AFFAIRS OF THE BOROUGH

The Council and School Board Held Special Meetings.

THE STREET PAVING DISCUSSED

The Traction Company Notified to Remove the Braces From Its Tracks—Results of the First Month in the Public Schools.

Last evening a special meeting of the Borough Council was held for consideration of matters bearing on the street paving and primarily on the cross bars connecting the tracks of the Schuylkill Traction Company. The members present were Messrs. Bell, Conkley, Boehm, Hand, James, Maguire, Straughn, Brennan, Shoemaker and Harkins. In the absence of the President and Secretary, Messrs. Bell and Straughn acted as officials pro tem.

President Bell explained the object of the meeting and stated that the brick could not be properly laid should the bars be kept in the present position. Mr. Boehm stated that he had a conversation with Mr. Ash, superintendent of the electric railway, and that gentleman had informed him the bars could not be removed as they were there for the purpose of strengthening the rails. He also stated that if the company were compelled to remove the bars, they would take the matter into court. Mr. Boehm also stated that the company had not secured permission to put in the bars, and that they greatly interfere with the paving.

On motion of Mr. James the Chief Burgess was authorized to notify the Schuylkill Traction Company to have the bars removed by Friday, the 29th inst, or else that the brick line. If this is not done the borough will remove them.

The change rail placed at the curve at the corner of Main and Coal streets was also discussed, and it was shown they were not of the proper pattern prescribed in the ordinance. In the opinion of the members these changes might be dangerous to traffic, and to avoid any liability on the part of the borough a motion was adopted instructing the Solicitor to send a communication to the Traction Company, stating that they would be held responsible for all damages that may arise due to these rails, or, if they do not agree to hold themselves responsible the borough will remove the rails and compel them to put in the plain "T" rail. Adjourned.

A MILLION VISITORS

Have Invaded New York to Welcome the Victorious Admiral.

BUSY DAY FOR THE CHIEFTAIN

Olympia's Sailors Receive the Medals Voted Them by Congress.

GENERAL MILES VISITS THE ADMIRAL

The Two Leaders of the Army and Navy in Conference Regarding the Coming Washington Reception to the Hero of Manila—Governor Roosevelt Welcomes the Admiral in Advance of Mayor Van Wyck's Formal Welcome—A Visit of Dewey's Captains at Manila Sets the Olympia's Sailors Wild With Delight. Howison Gracefully Yields to Sampson.

New York, Sept. 29.—New York was decked brilliantly yesterday in honor of the gallant sailor waiting at her gate. Hundreds of miles of red, white and blue bunting covered the noble facades of Broadway and Fifth avenue, and a million flags flutter over the town. Not even the churches have escaped the universal decorations.

A million visitors are here to participate in the glorious celebration. Every road is pouring in a steady stream until the streets are crowded morning and night, the surface and elevated cars are filled to overflowing and the hotel corridors are jammed with visitors. The gaily appareled soldiers of many states, who are to take part in tomorrow's land parade, began trooping in yesterday, and there was no hour when uniformed men were not moving in some quarter of the city to the sound of life and drums and horns. Sailors and marines ashore from the big fighting machines helped to swell the crowd trooping in all directions. Uniformed members of the staff of the arriving governors were everywhere.

The arrangements for the celebration are completed. The great arch at Madison square, modeled after the triumphal arch of Titus, and upon which the most famous sculptors of America have lavished their genius, is finished and stands a superb tribute to the nation's hero. It is more beautiful than the arch in Rome.

Yesterday the flotilla lay quietly at anchor off Tompkinsville, a towering spectacle of naval might and power to the tens of thousands who sailed down in tugs, in yachts and steamers to see the ships. The crush to get aboard the Olympia never abated for a minute, and as great indulgence was shown by Admiral Dewey a goodly portion of those who were unable to gain the gangways got aboard. At times the ship was fairly overrun. These crowds and the official visits the admiral received scarcely gave him and his officers time to breathe. The jockies yesterday got the medals which Congress voted them and they were displayed to the visitors until Jefferson, the pugilist, came aboard. Jack loves a fighter, and while the big slugger was aboard the tars were oblivious to all else.

Salutes Continued All Day.

Owing to the stream of official visitors the roar of salutes continued almost without interruption all day. Major General Nelson A. Miles, at the head of the Washington committee, called to submit the program for the reception at the national capital, and Major General Merritt and his staff, staffed with gold braid, came over from Governor's Island to officially welcome Admiral Dewey in the name of the army. They were received with all the honors befitting their rank. But the climax was not reached until Governor Roosevelt, of New York, came down the bay in the afternoon on the yacht Wild Duck. He was accompanied by General Francis V. Greene, some officers of the New York Naval Militia and several of Dewey's captains at Manila, including Captain Dyer of the Baltimore, Captain Wood of the Petrel, Captain Wildes of the Boston and Captain Walker of the Concord. When they got aboard Admiral Dewey took them over the ship, and the sight of the fighting captives set the tars mad with delight. Nothing could restrain their enthusiasm, and round after round of cheers greeted the appearance of these officers.

Governor Roosevelt was assistant secretary of the navy when Admiral Dewey was first sent to the command of the Asiatic squadron, and General Greene, who served in the Philippines, is a personal friend of the admiral of many years' standing. The sight of the captains who were with him during the stress of that hot day in Manila bay was good for the admiral's eyes, so that altogether Admiral Dewey seemed to enjoy this official visit more than any he has received. The local municipal authorities are somewhat piqued because Governor Roosevelt extended the formal welcome of the state to the admiral before the mayor had an opportunity to offer his official greeting on behalf of the city.

Dewey's greeting to Coghlan. One of the personal friendships that Admiral Dewey renewed aboard the Olympia yesterday afternoon was that with Captain Joseph B. Coghlan, who commanded the Raleigh at Manila and is now commandant of the Port of New York, Wash., naval station.

Captain Coghlan was one of Governor Roosevelt's guests, and when he climbed to the head of the gangway the admiral rushed over to him and, grasping him by the hand, exclaimed: "Why, Joe, how well you are looking."

And then he went on, with twinkling eyes: "What's this I have heard about you learning to sing?"

Then seizing the captain's shoulders he shook him as if chiding him, and both laughed heartily at the admiral's
