

Travelers' Guide. Allegheny Valley Railway. Eastward. Westward. Train 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

REYNOLDSVILLE POST-OFFICE. Mails arrive and leave the post-office as follows: Arrive. Depart. FROM THE WEST. FOR THE EAST. 1.15 p. m. - 7.00 p. m. 12.30 p. m. - 6.20 p. m. FROM THE EAST. FOR THE WEST. 8.00 a. m. - 2.00 p. m. 7.15 a. m. - 1.15 p. m.

A Little of Everything.

"America" to-night. Lent begins next Wednesday. Next Friday is Washington's birthday. We have had fifty-eight days of sleighing without a break.

A house and two lots for sale in West Reynoldsville. Inquire at this office. The P. O. S. of A. will attend M. E. church next Sunday morning in a body.

One of the best entertainments for the money is "America" at Centennial hall. Admission 25 cents. The members of the Baptist church of this place, drove to Rev. Dean's Monday night and held a social.

The Baptist C. E. society will serve supper in the G. A. R. hall Friday evening, Washington's birthday. Friday will be "book reception day" at the West Reynoldsville school. Reception from 1.00 to 4.00 P. M.

The Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association sold $5,400 at the monthly meeting held Monday evening. THE STAR office force are thankful to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Binney for wedding cake received at this office last Friday.

The Daughters of Rebekah of Falls Creek visited the lodge of the same name at this place one night last week. All members of the Jr. O. U. A. M. are requested to meet in the American hall at 3.00 P. M. on Washington's birthday.

Hicks, the weather prophet, predicts the heaviest storms of the year on the 23d of February to be followed by warm rains. George Milliron's house in Beechwoods was burned down Saturday forenoon. The household goods were all saved.

New Bethlehem has an orchestra composed of eleven young ladies. The conductor says, "they make excellent music." Mike Dann moved out of the restaurant next door to the postoffice into a house on Jackson street some time Sunday night.

The Keystone band played for "America" Monday evening and Col. Grover gave the band boys a very complimentary "send off." For Sale—The Wm. Barclay property situated between Prescotville and Rathmel. For particulars inquire of L. A. Hays, Rathmel, Pa.

The Reynoldsville Novelty Manufacturing Company has a neat business office fitted up in one of the rooms on the first floor in Centennial Hall building. Mrs. E. Neff gave a "tea party" at noon last Friday to eleven of her young married lady friends, all of whom drank coffee but one and she drank cold water.

There is but one place in the bible where the girls are commanded to kiss the men, and that is the Golden Rule. "Whosoever ye would that men should do unto you do even so to them." The Blizzard says: Someone asks: Does a man who eats horse flesh necessarily suffer from nightmare? Not necessarily. It is only when the bed is a little buggy and the man is a little horse that he suffers from nightmare.

Be safe by having your business and dwelling property insured with the oldest, strongest, fire tested, old line companies, which policies can be had at the lowest rates of C. B. French, the Reynoldsville insurance agent. Office over Reynolds drug store. There is no claim made for Ayer's Sarsaparilla which cannot be endorsed by scores of testimonials. This fact plainly proves that the blood is the source of most disorders and that Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best of blood-purifiers. Try it this month.

The P. O. S. of A. camp of this place are making arrangements to have a large social gathering in the Reynolds brick block to-morrow evening. They have issued invitations to the Camps at Allens Mills, Dubois, Knoxdale, Sykesville, Rathmel and other places to be present. Refreshments will be served to the invited guests.

Henry A. Reed closed out his stock of shoes at auction this week. He has been selling his shoes at and below cost for several months to dispose of his stock. Twenty members of the Utopia Society drove to Dubois yesterday afternoon and took supper at the National Hotel, one of the best hotels of that town. Prof. Tom P. Foley, an eloquent of New York City, entertained the Utopians.

