experienced tourist agent and chaperon accompany each tour to look after the comfort of the passenger.

The following tours have been arranged for the season of 1907: To the north (including Watkins Glen, Niagara Falls, Thousand Islands, Montreal, Quebec, Au Sable Chasm, Lakes Champlain and George, Saratoga, and a daylight ride down through the Highlands of the Hudson), July 27 and August 17. Rate, $100 for the round trip from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, covering all expenses of a two weeks' trip.

To Yellowstone Park on a special train of Pullman sleeping, compartment, and observation cars and dining car, allowing eight days in "Wonderland," September 2. Rate, $235 from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington; $230 from Pittsburg, and return within ten days will be sold on July 22, August 3 and 10, September 4 and 10, at rate of $10 from Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington. These tickets include transportation only, and will permit of stop over within limit at Buffalo, Rochester, and Watkins on the return trip.

Two ten-day tours to Gettysburg, Luray Caverns, Natural Bridge, Virginia Hot Springs, Richmond, and Washington, September 28 and October 12. Rate, $65 from New York, $63 from Philadelphia.
