

FOR SALE.

SHINGLE MILL FOR SALE—AT ARIEL. Apply to G. W. Tisdell, Ariel, Pa. 4113

WHEN YOU THINK SEWING MACHINE, think of McIntyre. He will furnish you any priced machine. 42e12

S. C. BUFF ORPINGTON EGGS. Blooded stock. $1.00 setting of 15. F. B. Lord, Honesdale, Pa. 24elt

A STYVESANT AND LARRABEE buckboard for sale cheap. W. J. McIntyre, No. 1216 Main street. 3913.

A NEW SPECIAL PIANO POLISH. Will not harm the varnish; 25c and 50c. F. A. Jenkins' Music House. 41W2

A CHANCE OF A LIFE TIME. Slightly soiled piano very cheap. McIntyre, the piano man. 42e12

FOR SALE—WELL EQUIPPED machine shop and garage located on Industrial Point, Honesdale. Business established 20 years. Best known glass cutters' supply concern in the United States. Edward G. Jenkins, Honesdale, Pa. 42tf.

MISCELLANEOUS.

TWO OR THREE GIRLS WANTED at box factory at once. 374f.

A SPECIAL PRICE ON TWO USED Singer Sewing Machines. Have been rented. Call and see these. sure. 42e12

50 MEN AND BOYS WANTED TO learn glass cutting. Krantz, Smith Co., Honesdale, Pa. 23eltf

FIRST-CLASS FARM HAND WANTED—Old Gumpert farm, cross road to Genungtown. Kuhnhardt, White Mills, Postoffice box 55. 4013

SEE MCINTYRE'S SPECIAL BARGAINS in Sewing Machines and pianos. You will be glad he advertised. 42e12

WANTED—A GOOD LIVE AGENT, lady or gentleman, to sell our pianos in Honesdale and vicinity, on the "factory to buyer" plan. Good money proposition; for particulars address B. W. Phillips, 211ps, Traders National Bank Building, Scranton, Pa. 42e13t.

LOCAL NEWS

Benches were placed in the different parks on Tuesday by the Improvement Association.

While engaged in the performance of her household duties, Mrs. W. T. Butler fell in her home on Wednesday and sprained her ankle.

The 1912 graduating class of the Honesdale High school, 37 in number, and faculty, had their pictures taken at Bodie's Wednesday afternoon.

Rev. W. H. Swift, D. D., united in marriage Miss Mabel Rice and George Wittig, both of South Canaan, Wednesday morning, at the Presbyterian manse.

Chester A. Garratt, Esq., delivered the Memorial address in the M. E. church, Damascus, on Thursday. There was a large attendance. In the afternoon a base ball game and marathon races furnished amusement for the people.

Frank A. Jenkins took the boys' orchestra to Damascus in his automobile Memorial Day afternoon, where the boys played at the High school graduation exercises Thursday evening. They will also furnish music on Friday evening, expecting to return home on Saturday.

Tim Hurst, cousin of Father J. J. O'Toole, of this place, is very low at Rockway Park, suffering a relapse after a severe attack of pleura pneumonia. Hurst was a former baseball expert. He visited Honesdale only a few months ago at which time he made several friends who sincerely hope he will recover from his illness.

The Alert Hook and Ladder company, despite the inclement weather, entertained a large number of people at their annual picnic at Bellevue Park Memorial Day. Sonner's orchestra furnished music for dancing. The gross receipts amounted to $150. The large auto bus conveyed people to and from the picnic grounds and made a great drawing card.

Another delightful recital given by the pupils of Miss Mabel Broad, was held at the home of Mrs. Henry R. Shirley, North Main street, on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. The following pupils took part in the recital: Eda Krantz, Elizabeth Penwarden, Teresa Barber, Florence Morrison, Charlotte Truax, Goldie Abrams, Carmel Smith, Laura Honey, Thelma Markey, Florence Taylor, Edna Baker, William Ward, Alfred Ward, Jeannette Reif, Irma Diener, Marion Connolly, Maud Daley, Natalie Richards, Violet Bryant, Mildred Ward, Emily Holland, Dorothy Reichecker, Elizabeth Kimble, Bertha Keltz and Mary Rixton.

