The family of Thomas A. Crossley left on Thursday last for Farview Lake, where they expect to spend part of the summer.

Frederick H. Hilleker, of New York, and Lena Hedler Mingst, of Narrowsburg, N. Y., were married at the German Lutheran parsonage, July 3rd by Rev. C. C. Miller.

The members of Company E, 13th regiment, N. G. P., left on a special Delaware and Hudson train at 5:30 Saturday morning for Selinsgrove, where the boys in blue are in camp.

B. H. Dittrich announces that on Monday evening, July 14th, he has made arrangements to have a display of Edison's talking pictures. This will be the first of the kind to be exhibited in Honesdale.

The marriage of Miss Jeanette Baldwin and Mr. John G. Kiegler, both of Honesdale, was celebrated at six o'clock Friday morning in St. Mary Magdalen's church. Dr. J. W. Balta performed the ceremony.

The marriage of Miss Louise Meszler of Honesdale and Mr. Almore Wooster of Towanda, occurred in St. Mary Magdalen's church Monday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. J. W. Balta performed the ceremony.

Theodore Day was an early morning visitor in the Citizen office Monday morning. He stated that the mercury registered 84 degrees on Sunday and Monday morning he reversed the figures, making them 48, with a near frost.

The next attraction will be the Business Men's picnic at Lake Lodore July 23. The association is extensively advertising this event and weather permitting it, undoubtedly will be one of the largest gatherings of people from this and the other side of the Moosic mountain held in many years.

During the month of June just passed Prothonotary W. J. Barnes and deputy Miss Marcia Barnes, were kept busy issuing marriage licenses. Thirty-three were issued to prospective couples during the month which made a new record for Wayne county. During June of last year only twenty-two licenses were issued.

Three patrons of W. T. Heft, the veteran barber of Honesdale, happened to be in the former's shop at one time on Saturday. All three, Hon. James Bissell, Joseph Menner and Daniel Peil, have been continuous patrons of Mr. Heft for 51 years. This is a remarkable record and it is doubtful if it can be equalled in the State.

Appropriate services commemorating the Fourth and the laying of the cornerstone of the Central Methodist Episcopal church were observed in that edifice. Pastor Will H. Hiller delivered two patriotic sermons during the day. Special musical programs were rendered at both morning and evening services. The singing at the later service was unusually good.

The following young people left on Sunday morning for Elk Lake, where they will camp for two weeks in the Buckland cottage: Misses Helen Oakes, Hortense McKenna, Marie Bracey and Lillian Barberi. The following from Scranton are also included in the party: Misses Marguerite Barrett, Anastasia Kelley, Vera Tuman and Mabel Goddard. Miss Margaret Donnelly will join the campers next week. The party is chaperoned by Miss Mame Igo.

The remains of Mrs. Elizabeth Brown, who died at her late home in Hoboken, N. J., on Thursday last, arrived here over the Erie on Saturday afternoon and were taken to the cemetery where a short service was read at the grave by Rev. A. L. Whittaker of Grace Episcopal church. Mrs. Brown was formerly a resident of East Honesdale. The pall-bearers were: M. E. Simons, R. M. Stocker, J. Samuel Brown, William Brown, Joseph Brown and E. T. Brown.

The Fourth was celebrated at Mr. and Mrs. James Carefoot's with a gathering of relatives and friends. Those present were Mrs. Masher and Mrs. Utt, of Arlington, Mr. and Mrs. James Cook and children of Hoadleys, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Burleigh of Dunmore, who came over in the former's auto. When the Dunmoreans made the return trip they took along with them Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Cook and their two children, who spent Saturday in Dunmore and Scranton.

Probably the most unique of Fourth of July celebrations took place at Farview Friday when the inmates had a real day of celebrating from the patriotic addresses in the morning, the field day events and base ball game in the afternoon to the magnificent fireworks' display in the evening. The celebration was arranged by Dr. T. C. Fitzsimmons, superintendent of the hospital, and not an incident marred the pleasure of the unfortunate patients. One of the features of the day was the addresses made at the picnic grove by two of the inmates, B. Frank Smith of Fayette county, and Henry Becker of Philadelphia, were the inmates who made the addresses. Neither address was lacking in patriotism or lack of love for their country.

On Friday of this week between the hours of 7 a. m. and 7 p. m., the citizens of Honesdale will be privileged to vote for pave at a special election held at the court house. The improvement is a step along progressiveness. If you are a Progressive cast your ballot for pave.
