Why Not Organize Automobile As- sociation? Why not organize an automobile association in Honesdale? There are enough enthusiastic owners of machines in this place to form a so- ciety. The matter of good roads in Wayne county ought to appeal to the pleasure seeker, especially if he is compelled to ride over the stony, humpy-dumpy country roads in this section, to say nothing of the unhidden thank-you-marks. If Honesdale or Wayne county had an Automobile association we would have better roads. This is an im- portant item. It is criminal to pay as much as has been paid for good roads and then have to put up with what we have in many places in Wayne county. Texas township being an exception. In unity there is strength. Organizations of this kind are maintained in other towns and there is no reason why Wayne coun- ty should not be represented. The cobble stone, which is one of the evils of the road, has been racked off, placed in the gutter and put back upon the road year after year until it has become round with wear. An automobile association could overcome this in a measure by quoting the law to the pathmasters of the different townships on lose stones lying in the road.

Markham Poem Read at Dickens Dinner. New York, Feb. 8.—The one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Charles Dickens was celebrated on Tuesday night with a ban- quet at which more than 500 per- sons, prominent in the literary, pro- fessional and social life of New York, were present. Former Mayor Seth Low presided and addresses were made by Kate Douglas Wiggin, F. Honkinson Smith, Agnes Repplier, William Bayard Hale and others, the life and works of the author and his influence upon present day ideals being portrayed in eulogistic terms. A poem by Edwin Markham, written especially for the occasion, was read, two lines of which echoed the sentiments of the later speakers: "You raised for human rights a word-wide cry, That still is sounding on from sky to sky." The poem that made Markham famous will appear next week.

BASKET BALL. In the most exciting game ever seen on the Seelyville floor, the "Rink Five" defeated the last year's cham- pions on Tuesday night last. This being the sixth game of the series, and Honesdale having won three pre- vious to this one, the champions are now ex-champs. The Rink Five led all the way, the first half ending 7 to 6 in their favor and at one time about 5 minutes before the end of the game the score stood 17 to 11 in their favor, when they let up just a little and Seelyville quickly made three baskets, and tied the score just as the whistle blew; an extra period of five minutes was played to decide the tie, and Seelyville made one foul shot and Honesdale one basket. Final score: 18 to 19. Lineup: Seelyville. Rink Five. Thayer, Markle F. W. Polt, O'Connell R. Benny, C. Sherry F. Benny, Sonn, G. Bader, Mangan J. Polt Baskets: Seelyville—Markle 2, Thayer 2, R. Benny 1, Sonn 1, Benny 6. The fight for the basket ball cham- pionship of Wayne county has a new contender, who is to be feared, in the Alerts, of East Honesdale. Seelyville now being out of the race, and White Mills not showing up as well as either the Rink Five or the Alerts, the series between these two teams will be watched with interest as they seem to be very evenly matched. The first game of the series will be played at Alert Hall Fri- day, Feb. 16. The fifth game of the series be- tween White Mills and Honesdale will be played at the Rink Monday next. Each team has won two games and a large crowd is expected from White Mills.

Agreement Between Alert and Rink Five Basket Ball Teams Made Feb. 5, 1912. We, the respective managers of the Rink Five and Alert Basket Ball teams, do hereby agree to play a series of five games, the first game of said series to be played at Alert Hall Friday night, Feb. 16, the second game at Rink Tuesday night, Feb. 20, third at Alert Hall Feb. 23, fourth at Rink Tuesday, Feb. 27. The fifth game, if necessary, to be played on a neutral floor, the new Armory preferred, provided suitable arrangements can be made with the governors of said Armory. The referee for each and every game to be a neutral one, and have absolute authority to disqualify a player or players, according to Reach National Basket Ball rules, or for any ungentlemanly conduct. He shall be instructed to keep the game as clean and free from roughness as possible. Signed, ED SHORT, Mgr. Alerts. E. H. CORTRIGHT (per Leon Ross) Mgr. Rink Five.