The engagement of Angus M. Lawyer, formerly of Honesdale, now residing in New York, and Miss Frances A. Wooten, also of New York, was announced on Tuesday evening at a party given in their honor at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Lawyer, of Thirteenth street. Angus is a fine fellow and has a good position in the Custom House in New York City with good prospects of advancement. Both these young people are to be congratulated. Progressive Five Hundred was the entertainment of the evening. Jos. Bodie and Amy Cory won the prizes. Those present were: Helen Jacobs, Letitia Green, Helen Charlesworth, Alma Schuller, Lucile Rowland, Ethel Lee, Gladys Weaver, Estella Condon, Amy Cory, Frances Wooten, Ruth Lord, Marie Ward, Helen Ward, Edna Katz, Bessie Lawyer, George Rippe, Joseph Bodie, Frank Jenkins, Frank Pralley, Weston Parker, Clarence Green, Harold Rowland, Walter Weaver, Ed. Katz, Richard Bracey, Leon Ross and Angus Lawyer.

Pleasant Valley Grange will meet Friday evening, June 7, at Dyberry.

Central Methodist Episcopal church will soon undergo a thorough renovation. Among the improvements will be the refrescoing of that edifice.

The Erie railroad is carrying hundreds of foreigners to western homes at the present time, says a recent issue of the Susquehanna Transcript. The other day three trains of immigrants of ten cars each passed through that city. All the passengers had recently arrived from foreign parts and were seeking new homes on the western farm lands.

A stranger visited Honesdale on Saturday last, waited upon the president of the Board of Trade and modestly (?) asked for $150 that he might start a broom factory in Honesdale. It was not quite time for the visitor to make a "clean sweep" of the town so the stranger left Honesdale minus his desired amount and undoubtedly had a different feeling about the town than before he entered.

Miss Blanche H. Pearce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Pearce, of this place, has completed the public school music supervision course at Combs conservatory of music, Philadelphia, and will return home in a few days. Miss Pearce was presented with a supervision certificate and is now qualified to teach same in any school. The commencement exercises were held last Tuesday evening.

The National Federation of Retail Merchants is spreading like a mustard seed. State federations are forming through the Mississippi valley, and elsewhere. The general object is to promote the mutual interests of retail merchants. The specific purposes are to fight the catalog houses and the parcel post. Iowa alone has 100,000 retail merchants, and it is hoped to bring most of them into the organization.

Work on the proposed coal mine at Lakewood was commenced on Wednesday and an engineer, who had arrived there on Monday, started drilling in an effort to locate coal in paying quantities. If a profitable vein is found work will start immediately and it is predicted that the little village of Lakewood will take quite a jump on the map. About $900 has been raised by interested parties in that locality for the drilling.

Last year there were in Pennsylvania 24 districts, represented by 149 schools, in which the minimum school term of 7 months could not be maintained by levying the maximum amount of tax under the old law. Many of these schools are in mountainous regions where there are few people and where the value of property is very low. The State Board of Education will ask the next Legislature to give consideration to the question of providing proper facilities for these unfortunately situated districts.

The handicap golf tournament given on the Honesdale Golf Links Memorial Day resulted as follows: First prize, golf balls, N. F. Lord, Charles H. Eypner, H. S. Salmon, George Hayward, F. S. Merritt. Ladies, golf balls, first prize won by Miss Edith K. Swift, Mrs. Rebecca T. Fuller, Miss Mollie Menner. An excellent supper was served to eighty members and friends. Those in charge were: Mrs. Carl Prosch, Mrs. H. A. Oday, Mrs. Rebecca Fuller, Miss Florence Brown, Miss Dorothy Menner.

Miss Lois Tiffany, daughter of Emery Tiffany, of Pleasant Mount, and young lady friend, figured Wednesday in a thrilling runaway. The horse and wagon belonged to Mr. Tiffany and while descending the west side of Belmont hill the hold-back broke. This frightened the horse and it ran furiously down the steep hill, crossing the Ontario and Western Railroad tracks to Herrick Centre, stopping of its own accord at the postoffice in that village. Mr. Tiffany's friend was thrown from the wagon and quite badly bruised. Miss Tiffany, however, pulled hard on the reins and managed to keep the horse in the road. Fortunately there was no train near the O. & W. tracks when Miss Tiffany's runaway horse crossed them. She was uninjured. The wagon was almost a wreck. Miss Tiffany remained in the buggy during this wild runaway.

