

Along with the coming of the beautiful spring comes the demand for Spring Sewing. If in your case this calls for a new machine, look the line over at Hoffman's, from $15.00 up. The WHITE is King. C. F. HOFFMAN, The Jeweler.

Speaking of Dirt

Let us remind you of Reynolds' Perfect Benzine Compound. Composed of Benzine, Chloroform, Ammonia, Castile Soap and other cleansing agents, scientifically compounded, which produces an unequalled preparation for removing grease or oil spots, paint, tar, gum, etc., from all silk or woolen goods, kid gloves, etc., without injury to the most delicate fabrics. Any grease or dirt that cannot be removed by this preparation, nothing else need be tried for it. LARGE BOTTLE 5 CENTS. Prepared by The Reynolds Drug Co., Reynoldsville, Va.

A Little of Everything.

Decorations Day three weeks from yesterday. Dr. J. C. Sayers has had a Bell telephone put in his office. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Carl McGaughey May 5, 1905, a son. A car load of apples was loaded and shipped from Reynoldsville yesterday. Joseph Clever, of Hill street, has a little chicken two weeks old that has four legs. A dance will be held in Mammoth Park on Friday evening, May 12. Proceeds for benefit of Oscar Tapper. Mal Yoeman is a conductor on the Jefferson Traction Company line. He has not been given a regular run yet. The annual convention of the Jefferson County Sunday School Association will be held in the Beechwoods Presbyterian church June 7 and 8. On account of the high school commencement exercises at Assembly hall to-night the Methodist prayer meeting will not be held in Centennial hall. The annual convention of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. church will be held at Brockwayville on Thursday and Friday of this week, May 11 and 12. Mrs. Clara C. Sharp, widow of George Sharp, has been granted a pension of $8.00 per month for herself and $2.00 per month each for two children, making a total of $12.00 per month. The town council of this borough has bought a piece of land about a mile below town, along the Hopkins road, to be used as a borough dumping ground. A dumping ground was necessary. The Sons of Veterans, who will have charge of the Memorial Day exercises, are now arranging a program. One speaker has been engaged. Full particulars will be announced in a later issue. The Union Plumbing Co. is the name of a new plumbing establishment soon to be opened in the Corwin building, near the Reynolds opera house. Ralph D. Albright, an experienced plumber, will be manager. At the meeting of town council on Tuesday evening of last week the resignation of I. M. Swartz, tax collector, was accepted and William Copping was recommended to the Jefferson county court for appointment. The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church elected the following officers last week: President, Mrs. Dr. B. E. Hoover; Vice-President, Mrs. Dr. A. H. Bower; Secretary, Mrs. Will McCraight; Treasurer, Mrs. R. H. Wilson.

The Catholic church and parsonage, both brick buildings, are receiving a fresh coat of paint. When the painters get the penciling done the buildings will look very pretty.

The work of excavating for the basement of the new Methodist Episcopal church was begun yesterday. John A. Welsh has the contract of removing the dirt, which he is using to fill a couple of lots he owns on Jackson street.

Earl Pifer, aged twelve years, son of C. A. Pifer, of Jackson street, was given a birthday surprise party last Friday evening, May 5th. There was a large number present. Earl was given a number of presents. Refreshments were served.

H. S. Wyant has bought the Hughes meat market in this place and will continue to conduct a first-class meat market. Mr. Wyant is a very pleasant young man, whom the people will find it a pleasure to buy from. He solicits a share of the public patronage.

A party of Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg railroad officials, President A. G. Yates, Vice-President Adrian Iselin, Jr., and several other officials, including L. W. Robinson, president of the coal and iron companies, were in Reynoldsville Monday afternoon on special train.

The Knights of Pythias reunion to be held at Reynoldsville on Thursday, June 8th, will bring a large crowd to town. The committees that have charge of the reunion will leave nothing undone to make this the best reunion ever held in this section. Full particulars will be published later.

Joseph M. Smith and Miss Nora Edina, both of Sykesville, were in DuBois this morning. While here they visited Squire Woodring's office and when they departed they were man and wife. Both are popular in their home town and have the best wishes of all their friends.—DuBois Searchlight, May 9

J. H. Crawford, who has been assistant superintendent of the Prudential Life Insurance Co. work at this place one year, will be transferred from Reynoldsville to Wilkesbarre, Pa. Mr. Crawford will go to Wilkesbarre Saturday. It is not known yet who will take Mr. Crawford's place at Reynoldsville.

