A Little of Everything.

To-morrow is groundhog day. One month of 1905 has been torn off the calendar. Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Mowery, Jan. 30, 1905, a son. Two weeks from yesterday will be St. Valentine Day. The citizens of Brookville are raising money to build a $20,000 hospital in that place. The Work Society of the Presbyterian church held a social in the chapel last Thursday evening. If the woodchuck sees his shadow to-morrow we will have six weeks of same kind of weather. Undertaker J. H. Hughes has opened a branch office at Knoxdal, which David Stoner has charge of. The Republicans of this borough will hold their primary election to-morrow, from 3.00 p. m. to 8.00 p. m. Judge Reed, of this county, is in Clearfield this week assisting Judge Smith in holding civil court. Seelye, Alexander & Co., bankers, gave a carnation to each depositor who called at the bank last Saturday. The Jefferson County Medical Society held a meeting at the National Hotel, Reynoldsville, last Friday afternoon. The Democrats of West Reynoldsville will hold a caucus this evening to nominate a ticket for February election. The Ancient Order of Hibernians will hold a benefit ball in Frank's Park on Tuesday night of next week. "A Bad Ox" will be Dr. A. J. Meek's subject at the Baptist church next Sunday evening. Past Sargent Grant Rhoads, of Reynoldsville, will institute an order of Improved Order of Red Men at Sykesville in the near future. Platt, Barber & Co., of DuBois, defeated Winslow township in the suit for damages tried in the Jefferson county court last week. The commissioners' statement and the auditors' report of Jefferson county finances for the year 1904 will be published in THE STAR next week. Lawrence Fye, of Winslow township, and Miss Mary Maxwell, of Rathmel, were married at the Baptist parsonage Rev. J. E. Dean January 25th.

Williams Brothers lumber shop is closed on account of death of their sister, Mrs. Anna Jacobs, of Falls Creek. B. J. Sykes, of Troutville, brother of G. W. Sykes, of Reynoldsville, will be a candidate this year for Republican nomination for treasurer of Clearfield county. Edward T. Coombs and Miss Catherine Gallagher, of Sugar Hill, were united in marriage by Squire E. Neff Sunday, January 29, 1905, at 8.00 p. m. at Squire's residence on Hill street. Lawyer Smith M. McCreight, whose second commission as notary public expired on Monday, January 30, 1905, gave bond the same day and got a new commission for five years more. Prof. Hines will hold a dance in Oatman's new hall, DuBois, Pa., on Saturday evening. All sleighing parties cordially invited. Dancing from 8.30 to 11.45. Gents 35c; ladies free. Forty Hours Devotion was held in the Catholic church at this place this week, beginning Sunday and ending at 9.00 a. m. yesterday. Several out of town priests assisted Father Brady and Lynch. The Brookwayville Record and Falls Creek Herald editors are having a newspaper "scrap" and some of our other exchanges are saying harsh things about neighbor editors. We are forced to the conclusion that somebody is telling a few lies. "Joshua Simpkins," a four act rural district play, was presented at the Reynolds opera house Friday night before a full house. It's a good company and carries a fine orchestra. The saw mill scene was a vast improvement over any attempts in a similar line. Livestockman E. C. Burns took a four-horse load of young people to Beechwoods last Friday evening to see a game of basket ball between the Beechwoods high school team and Brookville team. The young people were dumped out in a snow drift on the homeward trip. Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Bowser entertained about thirty friends at their residence on Main street last Friday evening. Various games, instrumental music, several songs by Mrs. Dr. John H. Murray, constituted the entertainment of the evening. Refreshments were served. At a late hour the guests returned to their homes. Duncan M. Dunsmore, jr., sailor boy, who visited his parents in West Reynoldsville the latter part of last month, is now on the "Colorado," a new armored cruiser that was put in commission two weeks ago. After the maneuvering in the West Indies the "Colorado," in North Atlantic squadron, will start on a cruise around the world. Prof. and Mrs. D. S. Bacon very pleasantly entertained the teachers of the public schools of this place Monday evening of this week. Pictures of prominent men and those advertising many important foods were placed on the walls. The guests were to guess what each represented. A prize of a bunch of beautiful carnations was awarded to Miss Elvie Coleman, who had answered correctly the largest