The quinquennial celebration of the graduates of the Pleasant Mount Academy and High school of that village was largely attended on Tuesday evening of this week in the Odd Fellows' hall at that place. A business meeting preceded the banquet and it was presided over by J. E. Tiffany. Election of officers resulted as follows: J. E. Tiffany, president; N. J. Spencer, vice-president; Miss Bessie Moase, secretary; Miss Loretta Hiller, treasurer. Dr. Niles of Carbondale was toastmaster of the banquet. Rev. McGarvey offered prayer. Toasts were given by Hon. J. B. Brannan, Rev. James Pope, Rev. Hunter, Principal Dietrich, N. E. Bigelow; Dr. Walter and Scott Spencer, Carbondale; Dr. S. Y. Kennedy, of Gloversville, N. Y.; Mrs. W. E. Perham, Niagara; Mrs. A. J. G. Dix, N. J. Spencer, Honesdale; Prof. J. H. Kennedy. Firth's orchestra furnished music.

Thomas F. Gallagher has been appointed local division superintendent of the Consolidated Telephone Company, being transferred from Pittston to this place. Honesdale has been under Carbondale's supervision for several years, but is now separate and entirely independent of that city's management. Mr. Gallagher has been placed in full charge of the Honesdale division and entered upon his duties Wednesday. We know of no person better qualified for this situation and Mr. Gallagher's experience in this line of work places him in a position where he can and will demonstrate to the management of the Consolidated Telephone company that he is the right man in the right place. Mr. Gallagher's friends place all confidence in him and that he will build up the Honesdale division in almost a foregone conclusion. The Citizen extends heartiest congratulations to Mr. Gallagher and wishes him merited success in his new avocation.

Wilbur Wright, the aviator, died at his home in Dayton, Ohio, Memorial Day, of typhoid fever.

The Hawley High school board has elected Prof. E. L. Blakeslee, of Montrose, principal of their school. He will receive $1,200 per year.

The Amity Club and the management of the Lyric entertained the cast of the Amity Minstrels, their friends and club members at a dance in Lyric hall on Wednesday evening.

Ralph M. Spencer, who for the past three years represented a tobaccoist in Binghamton, has changed his position and is now representing a whip firm in the New England states. His territory includes Western Pennsylvania and adjoining counties in New York state.

Miss Pearl Bryant, of Mt. Upton, N. Y., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bryant, of Sixteenth street, who has been teaching at that place, has been elected second vice principal of the Hawley High school at a salary of $65 per month. Miss Anna Spencer of Pleasant Mount, has been engaged as fourth grade teacher.

Clarence M. Bond was arrested on Wednesday by P. H. Hoff on a charge of assault and battery. Owing to the non-appearance of Attorney Hoff at the appointed hour, Justice R. A. Smith postponed the hearing until Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Bond was placed under bail of $100, which was furnished by W. W. Wood.

The chemistry class of the Honesdale High school visited Dorflinger's cut glass establishment on Tuesday where the process of glass manufacture was explained from start to the finished product. The management showed the class patterns of the ware cut and furnished by the Dorflinger factory for the White House, Washington, D. C., where the originals are now in use. Sets were cut for Presidents Lincoln, Harrison and Roosevelt. Dorflingers are now furnishing a large order of cut glass to equip the United States floating men of war.

Col. J. Ham Lewis, Chicago's Ciceronian orator, should look to his laurels. Solicitor Robert R. Reynolds of Asheville is his golden-mouthed rival. The eloquent North Carolinian recently attended a Modern Woodmen gathering in the southern city, and concluded his address by remarking: "Somehow or other there is nothing which lends to me so much inspiration as the presence of the ladies. In my opinion, God's warm sunshine does not kiss a single flower which to me is half so sweet and pure as virtuous and lovely womanhood."

SPORTING NOTES.

The opening base ball game of the season was played at the local grounds on Decoration Day morning with Taylor and the home team was defeated in a seven-inning rally by a score of 10 to 2. The game was devoid of interest and the playing was half hearted, at least on the part of the home boys. Schilling was in the box for Honesdale and did some good work.

The score totals were as follows: AB. R. H. A. E. Honesdale 26 2 5 7 7 Taylor 30 10 7 4 4

In the afternoon game with Hessling in the box there was some real playing done and the game early developed into a tug for supremacy. Hessling pitched a fine game and was well supported. Farrell for Taylor struck out 11 men, but the local lads soon found him for some good hits and defeated them by a score of 5 to 3.