Hiram Fye, of Big Soldier, died on Sunday and was buried in the Sykesville cemetery yesterday. Consumption was the cause of his death. Funeral services were held at the Sykesville church at 10.00 A. M. yesterday. Mr. Fye was well known in Reynoldsville. Immigrants and returning voyagers find in Ayer's Sarsaparilla a cure for eruptions, boils, pimples, eczema, etc., whether resulting from sea-diet and life on ship-board or from any other cause. Its value as a tonic and alterative medicine cannot be overestimated.

Nicola Fosca, the Italian who boarded about one month with Sheriff Gourley for breaking the large plate glass in the Arnold block Sunday night, Jan. 13th, was tried at Brookville last week. He was found "not guilty" of "malicious mischief," and the prosecutor to pay all costs. The following ministers of Dubois, with their wives, came to Reynoldsville on Monday for a sleigh ride and took dinner at the Ross House: Rev. Coaring Peters, Methodist Episcopal, Rev. W. H. Clipman, Baptist, Rev. N. W. Stephens, Episcopal, Rev. J. S. Fulton, United Brethren.

This is the last night that "America" will be presented to the citizens of Reynoldsville by Col. Grover. The entertainments Monday and Tuesday nights were very interesting. Don't fail to go to Centennial hall to-night and see something well worth twice the admission fee asked. Conrad Mendel opened a store in the opera house block several months ago, and shortly after the holidays he went to Pittsburgh for medical treatment and decided to remain in that city. His goods were sold at auction yesterday. Mr. Mendel is Mrs. Chas. and Mrs. Henry Herpel's father.

The one woman whom the manly man treats with constant consideration is his wife, if he be fortunate enough to have one. He consults her convenience in all things, and is as tender and courteous now as he was in the days when he wooed and won her. No other course is possible to one who is a gentleman. The annual election of the Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association was held in the Flynn hall Monday evening at which time four directors and one auditor were elected. The following persons were elected: Ninian Cooper, R. H. Wilson, David Wheeler, C. J. Kerr, directors, and C. C. Gibson, auditor. About sixty-five stockholders attended the meeting.

Miss Ella E. Seeley, the Reynoldsville artist, has three free hand crayons on exhibition at Bing & Co's dry goods store, Ex-Senator J. K. Sloan, of Indiana, Pa., Miss Florence Best, and Ed. D. Seeley. The latter one is that for which Miss Seeley received the prize awarded at the Pittsburg Art College in 1892. Miss Seeley will remain in Reynoldsville until July 1st and any person wishing good free hand crayon work will find her prices very reasonable. A. B. Weed invited ye editor and wife and Mrs. Dr. S. Reynolds to his home Saturday evening to see the new piano awarded him by the Williamsport Grit. Mr. Weed had a telephone in his home which he tied to a chair close to the piano and attached the instrument to the wires so that it connected with a phone in the A. V. R'y office and one in Supt. Rumsey's house. Mrs. Reynolds then played the piano and the music could be distinctly heard at the other two 'phones.

There are a large number of people in Reynoldsville and vicinity who do not subscribe for THE STAR, but there are comparatively few who do not read it. Why not subscribe and read your own paper instead of borrowing. You could then be independent, would not annoy your neighbor and would be supporting the paper. We have discovered that in many cases people who do not subscribe for a newspaper expect more favors from it and are the first to criticize. Those who do subscribe should remember that a newspaper man needs money. Within the past two weeks several drummers have shown their lack of manliness and good common sense by going into the ladies' waiting room at the A. V. R'y station to smoke, talk loud, use profane and obscene language. Some one will get into trouble if it is tried again. The impression at the station is that some persons in Reynoldsville are putting the drummers up to go into the room and make fools of themselves to have some fun with the railroad men. If an officer had been around in time a few days ago a two hundred and fifty pound "chump," who claimed to be from Boston, would have remained in town to answer for his conduct while Supt. Rumsey was trying to get him to either keep quiet or leave the ladies' room.

