If when you read

your eyes ache or the letters blur and run together, it is a sure sign of DEFECTIVE VISION. You should have it corrected at once. I correct all defects of vision, young or old. Eyes examined free. Glasses at reasonable price. C. F. Hoffman, Graduate Optician. The Jeweler.

Everything in Blank Books, Stationery, Office Supplies, &c., for 1905 at Stoke, the Druggist.

Notice to Readers. Beginning with next week's issue of THE STAR The Reynolds Drug Co. will give each week an article on the treatment of the skin and care of the complexion in connection with the use of Perfect Skin Food. Watch this space.

A Little of Everything. Minister's Sweethearts Feb. 11. Grand concert Tuesday night. Attend the concert in the opera house next Tuesday night. Fraternal Order of Eagles is to be instituted at Brookville. The woodchuck saw his shadow. Now we will get some kind of weather. Thirty per cent off on all trunks and traveling bags at Cash New York Racket store. Farmers' institute will be held at Allens Mills on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. The ladies of the Presbyterian church will serve a Colonial Tea on Feb. 23. Further particulars later. The Minister's Sweethearts at the Reynolds opera house on Saturday evening of this week, February 11. M. Jay McGaw, student in State College, passed all the examinations with a good percent in each branch. Arthur Phillippi has moved his cabinet shop from rear of Hoover block to the Taaf building on Main street. Mrs. W. L. Henry, of Hamilton, an aunt of Walter and Sherman Henry of this place, died at her home last week, January 31st. The commissioners' statement and auditors' report of the finances of Jefferson county for 1904 will be found in this issue of THE STAR. Liveryman A. M. Woodward cut and packed into ice houses for J. & C. C. & I. Co. and other parties sixteen tons of ice in eleven days last month. William T. Cox will soon open a chop mill in a building on alley in rear of Centennial hall. He expects to handle grain by the car load. Bert Cox will have charge of the mill. On Tuesday afternoon of last week Dr. S. D. Fess, of the Chicago University, gave an excellent address of a half hour or more before the teachers and advanced pupils of the public schools on the subject of Abraham Lincoln. All were not only highly entertained but were greatly profited by the address.

The I. O. O. F. degree team and a number of other members will visit the I. O. O. F. lodge at DuBois next Monday evening and do degree work. All of last week the thermometers in this neck-o'-woods were hovering around zero and on Friday morning some of them were down to 18 degrees below zero. The ladies of the M. E. Foreign Missionary Society will meet at home of Mrs. J. W. Dempsey next Friday afternoon. Luncheon will be served at five o'clock. Nicolò Loberto and Grazia Stio, of Reynoldsville, were married by Squire E. Neff at the residence of John Ross, on Hill street, at 8:00 p. m. Saturday, Feb. 4, 1905. A freight wreck occurred on the Low Grade Division near Penfield Monday night. Six or seven cars were wrecked. The wreck crew at this place was called out about eleven o'clock. S. C. Henry is now proprietor of the large grocery store in this place, having bought the interest of J. A. Henry, and the business is now done under the name of S. C. Henry instead of J. A. & S. C. Henry. February 22nd will be observed as Flag Day in this place. In the afternoon public exercises will be held in the auditorium of the school building. The program will be patriotic, in keeping with the day. Friday morning of this week the plot of Assembly hall will be put up at Mr. Stoke's drug store for the concert of the Chicago Glee Club to be given February 15. Tickets for reserved seats will be secured at that place. A four horse load of townspeople started out to Deemer's Cross Roads Thursday evening to spend the evening at residence of Amos Deemer, but the snow drifts were too much for them and they only got as far as Jacob Schwem's and returned home. "The Waif of the Sierras" was presented at the Reynolds opera house Saturday evening by C. B. Whitney's Company of twenty-four people. The company had an open date and did not bill the town until last Friday, but there was a fair-sized audience present. The show was up to the average. John D. Swanger, photographer, who had charge of Corwin's photograph gallery in this place one year and a half, went to Milton, Pa., yesterday to accept a position. Mr. Swanger has a number of warm friends in town who were sorry to see him go. G. J. Corwin will run the photograph gallery himself for a few months at least. Twenty-eight members of the Daughters of Rebekah of Reynoldsville drove to DuBois Saturday forenoon and took dinner at home of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ridgeway, who are members of the lodge, and at five o'clock attended a banquet given by the DuBois Daughters of Rebekah at the Reynoldsville and Falls Creek Rebekahs. Monday evening a number of Sons of Veterans from Punxsutawney and DuBois, visited the Sons of Veterans Camp at this place. After the regular meeting of the Camp in Bell's hall all the Reynoldsville boys and their visitors went to the I. O. O. F. hall where the Women's Relief Corps had a banquet spread for them. Some of the old soldiers of Reynoldsville were present. Impromptu speeches were made after the inner man had been satisfied. Report of public schools for the fourth month ending Jan. 17, is as follows: Boys enrolled, 311; girls enrolled, 331; total enrollment, 642. Boys' average per cent. of attendance, 93; girls' average per cent. of attendance, 92; total average per cent. of attendance, 92. Boys neither absent nor tardy, 110; girls neither absent nor tardy, 111; total pupils neither absent nor tardy 221. Percentage of boys neither absent nor tardy, 35; of girls, 33; of total pupils, 34. This season's biggest comedy success is G. H. Eldon's production of "The Minister's Sweethearts," which will appear at the opera house in this city Saturday, February 11. Everywhere this play is making a phenomenal hit, both artistically and financially. Manager Eldon will shortly put out two other companies in the same play. The company that appears here, however, is the original one, with Miss Bessie Clifton in the role of "Daisy, the village waif," a character she created in the premier production. The cast includes only well known players, so a first class production is assured. Seats on sale at Stoke's. Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents. Mrs. Mary L. Crossman, wife of I. M. Crossman, of Sykesville, died at 1.00 a. m. Monday, February 6, 1905. Her death was caused by peritonitis. Mrs. Crossman was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Zufall, of Bell township, Jefferson Co., Pa. She was born August 24, 1870, and was 34 years, 6 months and 13 days old. Deceased is survived by her husband and four children, the oldest 13 years and youngest 5 years. The body will be taken to Bell township this forenoon for interment. Funeral service will be held in the Grube church, Bell township, conducted by Rev. J. W. Crawford, pastor of the Sykesville Baptist church. Undertaker J. H. Hughes, of Reynoldsville, has charge of funeral.