number. Delicious refreshments were served and the teachers spent a delightful evening. A wedding took place last evening at 8.00 o'clock at the Baptist parsonage. The high contracting parties, Mr. Joseph Gould, of Eleanora, and Miss Melora Justham, of Reynoldsville, were united in marriage with the ring ceremony by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. The bride and groom were accompanied by Mr. Wm. Justham and Miss Lizzie Fry, of Reynoldsville, and Mr. Bert Crooks, of Eleanora, and Miss Eliza Gould, of Anita. Mr. Crooks and Miss Gould acted as bridesmaid and groomsmen. Their many friends wish the newly wedded pair a happy voyage through life. The contest to be held at Brookville March 10 will be the inter-high school contest of the senior classes of the three schools, Punxsutawney, Brookville and Reynoldsville. Each school will have four representatives, a debater, a book reviewer, an orator, and a reciter. Those who are to take part in the contest from this place have made their selections and are working on them. Special arrangements for a train to bring our people back after the contest are being made and it is hoped that Reynoldsville will take a good delegation to Brookville to encourage our contestants by their presence. Fuller details will be given later. Six young men hired a rig at Burns, Hivery stable Saturday evening to drive to DuBois. They upset on the way home near Skunk Hollow, and the team ran away from them. The fellows walked home expecting to find the team at the barn, but the team was not there. Bert Burns took another team and started out to look for the rig, but returned in a couple of hours without it. E. C. Burns then started and drove to DuBois and almost to Luthersburg, but failed to get any trace of the rig. The team was found about daylight in the swamp near Rathmel. For some reason the horses had turned off the road and taken to the woods and had gone over logs that would seem almost impossible for them to get over. It is hardly necessary to add that the new $75.00 three seated sleigh was hardly worth gathering up the pieces.

A NEW CONTRIBUTOR. Brian H. Butler Will Furnish "Star" With Series of Letters. Brian H. Butler, well known to a number of THE STAR readers, is to furnish this paper with a series of letters on the Southland. Mr. Butler, formerly on the editorial staff of the Pittsburgh Times, now located at Southern Pines, North Carolina, is a newspaper writer of great ability, and the readers of THE STAR can expect interesting letters each week from him. The first letter will be found in this issue. Bone of Hand Broken. Richard Reddick, janitor at the M. E. church, broke a bone in his left hand Monday forenoon of this week while working around the church. Democratic Caucus. The Democrats of Reynoldsville borough will hold a caucus at the Building and Loan office at eight o'clock to-morrow, Thursday evening, February 2nd. Rural Routes Approved. The Postoffice Department has approved the two additional rural free delivery routes from Reynoldsville post-office, into Paradise and Beechwoods, which were inspected last week by a government official. The routes will be established before many days or weeks. It is likely that two of the four Reynoldsville men who passed the mail carrier examination at Punxsutawney last fall will be given the new routes. Knights of Columbus. Council No. 935, Knights of Columbus, will be instituted in Reynoldsville next Sunday. About five hundred visitors are expected here from the Councils of Bradford, St. Marys, Clearfield and other towns. The visitors will come in on special trains. The exemplification of the first degree will be given in the new I. O. O. F. hall in the forenoon, and the second and third degrees in the afternoon. There will be a banquet at 6.00 p. m. Beechwoods Lady Dead. Ellen A. Smith, one of the old residents of Beechwoods, and second cousin of Francis D. Smith of Reynoldsville, died Saturday evening, January 28, 1905. Deceased was 69 years old last fall. Was the daughter of Andrew Smith, deceased. She resided on the old homestead near Grove Summit. She is survived by three brothers and four sisters. Funeral took place yesterday forenoon. Interment was made in the Beechwoods cemetery. Public School Day. In spite of the stormy and cold weather last Wednesday between sixty and seventy parents and friends of education visited the public schools of this place. Many of the visitors spent a little time in each room. The teachers had on exhibition in their respective rooms some of the work of the pupils. During the day, as far as it was possible, the regular recitations were held. Many of the visitors expressed themselves as being highly