The score totals: AB. R. H. A. E. Honesdale 35 5 10 2 5 Taylor 34 3 5 9 3

Nicholas Stegner was a New York passenger on Thursday. Mrs. G. P. Sommers was a Carbondale visitor on Thursday. H. R. Sprooks of Scranton motored to Honesdale on Memorial Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ammerman of Carbondale spent Thursday here. Miss Myrtle Shaffer spent Memorial Day at her home in Peckville. Mrs. William Quinney, of Hawley, was a caller in town Tuesday.

Attorney C. P. Searle was a professional caller in Scranton on Wednesday. Mrs. Valcon of Carbondale spent Thursday the guest of Mrs. Brown on High street.

Mrs. S. S. Hager, of Gouldsboro, is visiting her son, Dr. A. E. Hager of Taylor, Pa. Benjamin Gardner and sister, Mrs. Gilmore, of Factoryville, are spending a few days with friends in town.

Mrs. James Lindsay returned home on Thursday evening from Carbondale, where she had spent several days with friends. Miss Amy E. Clark, of Piazza, N. Y., is spending a few days with her parents, Hon. and Mrs. P. A. Clark, on Dyberry Place.

Michael Sledge has resigned his position at Sonner's shoe repairing shop. He is now employed by Messrs. Marsh & Fish.

Mrs. Hattie Garrison, of Orange, N. J., was called ebre owing to the illness of her brother, William Wood, who died on Wednesday.

Chas. H. Rettew and wife, Mrs. Ferber and Miss Clara Rief, of Honesdale, spent Sunday here, making the trip by auto in the former's car.—Callicoon Democrat.

Mrs. John Gall and daughter of Binghamton, who have been visiting friends here, departed for Lake Winola on Thursday to visit before returning home. They made the trip in their auto.

Frank Donovan, of Egypt, Mt. Pleasant township, received severe lacerations of the skull in Carbondale the first of the week by falling off a street car in Carbondale. He was removed to Emergency hospital and is now recovering.

OLDEST PENSIONER 111 YEARS

Participated in Honesdale's Memorial Day Exercises—Was in Sheridan's Cavalry.

Micajah Wise, of Beaver Brook, Sullivan county, N. Y., aged 111 years, was one of the distinguished guests of Captain James Ham Post, 193, G. A. R., on Memorial Day. Mr. Wise is said to be the oldest pensioner in the United States.

Wise was a member of "Fighting Phil" Sheridan's cavalry. He took part in the campaign in the Shenandoah Valley which resulted in the destruction of Early's army.

Although his shoulders are burdened by several years, Mr. Wise is by no means an invalid. He walks with an alacrity of men two score years his junior and is indeed a "grand old man." Mr. Wise was a welcome visitor in Honesdale.

Church Notes

Presbyterian. Services next Sunday, June 2. In the morning, the pastor, Rev. Dr. Swift, will speak on "God—Our Home." At the 5 o'clock service in the afternoon, Rev. Dr. W. Balta, of St. Mary Magdalen's church, will speak.

The church is always comfortable and attractive at that hour. The invitation is general. Come.

Baptist. There will be no preaching services in the Baptist church on Sunday, June 2, owing to the absence of the pastor, Rev. G. S. Wendell, who is in attendance at the commencement anniversary of Crozer Theological Seminary, at Chester. Sunday school service as usual at 11:45.

Owing to the absence of the pastor there will be no services at the Berlin Baptist church on Sunday. Services as usual June 16.

Methodist. Rev. Will H. Hiller, pastor. Preaching services at 10:30 and 7:30. Other services during the day as usual.

St. John's Roman Catholic. Rev. Father O'Toole will say his first mass at the home of Patrick Coggins, Clinton, on Sunday.

Rev. John O'Toole, pastor; Rev. Edward Burke, assistant. Masses Sunday morning 8:30 and 10:30; Benediction 7:30 p. m. Vespers 3 p. m., first Sunday of each month.

St. Mary Magdalen's German Catholic. Rev. Dr. J. W. Balta, pastor. Sunday masses 8:30 and 10:30 a. m.; benediction 7:30 p. m.

Episcopal Church. The Right Reverend Ethelbert Talbot, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Bethlehem, will preach at Grace Episcopal church next Sunday, Trinity Sunday, June 2, at both the morning and the evening services.

The services will be as follows: 10:30 a. m., Holy Communion and Sermon; 7:30 p. m., Evening Prayer, Confirmation and Sermon; Sunday school at 12 M. All are cordially invited to all these services.

The new church at Indian Orchard will be consecrated by Bishop Talbot under the name of Christ church, on Monday, June 3, at 7:30 p. m. The Bishop will preach and hold a confirmation service. An invitation is extended to all to be present.

