Wall Paper

FALL is the time to put on Wall Paper—saves the bother during the spring house-cleaning. We just got in a dandy new line of Fall Papers. Then, if your room is not too large, we may suit you in some papers left over from summer.

The REYNOLDS DRUG CO.

A Little of Everything.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cleer, Jr., October 14, 1905, a son. Daily's martial band of Falls Creek was in town last evening. The season for shooting pheasants and wild turkeys opened Monday.

J. M. Norris, an enterprising and successful farmer of Winslow township, left some choice potatoes at THE STAR office Saturday. It is a variety Mr. Norris has been cultivating for years and we know of no better name for them than the "Norris" potato.

Every enterprise that benefits the town benefits every man in it. If your neighbor starts a new scheme to help along, don't jump on it with both feet just because you did not happen to think of it first. Aid him to boost it. It will help you, too.—Brockwayville Record.

The Grit Publishing Co. offered prizes of watches to three boys in Reynoldsville who would sell the largest number of Grits from July 1st to October 1st, and the three lucky boys were Ivan Weaver, Edward Epler and Lester Motlyre. The boys got their watches Saturday.

The Reynoldsville high school football team will go to Brookville Saturday afternoon, October 21, to play a return game with the high school eleven of that place. The local boys have done considerable practicing since their first game a few weeks ago and hope to land a victory.

Attilio Benigni has opened a meat market in the Murray building opposite the postoffice. The fixtures and furniture in the market are all new, first-class and up-to-date. Mr. Benigni conducted a meat market at Beechtree a number of years and thoroughly understands that line of business.

At the meeting of the M. E. Foreign Missionary Society last Friday afternoon the following officers were elected for ensuing year: President, Mrs. J. A. Parsons; vice-president, Mrs. S. S. Robinson; secretary, Mrs. F. O. Sutter; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. C. McIntire; treasurer, Mrs. C. A. Stephenson.

Monday evening seven candidates from Sykesville came to Reynoldsville to be initiated into the Improved Order of Red Men. The Sykesville order does not have a degree team yet and the new members for that Tribe ride the "goat" at Reynoldsville. Three new members were initiated into the Reynoldsville Tribe the same night.

A freight wreck on the Low Grade Division near Hoathville Friday delayed the eastbound passenger train due here at 12:52 p. m. a couple of hours. A commercial man who was waiting on the train said: "This is Friday, an unlucky day, and the 13th of the month, an unlucky date, and of course we might expect a wreck or some other mishap."

Members of the "Wildcat" Regiment, 105th, Sons of Veterans and members of the Women's Relief Corps, of this place, will go to Punxsutawney to-day to attend the eighteenth annual reunion of the 105th Regiment of the Pennsylvania Volunteers. The old veterans will be given a cordial invitation to hold their reunion in Reynoldsville in 1906.

The Dramatic Mirror correspondent at Palmyra, N. Y., says: "The Missouri Girl," Sept. 29, 30, very greatly pleased two packed houses; fine performances! This was fair date at Palmyra, and on the last night there was $104.25 in the house, and many people were turned away. This show always does nicely in that town. At Reynolds opera house Tuesday evening, October 31st.

The body of Maurice Flynn, whom it is supposed fell from a P. & E. railroad freight train between Lock Haven and Williamsport Monday afternoon of last week and died in the Williamsport hospital the next day, Oct. 10, was brought to Reynoldsville Wednesday afternoon. Funeral service was held in the Catholic church Friday at 9 o. a. m. and interment was in the Catholic cemetery.

"Jack" Gallagher, a resident of the First ward, was arrested Monday on a charge of theft. The information was made by Samuel Whittaker, of Reynoldsville, who alleges that Gallagher relieved him of a watch, a suit of clothes and $7 one day last week. Gallagher was taken before Justice Woodring, where he waived a hearing and gave bail in the sum of $500 for his appearance at court.—DuBois Courier.

John J. Davis, a member of the G. A. R. Post in this place, who served in Company E. Sixth Regiment Pennsylvania Reserves during the civil war, was in a number of battles, a few of which we name below: Dealville, Va., Antietam, Md., South Mountain, Second Bull Run, Gettysburg, Spotsylvania, Wilderness, Cold Harbor, Belle Plaine, South Ann River, Brandy Station, Bristol Station, Harrisburg Landing, and many others. He was badly wounded during the service, yet he has only been granted a small pension.

