STOKE PHARMACY

A Little of Everything.

Busy time for plumbers. Monday was an ice maker. Frozen water pipes are numerous. Gus Sun Ministers Friday night. Hawthorne Musical Club Jan. 29. Good weather for the gas company's business.

Criminal court is being held at Brookville this week.

This will certainly go on record as an "old fashioned winter."

We have had three weeks of good sleighing and only three or four sleighing parties.

Frank S. Hoffman, the ice dealer, is putting up twenty-two hundred tons of ice for next summer.

The DuBois Evening Searchlight has suspended publication and DuBois now has two daily papers.

The annual meeting of the Summer-ville Telephone Company will be held at Summer-ville to-day.

Several Reynoldsville gentlemen have organized a coal company to be known as the McDonald Coal Company.

Trinity Evangelical Lutheran church, J. W. Myers pastor. Sunday school at 9.30 a. m., service at 11.00 a. m. and 7.30 p. m.

Herbert Murray, a citizen of Falls Creek, committed suicide on Wednesday last week by drinking two ounces of laudanum.

Ex-Constable P. J. Ward has been appointed tax collector of West Reynolds-ville borough. A notice to that effect appears elsewhere in this issue.

If there is not a great supply of ice next summer it will be because it was not stored in ice houses, for there is a large stock on hand at present.

Ed. Carberry, a lad about 9 years old, ran in front of a horse and sleigh on Main street one day last week. The boy had three teeth knocked out.

Gov. Pennypacker will be inaugurated on Tuesday of next week. Some Republicans of this section expect to go to Harrisburg to attend the inauguration.

Dr. Howard L. Kaucher, physician for Reading Railroad Co., with headquarters at Reading, Pa., has been transferred to Camden, N. J. Dr. Kaucher's work will be along the coast line of the Reading.

Edward T. Bird, formerly of this place, now proprietor of the Palace Restaurant at Clearfield, was granted license last week.

Sykes Woolen Mills Company plant, which has been idle two weeks, began work this morning. This mill now has orders enough to keep it running steady during 1903.

Ensign Douglas, who has had charge of the Salvation Army work at this place a short time, will hold a farewell service at Salvation Army hall next Sunday, and some other person will be assigned to Reynoldsville.

The meetings will continue in the Baptist church all this week, except Saturday evening. There have been several conversions. The ordinance of baptism will be administered Sunday evening after the sermon.

Ex-Gov. Daniel H. Hastings, who delivered the graduating address at the commencement of the Reynoldsville High School in 1900, died at his home at Bellefonte on Friday last week, January 9, from pneumonia.

A number of Salvationists drove over from Punxsutawney Monday evening, took supper at Frank's Tavern and attended the Salvation Army meeting in the evening. Ensign Hughes and wife had charge of the meeting Monday evening.

Eighteen ladies composed a sleighing party from Brookville that took dinner at Hotel Imperial Friday. It was a cold day for sleighing, but the ladies were out for a pleasant time and a breeze from the north pole did not mar their pleasure.

During last week the Knights of Fidelity of Jefferson county were notified by postal card to meet at DuBois Thursday, Jan. 15, but on account of Jesse Hedrick not being able to attend the meeting on that date it has been postponed until January 22.

The Whist Club of this place were taken to Luthersburg last Thursday afternoon in Burns' trolley on a pleasure trip. A good supper was prepared for them at the hotel in Luthersburg and after spending several pleasant hours in that village the party returned home.

D. M. Bolger, the merchant tailor who moved into his new tailor shop on Fourth street the first of the New Year, is now father of a new boy that arrived at his home last Friday morning. Mr. Bolger is well pleased with his new shop and is delighted with his new boy.

Charles E. Worden, of Hopkins, who had a hard tussle with typhoid fever, was in Reynoldsville last Saturday for the first time in seven weeks. He don't feel frisky yet, but is convalescing nicely. Mr. Worden raised a heavy beard during his illness, which makes quite a change in his facial appearance.