There will be service in St. John's church, Hamlin, Trinity Sunday, June 2, 10:30 a. m. and Young People's service at 7:45 p. m. Sunday school will be held at 9:30 a. m. A cordial invitation is extended to all to be present.

NEWFOUNDLAND.

Dr. Gilpin Dies at His Daughter's in Westfield, N. J.—Geo. Bartleson and Nipert Panther Pined Under Falling Barn—John Scholler Injured in Runaway.

The many friends of Dr. Gilpin of this place received the sad news of his death, Wednesday, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Dorie Harvey, at Westfield, N. J., where he was taken about two weeks ago for medical treatment.

While tearing down an old barn on the George Bartleson place Nipert Panther and George Bartleson came near being killed by some timber falling on them which it took five men to remove. They were injured badly but not serious.

John Scholler's horse ran away throwing him off a stone boat, breaking three ribs and otherwise bruising him.

F. L. Giehrer was a business caller in Forest City Wednesday.

Accurately Compounded Prescriptions Our Specialty

The creditors of the KEYSTONE Pharmacy

have secured the services of Buel Dodge, who is backed with 37 years of experience as a pharmacist, to conduct their drug store recently purchased of P. L. Cole. Bring your Prescriptions to this store. You'll receive pure, fresh drugs accurately compounded. That's the way we help the doctor to help you.

KEYSTONE PHARMACY 1123 Main St.

WORDS FOR THE SPELLING CONTEST OF THE Wayne County Schools.

LESSON XLII. lawyer, levy, mystery, morgue, medicine, Mediterranean, muscle, neighbor, oriole, oasis, pigeon, period, pennant, photograph, punctuate, premium, refrigerator, recipe, razor, region, raiment, slesia, secede, salmon.

Death of Mrs. Weir. Mrs. Patrick Weir, mother of Mail-carrier Patrick Weir, died this morning at 8 o'clock. The funeral will be held Monday morning at St. John's church.

Death of Warren Woodmansee. Warren Woodmansee died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Woodmansee, near Lake Como, on Tuesday afternoon, after an illness of some time. He was 21 years of age. Warren was a popular and well known young man and was possessed of many sterling qualities which went to make up a fine personality. His untimely death will be mourned by a large circle of friends. He is survived by his parents, one sister, and his young wife, and babe only a few weeks old. The funeral services were held on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bail of Susquehanna, was a Memorial Day visitor of relatives in Honesdale.

The Ideal Guardian of the estates of your minor children. It has the very best facilities for the profitable and wise investment and reinvestment of the principal and accrued income -The Scranton Trust Co. 516 Spruce Street.

Runabouts, Top Buggies, Surreys Buckboards, Spring Wagons, Carryalls, Carts, Lumber Wagons, Stone Wagons and Farm Trucks. We have the VARIETY over 100 styles and sizes. We have the QUALITY that's what makes our business grow. We have the STYLE—our wagons look right. We have the PRICE, a little less than you expected to pay.

Come and look us over MURRAY CO. Everything for the farm. Honesdale, Pa.

The FARMERS and MECHANICS BANK HONESDALE, PA. M. E. SIMONS, President. C. A. EMERY, Cashier. CAPITAL STOCK $75,000.00 Corner of Main & 10th street BANK WITH THE PEOPLE Watch US Grow Reasons Why! It represents more stockholders than any other bank in Wayne county. ITS DEPOSITS HAVE REACHED OVER THE $300,000.00 mark and is steadily growing with the people's confidence and the bank's progressive yet conservative methods. Its expense of management is limited to amount of business; together with its trust funds invested in bonds and first mortgages on improved real estate assures its depositors absolute security. It treats its hundreds of small depositors with the same courtesy as though their funds were deposited by one or more persons. This bank comes under the strict requirements of the State banking laws as all savings banks and is frequently visited by the Pennsylvania State bank examiner, besides having a board of directors consisting of sixteen of Wayne county's reliable business men and farmers. DIRECTORS: M. B. Allen, W. H. Fowler, John Weaver, George C. Abraham, W. B. Guinnip, G. Wm. Sell, J. Sam Brown, M. J. Hanlan, M. E. Simons, Oscar E. Bunnell, John E. Krantz, Fred Stephens, Wm. H. Dunn, Fred W. Kreitzer, George W. Tiedell, J. E. Tiffany.