NOT FROZEN TO DEATH. False Report Concerning P. McDonald—Did Have Ears and Fingers Frozen. It was reported here last week that Mr. P. McDonald, lumberman of Reynoldsville, had been frozen to death near his lumber camp in Bradford county, Pa., January 28. The report of Mr. McDonald freezing to death was false, but he did have one ear and three fingers frozen. Mr. McDonald was going to camp and to save almost four miles of a walk he left the road and started through the woods. In crawling over obstructions in the way he injured his right side, on which an operation was performed sometime ago for appendicitis, and the wound began bleeding freely. Mr. McDonald kept on going until he got in sight of camp and then on account of exhaustion he sat down on a log to rest and when he finally got into camp one ear and three fingers were frozen. The body of a man that had frozen to death was found in the woods in that section of the country, and that, no doubt, was what started the report that Mr. McDonald had been frozen to death. "Confederate Spy." "The Confederate Spy" will be produced at the Reynolds opera house on Wednesday evening, February 22, Washington's Birthday, under the auspices of Gen'l Phil Kearney Camp, Sons of Veterans, of Reynoldsville. Full particulars will be published next week. Blaze Saturday Evening. About 5:20 p. m. Saturday fire was discovered in the office room at the P. R. R. engine house. The alarm was given and Hope Fire Company promptly responded. The building was considerably damaged before the fire was extinguished. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is supposed to have been caused by an oil lamp exploding. Hon. G. A. Gearhart. The fifth and last number of the lecture course will be given March 23 by Hon. G. A. Gearhart, of Buffalo, on the "Footprints of the Centuries." Mr. Gearhart has a ripe experience as a lecturer and his success is phenomenal. He has great power as an orator and his audiences are held in closest attention by reason of his personal magnetism and brilliant oratory. He stands among the ablest of lecturers. Music and Song. The first grand concert of the Reynoldsville Singing Society will be held in the Reynolds opera house on Tuesday evening of next week, February 14th, assisted by a full orchestra. Admission 25 cents, reserved seats 35 cents. Tickets on sale at Stoke's drug store to-morrow morning. This will be an excellent entertainment and should be well patronized. You will get the worth of your money and at the same time will be encouraging home talent by your presence. The Grand. About the first of next month The Grand Billiard and Bowling Alley Parlors will be opened in the rooms on first floor of the new I. O. O. F. hall. Five or six new pool and billiard tables and three bowling alleys will be ready for use. The tables, alleys and furniture have been ordered. The rooms will be lighted with electricity and everything will be first-class. John T. Barclay, who is now salesman for the DuBois Candy Co., will have charge of The Grand. Candidate for Commissioner. Harvey D. Haugh, one of the present county commissioners, spent Friday night with his brother, Benjamin Haugh, at Prescottville. This is, perhaps, an opportune time to make mention of the fact that Mr. Haugh will be a candidate at the Republican primaries in June of this year for the nomination for a second term as county commissioner. Mr. Haugh has been tried and has proven himself to be a good man for the office he is now filling, and should be given the nomination in June without even a fight for it. It has been customary with the Republicans to give a worthy man the office two terms at least, and as Mr. Haugh is capable and trustworthy, there is no doubt but that the Republicans of Jefferson county will make him one of the nominees at the June primaries. Methodist Revival. Forty people have been converted since the revival meetings began in the Methodist Episcopal church in Reynoldsville the second week of January. Rev. J. W. McIntyre, pastor of the M. E. church at Washington, Pa., preached Thursday evening and three times Friday, day of the all day meetings. Rev. Charles W. Tushingham, a local preacher of Pittsburg, who holds the position as general manager of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's ticket offices in Pittsburg, preached Saturday evening and three times on Sunday, returning to the city Monday. Mr. Tushingham would not miss his calling if he devoted his entire time to preaching the gospel. He is an able, earnest and fluent speaker. The meetings will continue all of this week. Clearance sales in all departments at Millirens.