Licenses Granted. The following Reynoldsville hotels were granted license by Judge Clark at Brookville last Saturday: Hotel McConnell, Commercial, Ross House, Hotel Belnap, City Hotel, Burns House, Hotel Dillman, The West End Hotel, Hotel America and Arlington House applications were held over. Our Valentine. Some kind friend squandered a penny on ye editor on Valentine day. Our artist was indisposed the past week and we are unable to reproduce the picture, which was finished off in fast colors. The first two lines of the beautiful poem appended to the artists skill were as follows: You potter, dear author, the live-long night, At pen-and-ink efforts to make the world bright.

Flag Presentation. Next Friday, Washington's birthday, the Jr. O. U. A. M. of this place will present the borough school with a ten by fifteen foot flag. Rev. E. Lewis Kelley will make the presentation speech at the school house at 4.00 P. M. A number of Jr. O. U. A. M. members from Sykesville, Emerickville and other places will be present. The P. O. S. of A. will turn out with the Juniors. The Keystone band will enliven the occasion with delightful music. The scholars of the school are making preparations for appropriate exercises in the school building after the flag is presented.

Another Victim. Five weeks ago last Saturday afternoon J. W. Dempsey, a liquor runner at the tannery, fell into a hot liquor junk and had both his legs badly burned, from which he is still confined to his bed. Last Saturday afternoon, Samuel Young, who was working at the job where Mr. Dempsey met with the accident, also fell into a hot liquor junk and had both feet and legs, up to the knees, burned. Mr. Young came out of the junk with hot feet but a cool head, for he advised those who came to his rescue what kind of poultices to put on his feet. Mr. Young will be laid up for many weeks. There is so much steam about the junks that it is difficult for those who run the liquor to always know just where they are stepping, and that is why Mr. Young walked into the junk Saturday.

Country People Were In. Last Saturday was an ideal winter day; Old Sol was out in all its glory and the sleighing was excellent. This state of affairs induced the lads and lassies, and even the "old folks," in the surrounding community to "hook-up" their horses and come to town to do a little trading and to see the sights. As a result Main street had a business-like appearance. Sixty-seven teams were standing on Main street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, at one time, not counting the sleds and sleighs on the go up and down the street. Our business men done a fair trade. The people seem willing to buy, but money is not very plenty and they deny themselves of almost everything but the necessities. All things considered, Reynoldsville is not so slow and there are towns not far away that do less business than is done here.

All For Revenge. A maiden of the rural district walked into Reynoldsville, a distance of four miles, last Wednesday to squander one cent on a valentine. The whyfore of the eight miles walk to select a suitable penny-valentine, was because a reckless youth had purchased a hideous picture and mailed it to the aforementioned lassie so that she had received the "mean thing" on Tuesday. The maid bought a lantern representing a lop-eared, production-jawed, crooked-nosed, bald-headed, bow-legged, whisky-bloated piece of humanity, to send to the individual whom she thought was guilty of being audacious enough to send her a valentine. The maiden returned home light of heart, feeling well paid for walking eight miles because she found what fully expressed her contempt for the party for whom it was bought. This is a sample of what the goddess of revenge will lead her worshippers to do. Edward was at Ridgway. Edward D. Seeley, a member of the Reynoldsville Hardware Co., is a great "home body" and it is seldom he takes a day off to visit friends, but last Saturday "Uncle Ed." was at the A. V. R'y station to take the cars for Ridgway, and he got a trifle uneasy because the train was a half hour late. He sat in the gents' waiting room until he could not contain himself longer and then he paraded up and down in front of the station. Dr. J. S. Bardwell, brother-in-law of our "New York Yankee," gave a dinner party to a number of his friends Saturday evening, it being his birthday anniversary, and "Uncle Ed." was among the invited guests, and when he thought of the good things—Edward is an epicurean from away back—the temptation was too great and he hid away to the capital of the little county of Elk. In all the array of talent from far and near that gathered around Dr. Bardwell's festive board, we opine there was not one that could "spin" a better "yarn" than our townsman. If Ed. is at himself he don't take a back seat when it comes to amusing people at a party.

