Have you a new cent, with "V. D. B." on it? It will buy gum just as well as any old cent.

A new hose company for Honesdale is among the new possibilities.

The trout season ended last Saturday. Now the "big-catch" stories are in process of incubation.

We are told that the oat crop is short this year, having suffered from rust and drouth. Do you eat oats?

A Harrisburg girl has killed herself by tight lacing. But that doesn't interest any girl in Honesdale.

The town council is thinking about paving Main street. 'Tis a consummation devoutly to be wished.

It is said that the Lake Lodore company has prohibited the campers and owners of cottagers near Elk Lake from using the lake for any purpose.

Nine marriage licenses were granted in Wayne county during July, compared with fourteen for the same month last year. Why is this thus?

The Premium List of the 47th annual Fair of the Wayne County Agricultural Society will be issued in pamphlet form from the Citizen office soon.

A Scranton clergyman on Sunday last based his remarks upon "the beauty and symmetry of the new Lincoln cent." What's the matter with a $20 gold piece?

A well-known gentleman about town defines a "joy-ride" as "traveling alone and riding in a smoking car." There are probably reasons for his peculiar view.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew of Grace church will hold a service in the Indian Orchard school house, Sunday, August 15, at 2:30 p. m. Mr. Ernest F. Dudley will be the lay reader.

The annual meeting and clam bake of the Honesdale Skat Club was held at the farm of John Hartman on Sunday, Aug. 8th. There were present 24 members who enjoyed the occasion immensely.

Collectors for Old Home Week fund will soon make a house to house canvass for subscriptions to defray expenses. It is hoped that the solicitors will be received cordially, as they are sacrificing their time for the success of the event.

The new Lincoln penny will not be withdrawn, though we don't see why anyone's initials should be allowed upon it. The cent, on account of its "large circulation" would make a valuable advertising medium for almost any one.

Call a young lady "a peach," and your remark is at once justified by the delicate tint which appears on her cheeks. Suggest to a young man that he is a "plum," and he immediately desires to wreck your countenance. Now, why?

The predilection for "scare" headlines by some newspaper people, develops some very ludicrous things. An exchange which lies on our desk has one. It reads in big black type, "Injured His Big Toe!" There are fools in all trades—but ours.

The people of Port Jervis, who have been seeing the light of a mysterious air-ship, every night for the past two weeks, have discovered that the light belongs to the planet Jupiter. Prof. Dolph informed them. Evidently astronomy is a stranger in P. J.

Mrs. I. W. Tibbetts, Mrs. Yerkes and son, have returned home.

—It is said that Beach Lake has a case of scarlet fever.

—Keep busy about Old Home Week preparations. The time will soon be here.

—The Baptist Ladies' Aid society will hold a cake sale in the church on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

—It is stated that frost visited this locality last Thursday night. There has surely been none since then.

—J. A. Robinson is removing the machinery from his factory in the Dodge building, to the Liberty hall building.

—The Honesdale base ball team was defeated at Port Jervis on Thursday of last week, by the score of 5 to 1.

—And yet rainless weather afflicts this locality. There were showers a short distance west of this place Monday evening.

—We understand that the Independent is putting in a new Cottrell newspaper press. We are pleased to note this evidence of our neighbor's prosperity.

—The old hand-pump fire engine, once of Honesdale, and now owned by the Narrowsburg fire department, will be a feature of the parade of firemen during Old Home Week, in this place.

—If we are not mistaken, an ordinance of the borough requires that all dogs running at large, shall be muzzled at this time. One would not believe it, from the number of unmuzzled canines at large.

—"Storms and Signs" says the best days to fish, this month, are Thursday, the 12th, Saturday, the 21st, Saturday, the 28th, and Monday, the 30th. If you catch any on those days, tell us about it.

—Hard-hearted Scranton has decided that no beggar shall ply his occupation in that city without permission from the Board of Charities. It's queer how some people get envious at the business successes of their neighbors.

—Holy Communion will be held next Sunday, at St. John's Lutheran church, at both matins and morning service. Matins will be held in English, at 7 a. m., the morning service in German at 10:30 a. m. There will be no vespers.

—When the U. S. weather makers can give predictions for each individual township, then, we think, they may interest. As it is they don't excite much curiosity. It rains where it will rain—all around in spots. We don't seem to get any.

—On Thursday evening a number of base ball players met at Frank Schuerholz's cigar store and organized a team by electing Frank Schuerholz manager, Leslie Brader captain, and Leon Ross treasurer. The first game will probably be played Saturday afternoon.

—In Scranton, yesterday, a lad was badly bitten by a bull-dog. And now the newspapers have discovered that all dogs running at large should wear muzzles. We presume that Honesdale dogs are also entitled to that privilege, but we notice but few so adorned.