In this issue of THE STAR, under the heading of "Notice to Taxpayers," will be found the dates when County Treasurer J. B. Means will be at various places in the county to receive county, poor, bond, state and dog taxes for the year 1905. You will save ten per cent on your taxes by paying the county treasurer.

Tom Reynolds, of Reynoldsville, is being urged by his friends over the county to become a candidate for sheriff. Tom has never been an office seeker but it is stated that he has yielded and will make the run. It's probably all up with the other fellow now, for Tom is head and shoulders ahead of any other Jefferson county man when it comes to popularity and that counts.—DuBois Searchlight

W. A. Sutter, candidate for Sheriff, is quarantined in his home at Lindsey on account of several of his children having scarlet fever. This is why Mr. Sutter is at present unable to prosecute his canvass for votes, and as it is likely to be some time before he will be permitted to leave the house he desires his Republican friends to understand that because he cannot get around to see them he has not got out of the race.—Punxsutawney News

It was stated in THE STAR two weeks ago that J. H. Benscoter had accepted a position as manager of a new planing mill for the New Bethlehem Lumber Co. at New Bethlehem and would soon move to that place. Mr. Benscoter moved this week. His family went to New Bethlehem yesterday. The people of that town are getting an excellent addition to their citizenship. During the two years' residence in Reynoldsville Mr. Benscoter and family made many warm friends who were sorry to see them move away.

In 1839, D. C. Gillespie, of this place, came to Punxsutawney to learn the tailoring trade with Judge James St. Clair, deceased, who then conducted a tailor shop on the corner now occupied by the City Hotel. Mr. Gillespie, who is now eighty-four years of age, and in full possession of all his faculties, being an active and useful man in spite of his years, is the only person now living in this town who lived here at the time of his advent into Punxsutawney.—Punxsutawney Spirit. Mr. D. C. Gillespie is father of our townsman, James W. Gillespie.

Mr. P. T. Shannon and family, of West Reynoldsville, were in Brookville Wednesday, May 3rd, attending the wedding of their son, Leonard B. Shannon, and Miss Marie O'Loughlin at the Church of the Immaculate Conception. Leonard B. Shannon is one of the clerical force of the Jefferson County National Bank. The Brookville Republican says: "After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Shannon will go to housekeeping in Mr. Shannon's home on Pickering street, South Brookville. The young folks have the best wishes of a host of friends."

Married Last Evening.

Herschel Barry and Miss Ethel May Lillis, of West Reynoldsville, were married at the M. E. parsonage at eight o'clock last evening, May 9, 1905, by Rev. J. A. Parsons. The ring ceremony was used. Both young people have many friends who will wish them happiness and success.

New Machinery. C. and J. Marinaro, proprietors of the Jefferson Macaroni factory, have added some more machinery to their factory and now have the best equipped factory in this section of the state. These two brothers are enterprising and will make a success out of the macaroni business.

"The Epworth Cross." Next Sunday evening the sixteenth anniversary of the Epworth League will be observed in Centennial hall at 7.30, taking place of the regular public M. E. service. The League will render a special program, "The Epworth Cross," consisting of recitations, songs, &c. Special music is being prepared. It will be a good program. Every person cordially invited.

Signs on End of Trolley. If the Jefferson Traction Company would put signs on the end of the trolley cars instead of the side, as now used, the traveling public could read the sign before the car got up to them and be ready to get on. The signs are so small and being on side of car people cannot tell whether it is a car for Soldier or Punxsutawney until it is close to them.

Two Cent Stamp Required. People living on the rural free delivery routes will have to put a two cent stamp on letters mailed to people in Reynoldsville just the same as if they were sending a letter to Pittsburg. If a letter is dropped in the Reynoldsville postoffice for some person getting mail at this office one cent stamp will be sufficient, but letters gathered up by the R. F. D. carriers requires two cent stamps. If the person who mails a letter only puts a one cent stamp on it then the person to whom it is directed has to pay another cent before they get the letter out of office.

Kirkwood-Earle.