Attacked by Hoodlums. We mentioned two weeks ago that a sleighing party from Dubois was attacked by hoodlums who threw snow and ice at the visitors and one young lady was hit in the face and returned home with a black eye. Last Friday night a sleighing party from the same town came to Reynoldsville and a gang of hoodlums insulted and assulted the visitors. One young lady was struck in the face with a piece of ice and her one eye was closed for the night. There is certainly some way to put a stop to such conduct. It is a shame and disgrace to any town that such devilishness will be allowed to exist in it. The Dubois Express, editorially, said the following Saturday about sleighing parties to Reynoldsville: "Sleighing parties in which there are any women or children will do well to avoid Reynoldsville until the citizens of the town teach their boys and young men to act in a decent and orderly manner. Nearly every party that has driven there from Dubois this year has been snowballed by the hoodlum element. Two young ladies have returned with black eyes and others have received painful bruises by the missiles thrown. The authorities, if there are any down there, appear to take no notice of these insults and make no effort to stop them. They appear to be perfectly satisfied to let the toughs preempt the town and stop visitors from going. The people of Dubois select Reynoldsville for the destination of sleighing parties because the distance is convenient, the hotels give good accommodation and many have friends there. It is not pleasant to be debarrd from going there but until the attacks by hoodlums are stopped it is positively dangerous for parties to do so."

Got Lost. Postmaster McGaw concluded to treat himself and family to a sleigh ride Sunday and he hired a good team and started to the home of his mother-in-law in the Beechwoods. Evan Trego has traveled that section of the country many a time in the by gones long after the sun had disappeared behind the western slope, and he often kept time to the hoot of the night owl as he meandered along through the lonely woods. There is an old saying that "love is blind," but in those days McGaw found his way to and from the home that he afterwards robbed of a daughter. Had any one told the P. M. that he would get lost when he started from Reynoldsville it might have been equivalent to making a noise in the postoffice, but he did get lost all the same. The snow drifts have changed the roads through fields, lanes and barnyards so that a man traveling through that section hardly knows "where he is at" half the time. McGaw found kind friends who got him on the right track and he visited his mother-in-law and got home in time to open the office on Monday so that it was not necessary to ask President Cleveland to appoint a new postmaster for Reynoldsville. People who want to travel through the Beechwoods while the snow lasts and are afraid they cannot get into the right fields can secure the services of D. B. McConnell, R. F. Morrison, or George Burtop as guides.

They Set a Trap. About one year ago the I. O. O. F. lodge moved into the Reynolds brick block, bought new furniture, new carpets and got very stylish. They got so "stuck up" with their new quarters that they would not allow the Daughters of Rebekah, who meet in the I. O. O. F. hall, to hold box suppers or have luncheon parties in the hall, fearing the carpets would be damaged thereby. Saturday one of the Daughters of Rebekah told the editor of THE STAR that they proposed to work a scheme on the Odd Fellows Saturday night, and they did. The ladies all "chipped in" and prepared a very tempting lunch at the home of Mrs. Chas. Herpel and about the time lodge was out they marched up to the hall in a body and sent in a messenger to announce that the Daughters of Rebekah were on the outside and desired admission. They were admitted with their baskets of good things and their "lords" did not refuse to partake of the lunch with them. The main object the ladies had in view was to get the Odd Fellows to eat the lunch in the lodge room and then they could not refuse the room to the Daughters any time they want it to hold a box supper, &c. The ladies were little afraid the men would refuse to eat the lunch in the lodge room, but the temptation was too much for the men and they forgot about the carpets. The trap was well baited.

Opening Day. Saturday afternoon A. D. Deemer & Co. had their store ready to open for public inspection. A large crowd attended the opening in the afternoon and evening. The store was arranged so that the goods showed off to a good advantage. An orchestra of five pieces furnished excellent music all afternoon and evening. The Keystone band serenaded the new store about seven o'clock in the evening. The spacious store room was crowded after supper so that it was difficult to get from one end of the room to the other. There are few, if any, prettier store rooms in Jefferson county than the one A. D. Deemer & Co. have just moved into.

NEW SCHOOL HOUSE! BOROUGH BONDS TO BE ISSUED TO BUILD IT.

