The athletic coasts of the University of Southern California are seriously considering the possibility of holding a track and field meet.

The Detroit baseball diamond will be swung around next winter, and a new grand stand will be built in the left center corner. The present grand stand and pavilion will be utilized as lower priced sections. The club plans to have one of the finest plants in the country.

Flower and Tree.

A single leaf of the orange tree carefully planted will often take root and grow.

While many plants close their petals or fold their leaves as darkness approaches, the testimony of most scientists is to the effect that none cease to grow.

A smoking tree is one of the natural wonders of Ono, Japan. Strange to say, it smokes only in the evening just after sunset, and the smoke issues from the top of the trunk. The tree is sixty feet high.

The heliotrope represents Clytie, the beautiful nymph who died of love for the sun. The story of Clytie is also connected with the sunflower, which, as well as the heliotrope, means devoted attachment.

The Fan.

Fans were used as sacred emblems in India.

The Romans used a circular fan on occasions of state.

The early Greeks made fans of the flat leaves of the lotus.

The Chinese and Japanese have from antiquity used fans of all possible varieties.

In ancient Egypt fans of strange shape made of parchment or feathers were used in religious ceremonies.

Folding fans had their origin in Japan and were imported thence to China. They were of the shape still used.

The Dragon Fly.

The "devil's darning needle" is the popular name of several species of the dragon fly. They are so called from their cylindrical bodies, resembling needles. They are not poisonous.

Just Noises.
"Look here!" shouted the irate farmer. "What are you doing fishing in my lake when it's posted?"

"Aw, go on!" sneered the tough city lad. "Make a noise like a hoop and roll away."

The farmer took out his knife and cut off a section of birch.

"Sonny," he said solemnly, "I reckon you'd be better making a noise like a locomotive for the next few minutes."

"Like a locomotive, old clover seed! Why?"

"Because you are going to be switched."

And the next moment the yells that emanated from the clump of bushes made a noise like a Sioux Indian on the warpath.—Chicago News.