Eyangelist Joseph Elsworth Kirkwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kirkwood, of Reynoldsville, and Miss Edith Virginia Earle, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. I. N. Earle, of Ansonville, Pa., were united in marriage at home of the bride's parents by the bride's father on Friday, May 5, 1905, in the presence of a few relatives and friends. Mr. Kirkwood and bride start for Chicago, Ill., today, where Mr. Kirkwood will take a course in the Moody Bible Institute. Mr. Kirkwood is a fine young man and we understand he has selected an excellent young lady as a helpmate.

The Queen of Orators Coming.

Mrs. E. Norine Law, author, lecturer and vocalist, will be in Reynoldsville four nights this month, May 21st to 24th inclusive. The North American of Philadelphia says: "Mrs. E. Norine Law who addressed an audience of three thousand people at Pittman Grove Campmeeting last night, is certainly a great orator. For two hours she held her audience spell bound, and then there were cries of 'Go on! Go on!' She is master of her subject. Has an extremely pleasant manner, a musical voice and a flow of words that makes one sit with rapt attention to the end. She certainly is a Queen of Orators."

Qualified Assistant.

Herman Guthrie, who was clerk in H. Alex Stoke's drug store three years and who has been with the Boyle-Woodward Drug Co. since they bought Mr. Stoke's store, has passed the state board examination as qualified assistant. Mr. Guthrie went to Pittsburg a couple of weeks ago and took the examination. He is a worthy and studious young man and we are glad to note the fact that he was successful in passing the examination for qualified assistant. Herman has resigned his position with Boyle-Woodward, his resignation taking effect to-morrow. Next Monday he accepts a position in H. Alex Stoke's drug store at Sykesville. Herman expects to go to a college of pharmacy this fall.

Sermon to Graduating Class.

The baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the Reynoldsville high school was preached by Rev. Frank C. Lockwood, Ph. D., teacher of literature in Allegheny College, Meadville, Sunday evening in Assembly hall. It was a pleasant May evening and the audience that assembled taxed the seating capacity of the hall. Dr. Lockwood preached an excellent sermon. Four pastors of the town, Dr. J. A. Parsons, Dr. A. J. Meek, Rev. J. W. Myers and Rev. A. D. McKay, took part in the order of services. The Methodist Episcopal choir had charge of the music and did excellently. The two anthems were fine. The entire service was very interesting and seemed to be enjoyed by the large audience.

ENTERPRISE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION ORGANIZED.

Third Floor of Smith & McClure Block Rented—Rooms Will be Nicely Furnished.

The Enterprise Athletic Association is the name of a new social organization that is being started by employees of the Enterprise Silk Company of this place, but it will not be confined to employees of the silk mill only. Young men of town will be given an opportunity to join this association. The third floor of the Smith & McClure brick block, formerly occupied by the Reynoldsville Business College, has been rented and the Enterprise Silk Company, to encourage the young men in such a worthy and much needed association, will pay the first year's rent and will help along the good work in other ways. The rooms will be nicely furnished and a gymnasium, bath room, library and reading room will be fitted up. The Association will be conducted on strictly moral lines. An orchestra is being organized as one of the attractions. The membership fee will be $2.00 and the yearly dues $5.00. A meeting will be held in the rooms to-night or tomorrow night. The officers of the Association are as follows: President, J. A. Blaydon; Vice-President, W. W. DeHart; Secretary, Ralph Kirk; Treasurer, Wm. Rossop; Sergeant-at-Arms, William Williams, Asst. Sergeant-at-Arms, Rhone Hetrick.

Some such an association is one of the crying needs of our town and this should receive the hearty support of our citizens. The Enterprise Silk Co. is certainly doing the right thing and their actions should be appreciated by the employees of the silk mill and the young men of town who join the association. The rooms will be open one night a week to the female employees of the silk mill.

TRADE BOOMERS VISIT SHORT BUT INTERESTING.

