The adjourned annual meeting of the Presbyterian church, Bethany, will be held Wednesday, Dec. 7, at 2 p. m. The ladies of the church will serve dinner in the church parlors. Important business will come before the meeting.

Officers in many of the local social and fraternal organizations will be elected during December and January. THE CITIZEN will appreciate it very highly if secretaries will telephone or mail promptly to this office a list of the new incumbents.

The Anti-Saloon League Committee of the county are requested to meet in the Presbyterian church chapel, Honesdale, Friday, December 9, at 2 p. m. Rev. C. H. Brandt, of Wilkes-Barre, will be in attendance and will elaborate new lines of work. By order of Rev. J. B. Cody, chairman.

"De Gang" will hold their annual banquet at the home of Nelson Lambert on Tuesday, Dec. 27, and on Thursday, Dec. 29, their annual dance will be held in Lyric Hall which promises to be one of the social events of the holiday season. The club is composed of eighteen of the Maple City's popular brunettes who are royal entertainers.

J. H. Compton, aged ninety years, formerly a resident of Hawley, died Monday night at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. T. A. Punn, of East Drinker street, Dunmore. He is survived by two sons, Jacob Compton, of Endicott, N. Y., and J. W. Compton, of Hawley. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at Hawley. Interment in Walnut cemetery.

J. W. Hause, Jr., Dreher, and George Robacker, Sterling, are attending State College, where they are taking the winter or twelve weeks' course in butter and cheese-making. While they are but boys they want to know what is going on in Wayne county, and in order to avoid feeling lonesome in a strange town, they subscribe to the people's favorite paper, THE CITIZEN. THE CITIZEN wishes them all success in their stay at State College, Pa.

If a hungry man could eat newspapers you would not burn them, throw them away, or give them to the junk man. You would save every one for the Salvation Army which feeds and finds work for those who are in need. Please remember this and save your old newspapers, magazines, books, rags and clothing for the Salvation Army Industrial Home, 437 Franklin Avenue, Scranton, Pa. Would you prefer to hear the music of the organ, or the wail of the hungry? Think! Remember every little bit helps! The wagon marked Salvation Army Industrial Home will be in Honesdale, Tuesday, December 13

The Tigers basket ball team will hold a dance in Lyric Hall on Friday evening.

BERMUDA TOURS

Issue until January 23rd, after which time there will be no restrictions as to the number of votes that the candidates may cast each day. The above applies to newspaper ballots and subscription vote coupons. The CITIZEN reserves the right to discontinue printing the coupons at any time during the contest, and to raise the voting limit or remove same altogether at any time.

Open Evenings.

For the accommodation of those who wish to enter the contest or to gain information respecting it, and who cannot call during the day, the Contest Department will be kept open at night. If you are unable to call at any time, write or phone the contest manager and a representative will call and give you the desired information.

If you are interested, call and see him and get acquainted or telephone.

The results of the contest will be printed in each issue of THE CITIZEN. Votes that are sent in up to six o'clock Monday evening will be printed in Wednesday's paper, while votes sent in up to six o'clock Wednesday evening, will be printed in Friday's paper.

Subscription ballots or coupons clipped from the papers, which have to be voted at a certain time, will be counted if same are mailed from nearest postoffice before time of expiration. This is done to give those candidates living outside of Honesdale the same advantage as those residing here.

Candidates who handed in votes above the amount of 3,000, over the leader in their district, will be given credit for same in next issue.

The first subscription sent in by each candidate up to the present time will count on this offer.
