Visited the Borough Schools.

Last Friday Prof. R. B. Teitrick, County Superintendent of Public Schools, was visiting our borough schools. At the morning exercise he gave a most practical and helpful address, dwelling on many of the factors which enter into the life of the true student. By reason of the lack of time Prof. Teitrick was not able to visit all of the different grades. He will finish his work in our schools in the near future. While here he kindly presented to each pupil a book mark on which are printed some very wholesome suggestions.

Surprise and Handsome Present.

Mrs. James M. Moore, of West Reynoldsville, who has been secretary of Lady Winslow Degree Lodge No. 205, Daughters of Rebekah, for seven years, was given a birthday surprise party Monday evening by about forty members of the Rebekah lodge. While Mrs. Moore was out shopping the ladies assembled at her home carrying well filled baskets of good things to eat which they all partook of before home going time. In behalf of the Daughters of Rebekah Squire Stanley G. Austin presented Mrs. Moore with a handsome English China dinner set. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing "fitch," "snip" and "pit." It was a delightful surprise party, highly enjoyed by all present.

A Pretty Home Wedding.

On last Tuesday, April 5, 1904, at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. David Delp, of near Brinkerton, Pa., Mr. E. L. Johnston, one of Reynoldsville's most prominent citizens, and Miss Jennie Delp, a highly respected lady of New York, were united in marriage at high noon by Rev. James, of Limestone. After the ceremony the company sat down to a most sumptuous wedding dinner. Only a very few intimate friends of the high contracting parties were present, among them being, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Doverspike, of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston will make their future home at Reynoldsville, Pa.—New Bethlehem Leader.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston came to Reynoldsville Thursday evening and are now keeping house in Mr. Johnston's own cozy residence in West Reynoldsville. THE STAR joins with Mr. Johnston's numerous friends in extending congratulations.

April Term of Court.

The April term of criminal court opened at Brookville on Monday of this week with Judge John W. Reed on the bench. A. F. Huffman, of Poik township, was appointed foreman of the grand jury; B. F. Taylor, of Brookville, constable in charge of grand jury; W. B. Glenn, of Corsica, and James B. Park, of Eldred, tipstaves.

The hanging of Michael Pallone and the failure of Alieilo to get his sentence of death commuted to life imprisonment, seems to have had a good effect on the foreign element in the county, as there is not the usual number of shooting and cutting cases on the trial list this term of court.

AN OLD PIONEER GONE.

Joseph Morrison, one of the old settlers of Beechwoods, who was a resident of Reynoldsville a number of years, died at home of his son, Robert Morrison, on the Morrison homestead in Snyder township, on Sunday morning, April 10, 1904, after a short illness with pneumonia. He was one of the honest, sturdy old Scotch-Irish farmers of Beechwoods.

Joseph Morrison was born in County Derry, Ireland, October 15, 1826, making him 77 years, 5 months and 25 days old at time of his death. He came from Ireland to Beechwoods with his parents, Robert and Dorothy Morrison, in 1832. There were four brothers and four sisters in the family. The eldest, Susan, never came to America. The others were William, Letitia, John, Rebecca, Isaac, Barbara and Joseph, all of whom are dead but Barbara, now Mrs. Andrew Patton, of Illinois. About 1851 Joseph Morrison was married to Mary Ann McIntosh, who survives him. Unto them were born three children, two sons and one daughter, Robert, who resides on the old homestead, William James, of New Kensington, and Anna, now Mrs. Hood Knox, of Reynoldsville. Deceased was an uncle of John T. Morrison, governor of Idaho.

Joseph Morrison bought a property on Grant street and moved to Reynoldsville about nineteen years ago and resided here until a couple of years ago.

For a number of years Mr. Morrison was a member of the Covenant church. Funeral services were held at Morrison homestead at 10.00 a. m. yesterday and interment was made in the Beechwoods cemetery.

Elks Charity Fund Benefit.

"David Garrick" Reynolds opera house Thursday and Friday evening, April 21, 22.

David Garrick was the greatest of all English actors. While appearing in "Hamlet" at the Drury Lane Theatre in London, a beautiful girl occupied a box at nearly all of his performance. She became completely infatuated with the great actor, which developed a romance on which the comedy, "David Garrick," is founded. Little Miss Genevieve Dean will play the part of the girl, while Mr. Clifton Mallory will appear as David Garrick, the actor. Miss Dean is only 14 years of age, being the youngest Miss who has ever supported Mr. Mallory in the character, but possesses a natural gift for the art of acting. Her appearance in this part, which is one of the most difficult in all dramatic literature, is looked forward to with much interest by the people of Reynoldsville. The costumes worn by Miss Dean in the part are valued at over five hundred dollars. The balance of the cast are thoroughly up to the requirements of the play. A musical program will precede the action of the play by over 60 young misses in musical novelties. In beautiful costumes especially designed for the production. Reserved seat sale opens next week, Tuesday.

Death by Accident.

Mr. Samuel Ressler, of Reynoldsville, was at Worthville Friday of last week, April 8, attending the funeral of his brother, Milton Ressler, who was killed at New Maysville Tuesday night, April 5, by falling off the railroad bridge, 12 feet high, breaking his neck and fracturing skull. Mr. and Mrs. Ressler had been out west and were returning to their home near Langville, getting off the late train at New Maysville and started to walk to the hotel, Mr. Ressler carrying two large satchels. He accidentally fell off the bridge. Deceased was about 44 years old. This is the third funeral in the Ressler family in about three months.