pleased with what they saw and heard. Death from Brights Disease. Benjamin Franklin Swartz, of Soldier, died Friday evening, January 27, 1905, from Brights disease. He had been ill some time. Deceased was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Swartz, who live near Emericville. He was 56 years, 6 months and 23 days old. The body was taken to Emericville Monday, where funeral was held in the Lutheran church, conducted by Rev. W. H. Garnett. Interment was made in the cemetery near the church. Undertaker J. H. Hughes, of Reynoldsville, had charge of the funeral. George Boyer Died Sunday Night. George Boyer, aged 80 years, died at the home of his brother, James Boyer, in Paradise at 11.00 p. m. Sunday, January 29, 1905. Funeral at the Lutheran church in Pifer settlement yesterday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. W. Myers, of Reynoldsville. Brights disease was cause of his death. Mr. Boyer was an uncle of Mrs. Grant Rhoads, Mrs. Wm. Howlett, Mrs. J. C. Cavender and Alex. Frantz, of Reynoldsville. He had been making his home among relatives for sometime. He wanted to go to home of his brother, James Boyer, to die and was taken out there Sunday afternoon and died that night. Joseph Bailey Dead. Joseph Bailey, who resided near Rathmel, died at home of his son-in-law, John Ruth, with whom he was visiting, near Brookwayville, January 24, 1905. He died suddenly from heart trouble. Mr. Bailey had been at the barn at 11.00 a. m. and at 1.00 p. m. of same day he died. He was 53 years, 7 months and 24 days old at time of death. Funeral service was held Thursday conducted by Rev. W. L. Richards. Interment was made in the Brookwayville cemetery. W. J. H. Kocher, undertaker, had charge of the funeral. This was the Joseph Bailey whom some people thought at first was the man that committed suicide near the Reynoldsville Baptist church two years ago last December by shooting himself. Boys overcoats reduced at Millirens.

EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS. An All Day Meeting in the M. E. Church on Friday. The revival meetings are still in progress in the M. E. church in this place. This is the fourth week of the meetings. Large congregations present each evening. Thirty-three persons have been at the altar. There will be an all day meeting on Friday of this week. Prayer meeting at 10.00 a. m., preaching at 10.30; prayer meeting at 2.00 p. m., preaching at 2.30 p. m., prayer meeting at 7.00 p. m. and preaching at 8.00. Rev. J. W. McIntyre, of Washington, Pa., will preach Thursday evening and three times Friday. The Helping Hand Society will serve coffee and sandwiches free Friday evening in lecture room of the church to those who attend the afternoon meetings and want to remain for the night meetings. Rev. Charles W. Tushingham, of Pittsburg, will preach Sunday morning and evening. Hit an Officer. Chief-of-Police Adelsperger arrested a big glassworker named Claypole Saturday evening for knocking a fellow down and after being placed under arrest Claypole decided to give the officer "leg ball" and started to run. Chief-of-Police Adelsperger had on a long overcoat and he threw off the overcoat and started after Claypole. They ran down Third street to alley, down alley to creek and up First street to iron bridge when the officer caught his man, but they were both somewhat exhausted. Claypole hit the officer on side of face with a bottle or something, dazing him for a few seconds, and then hit him twice with his fist and got away. Adelsperger's mace and revolver were in his overcoat pocket or this item would read differently. When Mr. Adelsperger has his paraphernalia with him big men or little men don't abuse him, very much nor often get away from him when he goes after them. Wrong Impression. EDITOR STAR: The management of the Reynoldsville Banking and Trust Co. wish to correct an impression that is abroad that our bank is the same as the Peoples' National Bank which is being organized here. We wish to state that we are a separate and distinct body and have no connection whatever with that organization. Our President, Mr. David Wheeler, says the publication of his name a few weeks ago as one of the applicants for a charter for the Peoples' Bank was unauthorized and without his knowledge, he having never signed any papers for such purpose. We wish to say further that our bank is a settled affair. We have offers for all stock not wanted in this vicinity. Our Mr. Howard is in Indianapolis this week buying supplies and our bank fixtures are being made. Come and secure your stock before it is all gone. REYNOLDSVILLE BANK & TRUST CO. Anywhere in Pennsylvania. Some people are under the impression