Result of Yesterday's Election in the Two Boroughs and Winslow Township. Hurrah! Reynoldsville is to have a new school house. Who said we would not get it? Two hundred and eighty-nine citizens voted for it yesterday and seventy-six said no. Let the work of building the new edifice begin as soon as possible. Below will be found the result of the election held in Reynoldsville, West Reynoldsville and Winslow township yesterday. The names of all the candidates have previously appeared in THE STAR, and as the list is long, we will only give the names of those elected: REYNOLDSVILLE.

The Republicans elected their entire ticket in the borough and the People's Party elected an inspector of election, Thos. O. Saxton. Those elected are: Justice of Peace, John M. Hays; high constable, Aaron Rodgers; town council, Scott McClelland, Peter Robertson, Chas. A. Ritzel; school directors, W. Miles King, Fremont M. Brown; assessor, Walter Spry; tax collector, Joseph P. Pentz; overseer poor, John Trudgen; auditor, Joseph S. Hammond; judge of election, Calvin N. Lewis; inspectors, J. Riley Smeltzer, Thomas O. Saxton.

WEST REYNOLDSVILLE. High constable, J. K. Dunkle, R.; town council, W. S. Ross, R., J. M. Moore, D.; school director, D. M. Dunsmore, R., J. D. Woodring, D.; assessor, R. S. Williams, R.; overseer of poor, Geo. O. Riggs, R.; auditor, O. H. Johnston, R.; judge of election, F. F. Schurig, D.; inspector of election, E. L. Johnston, R., T. C. McEster, D.

WINSLOW TOWNSHIP. Justice of the Peace, J. L. Long, R.; school directors, Abram Fye, R., Frank P. Best, D.; supervisors, J. M. Faultz, D.; Edward Jones, R.; assessor, Allen Cathers, D.; overseer poor, G. W. Mohney, R.; auditor, W. J. Hillis, R.; judge of election, West End, John Dougherty, D.; inspector, West End, John Lott, D.; judge of election, East End, O. H. Broadhead, R.; inspector, East End, L. P. McCleary; assistant assessor, West End, A. M. Norris, D.; assistant assessor, East End, Chas. Dean.

An Explanation. I notice some of my Prohibition friends are inclined to censure me for allowing my name to be used on the Democratic township ticket. I would just say I was born and reared a Democrat. When I joined the church I began to have conscientious scruples about the liquor traffic, and when the Prohibition party came out I voted with it for state and national offices, and for local offices I tried to vote for the best interests of the township, and claim that privilege yet. I cast the first Prohibition vote in the township. At the eleventh hour a few Democrats who were interested in the welfare of the township got together to make up a ticket. They asked me to help and allow my name to be used, which I did in good faith. I am a Prohib and expect to be as long as I shall try to live a christian life. I will admit it is possible to be a Prohibitionist and not a christian. It seems to me it requires a stretch of conscience to be a christian and not a Prohibitionist. LEW. LUDWICK.

A Deserted Child Rescued. A gruesome story of suffering has come to us from beyond Kahltown, in Eldred township, in which a child about four or five years of age, a son of a coal miner, is represented to have been abandoned and left in an old rattle-trap of a house, without food or clothing, in the severest weather of last week, where he stayed shut up for several days, or until some inspiration moved a neighbor lady, Mrs. Martin, to make an investigation, when the boy was found in a terrible plight, hungry and frost-bitten and almost perished. The lady acted the part of the "Good Samaritan," taking the child to her home and ministering to its wants and later sending it to friends in Soigle, where a home has been found for it.—Brookville Republican.

Keep Your Sign Up. A man in business should always keep himself before the public. This is what Peter Cooper said of advertising in a newspaper, and he died worth many millions: "In all towns where a newspaper is published every man should advertise in it, if nothing more than a card stating his name and the business he is engaged in. It does not only pay the advertiser, but lets people at a distance know the town in which you reside is a prosperous community of business men. Never pull down your sign while you expect to do business."

