

BERRY'S BREAK BURSTS HIS BOOM

Candidate's Crazy Talk Startled the Commonwealth.

REFORMERS REPUDIATE HIM

Indorsement of Democrats For Congress Too Much For Independent Republicans to Stand.

[Special Correspondence.]

Philadelphia, Sept. 13.

Everything everywhere in the political situation in Pennsylvania presages a phenomenal Republican victory in November.

Not only are the Republicans united, harmonious and aggressive, but their old time opponents, the Democrats, are hopelessly divided and demoralized.

The nomination of John Kinley Tener by the Republican convention for the governorship, by a unanimous vote and with every unsuccessful candidate promptly and sincerely pledging fealty to the nominee, has been followed by evidence of a practical and indubitable character of earnest and enthusiastic support of the ticket from the great body of the Republican voters of the commonwealth.

Fresh from an atmosphere of neighborly good will, Mr. Tener came east and quickly found that while he is not personally as well known here, the story of his career, of his many qualities and his sturdy character, had already impressed the voters and guaranteed him a cordial welcome. Following a flattering reception at a big meeting of farmers of Bucks and Montgomery counties, Mr. Tener was the central figure at an immense popular picnic given on the outskirts of this city under the auspices of the active Republicans of northeastern Philadelphia. Nearly fifty thousand persons, men, women and children, participated in this wonderful outing.

Republican success in Pennsylvania has always been certain when the party organizations in the counties of Allegheny and Philadelphia have been united and harmonious. The majorities that will be given to Mr. Tener and his colleagues in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh this year, it is predicted, will be undoubtedly large.

And the same reports come from practically all of the interior counties.

A Divided Democracy.

What a spectacle is presented by the Democracy of Pennsylvania!

Grim Democrats and Berry Democrats are at each others' throats every hour.

While present indications give Grim an advantage in that he has the regular Democratic organization in virtually every county in his favor, and that with two or three exceptions the Democratic newspapers of the state are supporting him, the Bryanite faction is keeping up a sharp fire of denunciation, not only of Grim, but the leaders responsible for his nomination.

Berry, himself, seems to have lost his head. He has been badly rattled over the many setbacks his candidacy has received. He is irritable and fretful and has made an exhibition of himself upon several occasions during the last week.

The most sensational break he has made was his violent and unwarranted attack upon the newspapers of Pennsylvania in a speech at a farmers' picnic at Chestnut Hill.

Manifestly without preparation, and with a display of anger that startled and astonished his audience, Berry launched a tirade of abuse upon the reporters, whom he dubbed "newspaper snipes," and declared that they should "be burned at the stake." In the same outburst of temper Berry arraigned the Democratic leaders who refused to favor his nomination.

"That bunch at Allentown," he shouted, "thought I would lie down. But I am just beginning and I want stop until I have them behind the bars."

Berry's attack upon the newspapers was admitted because of the publication of the fact that he borrowed $15,000 from Guffey, the Democratic boss, upon a note, for the payment of which Berry is now being sued.

Not only has he not paid the debt, but he admits that there was not a penny of interest paid, and the collateral which was put up to insure payment of the principal when sold at public sale brought only $700.

The simple recital of the facts of the case is what Berry took offense at and called forth his silly, venomous and vindictive statements.

The disastrous effect upon the Berry campaign of this crazy talk of the candidate was at once apparent to everybody identified with the bolter's outfit.

The endorsement by the Keystone Party of many Democrats for congress has lost Berry thousands of votes.

None of the substantial men who have figured as leaders in reform movements in Philadelphia have allowed their names to be connected with the Berry candidacy, and while there are many reasons why intelligent Republicans should not vote the Berry ticket, admittedly the most potent cause for hostility to this combination is found in the alliance with Democratic aspirants for seats in congress.

ELECT PLAISTED.

Democrat Wins Gubernatorial Race in Maine.

IS SON OF FORMER GOVERNOR

Republicans For First Time In Thirty Years Lose Pine Tree State—Incomplete Returns Indicate Plurality of About 4,000.

Augusta, Me., Sept. 13.—A Democratic landslide, the first in thirty years, occurred at the Maine state election. Mayor Frederick W. Plaisted of Augusta, the Democratic nominee for governor, was elected over Governor Bert M. Fernald by a majority estimated from 5,000 to 8,000.

Democrats have carried three of the four congressional districts, while the fourth district is in doubt.

The Democrats have also carried the senate, and there is a possibility that they will also have a majority in the lower branch of the legislature, although the complexion of that body cannot be determined until later today.

William M. Pennell of Brunswick, for three terms sheriff of Cumberland county, is victorious over Asher C. Hinds of Portland, Republican, for congress in the First district. This is the district represented for many years by Thomas Brackett Reed. Mr. Hinds is the parliamentary clerk to the speaker's table at Washington. The counties in this district are Cumberland and York.