that Chief-of-Police F. P. Adelsperger does not have the authority to arrest a person outside the limits of Reynoldsville borough without a warrant. Mr. Adelsperger has a commission from the governor that gives him power to arrest a person anywhere within the limits of this Commonwealth whom he sees committing a crime. Skipping into West Reynoldsville borough or Winslow township when Adelsperger is giving chase, does not lessen Mr. Adelsperger's official power, nor does it give the fellow the privilege of resisting or abusing the officers under the excuse of self-defense. In a Collision. M. J. Farrell, P. R. agent at this place, and daughter, Miss Ella Farrell, were in a collision on the Ft. Wayne railroad, in Allegheny City yards, at 11.40 last Tuesday night, and Miss Ella had her nose broken. Several passengers were badly injured, but no person killed. Mr. Farrell escaped injury, but was shaken up considerably. The passenger train they were going out of the city on collided with an incoming passenger train. A switch being turned wrong caused the collision. Death From Childbirth. Mrs. Walter S. Jacobs, of Falls Creek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reese Williams, of Reynoldsville, died at 2.00 p. m. Tuesday, January 31st, 1905, at her home. Childbirth was cause of death. Mrs. Jacobs was forty years old. She is survived by her husband, a son eighteen years old, daughter fourteen and a baby that was born yesterday morning. Funeral at 2.30 p. m. to-morrow. Mrs. Jacobs was a member of Protected Home Circle, Daughters of Rebekah and Maccabees. A Traveling Man Said. "I never strike a town on my trip that has as many good barbers as Reynoldsville." Perfect Skin Food is used in all the shops. 25 cents the jar. Reynolds Drug Co., Mfrs. "Red Box" and 30th anniversary sale Thursday, February 16th. Stoke, Druggist. Overcoats reduced at Millirens.

A Valuable Donation. Last Thursday the public schools of this place were the happy recipient of a most excellent educational collection donated by the Philadelphia Museum. About 325 specimens were sent, over a hundred of which are in glass jars with descriptive labels on them. The collection embraces both raw material and manufactured articles, consisting of cereals, sugars, coffees, rice, oils, woods, wools, cottons, minerals, cards and plates illustrating the manufacture of many articles. Everything is labelled and a brief description accompanies each specimen. This collection was secured through the recommendation and efforts of Senator John S. Fisher, Representative S. Taylor North, Supt. R. B. Teitrick and Principal C. V. Smith and through the kindness of Prof. W. P. Wilson, director of the Philadelphia Museum. These specimens are very valuable and useful to teachers in the teaching of geography and in all nature work as it stands related to the instruction given in the public schools. Reynoldsville is indeed fortunate in securing a collection of so much interest and value and the school authorities are very grateful to the Philadelphia Museum for this donation. A Growing Sentiment. There is a growing sentiment amongst the Republican voters of Jefferson county in favor of Grant Scheafnocker for sheriff. He is an honest, plain workman who has all the qualifications to properly fill that office. No man will make a mistake in being for him. Mr. Scheafnocker is now serving his third year as a member of County Committee from second precinct Winslow township, and was one of the delegates to last state convention. He was at the head of the committee who were in charge of that grand Republican rally and reception to the Hon. John P. Elkin, which was held in Reynoldsville last fall. He was chairman of the parade committee which gave the 105th Regiment that pleasant surprise at our school house last October. This section of the county is entitled to at least one of the offices to be nominated in June. Mr. Scheafnocker has many friends who will rally to his support. If location, qualification and organization count, U. G. Scheafnocker should be the nominee of the Republican party of Jefferson county for Sheriff at their primaries to be held June 17th, 1905.—ad. The Chicago Glee Club. The next number of the lecture course will be given by the famous Chicago Glee Club. The club has opened a large number of lecture courses this year with phenomenal success. "The entertainment given Monday evening by the Chicago Glee Club was pronounced by all who heard it the best on the course. We cannot speak too highly of the members of the Glee Club, who gave an entertainment of superior merit. Every number of the program deserves special mention, so uniformly well were they presented."