Chicago Glee Club. Notwithstanding the very inclement weather every seat was filled at Mayer's Auditorium last night to hear the Chicago Glee Club. The balance and harmony of the quartet was beyond criticism. The large audience was enthusiastic all through a program of two hours length and everyone sorry when the last number came.—Paris Daily Advocate, Paris, Texas. With the opening number the club captivated the audience and held it spell-bound through-out the evening.—Dispatch, Shamokin, Pa. The club captured the hearts of their hearers with the first number and maintained that through the program of interesting numbers. They sang with an ease and grace that was remarkable, their voices blending in perfect harmony.—Oneonta Star, Oneonta, N. Y. This musical organization will be here Feb. 15 as the fourth number of the public school lecture course. Rural Drama. All amusement lovers and students of the drama are interested in the coming presentation of "The Minister's Sweethearts," G. H. Eldon's rural comedy drama, which comes to Reynoldsville one night, Saturday, February 11th. Miss Bessie Clifton's creation of "Daisy," a gawky, awkward village waif, will live in dramatic history as an original conception. The play, like others of its class, "Lovers' Lane," "Way Down East" and "Sis Hopkins," has those quaint characters that are always enjoyed by every class of theatre goer. It is ably all a good pure play, abounding in strong heart interest and bright comedy. The production is elaborate and the company presenting it is especially strong. Seats will be on sale at Stoke's drug store. Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents. Two Meat Markets Change Hands. Joseph R. Milliren has bought the West Reynoldsville meat market. J. C. Norris will have charge of the meat market until the 15th inst. when Mr. Milliren will take charge of the shop himself. Mr. Milliren, who has had experience in the meat business, expects to run a first class meat market. George C. Hunter has bought the meat market near the Burns House. He took charge of the shop Monday morning. Mr. Hunter will run a first class meat market and will handle choice meat. Lincoln Service. All old soldiers, S. of V. and W. R. C. members and their friends are invited to attend a special Lincoln service at Punxsutawney next Sunday. Meet at Bell's hall at 8:30 a. m. Please notify one of the committee soon so that car service can be arranged. L. G. LIDLE, W. T. COX, U. G. SCHEAFNOCKER, Com. The man who hollers down a well, About the goods he has to sell, Will never get as many dollars, As he who climbs a tree and hollers. We are going to do a great deal of hollering about our Syrup of Wild Cherry and Tar Cough Remedy. You don't care whether your cough is caused by a cold, bronchitis or laryngitis. What you want is a cure. Wild Cherry and Tar is guaranteed. 25 cents the bottle. Reynolds Drug Co. Stockholders' Meeting. There will be an adjourned meeting of the stockholders of the Reynoldsville Clay Manufacturing Company at their office on East Main street, Reynoldsville, Pa., in the King & Co. building, on February 13, 1905, at 7:30 p. m., for the purpose of hearing report of auditing committee, electing board of directors, and for the transaction of such other business that may properly come before them. BY ORDER AUDITING COM. "Red Box." Money in it for you. 30th anniversary sale Thursday, February 16th. Stoke, Druggist. For Sale. We are offering for sale our grocery business in Reynoldsville. We can convince you that we have the best location, the best retail trade and one of the best stocks of goods in the town. Satisfactory reasons for selling. STAR GROCERY CO. COUNCIL INSTITUTED. A MEMORABLE DAY FOR LOCAL KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS. Hundreds of Visiting Knights Banqueted in the Pavilion in the Evening.