The Special Train of Pullman Cars was Two Hours Late Arriving Here. A Noisy Welcome. The members of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association of Pittsburg, who were out on a five day excursion on a special and elegant train of eight Pullman cars, arrived in Reynoldsville about 12.50 p. m. Thursday, almost two hours behind the schedule time to arrive here. Five of the Reynoldsville reception committee, Burgess L. M. Simmons, J. W. Dawson, H. Alex Stoke, A. T. McClure and editor of THE STAR, drove to Falls Creek in a carriage to meet the excursionists and came back to Reynoldsville on the special train. The arrival of the train in this place was announced by the blowing of whistles on the various industries of town. A number of business men were at the P. R. R. station to meet the excursionists and extend to them the glad hand of welcome, but on account of the train being so much later than advertised and arriving at the noon hour, there were not as many people at the station on arrival of train as there would have otherwise been. The excursionists were halted on the bridge and Lawyer Clemons W. Flynn made a short but timely and spicy address of welcome, in which he briefly presented the industries of our town and the advantages the town has to offer to industries looking for location. Burgess Simmons presented the visitors with a large gold bronze key that would unlock all places in town to them. An hour was spent by the Pittsburgers in visiting the business men of our town. The train left here at 2.00 p. m. Brookville was the next stop.

Class Day Exercises.

A large audience attended the class day exercises given in Assembly hall Monday evening by the members of the graduating class of the Reynoldsville high school. The program consisted of overture by orchestra; address of welcome by Fred E. McEntire; "Yesterday," by Geneva Milliren; "To-Day," Jennie McGaw; "To-Morrow," Cora McCraight; vocal solo, Percy Parsons; Class Poem, Amy Bollinger; Last Will and Testament, (transference of cap and gown), Besse Senator; Waltz, orchestra; Grumbler, Fred E. McEntire; Presentations, Adda Myers; Class song: Parting of the Ways, Percy Parsons; Two Step, orchestra. It is said, "A little nonsense now and then is relished by the best of men."

Pardus Club Defeated.

A base ball club from Pardus drove to Rathmel yesterday and played a game with the Rathmel club, but were defeated. The score was 9-20 in favor to Rathmel boys. The visitors need not feel chagrined because of defeat in this game, as the Rathmel club is a strong one and hard to beat.

DEATH OF MISS MAUDE KING.

Had been ill Some Time but Death came with Unexpected Suddenness. Funeral Friday.

Miss Maude Elizabeth King, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. King, died at her home on Grant street at 11.45 p. m. last night, May 9, 1905. Maude had been a sufferer with diabetes for three years, but her death was sudden and unexpected, as she was able to be up and around until Sunday night. She had toothache Sunday evening and she and her father were at Dr. DeVere King's dental office at eleven o'clock Sunday night. About 3.00 a. m. Monday Maude took suddenly ill. At noon Monday she fell into an unconscious condition, from which she never rallied and gradually grew weaker until the silken thread of life was snapped asunder and her spirit took its flight into the Eternal Land.

Maude King was born near Lock Haven, Pa., February 15, 1889, and was sixteen years old last February. Maude had a sweet disposition and consequently won many friends. All who were intimately acquainted with her loved her. She was a patient sufferer. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian church and was ready for the transition from this life to the life beyond. Funeral will be held at the family residence at 2.00 p. m. Friday, and interment will be made in the Reynoldsville cemetery.

CHANGE IN FREIGHT CREWS.

Three Crews Laid Off Last Week—One Crew Put on Again—Experiments in Handling Freight.

Last week the P. R. R. Co. took off three crews, two shifting crews and one local freight crew, that layed over at Reynoldsville, but one of the shifting crews has been put on again and likely the other shifting crew will be put on. Heretofore two local freight crews were run between Reynoldsville and Driftwood, one of the crews laying here one night and at Driftwood the next night, and vice versa. There were two local crews between DuBois and Phillipston, but under the recent change one crew will be taken away from DuBois. The patrons of the road will receive the same service as before, only handled differently. A crew will run from Driftwood to DuBois and back in one day. A crew will run from DuBois to Summersville and back the same day, and a crew will run from Phillipston to Summersville and back to Phillipston same day. This is only an experiment and if it does not prove successful the fourth local freight crew will be put on again and the crews will run as before, with one crew at Reynoldsville every night.

Commencement To-Night.

The ninth annual commencement exercises of the Reynoldsville High School will be held in Assembly hall this evening, beginning at 8.15 o'clock. After the reading of essays and the delivering of orations by the members of the class, Supt. R. B. Teitrick will present the diplomas to the graduates. The names of the Seniors and their subjects follow: Amy Bollinger, Success; Jennie McGaw, Influence; Fred E. McEntire, Henceforth; Geneva Milliren, The Brook is the Soul of the Landscape; Percy Parsons, Before the Footlights of the Twentieth Century; Cora McCraight, National Progress; Besse Senator, Fidelity; Adda Myers, Ashes of Roses.