—Blue Grass Clipper, Midway, Ky. "With the opening number the club captivated the audience and held it spellbound throughout the evening."—Dispatch, Shamokin, Pa. "The Chicago Glee Club as a quartet is one of the greatest that ever appeared in Dallas. As soloists they can hardly be excelled and for blend of tone and harmony they are nearly perfection. They are not only singers, but actors of a high order."—News, Dallas, Texas. "Slavery as a Sectional Question." A fair sized audience listened to Dr. S. D. Fess in Assembly hall last evening. The lecture was purely historical but presented with a vividness that rendered it as entertaining as any popular lecture ever delivered in that hall. Dr. Fess portrayed first, the social conditions which made the north and south distinctive, second, the motives which guided the formation of the federal government, and third, the deadly earnestness with which the struggle for supremacy was waged in congress while the nation, slowly but inevitably, drifted into the awful war which sent 600,000 Americans into the valley of the shadow of death. The address was free from partisanship and no one could listen to it without gaining a truer conception of the forces which made the union and a deeper love for the country which has breasted such perils. Card of Thanks. We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to our neighbors and friends for their great kindness during the illness and death of our husband and father. MRS. L. T. WILLIAMS AND FAMILY. "Red Box." Money in it for you. 30th anniversary sale Thursday, February 16th. Stoke, Druggist. George Hartman, drayman, will furnish boxes and barrels for moving household goods, &c. If you want to move get Hartman. Perfect Skin Food for chapped hands and face. 25 cents the jar. Reynolds Drug Co. Piano and organ tuning, repairing and cleaning done at reasonable rates. Leave address at Reynoldsville Business College. Underwear reduced at Millirens.

The schools of Sykesville had a "Banner Day" last Wednesday, Jan. 25, on account of it being "Patron's Day." Never before were so many persons present on one day. All day long the rooms were filled with friends and patrons. The schools were dismissed at 3.30 p. m. and all visitors assembled in room No. 4, which was filled to its utmost, where very interesting and well delivered address were given by Rev. D. J. Frum, Rev. J. W. Crawford, J. L. Long, F. C. Bonnet and George Null, also responses by all the teachers were well received. An interest has been taken in the schools this year more than ever and we are very glad to have Prof. Geist, who had been absent from us during first part of term on account of a serious attack of fever, with us again. He has again gone into the work very earnestly and deserves much credit for putting the schools where they are to-day. We found in all the rooms very earnest work and fine specimens of work done, especially in room No. 1. The citizens tendered the teachers a vote of thanks for their excellent work, energy and good order maintained, which they are putting forth this term. We never spent a day in school which was more pleasant and beneficial to us than "Patron's Day" this term. TWO PATRONS. Basket Ball. The Brookville high school team and Beechwoods high school team played a game of basket ball in the high school hall near the Beechwoods Presbyterian church last Friday evening and the Brookville boys were defeated. Score 21-18. The Beechwoods boys are experts at basket ball. The senior and junior girls of Beechwoods high school played a game of basket ball after the Brookville boys had been defeated. Score 13-7 in favor of the seniors. Notice. The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association will be held in their office Monday, February 20, 1905, at 7.30 o'clock p. m., for the transaction of the regular business and the election of four directors and one auditor. JOHN M. HAYS, President. Attest: L. J. MCENTIRE, Sec. Suicide. You may think it suicide to sell carpets at prices offered on Feb. 6th, but we must have more room so slash the prices. If you have not the cash pay one-fourth down balance in payments; carpet delivered when payments are complete. See our ad. Hall's Furniture Store. Special Meeting. Special and important meeting of the Women's Relief Corps will be held at residence of Mrs. Ab Reynolds at 7.30 Saturday evening. Every member of the Corps is requested to be present. BY ORDER OF PRESIDENT. "30th anniversary sale" commencing Thursday, Feb. 16th. Dollars saved for you. Stoke, Druggist. Furs reduced at Millirens. Perfect Skin Food for chapped hands and face. 25 cents the jar. Reynolds Drug Co. Women's coats reduced at Millirens.