Over in Elk county, which has only about half as large population as Jefferson county, the court granted licenses recently to 55 hotels, 4 eating houses, 7 wholesalers, 6 bottlers and 2 brewers, total, 74 licenses. In Jefferson county the court will be asked to grant 36 licenses, and that is considered a large number in this county.

Walter Bone, of Prescottville, has typhoid fever. His wife is just recovering from small-pox, the quarantine has not been taken down yet, and the Knights of Pythias lodge, of which Mr. Bone is a member, have had trouble in getting a nurse for Mr. Bone on account of the small-pox in his home. James Justham, Sr., is now nursing Mr. Bone.

J. W. Campbell has resigned his position as day operator for the B., R. & P. at this place and has accepted a position in the dispatcher's office of the Low Grade division of the P. R. R. at Reynoldsville. Mr. Campbell is an efficient and careful operator and the B., R. & P. loses a good man.—Big Run Tribune. Mr. Campbell will move to Reynoldsville as soon as he can get a suitable house.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Star Glass Company Monday forenoon the following directors were elected: S. B. Elliott, Richard Smith, Daniel Nolan, Henry C. Deible, Dr. J. C. King, James V. Young, Chas. A. Hoppel, of Reynoldsville, and James Virden, of Delaware, N. J. A. T. McClure, who has been on the board of directors since the company was first organized, announced at the meeting Monday that he was not a candidate for director. The board of directors will meet Friday evening and organize.

The following new officers were installed in Mountain Cliff Castle No. 359, Knights of Golden Eagle, at Reynolds-ville by D. G. C. Wm. E. Reed: Past Chief, James A. Tyson; Noble Chief, William Roan; Vice Chief, Walter Pettit; High Priest, Henry Chapman; Venerable Hermit, Joseph Sayers; Master of Records, Edwin Hoare; Clerk of Exchequer, Robert Sayers; Keeper of Exchequer, John Trudgen; Sr. Sir Herald, James D. Cable; Worthy Bard, John Reddick; Worthy Chamberlain, Wm. E. Reed; Ensign, John Davis; Esquire, Reuben George; First Guard-ian, Charles Copplin; Second Guard-ian, Albert Neale; Representative to Grand Castle, Albert Neale; Trustees, Albert Neale, Wm. E. Reed, Wm. Bolt.

SUDDEN DEATH THIS MORNING.

P. Foley, Railroad Engineer, Found Dead in His Dining Room.

P. Foley, an engineer on the Low Grade Division of P. R. R., died suddenly this morning from heart trouble. He had been on duty about four weeks, but was talking last night of reporting for duty again. He got up at five o'clock this morning and went down to dining room and when Mrs. Foley went down stairs at six o'clock she found her husband lying on the floor dead. He carried a lamp down stairs and set it on table and was found near the lounge.

Mr. Foley was born in Ireland. He came to America about the time of the civil war and enlisted in the 12th U. S. Infantry when 16 years old. He came to this place when the Low Grade railroad was being built. He was an engineer on Low Grade twenty-three years.

In 1876 he was married to Nancy Marsh, who with five children survive him. The children are James, Frank and Fred Foley, Mrs. Mamie Dillman and Miss Nellie Foley.

Funeral arrangements were not made before we went to press. The sudden death of Mr. Foley was a shock to his numerous friends.

Special Meetings.

Special meetings are being held in the Baptist and Methodist Episcopal churches in Reynoldsville every evening this week except Saturday evening.

Rev. Neff To-Morrow Evening.

Rev. J. Bell Neff, the new pastor of the DuBois M. E. church, who is an excellent preacher, will preach in the Reynoldsville M. E. church to-morrow, Thursday, evening and perhaps Friday evening.

Trolley Cars Snowbound.

There were too many snow drifts between Reynoldsville and Punxsutawney for the trolley cars to run and the cars did not run from Sunday morning until last evening. Two or three crews of men worked Monday and Tuesday shoveling snow off the tracks.

Primary Elections.

The Republicans of Winslow township will hold their primary election next Saturday afternoon, January 17, and the Republicans of Reynoldsville and Democrats of Winslow township and Republicans of West Reynoldsville will hold primary elections on Saturday afternoon of next week, Jan. 24.