Congressman John P. Swasey of Canton, Republican, is defeated for selection by Daniel J. McGillicuddy of Lewiston. Mr. Swasey was the successor to Congressman Charles E. Littlefield. Mr. McGillicuddy carried every ward in his home city of Lewiston, while Canton, the home of Congressman Swasey, went Democratic. Mr. McGillicuddy is one of the noted lawyers of the state, has for three times been elected mayor of Lewiston, and this is the fourth time that he has been a candidate for congress—once against the late Nelson Dingley, the father of the famous tariff law; once against Congressman Charles E. Littlefield and once against Congressman Swasey. The counties comprising this district are those of Androscoggin, Sagadahoc, Lincoln, Oxford, Franklin and Knox.

In the Third district Congressman Edwin C. Burlleigh is defeated for reelection by his Democratic opponent, Samuel W. Gould of Skowhegan. Congressman Burlleigh is a former governor of the state and succeeded Seth L. Milliken in 1897. He is supposed to be one of the leaders of the so-called United States Senator Eugene Hale is a member. This district is composed of the counties of Kennebec, Somerset, Waldo and Hancock. Mr. Gould is the president of the Skowhegan National bank, was the nominee for congress two years ago and was the Democratic nominee for governor in 1902.

The candidates in the Fourth district are Congressman Frank F. Guernsey of Dover, Republican, and George M. Hanson of Calais, Democrat. Mr. Guernsey succeeded Hon. Llewellyn Powers of Houlton in a district formerly represented by Charles A. Boutelle of Bangor, who was for many years the house chairman of the committee on naval affairs. The counties in this district are Aroostook, Piscataquis, Washington and Penobscot. Mr. Hanson has been the mayor of Calais, was formerly collector of that port and is now the supreme commander of the Knights of Pythias of the United States, to which office he was elected at Milwaukee last month.

There was a Republican plurality of only 7,653 for the Democrats to overcome this year.

Plaisted had four times served as a Democratic mayor of Augusta.

Democratic State Chairman Fred Emery Beane declared on the eve of the election that he believed Plaisted would be elected by 4,000 plurality and at least two of the four Democratic candidates for congress.

LAWRENCE O. MURRAY.

Comptroller of Currency Has a Blacklist of Bad Financiers.

Washington, Sept. 13.—The National Association of Supervisors of State Banks has begun a three days' convention here. The examiners gathered at the treasury department and were addressed by Lawrence O. Murray, comptroller of the currency.

Mr. Murray proposed to the state supervisors a working co-operation with the national bank examiners. He declared he had in his office a list of men who as officers of national banks had proved incompetent and had been removed from office and said that if any of them should make application to organize state banks their names would be furnished to the state banking authorities. In turn he proposed that the state supervisors should furnish to the national system the names of men who had been driven out of the state banks.

During the last eighteen months, the comptroller said, he had refused 168 applications to form national banks because the men behind them had been found incompetent or dishonest, that there was not enough business to make the proposed institutions profitable or that the applicants were men without standing within their communities.

Weak banks and failures, said Mr. Murray, almost always come from banks which should never have been chartered. The practice of concealing liabilities was growing fast, he said, and he described a system which he believed was quite general and which he intended to investigate.

FAILS IN 14 SUICIDE ATTEMPTS

Widow Attributes Her Unhappiness to Disappointment in Love.

New Orleans, Sept. 13.—Mrs. Caroline Simms, whose many attempts at self destruction in the last two years have gained for her the title of "Suicide Queen," made another effort to kill herself in her Villere street home. She took a dose of sugar of lead, but the Charity hospital ambulance surgeons pumped it out in time to save her life.

Her friends assert that this is her fourteenth attempt at suicide, but only seven such instances are on record in the police department. Mrs. Simms has never tried the same method twice. Mrs. Simms, who is a young widow, attributes her unhappiness to disappointment in love.

PASTOR STIRS UP THE ELKS.

Says He Heard Women Were Taken From Their Newburg Home in Cabs.

Newburg, N. Y., Sept. 13.—The Rev. Frank P. Stoddard of the Moulton Memorial church has occasioned a great stir in Elkdom by the announcement from his pulpit on Sunday night that he had been informed that during the week men and women had been taken from the cafe of the Elks' home on Liberty street in a condition of intoxication requiring them to be removed to their homes in cabs.

The minister who has thus stirred up things is the one who declined to have his vocal soloist and precentor, Miss Seeger, continue her duties because she had given a card party at her home with prizes to the winners.

PROSECUTOR KIDNAPED.

County Official Taken From Sanitarium by Unknown Men.

Columbus, O., Sept. 13.—County Prosecutor Philip Smythe of Newark, who has been in a sanitarium for some time, has been kidnaped by unknown men in an automobile.

