LOCAL LAONICS.

The Democratic primaries will probably be held on the 9th of July. Have you contributed to the Titusville and Oil City relief fund yet?

Mrs. Samuel Brillhart's friends gave her a surprise party Monday evening. Ladies and gentlemen's saddles for sale or hire at Ed. C. Burn's livery stable.

The experience of all live business men has been that it pays to advertise. This is the only town in the county that will have a celebration of any great extent.

The amount of seated tax for Jefferson county last year was $37,000, this year it will be $45,000.

A. M. Woodward will continue to run the drug store recently purchased by Alexander and Deible. Jack O'Brian had the index finger on his right hand smashed while coupling coal cars at Big Soldier Saturday.

Two runaways occurred this week by the carelessness of allowing spirited horses to stand without being tied. The East End Jems of Brookville challenge a good second nine of Reynoldsville or DuBois to play a game of ball.

The present lock-up is a beauty as it stands exposed to public view. It looks like a "bump on a log" on the large rink floor. Alex. Whitehill, the ball pitcher of this place, had one of his fingers broken last week while practicing on the ball ground.

There was no preaching in the M. E. church Sunday evening on account of the serious illness of Rev. Murray's little boy. Idle men are not to be found in Reynoldsville. A few lazy representatives of mankind can be found on the shady side of the streets.

The excursion to Lindsey Sunday took 150 Reynoldsville people to witness the dedication ceremonies. A number drove over in buggies. The B., R. & P. Ry will run a great "Moonlight Excursion" to Niagara Falls on Saturday evening, June 25th. The fare for round trip is only $2.50.

The members of the Epworth League, of the M. E. Church, held a "Pie Social" in the G. A. R. hall on Wednesday evening of last week. It was an enjoyable affair. The new paper and the application of the painter's brush has made a decided improvement on the interior of the post-office. A number of new boxes will be put in.

If the fellow who took the barometer away from in front of Wm. Copping's store in Prescottville, recently, returns the same he may save himself some trouble. This is commencement week at the Central State Normal school at Lock Haven. There are twelve pupils attending the school from this immediate vicinity.

Ninian Cooper assisted County Treasurer McWilliams on Thursday and Friday of last week at Hotel McConnell to receive the "filthy lucre" for state and county tax. The Driftwood Gazette enters upon its seventeenth volume this week. J. T. Earl, the editor, is a live young man, full of push, and gives Driftwood a good local paper.

The Republican primaries are over and all the candidates did not get the nominations for the respective offices they were after, as they were sanguine they would before the primaries.

The county convention of the Y. P. S. C. E. will be held in the Beechwood's Presbyterian church to-morrow. A number of the young people of this place will drive to the convention.

The Order United American Mechanics will hold an anniversary at Punxsutawney July 18th. Prizes will be given to Councils having the largest percentage of members in line in the parade, the first prize being a $50 silk flag.

Rev. Harvey Graeme Furbay's lecture on "Phosphorus and Water" at the Opera House Friday evening was an excellent one and was delivered in the Reverend's usual eloquent and pleasing style. The net receipts were about $28.

The DuBois band carried off first prize at the contest in Ridgway last week, and Prescottville came in for third prize. The Prescottville band could have easily secured the second prize if they had entered for it.

The Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association sold eighteen shares on Monday evening at the following premiums: Five shares at 20 per cent; two shares at 27; four at 24; two at 29; five at 31. Making an average of 26 1/2. Amount sold, $3,600.

The children's exercises in the Presbyterian, Lutheran and M. E. churches Sunday morning were well attended and the collections liberal. The programs prepared for the occasion were well rendered. The interior of the churches were decorated.

The band tournament at Ridgway last week enlivened that town considerably for several days. Gamblers and street fakies were numerous. The gamblers carried on their nefarious business unmolested. A town that allows such things gives unmistakable evidence of rottenness in municipal government.

The old rink has been entirely torn down. The Burgess first intended to pull down half of it and let the other half remain standing until the new structure was erected, but finally decided to remove the entire building while he was at it. The new lock-up will soon be in readiness to hold within its walls any who may be guilty of fracturing the law.