"Ben Hur, the famous masterpiece of General Lew Wallace, was recited in a charming manner at the South Street M. E. church last evening by Miss Mildred Gillum, of Ithaca, N. Y. The charming personality of the reader, taken with her careful training in this particular art and the manner of her delivery, were all very impressive, and enabled her to become most realistic in the exciting portions of the story."—Zanesville, Ohio, Daily Times-Recorder.

At the Baptist church Friday evening, Oct. 20. Tickets 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children.

Glass Plant to Begin Operation.

The Star Glass Company plant at this place will begin operations on the 28th of this month.

Will Attend Church

Members of Mt. Cliff Castle, K. G. E., and ladies of Pleasant Valley Temple will attend public service in Centennial hall at 11.00 a. m. next Sunday, October 22. Rev. J. A. Parsons will preach a special sermon for the occasion.

Two Teachers Elected.

At the meeting of the borough school board last Friday evening the resignation of Miss Anna Kunes, teacher of room 13, was accepted and Miss Elvira Coleman was elected to fill the vacancy. Miss Lois Robinson was elected as a supply teacher.

The third annual convention of the Jefferson County School Directors' Association will convene in the court house at Brookville on Thursday and Friday, November 2nd and 3rd, 1905. The program will be announced next week.

Complete Roller Process.

Warnick and Wray Hunter, two enterprising young men of Coal Glen, have leased the King & Co. mill on Railroad street, Reynoldsville, for two years. The mill is now being equipped with complete roller process for manufacturing buckwheat flour. Hunter Bros. will buy the farmers' buckwheat or will grind it for them.

Cemetery Dedication

Next Sunday, October 22, at 3.00 p. m. the Catholic cemetery near Sykesville will be dedicated. If the weather is favorable the Rt. Rev. Monsignore Dunn, of Meadville, will perform the ceremony and preach the dedicatory sermon in the cemetery. Extra trolley cars will leave here at 2.00 p. m. to accommodate those who want to go to the cemetery to witness the ceremony.

Contract Let for Windows

Friday evening of last week the trustees of the M. E. church let the contract to Haskins & Co., glassmakers and decorators, of Rochester, N. Y., for putting in the windows in the new church. George W. Haskins, a member of the firm, was here to present prices, etc., to the trustees. Some choice figure windows will be put in by this company. Haskins & Co. have just completed the work of putting windows in the new M. E. church at Wellsboro, Pa.

More Telephone Connections.

The Horn Run Division of the Red Bank Telephone Company is making arrangements to enter Reynoldsville on the Knoxdale line, with which they will connect at the school house just west of Jacob Schwem's residence. This would give Reynoldsville telephone connections with a large number of farmers in Beechwoods and other places north. When the Red Bank line is in operation at this place it will give an excellent service.

Large Attendance.

Sunday was an ideal autumn day and the attendance of old people at the "old folks' day" service in Centennial hall was large, perhaps the largest attendance since the old folks' day was inaugurated by the Epworth League five years ago. The old people who were not able to walk to and from church were taken in carriages. Committees of young people met the old fathers and mothers at entrance of hall, gave them a warm hand shake, pinned carnations on their bosoms, ushered them to seats and gave them special attention, making it a pleasant and enjoyable occasion.

Found Dead in Bed.

Herman Kuhn, a glass blower who worked in the glass plant at this place last fire and expected to work here again, was found dead in bed at his home at Mt. Washington, 32nd Ward of Pittsburgh, on Thursday morning of last week, October 12, 1905. Mr. Kuhn was a brother of Mrs. Joseph Cleer, Sr., of Reynoldsville, and while working here he stayed at home of his sister. Mr. Kuhn left here on the 4th instant. He was 57 years old. He carried $8,000 life insurance. He owned some valuable real estate in Pittsburgh. He is survived by his wife and one son.

Boner's Barn Burned.

The large barn of William J. Boner at Sandy Valley, with all its contents, excepting the live stock, was totally destroyed by fire last evening. The fire started about eight o'clock and when discovered had gained such headway that the flames were beyond control. Origin of fire unknown. It was only by hard work of the few men in Sandy Valley that Mr. Boner's house was not burned also. In the barn there was fifty tons of hay, five hundred bushels of grain, ten tons of straw, reaper, binder, wagons and many other farming implements. Total loss $3,000.00. Insurance $600.00.

Judge John W. Reed, J. B. Means, county treasurer, J. N. Kelly, supt. county home, all of Brookville, were in town this morning on their way to Punxsutawney to attend the 105th reunion.

EPHRIAM FOSTER DEAD

Pleurial Pneumonia Was Cause of Death—Died at 81 years.