—Reynoldsville Council Starts with Forty-Five Charter Members. Reynoldsville Council No. 695, Knights of Columbus, was instituted Sunday, February 5th, 1905, in a manner befitting the exalted and benevolent character of that order. Commencing at 9:00 a. m. with the attendance of the Reynoldsville members at High Mass in St. Mary's Catholic church, celebrated by Rev. Father T. Brady, the program as previously arranged was carried out, delayed slightly however by the failure of the special train bringing delegations from Kane, St. Marys, Ridgway and DuBois to arrive as early as expected. Altogether there were about six hundred visiting knights and candidates in town. There were Knights here from four other states beside our own state, New York, New Jersey, West Virginia and Ohio. Three degrees of knighthood were exemplified to the candidates during the day in the new I. O. O. F. hall, the first at 11.30 in the morning by DuBois Council No. 519, the second at 1.30 p. m. by Punxsutawney Council No. 452, and the third by State Deputy P. H. Lynch and staff from Philadelphia at 3.00 o'clock. The local council was instituted with forty-five charter members, as follows: Daniel Nolan, Sr. Edward P. Newton. Martin C. Phalen Peter Doegan. Thomas C. McEntee Walter Kerr. John Crawley Joseph O'Laughlin. John E. Flynn Harry Marsh. Leonard B. Shannon August Bauldard. John A. Welsh John Schultz. Clement W. Flynn John S. McDonald. Thomas F. Nolan. Edward Rogenniller. Edward Hogenmiller. Nicholas Rech. Edward Gooder. Rev. P. J. Lynch. Thomas Nylund. William P. Nolan. M. J. Farrell. A. C. Shannon W. H. Keener. J. E. Hardman John Shannon. Patrick Melvin James Deegan, Sr. Carmine Marinaro George Farrell. J. J. Nylund P. J. Ward. John King Frank Hasson. James Carlos Chas. L. Woods. L. R. Gleason James J. Hoffman. Casper F. Hoffman. Fred Birgite. Thomas Wandle. C. E. Montgomery. P. J. Connelly. The ceremonies at the hall were not concluded until about seven o'clock in the evening and the knights repaired to the banquet hall in Reynolds park hungry enough to do ample justice to the five long tables of good things there spread. The menu follows: Celery Olives Pickles. Cold Turkey. Salted Peanuts. Cold Ham. Saratoga Chips. Chicken Salad. Bread. Strawberry and Vanilla Ice Cream. Assorted Cakes. Coffee. Cranberry Sauce. Knights of Columbus Punch. Though there were at least six hundred persons present, all were quickly placed and served by young ladies of the Catholic church, and those having the affair in charge deserve praise for the excellent arrangements. While the guests were at the tables Kaufman's orchestra rendered a number of selections. Owing to the delay in reaching the banquet hall, it was unfortunately necessary to shorten the toasts and speeches which followed in order that visiting knights might catch their train. Lawyer Clement W. Flynn, acting as toastmaster, introduced the distinguished gentlemen who spoke with brief and appropriate remarks. The address of welcome by Rev. Father P. J. Lynch, of Reynoldsville, was followed by the toast, "Our Order," by State Deputy P. H. Lynch, of Philadelphia. He paid tribute to the nobility of knighthood and the ties which bound all in fraternal love, and pointed with pride to the rapid growth of the order, which, young as it is, has over 130,000 members in the United States with councils in every state in the union. The Reynoldsville council is the seventh or seventh-first to be organized in Pennsylvania. District Deputy P. J. Sweeney, to whose efforts credit is due for the organization of the local council, followed with a few extempore remarks urging continued interest in the order. J. J. Lynch, of St. Marys Council, and J. L. Brookbank, of DuBois Council, responded to the toasts, "Knighthood in America" and "The Catholic American." A Great Seed Farm. F. B. Mills, the Seedsman, of Rose Hill, New York, is now distributing more than half a million copies of his greatest Seed Book, and with each one he sends free of charge a sample packet of his New Early Sweet Corn, a wonderful novelty being sent out this year to test in all parts of the country. The book itself is a beauty, giving many fine views of his immense establishments which has been enlarged year by year to fit the requirements of a rapidly increasing business until it now comprises in addition to the Fairview Seed Farms and Greenhouses, three departments each of unusual interest to the public. This Seed Book and sample of corn may be had for the asking. Thirtieth Anniversary. Stoke, druggist, thirtieth anniversary "Red Box" sale Thursday, Feb. 16th. Children's coats reduced at Millirens.