Two females who are inhabitants of "the flat" were before Esquire McGaw Thursday evening to get a dose of law on an assault and battery case. The one damsel had a sore head and a crippled finger that she received from the fist and teeth of her assailant. They were bound over to court, the defendant $100 bail and the plaintiff $50. The Justice should be vested with the power to dispose of such petty cases and keep them out of the courts.

About thirty-eight of Mrs. Pauline Kleinhaus' friends, with well filled baskets and numerous presents, invaded her home Monday forenoon while she was down town shopping, and took possession of things for a few hours. When Mrs. Kleinhaus got home and found the crowd she was so surprised (a real genuine surprise, not as usual in surprise parties, know all about it.) that she cried. It was Pauline's 24th anniversary. Dinner was served from the baskets prepared for the occasion and all present had a very pleasant time.

The Degree of Rebekah installed their officers Tuesday evening of last week. Past Grand Annie Winslow was the installing officer. The new officers are: N. G. Mrs. Herpel; V. G. Mrs. Schurig; Assistant Sec., Mrs. Warnick; Treas., Mrs. Winslow; Chaplain, Mrs. Bower; Past Grand, Mrs. Orr; Conductor, Mrs. Case; Warden, Mrs. Gross; Outside Guard, Mrs. Hoon; Inside Guard Past Grand, Mrs. Ferris; R. S. to N. G., James Orr; L. S., Mrs. Anderson; R. S. to V. G., Wm. Gross; L. S., Mrs. Simons. After the installation of officers refreshments were served.

On Saturday the important question of bonding the borough for school building purpose will come before the citizens of Reynoldsville for decision. Do you fully understand the import of the question? To bond the borough for a number of years means easy terms for the tax-payers and an opportunity for those who move into town hereafter to help pay the debt, while on the other hand not to bond the borough means a large increase in school tax. Don't vote thoughtlessly, but consider the matter carefully, especially if you have thought of voting against bonding. The new ballot system will be used.

Arrangements are almost completed for the big celebration at this place on the 4th of July. The Jr. O. U. A. M. have invited all their brother lodges to join in the parade. The invitation and advertising committee have issued invitations to all the various lodges of the county to participate. Races, parade, ball games, fire works, and other amusements will be on the program for the day's doings. The town will be profusely decorated. No efforts will be spared to make the affair a grand success. All the business houses have promised to be represented in the industrial parade. The fantastic parade will be looked after with care. This will, no doubt, be a gala day for Reynoldsville. All who want to have a good time will come here on Independence Day.

Two Ribs Broken. Al. White met with a mishap on Thursday last week that resulted in two broken ribs. He was loading logs at Big Soldier mine when one of the logs rolled upon him.

Plead Guilty. We mentioned last week that F. P. Adelsperger, the Humane Agent, had a girl in his charge whom the father had abused. The father, who resides at Rathmel, was arrested and brought before Esq. McGaw. He pleaded guilty, was fined, $10 and cost. An easy term of settlement for a man who is so abusive to his offspring.

Notice to Firemen and Citizens. During the building of the new public building and hose room the fire apparatus of Hose Co. No. 1 will be kept in the barn of H. S. Belnap, on Main street, next door to Tapper's livery stable. In case of fire a key to room can be procured from Harry Minceer, night policeman, H. S. Belnap or at Hotel McConnell any hour, day or night. F. J. BLACK, Foreman.

A Contemptible Thief. The M. E. Sunday school of this place has a birthday Missionary box that is used to receive birthday offerings for the heathens. The box is opened every year just before the Annual Conference time. It is an unique box, or house, and is opened in the bottom by a secret slide. Last Thursday night some person busted open the front doors of the church, unlocked the library and relieved the box of its contents, about $10. It was not done by an entire stranger, but by one who was acquainted with the surroundings.

Under a Stove. Richard Jennings' three year-old daughter Maud, had a narrow escape from serious injury last Thursday morning. She was playing about the room and in some way accidentally knocked a leg out from under the heating stove—which is a large one—and it toppled over on her. The little girl was not hurt much, only receiving a small cut on the back of the head from which the blood flowed freely. The mother was badly frightened when she saw her daughter under the stove and her little face covered with blood.