—Word was received here Sunday of the death at El Paso, Texas, of Herbert Seamans, a brother of Jay G. Seamans and C. S. Seamans of Scranton. The telegram conveyed the information that Mr. Seamans was killed in a wreck of electric cars. Particulars of the tragedy were not given.

—Honesdale's base ball team journeyed to Port Jervis, Thursday, and was nicely "trimmed" by the team of the latter place, The Port Jervis Gazette, however, speaks in high terms of praise of the Honesdale boys, both as regards deportment and ball playing, and that's some balm to our wounded pride.

—There are two things which every American citizen can do better than the man on the job—run a newspaper and manage a hotel. If there was ever any such person, not connected in the callings mentioned, who didn't believe in the truth of this statement, he is either dead or in an asylum.

—Messrs. Diffene and Grunsen, of New York City, were in Honesdale on Saturday for the purpose of recording the deed of a new tract of land they purchased of Gottlieb Matter in Paupack township. There are 166 acres and the price paid was $5,500. The new proprietors will build a large summer boarding house on the property.

—A "funny" chump, who signs as "Horace Dod Gastit," attunes his lyre and thumps off a string of doggerel, which, evidently, was supposed to be a rap at the "personal" column of the country newspaper. It must be of great benefit to the N. Y. Sun to ridicule its country readers all of whom peruse those "personals" first of all news in their papers. But, of course, people who do not reside in New York, are silly fools, according to the "smarty" reporters, of many of its dailies.

—The State of Pennsylvania is now erecting on the battlefield of Gettysburg a magnificent memorial to the soldiers of the state who fought there for the preservation of the Union, July 1, 2 and 3, 1863. The commission having in charge the erection of this memorial have resolved to place around the base bronze tablets containing the names of every soldier of a Pennsylvania organization who fought in the battle. If you, or any friend of yours was in that battle, forward the name to St. Clair A. Mulholland, U. S. pension agent at Philadelphia.

—Rev. W. F. Hopp will hold services at the White Mills chapel, on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

—On Friday evening the Board of Health organized by electing Dr. R. W. Brady president, and Dr. W. T. McConville, secretary.

—The thermometer registered in this place, Sunday, 96 degrees in the shade. Hottest day of the year.

—The Protection Engine company cleared over three hundred dollars at their recent picnic, at Bellevue Park.

—The Maccabees of Honesdale went to Beach Lake on Saturday, and held their annual outing. In the evening a public dinner was held. There were about sixty people from Honesdale in attendance.

—On Friday Peter Henderson, who is employed on a farm near Aldenville, was arraigned before Burgess John Kubbach. Henderson was arrested Thursday afternoon by Officer John Canivan, on the charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

—The mysterious disappearance of M. Hartman, a tailor, of Honesdale, is occasioning considerable comment. He has not been seen here since last Thursday, and his family is, evidently, unaware of his whereabouts.

—On Thursday evening Miss Helene Bishop entertained a number of friends at a China shower in honor of Miss Mary Jayne. Those present were: Misses Ruth Lord, Mary Jayne, Edna Doolittle, Margaret Walsh, Alice Bader, Helen Beck and Grace Bishop.

—Boys who practice catching rides on the cars in this place, are warned that some day there will either be funerals on that account, or else they will spend the remainder of their lives, miserable cripples. James Mulford, a lad in Owego, Friday last, lost an arm, a leg, and part of one foot from indulging in that pastime. He will probably die.

A party composed of Mrs. William McMillan, of West Pittston, and Mrs. Jessie B. Dolmetsch, accompanied by the latter's daughter, Miss Marguerite Dolmetsch, of River street, have gathered at the home of their sister, Mrs. Wm. Dunsmore, at Wellsboro, Pa., in honor of their mother's, Mrs. Margaret Ball's, birthday. Mrs. Ball has been spending some months with Mrs. Dunsmore.

—Through Mr. John D. Weston's efforts, the Rev. W. B. Beach, of Green Ridge, conducted the Episcopal service with a sermon, at the Forest Lake Club House last Sunday morning, which was listened to by a large and interested audience. Mr. Beach was accompanied by the earnest lay worker, Mr. Paul W. Gardner, also of Green Ridge, of whose good works Honesdale is proud. The trip to the lake and return was made in Mr. Henry Z. Russell's touring car.

What Class? are YOU in?

The world has always been divided into two classes—those who have saved, those who have spent—the thrifty and the extravagant.

It is the savers who have built the houses, the mills, the bridges, the railroads, the ships and all the other great works which stand for man's advancement and happiness.

The spenders are slaves to the savers. It is the law of nature. We want you to be a saver—to open an account in our Savings Department and be independent.

One Dollar will Start an Account.

This Bank will be pleased to receive all or a portion of YOUR banking business.
