Twin Baby Boys.

W. Harry Moore, the grocerman, was setting up the cigars to his friends Saturday because twin baby boys arrived at his home Friday night, July 22, 1904. Mr. Moore has five boys but no girls in his home. "I think I will raise a base ball nine of my own," said Mr. Moore to ye editor Saturday morning.

Restaurant Changes Hands.

Frank W. Walker, of Warren, Pa., bought the restaurant in the Centennial building, on Main street, from J. W. Chatham and took charge of the same Monday morning. Mr. Walker has had considerable experience in the restaurant business. He will make some improvements on interior of the restaurant.

Gone to Ernest.

Thomas Thomas, who had been an employe in the Jefferson Coal & Iron Co. office at this place four years, has been transferred from Reynoldsville to Ernest, Indiana Co. He left here Saturday. Mr. Thomas, who was a member of the M. E. choir, is a fine tenor singer and will be missed by that choir and congregation. He has numerous friends here who are sorry to see him leave.

Borough Brings Suit.

Several of the property owners along the paved portion of Fourth street, which was partly paved last fall and completed this spring, have refused to pay their portion of expenses of paving on grounds that the price per square yard was higher than they expected to pay. The borough has brought suit against these parties. The case will be tried before Squire E. Neff Friday of this week.

Another Public Fountain.

A subscription paper is being circulated in town to raise enough money to put up another public drinking fountain on Main street, at corner of Fourth street. This fountain will not have a trough for horses to drink from, only be for the human family to slake their thirst. It is the intention to put in a fountain that will cost about $200.00, half of which has been subscribed already. This fountain will be supplied with pure spring water from the same spring that supplies the fountain at corner of Main and Fifth streets.

Bridge Was Condemned.

Squire J. L. Long, acting as supervisor in Winslow township, discovered yesterday morning that the bridge across Sandy Lick creek, at foot of Fifth street, was unfit to drive over and he condemned the bridge and immediately put men at work repairing it. Had Squire Long not discovered the unfit condition of bridge and stopped public travel over it when he did, the bridge would have gone down soon under some of the heavy loads of brick or stone that are being hauled over it every day. It is a wonder the bridge did not go down before Squire Long examined it.

Killed a Rattlesnake.

James Delaney, the tonsorial artist, and several other fellows were at James Hughes' camp, near Allens Mills, last Sunday and while strolling through the woods Mr. Delaney almost stepped on a large rattlesnake that was coiled up on a log with its head sticking up about five inches above its body. Mr. Delaney happened to have a small rifle in his hand and shot the snake, lost his nerve and has been somewhat rattled ever since. The snake was forty-two inches long and had ten rattles on its body. His snakeship was brought to town and given to Alfred Euser who skinned it and will make a belt out of the skin.

At Camp Quay.

Frank P. Alexander, assistant cashier in Sooley, Alexander & Co. bank of this place, is at Camp Quay, Gettysburg, this week at the National Guard encampment playing a cornet in the Fifth regiment band as a substitute, three of the regular cornet players of the band being on the sick list. The ten day engagement, with good pay and all expenses, came to Mr. Alexander unexpected and unlooked for. It will give him experience in camp life, sleeping under tent, eating baked beans, bacon, &c., &c. A postal card was received from Mr. Alexander Monday on which he stated, "I am having a great time." An officer and four privates escorted Frank into Gettysburg Saturday to buy a joint of stove pipe and two yards of toweling.

Birthday Surprise Party.

Mrs. George R. Yuengert, of West Reynoldsville, was given a birthday surprise party Thursday evening, July 21. Mrs. Yuengert was induced by a couple of neighbor women to walk down around the silk mill, glass plant, brick yards and new steel works that evening and when she returned home she found about thirty-five neighbors and friends had taken possession of her house, a complete, but agreeable, surprise to her. The ladies had carried well filled baskets with them and in due time a fine lunch was served. A rocking chair, china dish and a china sugar and cream set were presented to Mrs. Yuengert. It was a very pleasant surprise party, greatly enjoyed by all.

Acting as Supervisor.

The bondsmen of F. M. Brigham, supervisor of Winslow township, who left his home the second of July, and has not been heard from since, have engaged Squire J. L. Long, of Sykesville, to act as supervisor until the August term of court, at which time a petition will be presented to the court asking that Mr. Brigham's office be declared vacant and that Mr. Long be appointed to fill the vacancy. Mr. Long will be an excellent man for the position and there is no doubt but that he will be appointed.

Scene of Activity.

Main street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, has been a busy place the past week with masons working on curb stones, men setting curb stones, men grading, teams hauling dirt away, men digging up iron water pipes and replacing them with lead pipes, digging up sewer pipes, telephone men changing wires and moving poles, and last, but not least, a large number of fellows standing around with their hands in their pockets watching the men work and expressing their opinions, without being asked, as to how the work should be done.

Tracing a Crime.

J. R. P. Brown, of Nebraska, temporarily located in Pittsburgh, visited his cousin, George Brown, of Panie, and James G. Brown in this place for a week, returning to Pittsburgh Monday. Mr. Brown is staying in Pittsburgh working on the case of his brother, J. O. Brown, who died mysteriously in Pittsburgh over a year ago and a jury since found that he had been poisoned. It is claimed that one of five persons administered the poison, but to find the guilty person is a hard problem.

Arranging Schedule.

Arrangements have been made, except fixing date, for a series of base ball games between the clubs of the Fraternal Order of Eagles of DuBois and Reynoldsville. John Kain, manager of the Reynoldsville Eagle club, expected to play the first game at Reynoldsville to-morrow afternoon, but had not been notified up to last evening whether it would suit the DuBois Eagles to play to-morrow afternoon.