Drifting With the Tied. A ceremony was performed at 10:30 A. M., Tuesday, June 21st, at the home of the bride's mother, on Main street, that united a young man of Renovo and a lady of Reynoldsville in the bonds of matrimony. The contracting parties were William H. Snyder, baggage and Foreign ticket agent for the P. & E. R. R. at Renovo, Pa., and Miss Leilla Ayers, daughter of Mrs. J. B. Ayers, Rev. H. G. Furbay, pastor of the Presbyterian church, said the words that made them one. Only a few intimate friends witnessed the event. Dinner was served and the benedict and wife left on the one o'clock train for Renovo, where a reception was held for them in the evening. From there they will take a trip to New York, Washington, and other places. Renovo will be their abiding place.

Were Frightened Away. An attempt was made by burglars one night last week to gain an entrance into Dr. Alexander's residence on Grant street. About twelve o'clock "Tip," the little dog, made a big fuss and Mrs. Alexander went down stairs to make an investigation, she went out on the front porch to bring in a hammock and thought she heard some one. They have a large plate glass in the bay window facing J. B. Arnold's residence and it was there the thieves were trying to get in the house by removing a light of glass. They had cut the putty off of one side. The female appearance in a ghost-like attire was too much for their nerves and the scamps were frightened away. Mrs. Alexander wanted the doctor to go down stairs and get the hammock, but the man-of-the-house positively refused to do any such thing, and said, "If any person wants to steal, let them have it."

Saturday's Storm. A heavy storm visited this section Saturday afternoon. The wind blew fiercely, the lightning flashed vividly athwart the heavens and the rain descended in a torrent. No amount of damage was done here. Lightning struck a shade tree in front of A. E. Dunn's residence on Grant street. Mrs. J. G. Dunhiser, who lives near by, received quite a shock. Great excitement prevailed at the tannery for a few minutes, caused by a visitation of the electric elements which ran into the office on the telephone wires and from the office it seemed to run along the steam pipe into the tannery. Jas Orr was working around the pipe and received quite a shock and all the men in the tannery felt the effects of it. Mr. Vaughn, one of the proprietors, and P. A. Hardman, the bookkeeper, were in the office where the lightning entered and splintered the wall and ceiling some and yet they were not effected, but Mr. Hardman made good use of his lung powers. The office caught fire, but it was extinguished before much damage was done. J. D. Woodring was outside of the office and was knocked down by the electric visitor.

Almost a Riot. Main street had somewhat of a riot aspect Saturday night for awhile. Two fellows who had an over dose of "fire water" got into a dispute and decided to settle it by a pugilistic encounter. Policeman Minceer appeared on the scene and attempted to squelch the disturbance. One of the would-be fighters would not be pacified and commenced to abuse the policeman. Minceer arrested the fellow and a lively time ensued. The crowd attempted to take the prisoner from the police. F. P. Adelsperger was soon on hand. He got hold of the prisoner by the shirt collar and the fellows who were trying to get the man released lifted Adelsperger's feet off of the ground, but he hung onto his man's shirt collar. High Constable Henninger was called for to assist, but the crowd picked him up and threw him out of the way. Citizens interfered and the fellow was taken before Burgess Hays. While in Hays' office fighter No. 2 was outside very anxious to gain admittance. After the first man got a soothing dose of the law, paying seven dollars for it, the door was suddenly opened and No. 2 was nabbed by Adelsperger and drawn into the office, minus his coat tail, which remained in the hands of his friends who pulled against the law. His anxiety for admittance had subsided. He to, paid seven dollars. Adelsperger and Minceer had the "sand" and it is right that citizens should stand by them and the law. To allow the law to become disregarded means a town that is not safe to live in.

Destroyed by Lightning. During the storm early last Friday morning the house occupied by George Tapper, of Prescottville, was struck by lightning and entirely burned up with all its contents. Mr. Tapper was at Ridgway with the Prescottville band and his wife had taken the children and gone to her father's to stay all night, otherwise human flesh would have been burned to ashes with the building. Mrs. Tapper had asked a neighbor's girl to stay with her that night, but her father, who lives near Prescottville, was down town and on his way home stopped and took the little boy with him and Mrs. Tapper decided to take the baby and go later in the evening. Although Mr. Tapper lost all his household goods, which amounted to $600.00, yet he rejoices because his wife and children were not consumed in the flames. A purse has been raised for the homeless family. The house was owned by Jeremiah Myers, who had an insurance upon it. It took some battling with the flames to save the buildings near by.