They asked for Smythe and Dr. McMillan consented to allow Smythe to see them. Two attendants, who followed Smythe when he went to see the men, were intimidated by the kidnapers with revolvers.

INDICT "BIG FOUR"

Grand Jury Returns Bills Against Wealthy Packers.

ACCUSED OF FORMING TRUST.

Inquiry Into Chicago Beef Concerns Results in Action Which, if Followed by Conviction, Will Prove Serious to Accused Men.

Chicago, Sept. 13.—All of the members of the "Big Four" in the Chicago beef trust have been indicted by a federal grand jury, charged with being in a combination in restraint of trade in violation of the Sherman antitrust law.

In addition, named in the true bills were Arthur Meeker of Armour & Co., Charles Swift and several other men of lesser light in the beef combination.

The corporations named in the recent true bill which was found faulty by Judge Landis were not named. The grand jury had followed out the instructions of Judge Landis and indicted the men instead of the corporations.

The "Big Four" men indicted are as follows:

J. Ogden Armour, president of Armour & Co. and director of the National Packing company, declared to be the clearing house for the trust.

Edward Morris, president of Morris & Co. and a director of the National Packing company.

Louis F. Swift, president of Swift & Co. and director of the National Packing company.

Edward Tilden, former president of the board of education and president of the National Packing company.

Of the others indicted Arthur Meeker is general manager for Armour & Co. and director of the National Packing company, and Charles E. Swift, director for Armour & Co. and director of the National Packing company.

Under section 2 of the Sherman antitrust law those convicted under this indictment may be sent to prison for one year, fined $5,000, or both, in the discretion of the court.

The first indictment against the ten packers charges that they for the last ten years and continuously for the past three years have engaged in a combination in restraint of interstate trade in fresh meats, which has for its object the elimination of competition between the Swift, Armour and Morris groups of packers in the purchase of live cattle, sheep and hogs and in the sale throughout the United States of fresh meats.

The second indictment is practically the same as the first, except that it charges the defendants with engaging in a conspiracy instead of in a combination in restraint of trade.

The receipts for the Chicago postoffice for August were $1,666,484 and those of the New York office $1,610,785.

STILL NO QUORUM

Pinchot-Ballinger Minority Avoids Chicago Meeting.

NO ACTION PROBABLE TODAY.

Opponents of Secretary of Interior Not in Evidence For Conference Announced by Chairman Nelson.

Chicago, Sept. 13.—Chicago is today the scene of half of the Pinchot-Ballinger controversy, Minneapolis, to all appearances, remains the scene of the other half, although there is a probability that by this time the other half has been divided into smaller portions.

The Democratic members of the committee and Congressman E. H. Madison of Kansas, who declared that they would not follow Senator Kaute Nelson, chairman of the committee, to Chicago, have apparently kept their word.

When Senator Nelson adjourned the Minneapolis meeting, while the minority was trying to force through the resolutions condemning Secretary Ballinger, he announced that the committee would meet here today.

So far as can at present be learned, the lack of a quorum, which prevented action in Minneapolis, will also prevent anything being done here.

"I see no likelihood for a quorum here," said Senator Sutherland of Utah. "We have not discussed our findings yet. I suppose we will have a conference and determine what we shall do. The action of the five members at Minneapolis still leaves us a quorum of seven members of the committee, and it is probable that we will ultimately have a meeting of the seven."

The Era of New Mixed Paints!

This year opens with a deluge of new mixed paints. A condition brought about by our enterprising dealers to get some kind of a mixed paint that would supplant CHILTON'S MIXED PAINTS. Their compounds, being new and heavily advertised, may find a sale with the unwary.

THE ONLY PLACE IN HONESDALE AUTHORIZED TO HANDLE

Is JADWIN'S PHARMACY.

There are reasons for the pre-minance of CHILTON PAINTS: 1st—No one can mix a better mixed paint. 2d—The painters declare that it works easily and has wonderful covering qualities.

3d—Chilton stands back of it, and will agree to repaint, at his own expense, every surface painted with Chilton Paint that proves defective. 4th—Those who have used it are perfectly satisfied with it and recommend its use to others.

Tortured by Piles!

Probably no one disease causes so much pain and suffering as piles or hemorrhoids. The victims are often in agony. Each attack seems worse and more stubborn. Work or business is impossible. The nerves are racked, the system debilitated by loss of blood and the end is an operation.

Piles are the penalty of neglect. The one chief cause of this trouble is constipation. When the bowels are clogged the trouble begins. These sensitive, painful tumors are the result. If you are afflicted with piles begin with Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills at once, and get a full free passage of the bowels without pain or griping. Take two of these wonderful little pills at night and two more the next morning. Then take one or two pills every night at bedtime for a few days. You will find that Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills will cleanse the entire system, purify the blood, invigorate the liver and so regulate your bowels that piles will disappear.