It is rumored that a young couple in West Reynoldsville will soon join the matrimonial ranks if the young man's father gives his consent, the matrimonial inclined youth not being of age yet. Jr. Prohibition League will hold a meeting in Centennial hall Saturday evening at half past seven. Good program. Advertise in THE STAR.

SOCIETY'S WHIRL.

James Hunter moved to Bradford last week. Wm. Cook moved to Oak Ridge this week. Hood Knox was in Brookwayville this week. Miss Belle Arnold visited in Dubois last week. Miss Maggie Schultze is clerking for A. D. Deemer & Co. W. W. Barclay, of Big Run, was in Reynoldsville Saturday. Wm. Ramsey moved his family to Montgomery, Pa., last week. S. M. Lowther went to Himersburg this morning to visit friends. W. G. Kline, of Dubois, visited his parents at this place last week. Mrs. Elijah Trudgen spent Sunday with her parents at Summerville. Harry Schlabig of Buffalo, N. Y., is visiting his parents at this place. Miss Susie Denny, of Driftwood, visited in Reynoldsville the past week. Mrs. A. D. Deemer, of Brookville, visited in Reynoldsville the past week. Mrs. Caroline Armor and daughter, Miss Nellie, visited in Dubois last week. J. F. Alexander, of Dubois, circulated among his Reynoldsville friends last Saturday. Miss Clara Corbett, of New Bethlehem, visited friends in Reynoldsville this week. A four-horse-load of young people drove to Brookville for a sleigh ride Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Swisher, of Lindsey, were among the visitors to Reynoldsville Saturday. Mrs. Mary Kearns was called to Wheeling, W. Va., on Saturday by the death of her father. Albert Hoover, of Winslow, Pa., visited his brother, Dr. B. E. Hoover, in this place last week. Misses Cora and Emma Steele, of Brookville, were the guests of Miss Hattie Beer over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Al. Motter, of Ridgway, visited the former's brother, Wesley Motter, at this place last week. A. Katzen is in the east buying his spring stock of goods. He expects to bring home some good bargains. Rev. Rosenbaum, of Dubois, will preach in the Lutheran church at this place at 2.30 next Sunday afternoon. Capt. T. C. Reynolds and wife went to Niagara Falls Monday where they will take charge of the Central Hotel. Mrs. W. B. Alexander went to Pittsburg Saturday to help F. K. Alexander, her son, select a good house and location to move his family into. Wiley McLain, of Brookville, was in town the past few days auctioning off goods for Henry Reed and Conrad Mendel. Wiley understands the business. Wallace Lowther and John Thomas have gone to Johnsonburg and opened up a new barbershop. These two young men are good barbers and will, doubtless, do a good business in their new location. The Allegheny River Ice. Much has been said and written about the ice gorges on the Allegheny river, and the possible danger when a break up comes. But really the half has not been told. The immensity of the quantity of ice has not been comprehended, nor can it be unless one goes over the route between Kittanning and Oil City, and notes carefully the condition of the river all the way. The Allegheny river has never in the recollection of even the oldest rivermen been in the condition it is in now. True the gorge proper, does not extend more than twenty-five miles. But the other sixty miles are icebound, or as the railroad men term it: "Only a regular close up." That there is danger always in the breaking up of the ice in the river in the spring there is no denying. And this year the danger is greater than it has been any year since 1832, when the big flood came. There never has been, at least since that time, even if then, so much ice on the Allegheny river at one time.—Kittanning Times.

Racket Store for Sale. Having entered into a large business transaction in West Virginia which will require all my time, it will be impossible for me to continue the management of the Racket Store. The store is therefore offered for sale at inventory or in bulk. All the goods on hand are salable and of every day call. The location for business is the best in Reynoldsville, being right in the center of business portion of the city. The store has always done a good business, as is well known. F. K. MULLEN, Manager.

Cash is the motto. Closer profits and cheaper goods to the consumer. It is an absolute necessity to ourselves and the town, as many are going away for their goods. For prices call and see our goods. KING & Co. Corwin, the photographer, has just received a large stock of moulding and is prepared to do all kinds of framing at about one-third the usual price. He is also making pulp-wood mats of all sizes.