Must Not Use Sewer.

On account of a crew of men being at work lowering the sewer pipe on Willow alley, all the people using that sewer line were notified not to use the sewer, but a number of people ignored the notice and made extra work and expense to lower the pipe. A second notice was sent out Saturday and if it is ignored somebody will get into trouble. It will require at least a week more to complete the work.

Want Wider Paving.

According to present specifications the paving on Main street, between Fifth and Seventh streets, will only be twenty-four feet wide, and a petition is now ready to be presented to council asking that the width of the paving between Fifth street and Cole alley be made forty-four feet instead of twenty-four feet wide.

Lawn Tennis.

Dr. John H. Murray and Dr. L. L. Means, of Reynoldsville, Rev. Cowan, of Big Run, and Dr. Stevenson, of Adrian, played lawn tennis at Adrian Monday afternoon of this week. Five sets were played, the Reynoldsville players winning four of the five, as follows: 6-1, 6-2, 6-0, 6-4, 6-4.

Sold Bakery.

F. E. Dare, proprietor of the Model Bakery in this place, has sold his bakery in Falls Creek to Rev. J. C. Wharton, and will devote his entire time to the Model Bakery. He has been doing the baking at Falls Creek for both bakeries, but now expects to build ovens at Reynoldsville.

Auto Jaunt.

A. B. Weed, chief train dispatcher in P. R. R. office at this place, is now off on a two weeks' vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Weed left here yesterday on a jaunt on their automobile. The distance they will travel depends on the weather and condition of the roads.

The Keystone band will give a concert on Main street this evening.

Join Swartz's suit pressing club. 75 cents per month.

A Tale of Woe.

Thursday night a girl from DuBois and a young fellow from Punsutawney were arrested for being drunk and disorderly. They drove around town in a buggy until the young fellow got tired of his companion, drove on to a side street and threw the girl out of buggy among the weeds and left her. Both parties were arrested and put in lock-up. Friday the young fellow sent a telephone message to his home in Punsutawney for money and Friday afternoon his mother came over and paid the fines and both were released. The young fellow would have been arrested by the girl for assault and battery had her fine not been paid.

Hibernian Re-Union.

The second annual re-union of the Ancient Order of Hibernians of four counties, Jefferson, Indiana, Clearfield and Elk, will be held at Punsutawney to-morrow, July 28th. Division No. 1, A. O. H., of Reynoldsville, will be accompanied by the Keystone band. It is expected that about two hundred people, including the families and friends of the Hibernians, will go to Punsutawney. Special trolley cars will leave here at 8.30, 8.40 and 8.50 a. m. to-morrow for Punsutawney. A big parade in the afternoon.

Has Appendicitis.

John T. Barclay, of DuBois, formerly a citizen of this place, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Barclay, of Jackson street, has appendicitis. Miss Jessie Barclay, trained nurse, was called to DuBois last Thursday evening to nurse her brother. The doctors expect to get Mr. Barclay back to health without an operation.

False Alarm.

A man awakened William DeHart's family about eleven o'clock Thursday night and told them that their son, Charles, had been killed on the street and frightened the mother almost into hysteria. It was a false report and no foundation for it, although the man who made the startling statement to the family was acting in good faith.

Formal Opening.

Mammoth Park, near the Mansion Inn, was formally opened on Wednesday last week with a basket picnic and dance. There was a large crowd of people, estimated at one thousand, at the park Wednesday evening. "Uncle Ed" Seeley and Charles Hoy furnished music for "tripping the light fantastic." It was good old time music.

Will Soon Dedicate.

The Jefferson Macaroni Factory at this place is about completed and C. & J. Marinaro, proprietors, expect to dedicate the factory August 5th or 6th. About one hundred and fifty invitations will be sent out for the dedication ceremonies.

Entered Two Places.

Robbers entered the millinery store of Miss Frances Sayers and the grocery store of Arthur Tyson last Sunday night by breaking the locks off rear doors. They must have been frightened away, as they did not get anything out of the millinery store and a small amount of goods out of the grocery store.

Rails Ordered.

As soon as Main street is graded and ready for brick laying a crew of men will be put to work laying track for the Jefferson Traction Company from Fifth street down Main street. The rails for Main street have been bought and will be here in a day or two. The rails are the same as are used in the cities.

Fell Under Train.

Walter Shick, a twelve-year-old boy, was fooling around the Pennsylvania railroad at Brookville last Saturday and fell under a freight train. His right leg was so badly crushed that it had to be amputated below the knee, and his left foot was badly injured.

Hard to Quit.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Deemer, of Brookville, who own a farm in McCallmont township, spent several days on the farm last week and Mr. Deemer helped make hay. Mr. Deemer lived on a farm for so many years that it is hard for him to get away from farm life.

North Reunion.

The North family will hold a reunion at Highland Park on Thursday, August 18. All relatives of family are invited to attend and take baskets and friends with them.

COMMITTEE.

A number of colored men, horses, wagons and carts, with grading tools and implements, passed through town Monday evening on their way from the Summerville & Clarion railroad grade to work on the B. & S. railroad grade near Tyler.

Over the stairs in the hall in Nolan block is a printed sign, "Don't spit on the stairs," under which some wag wrote, "This means everybody but you."

Miss Sue Miller, a dressmaker with city experience, will do work at home of Mrs. Harry Sykes on Fourth street.

An Aerle of the Fraternal Order of Eagles will be instituted at Punsutawney in the near future.

Ton day bargain sale ends Saturday night. Don't fail to attend this greatest sale of sales. Bing-Stoke Co.