Gave Seniors Reception.

The Juniors, sub-juniors and pupils of the 10th grade of the Reynoldsville high school gave the seniors a reception in the I. O. O. F. banquet hall last Friday evening. The new hall is a delightful place for a reception or banquet. The hall was decorated in the graduating class colors, orange and scarlet. A short program was rendered, consisting of a recitation by Miss Jessie Campbell; concert recitation by Alex Gillespie and Charles Robertson; instrumental duet by Misses Lena Herpel and Alice Mitchell; several selections by Prof. Elliott. After completion of program fine refreshments were served. Next was a dance.

JUNIOR CONTEST WAS OF EXCEPTIONAL MERIT.

Miss Maude Pratt and Leonard Harris Won Medals; Miss Ida Williams and Carl Kirk Given Second Honors.

The junior elocutionary contest in Assembly hall last evening was one of the best, if not the best, contest ever given by students of the Reynoldsville high school. There were ten contestants, four girls and six boys, and we are not trying to let any one down easy, but state facts, when we say they all did exceptionally well. They showed very plainly that they had been trained by a master in the elocutionary art. The judges, W. B. Adams, attorney of Punxsutawney, Rev. D. P. C. Crickeberger, of DuBois, and Prof. C. E. Plasterer, of DuBois, had no easy task in deciding who were entitled to prizes. There were two prizes, one for girls and the other for the boys. Miss Maude Pratt was awarded the girl's prize, and Leonard Harris carried off the boy's prize. The judges gave Miss Ida Williams and Carl Kirk honorable mention. Rev. Crickeberger presented the prizes. THE STAR congratulates the whole bunch on their easy and graceful appearance on the platform and their display of elocution and oratory. It was a high class entertainment as well as a high school contest. There was a large audience present every reserved seat was sold. The orchestra deserves honorable mention for the class of music furnished. The song, "Voice of the Woods," by eight young ladies, Misses Lillian Harries, Lena Herpel, Lillie Northey, Nellie Foley, Joanne Milliren, Melissa Senator, Florence Harris and Mary Parsons, was well sung. "Love's Old Sweet Song," by quartet, Leonard Harris, Frank King, Craig King and Percy Parsons, was vigorously applauded and the young men had to sing another song. The contestants and their subjects were as follows: The Wrestler of Philippi, Craig King; Aunt Hitty's Visit, Ethel Kunes; The Trial of Rebecca, Garfield Harries; My Lady Jocelyn, Bertha Bowser; The Orthodox Team, Frank King; The Crimson Shroud of Olof Goldmar, Leonard Harris; Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm, Ida Williams; How Audrey Acted Appasia, Maude Pratt; The Obstructive Hat in the Pit, Carl Kirk; Winners by Their Own Length, Frank Strouse.

Concert Was a Success.

A newspaper of Lykens, Pa., in speaking of the Male Quartet of the Ithaca Conservatory of Music, which will give a concert in the Reynoldsville Baptist church on Friday evening of next week, May 19th, says: "The concert given in Bueck's hall on Friday evening of last week by the Male Quartet, of the Ithaca Conservatory of Music, was one of the best ever given here. The gentlemen were in excellent voice, enabling them to render every number on the program to the perfect satisfaction of their hearers, as was shown by the frequent and repeated appearance in response to the enthusiastic applause. The solos rendered by Messrs Johnson, Odbert and Botsford fully proved the quality of voice as well as the thorough training of each, and speaks well for the institution in which these gentlemen have studied. Mr. Wilson, the reader of the group, was also thoroughly enjoyed, as was evidenced by his being called back to the platform the third time after rendering his last selection on the program. The concert was a success in every way and netted a neat sum to the committee of the Reformed church who had it in charge."

Political "Suckers."

It is claimed by men who have been candidates for office in Jefferson county that it is really astonishing the number of political "suckers" there are in the county who try to "bleed" every candidate that comes their way. They claim to have control of a number of votes if they are given from $5.00 to $20.00 to work with. A gentleman who has been a candidate twice in the county, who is not a candidate this year, however, said to the editor of THE STAR several days ago that Reynoldsville has a number of political "suckers."