Masonic Visitors.

Last night John H. Bell and twenty others Masons of Punxsutawney visited John M. Reed Lodge in this place. After lodge the visitors and home members enjoyed a banquet at Frank's Tavern. The Punxsutawney gentlemen came over on the trolley cars, the first trip through that had been made since Sunday morning.

Going to West Virginia.

John H. Bell, formerly superintendent of the mines at this place, who was transferred to Punxsutawney about two years ago, has resigned his position with the R. & P. C. & I. Co. to accept a better position as general superintendent of the Federal Coal & Coke Company's plant in West Virginia. Mr. Bell's resignation takes effect February 1st, 1903.

K. of P. Officers at Rathmel.

Monday evening of this week District Deputy W. S. Weaver, of Brookville, installed the following officers in Confidence Lodge No. 344, K. of P., at Rathmel: C. C. Charles T. Dean; V. C., Jacob Morningstar; Prelate, John Stewart; M. of W., Joseph McNeil; K. of R. and S., William Tucker; M. at A., Joseph Patton; Inner Guard, Henry Lindespeitz; Outer Guard, August Stengel. Confidence Lodge has 75 members and has a cash fund of $2,000.

Close Call from Asphyxiation.

Mrs. Dr. S. Reynolds had a close call from asphyxiation while working in her kitchen Monday morning. The heater for hot water tank is in kitchen and it was not working perfectly that morning, gas was also turned on strong in range, some clothes were boiling on top of range and the kitchen door and windows were closed tightly. Mrs. Reynolds did not notice the condition of the air in the room until she got deathly sick. Doctor was summoned quickly and he found his wife in a dangerous condition. Had she inhaled the poisonous air of that room a few minutes longer death would have been the result.

Thyne Was Murdered.

One morning early in November the mutilated body of John Thyne, a young taut of Brookwayville, was found on the railroad track between Brookwayville and Lane's Mills. It was supposed at the time that he had been killed by the cars. Just why the parents of the young man had the body exhumed last Thursday to see if there were bullet holes in the body, we are not in a position to state, although it is claimed by the DuBois Courier that the parents and friends were informed by a clairvoyant at DuBois that Thyne had been murdered. On examination it was discovered that the young man had been shot three times, one bullet going through his heart. Now the question is, who murdered John Thyne? District Attorney James V. Murray, of Jefferson county, is working on the case.

Relief Corps Officers.

Last Friday evening Mrs. Ab. Reynolds installed new officers in the Women's Relief Corps at Reynolds-ville for ensuing year. The new officers are: President, Mrs. J. D. Woodring; Sr. Vice, Mrs. H. W. Hoppel; Jr. Vice, Mrs. Sam'l Brillhart; Treasurer, Mrs. Ab. Reynolds; Chaplain, Mrs. Elmer E. Schugars; Secretary, Mrs. Sam'l Wisor; Conductor, Mrs. Edith Phillippi; Assistant Conductor, Mrs. W. H. Lucas; Guard, Mrs. Solomon Shaffer; Assistant Guard, Mrs. E. L. Evans; Color Bearers, Mrs. Robert Sayers, Mrs. P. Foley, Mrs. S. B. J. Saxton, Mrs. C. S. Armagost; Patriotic Instructor, Mrs. W. L. Fisher; Musician, Mrs. T. C. Shields; Delegate to Department Convention, Mrs. J. D. Woodring; Alternate, Mrs. Edith Phillippi.

Patriotic Instructor is a new office that has been added to the Relief Corps, and Prof. C. V. Smith, Prof. J. E. Good and Prof. Oliver B. Kern were present and delivered patriotic addresses. This was one of the most interesting installations the Corps has ever had.

Premature Serenade.

