

The Florentine Sextette

AT THE 1913 CHAUTAUQUA.

Probably no one feature of the Florentine Band Concerts this summer will be more warmly received than its Brass Sextette. They have received two and three encores as an almost nightly experience. Their rendering of Donizetti's "Lucia di Lammermoor" is almost the perfection of execution and never fails to enthrall their audiences. Signor Pontrelli, the leader, is himself the cornetist.

DOGS LEAD SEARCH FOR GIRL'S SLAYER

Fourteen-year-old Victim Attacked In Woods.

LEFT LIFELESS ON ROAD.

Find Girl's Body In a Clump of Bushes by Roadside Near Pittsburgh—Was Brutally Assaulted, Then Strangled to Death—Offer $1,000 Reward For Murderer's Arrest.

Pittsburgh, May 21.—Several members of the state constabulary, Trafford and Pitsaun police and a large number of volunteers were searching with bloodhounds for the man who brutally attacked fourteen-year-old Grace Johnson as she was on her way to school and left her lifeless body in a clump of bushes by the roadside.
The victim, a daughter of F. P. Johnson of Blackburn, left her home to walk to school at Trafford, two miles distant. When the girl did not return at the usual time it was at first thought she had stayed later for a rehearsal of a school entertainment. The father began a search, found no traces of her at Trafford, and soon the fire alarm was sounded, bringing hundreds to the search.

When the body was found physicians said the girl had been dead for several hours. Death was from strangulation after the girl had been brutally attacked. Bloodhounds arrived from Washington, Pa., but it is believed the assailant had twelve hours start.

The Westmoreland county commissioners offered a reward of $1,000 for the arrest of the murderer.

VARE BILL PASSED.

Measure to Keep 1,400 In Jobs Goes Through House.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 21.—The Vare bill, validating the appointment of approximately 1,400 policemen and firemen in Philadelphia, passed the house finally, 111 to 32. The "relief" measure now goes to the governor.

Samuel B. Scott, Philadelphia, opposed the Vare act. He asserted that the men the measure would confirm in their jobs were appointed by means of political jugglery near the close of Mayor Reyburn's administration. Mr. Scott declared that the firemen and policemen affected are not entitled to protection, owing their places to a letting down of the civil service bars.

Representative Roney, Philadelphia argued that "hundreds of men who have proved their efficiency by actual test ought not to be held responsible for technical mistakes or even irregularities on the part of the civil service board or of those in executive places."
Mr. Spelser and Mr. McAleer, Philadelphia, backed up Mr. Roney's support of the Vare measure.

SEASHORE HOTEL MEN ON TRIP

Leave Atlantic City In Automobiles and Will Visit New York.

Stroudsburg, Pa., May 21.—About forty members of the Atlantic City Hotel Men's association arrived in the Delaware Water Gap in automobiles for a two days' outing. They are guests of J. Purdy Cope, proprietor of the Water Gap House and last evening enjoyed a banquet.

They left Atlantic City and motored to Princeton, where they took luncheon. Today they will visit the Pocono mountains and dine at the Spruce Cabin Inn, returning to the Water Gap in the evening. Tomorrow morning early a start will be made for New York, and after spending a day in New York they will return to Atlantic City tomorrow night.

LOVERS BREAK RECORD.

Talk Over Long Distance Telephone For Fifty-eight Minutes.

South Bethlehem, Pa., May 21.—All records for long distance love making were broken here when Mary Smak, a pretty Hungarian girl, talked fifty-eight minutes over a telephone to her lover at Cleveland, O. The toll for the message amounted to $58.50. When she was informed of the amount Mary fainted. She claimed she spoke only four minutes and refused to pay.
Gottlieb Huebner, whose telephone was used, will be obliged to foot the bill.

"Busy!"

This little word has a mighty big significance, Mr. Merchant, when applied to your business. It savors of big sales, lots of work, increased profits.

But consider how its complexion changes when applied to your party-line telephone facilities. Do you really appreciate how necessary it is that your line shall not be reported "busy," that customers shall not be kept waiting, that your telephone door be wide open—always?

For the sake of your business, arrange for a Direct Line Bell Telephone to-day.