Out of the Chase. The pictorial lovers may tell of the delights to be found in watching the "speckled beauties" as their forms skim through the clear, sparkling waters of some friendly stream, or our nimrods may become enthusiastic over the pleasures of a chase for the deer and get extravagant with their portrayal of the pretty sight as the form of the deer skips along with the dog close in chase, but all these delights sink into insignificance when compared with a form that has been in a chase in a printing office and it suddenly and unceremoniously drops out. There is no merriness in the office for such a form, it is immediately labeled dead and its remains are gathered into cigar boxes and the "devil" deliberately proceeds to dispose of it. The local page of THE STAR collapsed last Wednesday and this office was well supplied with "pl."

Only Nine Left. The following letter is from one of the "gentle sex" of the rural districts near Troutville: "Mister J. S. McCreight, doctor, I want you to come out here the next time you come to Luthersburg if you can. I want to get 9 of my upper teeth pulled. I have only got 9 left and I want to get a new set of your cheapest store teeth. I have a gum bile on the upper left hand side of my mouth but I think it will be well agin you come out. Mrs. _____ said you could pull teeth without feelin it. I want mine pulled that way. We have lots of slder and appels and butter and eggs and if you need any I will leave it go on the teeth. If you can't come out here why send me word and I will try and come to Reynoldsville on the fourth of July. They say you are the best teeth maker and I want you to make mine and meby my man will get some pulled. Please excuse poor ritin as it is wash day and I want to get done in time to send it out to town with Jim." Yours truly, Mrs. _____

Pomona Grange. A meeting of Pomona Grange, No 20, Patrons of Husbandry of counties of Jefferson and Elk, was held at Ridgway, Grange, Perry township, Wednesday, June 15th. Eighteen Granges were represented and about 300 people in attendance. The meeting was called to order at 1:00 P. M. by C. A. Morris, Master. The afternoon session closed at six o'clock to allow those present to partake of the good things provided by the kind ladies of Ridge Grange. The evening session opened at 7:00 o'clock. A class of 12 members were initiated into the 5th degree. During the afternoon session J. C. Conner, of Mechanicsburg, delivered an able address on Grange work in the state. Among questions of interest discussed was the Dog Law. A better protection for the sheep was advocated. H. S. Bocker, of Pine Grange, Indiana county, delivered an address on the Legislative Records. He mentioned the Legislation that has been secured through the efforts of the Grange. Mrs. Jas. McCracken, jr., of Frostburg, read an essay on "Women's work in the Grange," which was highly appreciated by the members of the order. John W. Phillippi gave the Grange an idea of the work done in the county during the past year, and the manifested interest and increase of membership. Jas. Bullers, of Union Grange read a paper on the politics of the order. According to reports from different Granges the membership has increased greatly during the last quarter, among who are some of the most prominent farmers in the county. The music was furnished by the choir from Paradise Grange, Miss Mabel Strouse leader, and was first class.

All who attended claim the meeting to have been a profitable one, and are loud in their praise of the hospitality of the people of Ridge Grange. The place for the next meeting has not been decided upon yet, but will be at the picnic which is to be held in the Paradise Grove in August.

Death's Doings. MRS. ANGELINE SNYDER. A long and patient sufferer has passed behind the veil of eternity; been released from the pains and ills that humanity is heir to. Friday night, June 17th, 1892, Mrs. Angeline Snyder, widow of John B. Snyder, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Reitz, in Brookville, after many months of illness. The funeral services were held in the M. E. Church at Emerickville at 3:00 o'clock Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Jas. H. Jelbart. Mrs. Snyder was not a stranger in Reynoldsville, having lived and reared a large family on a farm about four miles from this place. Several years ago she purchased a property in West Reynoldsville. She moved here and was a member of the M. E. church. She went to Brookville last fall and took sick and there remained until carried away in a hearse. She was a kind hearted and pleasant lady, and had many friends.

MRS. SALLIE NEALE. Mrs. Sallie Neale, sister of Thomas, John and Sharp McCreight, and Dr. J. B. Neale's aunt, died at her home in Perrysville, Pa., on Sunday, June 19th, and was buried Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Neale was 76 years old. She leaves a husband, Abraham Neale, and six boys to mourn for her. Dr. J. B. Neale and wife drove to Perrysville Monday afternoon to attend the funeral.
