The morning program will be given by children from the primary department, with one or two exceptions, and the evening exercises will be given by older members of the school.

Is At Cambridge Springs.
Dr. S. Reynolds is at Cambridge Springs, Pa., being treated for a severe case of rheumatism. He had been confined to his home, and to his bed most of the time, for ten days and the doctors advised a trip to Cambridge Springs. He was taken to that place on a cot Monday afternoon. Mrs. Reynolds is at Cambridge with Doctor.

Fingers Smashed.
H. L. Fireman, of this place, who works on the tippie at Wisnaw, had the end of the large finger of right hand torn off and another finger badly smashed while at work last Friday. Fireman was in the act of spragging a mine car and let the sprag fall in front of car. In attempting to pick up the sprag his fingers were caught under the wheels of the car.

Adams-Brochys.
Mark Adams, a snapper at Star Glass Co. plant, and Miss Mary Brochys, daughter of Constable Jack Brochys of West Reynoldsville, were married in Olean, N. Y., June 1, 1904. They returned to Reynoldsville the latter part of the week and were serenaded by a callithumpian band at home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. F. S. Hoffman, on Fourth Street.

Sons of St. George.
Friday evening of last week District Deputy William Copping installed the following officers in Washington Lodge No. 124, Sons of St. George, at Reynoldsville: President, Wm. Broad; vice-president, John Trudgen; secretary, Albert Neale; treasurer, G. W. Sykes; messenger, Thomas Justham; chaplain, Thomas Gricks; inside sentinel, John Cottle; outside sentinel, William Copping; trustee 18 months, John Cottle.

Traction Company Power House.
The Jefferson Traction Company has bought the Mulhollan farm at the junction just above Prescottville and will build a power house there for the new trolley line between Reynoldsville and Sykesville. Men will begin excavating to-day for the foundation for power house, which will be 40 x 80 feet. The company wanted to build the power house in this borough, but were unable to make satisfactory arrangements with the Reynoldsville Water Company for water supply. The car barns will be built on Bradford street, opposite the Jefferson Supply Co. store.

An Editor Married.
Mr. Thomas V. Hendricks, one of the editors of the Brookville Republican, and Miss Mary L. Chesnut, youngest daughter of Judge and Mrs. W. K. Chesnut, of Brookville, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents at 8:00 p. m. Wednesday, June 1, 1904. Rev. Dr. James Conway, pastor of the Brookville Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony in the presence of the members of the immediate families of the bride and groom. Thursday morning Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks drove to Baxter, five miles west of Brookville, and took the early train for Pittsburg to escape the hot shoes, rice, &c., that their young friends expected to present to them at the railroad station. The editor of THE STAR went to Pittsburg on the same train with Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks and they behaved so nicely that the passengers never suspected that they were out on a honeymoon trip.

Mr. Hendricks, who was editor of the Falls Creek Herald six months, is one of the best newspaper men in this section.

Injured in Mine.
Charles Dickey, a miner of this place, was badly injured in the Cox & McCreight mine near Reynoldsville yesterday afternoon by a fall of roof. It was only the prompt action of Lewis Kleinhans, who was working with Dickey, that saved his life. When the roof fell Mr. Dickey was knocked to a stooping position and was completely buried with slate, rock and dirt. For a few seconds Mr. Kleinhans worked hard and fast, lifting large pieces of slate and rock that he could not lift under ordinary circumstances, and he soon released Mr. Dickey, but not any too soon to keep him from being buried deeper by more falling dirt and rock.

Mr. Dickey's right shoulder and right elbow were fractured, his left thigh dislocated, and he received numerous contusions. He had a narrow escape from death.

Elks and Eagles Play Ball.
The Elks and Eagles, two social societies of Reynoldsville, played the first of a series of three games of base ball yesterday afternoon, the losers to pay for a banquet for the winners. It was the most exciting, interesting and scientific game of base ball played on the Reynoldsville grounds this season. The Eagles "scored" too high for the Elks and defeated them to the tune of 8-20 in a five inning game. Reynolds Gibson was catcher for Elks and Ward Eason, Frank Sutter and Frank Bohren did the fancy work in the box. Harry Copping piteher and David Hill catcher for the Eagles. "Jake" Schlabig made the only home run in the game. John O'Hare umpired the game. There were enough "rooters" on both sides to make the welkin ring when most any kind of a play was made.

Graduated Last Week.
Dr. C. W. Hoffman, son-in-law of Robert Walte, of this place, graduated last week in the Medical Department of the Western University of Pennsylvania at Pittsburg. Mrs. Hoffman, who has been staying at home of her parents part of the time while her husband was attending the University, went to Pittsburg to see her husband graduate. Dr. Hoffman will go before the State Board this week for examination. During his college days he had considerable experience in the medical profession in some of the Pittsburg hospitals.