Ephriam Foster, a stone mason, who has resided at Reynoldsville sixteen years, died at Rossiter, Indiana Co., Pa., at 3.00 a. m. Friday, October 13, 1905. His death was the result of an attack of pleurial pneumonia. Mr. Foster was working at his trade at Rossiter and took ill on Sunday, October 1st, dying twelve days later. The body was brought to the family residence in Reynoldsville Friday noon. Funeral service was held at 2.00 p. m. Sunday, conducted by Rev. A. D. McKay and interment was made in Beulah cemetery.

Ephriam Foster was born at Putneyville, Armstrong Co., Pa., June 21, 1849, and was 56 years old last June. March 6, 1873, he was united in marriage to Margaret Nevill at North Point, Pa., whom, with seven children, survive the deceased. The children are: Mrs. Lottie Schultz and William J. Foster, of Iserlin, Pa.; Mrs. Ida M. Rhoads, of Manorville, Edward L. Foster, Mrs. Clara Yearick, Clara and Roy Foster, of Reynoldsville.

Solemn Dedication of New Cemetery.

The new Catholic cemetery, situated along the trolley line about four miles East of Reynoldsville and about one mile west of Sykes, will be solemnly dedicated next Sunday afternoon, October 22nd, at three o'clock. The Right Reverend Monsignore J. J. Dunn, of Meadville, Pa., has agreed to perform the solemn dedicatory ceremonies prescribed by the Roman Ritual for such occasions, also to deliver a sermon in English immediately after the consecration of the cemetery. It is the intention to have at the same time in other parts of the grounds sermons preached in Polish and Italian, possibly also in Slavish and Lithuanian, to the people of those nationalities. The Rt. Rev. Mgr. Dunn, who has just this year been appointed and invested as Domestic Prelate to His Holiness, Pope Plus the Xth, is a very pleasant, instructive and interesting speaker. All are invited to witness the ceremonies and listen to the discourses.

The trolley line will run extra cars at excursion rates, from Punxsutawney, Reynoldsville and Sykes, leaving Punxsutawney at 12.15, Adrian at 12.30, Eleonora at 1.00; Reynoldsville at 1.25 and 2.00, Sykesville at 2.00 and 2.25. This cemetery is to be the burial ground of the Catholics living in and around Soldier, Sykes and Eleonora. It is the intention and earnest desire of the temporary pastor of these places, to have as far as possible all funerals by extra street cars which will be a great saving of time, exposure and expense.

Fell Into Cellar.

Miss Minnie Strong was badly injured by falling head first into a cellar Sunday evening. Miss Strong was at home of D. M. Dunsmore for dinner and had been in the kitchen talking to Mrs. Dunsmore and started out hurriedly to speak to some person passing by and opened the cellar door by mistake instead of dining room door, both doors being side by side, and fell into the cellar, a distance of eight or nine feet, head first. Her back and head were badly injured. The doctor who was called said if the wound on back of head had been a half inch lower it would have killed her. Miss Strong was able to be moved to her home in the Stoke block Monday evening.

"Uncle Josh Spruceby."

From the opinion of the press throughout the State, the "Uncle Josh Spruceby" company is composed of people of ability and merit. The play is a story of New England life, and while written for laughing purposes, has a serious vein running through it. A number of specialties are introduced and special scenery is used to show off the wonderful scenic effects. The realistic saw mill scene is a startling illustration of stagecraft. The band orchestra accompanying the company is composed of high-class musicians. Reynolds opera house Oct. 19.

Souvenir Postal Card.

Souvenir postal cards of the new and old M. E. churches of Reynoldsville are on sale at Stoke & Felcht drug store, Bing-Stoke Co. department store, Peters' restaurant and at THE STAR office. Profits from sale of these postal cards will apply on Helping Hand Society's subscription to the new church.

Regular Meeting of Town Council.

The town council met in regular session October 3rd with all members present but Hughes. President Sayers in the chair. Minutes of the previous meeting read and approved. On motion the action of council taken Sept. 21st concerning raising of curbing on Jackson street was rescinded.

Mr. J. W. Dawson, superintendent of Enterprise Silk Co. mill, requested the council to have Fifth st., between Jackson st. and borough line, filled so that it would not be overflowed during high water.

Chief Burgess Gourley reported receipts for fines, etc., to be $14.00.

Clerk McEntire reported receipts for Sixth st. sewer connection, G. G. Williams, $6.75; sale old iron rails to Water Co. $7.70.

L. J. McEntire, secretary Board of Health, reported receipts to be $16.00.

Wm. Copping, tax collector, reported taxes collected $85.48.

