THE HORRORS OF CUBA.

Congressman King Endorses the Reported Stories of Starvation. Tampa, Fla., Jan. 12.—After spending several weeks making personal investigation of the situation in Cuba Congressman King, of Utah, arrived here last evening. His tour covered four provinces, and was thorough. In speaking of his trip he said: "I made it to learn just what conditions were, and I found that no one has ever before depicted the awful horrors of the reconcentration. These people, naked and emaciated, are still dying like sheep in the streets of the towns where they are still confined. To realize just what this means one must see for himself. I found that the Spanish people have evidently very little faith in the new autonomous government, for they are strongly in favor of annexation, and went it at once. General Franco has not succeeded in his efforts to elevate the suffering, for he has not the financial means to carry it out. I have interviewed insurgent leaders, Spanish officers and Americans, and have some definite ideas of what is going on in that terribly devastated island. I know positively that General Lee is not getting out with General Blanco to see General Gomez."

NEW JERSEY LEGISLATURE. David O. Watkins, of Gloucester, chosen for speaker of the House.

Trenton, Jan. 12.—The annual session of the New Jersey legislature will open this afternoon at 2 o'clock. As has been the case for four years, the Republicans will be in control of both houses, although the Democratic representation will be considerably increased over last year. The senate will consist of 14 Republicans and 7 Democrats, and the house of 33 Republicans and 17 Democrats, including Assemblyman-elect Simpson, of Hudson county, who is under indictment for conspiracy, and who has announced that he will not take his seat until after his trial.

Very little of the work of the legislature is as yet mapped out. The Republicans will pursue a conservative course, with a view to strengthening themselves for the contest next fall. It has been announced that the legislature to be chosen, which will succeed a United States senator to succeed James Smith, Jr. The Democrats, on the other hand, purpose being aggressive, and will endeavor to take advantage of any blunders the Republicans may make.

Governor Griggs will submit his last annual message to the legislature, and as soon as he is appointed and confirmed as attorney general of the United States will resign, and the acting governorship will devolve upon Senator Foster, a member of the Union county, the president of the senate.

Governor Griggs, before resigning, will send to the senate a large number of appointments which otherwise might not have been made until later in the session. There is a perfect understanding between Governor Griggs and Senator Voorhees with reference to these appointments.

One of the principal matters that will come before the legislature will be creating a railroad commission, with large powers. This bill will be fought by the railroad men, and may be fought by some of the larger municipalities. The Democrats will press the equal taxation bill which was defeated last winter.

The Republican members of the assembly last night chose the officers who will be elected today. The principal officers are: Speaker, David O. Watkins of Gloucester; clerk, Thomas B. Jones of Essex; assistant clerk, Charles F. Hopkins of Morris; journal clerk, W. H. Hulsamer of Union; assistant journal clerk, A. C. Demarest of Bergen; sergeant-at-arms, Charles H. Powell of Burlington; secretary of the committee on education, Theodore Gaddis of Essex; and W. Weidel of Mercer; sergeant-at-arms, John R. Flavell of Essex.