Recently two young ladies, who will work at dressmaking, began housekeeping in this place and some person started the report that one of the young ladies was married, and a serenading party was organized among some of our business men. The persons who got up the serenade knew that the lady had not been married, but they fixed the matter up as a joke on some of the other business men. The young ladies were informed of the joke and when the serenade began they wore to come out and order the serenaders off the premises, and of course it was arranged that they would not leave and then the girls were to fire blank cartridges at the serenaders. The plan worked like a charm and some of the fellows who didn't know that they were victims of a joke, were badly frightened and they ran as fast as they could. To increase the excitement of the occasion, one of the fellows, who was "in on the joke," fell down and yelled "I am shot!" Tin pans and tin horns were thrown in all directions in haste to get away from the firing squad.

Barto-Sandford.

Married, Monday evening, by the Rev. Father Kumerant, Miss Kathryn Sandford, of this place, to Fred G. Barto, of Reynoldsville, Pa.

After an elaborate supper to the wedding party by candle light—the candlesticks one hundred years old, being a wedding gift to Miss Sandford's grandmother—the happy couple amid showers of rice boarded the 7.50 train for Philadelphia and other eastern cities. On their return they will reside in Reynoldsville, where Mr. Barto is engaged in the grocery business.

The wedding couple were attended by Miss Eleanor T. Sandford and William T. Mulson, both of this place.

Mr. C. B. Sandford having reached his 76th milestone on that day, both events were celebrated together. Not many men the squire's age are as active and healthy, both mentally and physically, as he is.—Phillipsburg Ledger, Jan. 7, 1903.

Fred Barto is the youngest son of J. C. Barto, the groceryman.

Little Sensation.

In 1902 a married woman visited in Reynoldsville and during that visit a little flirtation was indulged in with a young man at this place. Several letters were exchanged after the woman returned home. The husband got an inkling of the affair and not long since he came to Reynoldsville and introduced himself to the young man under an assumed name, won the confidence of the fellow, succeeded in "pumping" him on the very matter the married man was intensely interested in, and after getting the information desired, made himself known to the young man, who was speechless for a few minutes after he learned to whom he had told his story. The married man returned home with one of his wife's letters in his possession and forgiveness in his heart for her and the man she had flirted with. It is safe to assert that the young man was so badly frightened over the affair that he will not soon again make a confidant of a perfect stranger, especially about flirting with another man's wife.

GONE TO HER REWARD.

Mrs. Mary Strouse Expired Friday Afternoon—Buried Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Strouse, relict of Martin Strouse, a highly respected and saintly old lady of Paradise, peacefully closed her eyes in death at 3.45 p. m. Friday, January 9, 1903. Funeral service was held in the Paradise M. E. church Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. W. Selner, of Luthersburg, pastor of the Paradise Lutheran church. "But now they desire a new church," was the text that Rev. Selner selected for the funeral sermon. Mrs. Strouse was a devout and faithful member of the Lutheran church almost a half century. She was not only a noble christian but was also a thoughtful and loving mother and a kind neighbor, beloved by all who were acquainted with her. Her maiden name was Phillippi. She survived by three sons and four daughters, as follows: Amos Strouse, Mrs. W. A. Sheasley, Mrs. J. J. Pifer, J. E. Strouse, J. M. Strouse, Mrs. A. M. Norris, Miss Tena Strouse. Twenty-seven grand children and two great grand children also survive her. All the sons and daughters, except J. E. Strouse, of Pittsburg, attended the funeral.

Pifer-Gourley Wedding.

Miss Margaret O. Gourley, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Gourley, who reside near this place, and Harry P. Pifer, bookkeeper for James V. Young, contractor, in this place, were married at the residence of the bride's parents at 11.00 a. m. on Thursday, January 8, 1903, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the two families. Rev. Harry G. Teagarden, Ph. D., of Elanora, performed the marriage ceremony. Miss Anna Pifer, sister of groom, was maid of honor, and O. Lyle Gourley, brother of bride, was groomsmen. Mrs. L. L. Gourley played the wedding march.

A fine wedding dinner was served, after which Mr. Pifer and bride, accompanied by several friends, drove to DuBois and took the B. & P. "flyer" for Altoona on a short wedding trip.