President appointed J. V. Young, Dr. J. B. Neale, F. S. Hoffman and Dr. J. C. King a committee on grades.

On motion Chief-of-Police Adelsperger was granted a leave of absence, providing he employed a suitable substitute.

A petition signed by twenty-nine tax payers was presented requesting council to have a sidewalk built on both sides of Tenth st., from Main to Jackson st. It was referred to the street committee.

The legal opinion of M. M. Davis, Esq., borough solicitor, on the Rhoads street opening, was read and placed on file.

Bills amounting to $620.44 was ordered paid.

On motion a resolution was passed granting the Reynoldsville Lumber Co. permission to put a sanitary sewer in Mabel street to connect with public sewer on Fourth st.

On motion adjourned to meet at call of the president.

Failed to Materialize.

Rev. E. L. Eaton, D. D., of Allegheny City, was booked to lecture in Centennial hall on Monday evening of this week under the auspices of the M. E. Sunday school, but Dr. Eaton failed to put in an appearance and did not send word that he would not be here. An audience of about three hundred people assembled to hear about "Ghosts, Goblins and Witches" and waited until 8.30 before Dr. Parsons announced that Dr. Eaton had not arrived. When the lecturer was not in town at 7.30 those having charge of the lecture began to feel doubtful about the lecturer materializing and decided not to take up tickets at the door, so that in case the lecturer failed to come the tickets could be redeemed as the people left the hall. A number of the people donated the price of the ticket to the Sunday school.

The failure of Dr. Eaton to get here was more of a disappointment to those having charge of the lecture than it was to the audience.

Only Vote For Two.

We have been informed by a candidate who has been out doing some canvassing that there are voters in Jefferson county who are under the impression that because there are three commissioners to be elected at the November election that they can vote for three. This is an erroneous impression. A voter can only vote for two candidates for commissioner, and if they vote for three they lose their vote for commissioners. The ballots will be marked, vote for one or two, so that a voter need not make a mistake as to number of candidates to vote for. Of course every man has the privilege of splitting his ticket, if he wants to, and can vote for one Republican and one Democrat for county commissioners, but he cannot vote for two Democrats and one Republican or vice versa.

Sensational Drama.

The great sensational rural drama, "A Pair of Country Kids," at Reynolds opera house on Tuesday night of next week, October 24th.

The play will be produced with all the scenic and mechanical effects that have marked its success since the first production. Among the scenes especially worthy of mention are the great dock scenes and the thrilling rescue of "Trixie" from the waves, the realistic explosion scene in which the old box factory is destroyed, the fire scene and the exciting escape from the flames, the hilarious country dance and other original and highly exciting scenes to numerous to mention. It and Trixie get into all kinds of trouble and ludicrous situations which prove this to be the funniest play ever written.

Evening With Ben Hur.

"An evening with Ben Hur, as rendered by Miss Mildred Gillum last evening at School Hall, was a most enjoyable affair and very much pleased the large audience present. Miss Gillum is a polished elocutionist possessing great natural ability, and has a stage presence that is more than charming."—Blairsville Daily Courier. At Baptist church Friday evening of this week, October 20, under auspices of the Ladies Aid Society.

Each lady who calls at the Peoples Bargain store, A. Katzen proprietor, between 2.00 and 4.00 p. m. Friday of this week, Oct. 20, will be given a pretty souvenir.

Does a Farmer Need Money?

"Flotsam," of the Volunteer, appears to be a hard person to counsel. When he gets the finger he wants the whole hand. He can be neither a practical farmer nor a common one or he would not attempt to ask questions that any school boy could answer. The time was fixed to secure and cover a lien on real estate long before "Flotsam" or I existed. He, being under a fictitious name, leaves the reader in the same position that we farmers are after our chicken coops are raided, for we do not know where to place the blame. My time is so precious that I do not care to write any more unless he will come out an American citizen, true to name. Then by observations and knowledge I might be able to make it plainer for the reader. I would like "Flotsam" to explain why time is not money and how he can make out that a farmer does not need money.

FRANK P. BEST.

The Editor's Toast.

At an editorial convention in Kansas one of the country editors offered the following toast: "To save an editor from starvation take his newspaper and pay him for it promptly. To save him from bankruptcy advertise in his paper liberally. To save him from despair send him every item of news of which you can get hold. To save him from profanity write your correspondence plainly on one side of the sheet and send in as early as possible. To save him from mistakes bury him. Dead people are the only ones that never make mistakes. Newspaper readers would do well to remember there are no perfect people—editors or readers."—Topeka Journal.