Bullet Located.
Captain Leaby, of Falls Creek, who was shot by a burglar in his home on Tuesday night of last week, is getting along nicely. The bullet that struck Captain in left arm, about half way between elbow and shoulder, was located by the doctors on Monday of this week in back part of left shoulder. It will be removed.

The New College Rooms.
Those who have not visited the new rooms of the Reynoldsville Business College can hardly appreciate the wonderful progress which this institution is making. The entire third floor of the Reynoldsville Hardware Co.'s new building has been leased and everything fitted up for the express convenience of its pupils, and it has been finished on a scale of magnificence which renders the rooms very handsome in appearance. Numerous side windows furnish abundance of light to every room by day, while for the evening sessions over thirty electric lights turn night into day.

The business office and correspondence department of the school is located in one of the front rooms, and adjoining the office in front is the music department, which is equipped with a piano and organ. This department is under the care of Miss Margaret Myers, formerly of Greensburg, a daughter of Rev. J. W. Myers, of Reynoldsville. Miss Myers is a musician of the highest skill and conservatory training and a teacher by profession.

Next to these rooms is a very large one devoted to the bookkeeping department, which is equipped with special desks. Behind this is the typewriting department, a room almost as large as the former and equipped with numerous high grade writing machines. In the rear of the building is the shorthand department with a long blackboard and other necessary equipment. The college now has plenty of floor space, but none too much if its present rate of growth continues. Prof. and Mrs. Hughes are to be congratulated on the high rank to which they have raised the local institution.

Auburn Prison.
Sunday afternoon the editor of THE STAR heard Rev. Cordello Herriek, chaplain of the Auburn, N. Y., prison talk almost one hour and a half in the M. E. church in DuBois, to men only. His subject was "The Men Who Wear Stripes." There are 1150 men in the Auburn prison. Their average age is 29 years; they represent 267 different trades, callings and professions; 70 per cent of them are unmarried; 37 per cent had been in reformatories before going to prison; 84 per cent drank liquor; 64 per cent of their fathers used intoxicants. There are a number of young men in the prison between the ages of 18 and 22 years and a large percentage of them read yellow literature and their crimes were committed on account of reading that kind of trash. New York State has only one prison for women and there are one hundred women in that prison while there are four thousand men in the prisons of New York state. Rev. Herriek said: "The women go to church and the men go to prison."

Rev. Herriek said that during the seven years he has been chaplain of the Auburn prison there has only been one prisoner in that institution who was not repentant and sorry for the crime he committed and that was Colgoz, the assassin of President McKinley.

Burglar Give Right Name.
The burglar who was shot by Rev. Chisholm in the Presbyterian parsonage at Falls Creek about 2:30 a. m. last Wednesday and was taken to the Brookville jail the same day, giving his name as John Doe and his residence Rochester, N. Y., gave his right name and residence last Saturday evening when he thought he would soon die. Bernard Gorman is his name and his parents live at Titusville. A sister of the burglar came to Brookville Sunday and is still at Brookville. Gorman was in such a precarious condition Saturday, Sunday and Monday that the doctors said he could not live. He was a little better yesterday and is still living.

Playing Good Ball.
Thomas O'Hare, of Reynoldsville, now captain of the Hartford, Conn., ball team, of the Connecticut State League, has been keeping up his record on the diamond this season. The Hartford Daily Courant of June 1st says: "O'Hare has made twenty-four hits in twelve games and there was a number of two baggers in them."

For One Week.
Commencing Thursday morning, we will give you Double Gold Trading Stamps when you purchase lace curtains. If you buy a pair of our unmatched $1.00 curtains you get $2.00 worth of Gold Trading Stamps. Besides we save you 15 to 35 per cent on your curtain purchase. Bing-Stoke Co.

Sunday Observance Case on Trial.

About four weeks ago notices were sent to our merchants that the Sunday law would be enforced at Reynoldsville and the notices were signed "Sunday Observance Committee." Matters drifted along a couple of Sundays without any action being taken in the matter, but the first of last week one of our merchants was arrested. Monday, June 6, at 9:00 a. m., was the time fixed for a hearing before Squire E. Neff. At 3:00 p. m. Monday, after about six hours had been spent on the case, it was continued until Tuesday afternoon and another half day was spent in hearing testimony. At 9:00 a. m. to-day the lawyers will plead their cases.

For the benefit of our readers we publish several sections of the Sunday law in this issue of THE STAR.

Revenge! Revenge!! Revenge!!!
"A Black Revenge," by Florence Warden, author of "The Secret of the Princess Paul," "The House on the Marsh," etc., is a thrilling story which will begin in the Pittsburg Sunday Dispatch June 12.