This couple are both highly respected and fine young people, with bright prospects before them. They will go to housekeeping in Mr. Gourley's dwelling on Pleasant Avenue. THE STAR joins their many friends in offering congratulations and best wishes for happiness and prosperity as they travel life's pathway together.

Miss Lina Crissman, of Punxsutawney, and Fred Pifer, of Pittsburg, were the out-of-town guests present.

Hawthorne Musical Club.

The occasion was a happy one and the Hawthorne Club left behind it an enviable record. The selections were brimful of wit and humor and the reward was constant and hearty applause.—Newport (R. I.) Herald.

The program presented was unique and displayed the versatility of an excellent Concert Comedy Company.—Windsor (Vt.) Journal.

The performance was first class and the talent is without a parallel in its line. The students are to be complimented for procuring so talented a company.—Wolcott (N. Y.) Courier.

This club will be here January 29, under the auspices of the public schools.

The New Restaurant.

Mrs. D. W. Pyle will open The New Restaurant in the Centennial building, corner of Main and Fourth streets, next week. A first-class dining room, especially for ladies, will be run in connection with the restaurant. Meals will be served at all hours. All kinds of lunches and oysters in every style will be served. Mrs. Pyle will conduct a first-class restaurant. She will take a number of day boarders.

Consultation Meeting.

The Democrats of Reynoldsville borough will hold a consultation meeting in hose house No. 1 Thursday evening, January 15th. All interested in the spring election are invited to attend.

Main Street to be Paved.

By referring to minutes of town council it will be seen that a petition requesting council to proceed to pave Main street, from west borough line, or iron bridge, to Eighth street. The petition was accepted and the ordinance committee instructed to have an ordinance drafted. If there is no obstacles in the way this ordinance will be given first reading at the February meeting of council.

There has been so much said about paving Main street, and the necessity of such action, that it seems almost unnecessary to comment on the matter at this time. We are advocating the paving of Main street because we feel that it is really necessary that the work be done, and we know that it will make a decided improvement in the appearance of the town and will give strangers a good impression of Reynoldsville. THE STAR has a sixty foot lot within the proposed paving district on Main street and if the street is paved we will have to pay one-third of the expense of paving the sixty feet, therefore, we are advocating an improvement that means quite an expense to us, but we are willing to bear a share of the burden that our town may have the kind of streets that it should have. There is a petition being presented to property owners on Jackson street to have that street paved with brick, and it should be carried through. In the spring and fall Jackson street is in a horrible condition.

Council Meeting.

The regular meeting of the town council was held on Tuesday evening, Dec. 6th, with President Deible in the chair.

Members present, Farrell, Cottle, Ritzie, Williams, King and Deible. Minutes of the previous meeting read and approved.

Secretary of Board of Health reported receipts to be $5.50.

C. Mitchell, chief Burgess, reported receipts for licenses, &c., to be $19.00.

Chief Burgess Mitchell requested the council to take some actions towards supporting the Board of Health in stamping out small-pox.

President appointed a committee consisting of Messrs Applegate, Ritzie and Williams to meet with the Board of Health to make some arrangements.

Bills, interest and light amounting to $521.24 was ordered paid.

A committee from the merchants organization was present and requested the council to put on a night policeman. The name of Joseph M. King was suggested and a committee was appointed to meet Mr. King and see what arrangements could be made with him with power to hire him.

A petition signed by a majority of the citizens along the line of improvement requesting the council to proceed to pave Main street from West borough line to Eighth street, was read and on motion accepted and an ordinance ordered drafted.

No further business by motion adjourned.

Day and Night Policeman.

Town council have hired J. M. King to act as policeman, to go on duty at 1.00 p. m. each day and remain on duty until midnight. The merchants will likely hire Mr. King to remain on duty until 4.00 a. m., which would make his hours from 1. p. m. until 4.00 a. m. Mr. King will go on duty to-morrow. The town is to be congratulated on securing such a good man for police duty. He will not be trifled with and evildoers had better resolve to be in their good behavior while in Policeman King's bailiwick. The town has needed a day and night policeman for sometime and council did the proper thing to put one on. There will be less rowdyism on the streets hereafter.
