THE REYNOLDS DRUG CO.

A Little of Everything.

Fourth of July two weeks from to-day. Merrill, the little son of B. A. Barrett, is seriously ill. The company store at Medix was burned down yesterday. The Brookville county fair will be held September 4, 5, 6 and 7. Prof. Hines holds a dance in the Reynolds Park every Monday evening. A large number of Baptists attended the convention in Punsutawney last week. Dr. J. W. Foust was confined to his home a week or more with a sprained ankle. Mrs. James D. George, of Vandergrift, is visiting her parents in West Reynoldsville. Sunday evening, June 24, Children's Day exercises will be held in the Baptist church. John Kennedy has the contract of building a house for a Poland on Worth street. Prof. Hines will hold a confetti party in DuBois Driving Park on Wednesday evening, June 27. Dr. MacLeod, of Washington, D. C., will lecture in the Presbyterian church to-morrow evening. Invitations are out for a "shirt waist assembly" at Reynolds Park Friday evening, June 22nd. The Reynoldsville Juniors defeated the East Enders in a game of ball Saturday. Score 12 to 11. The Democratic State Convention will be held in Harrisburg on Wednesday of next week, June 27. The Brookville ball team was to have played at this place to-day, but the game has been postponed. The Presbyterian Sunday school will picnic in the Reynolds park on Thursday of next week, June 28. At 8.15 a. m. next Sunday First Communion Class of about sixty will commune in the Catholic church. At the monthly meeting of the Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association Monday evening $1,600 was sold. A men's meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church at 2.30 next Sunday to organize a Brotherhood. Miss Jessie Barclay entertained some friends at home of her parents on Jackson street last Thursday evening. Two chaps from Brookville were pulled in at this place one evening last week for fast driving on Main street. Misses Grace Meek, Anna Fleming and Ethel McCright, of this place, will teach school at Falls Creek during the next term. Owen Edelblute, proprietor of the National Hotel, sold his sorrel pacer to a Brookville gentleman. Mr. Edelblute expects to buy an automobile.

Mrs. T. C. Reynolds left a souvenir marble paperweight at THE STAR office, which is a piece of marble from the capitol building at Harrisburg. Frank Bohren played with the Cambridge Springs ball team against the Brookville team Monday at the latter place. Brookville went down to defeat. Herpel Bros., machinists of this place, overhauled and almost rebuilt a forty-two ton log road engine, which was ready yesterday to be shipped to Lake, Miss. James W. Davis, well known to many of the citizens of Rathmel, where he resided for many years, died in a Pittsburgh hospital recently. For some years past he had lived in Tarentum. W. W. Wiley, Alex Riston, John Conser, Thomas Green and Frank McClure drove out to the Reynoldsville Camping Club camp Monday evening and remained until last evening. Communion service will be held in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning. Preparatory service in church Friday evening. Dr. MacLeod or Dr. J. A. Parsons will preach Friday evening. It is rumored that Rev. A. J. Meek, pastor of the Reynoldsville Baptist church, has been given a call to the Baptist church at Bloomsburg, with a salary of $400.00 more a year than he is getting here. Edward Hogenmiller and Harry Copping, of this place, have arranged to run their ferris wheel with a street carnival company during the summer. They are in Sharpsburg, a suburb of Pittsburgh, this week. On account of a number of the members wanting to attend the Christian Endeavor convention at Punsutawney to-night there will not be prayer meeting in the Presbyterian church this evening. Thomas E. Evans, of the Reynoldsville Clay Manufacturing Co., and G. W. Lenker, of the Reynoldsville Brick & Tile Co., were in Clarion Monday bidding on furnishing brick for a large paving contract. Rev. D. A. Platt, formerly pastor of the M. E. church at Brockwayville, now residing elder of Clarion district, had the degree of Doctor of Divinity conferred upon him last week at the commencement at Grove City College. Miss Emma Davis, one of our fine young ladies, will graduate in the Indiana State Normal School next Wednesday, June 27. G. M. Davis and wife, parents of Miss Emma, will go to Indiana the first of next week to see her graduate. Perry Cooper, of Beechwoods, and Gertrude Moore, of Brookville, were united in marriage at noon on Wednesday, June 6th. Both young people are highly esteemed and have a number of friends who wish them happiness and success in life. Miss Sarah Friedman, who spent a year or two with her brother, Solomon Friedman, in this place, graduated recently in the Spencerian Business College in Cleveland, Ohio, and has accepted a position as bookkeeper for a firm in Cleveland. Rev. M. Wayne Womer, pastor of the Ferry Methodist Episcopal church at East Orange, N. J., a former Reynoldsville boy, recently had to undergo an operation for appendicitis. He is recovering from the operation, but is not able to get up yet. Children's Day exercises were held in the M. E. church Sunday morning, consisting of duets, recitations, &c. The program, with a few exceptions, was given by little tots of the primary department. There was a large congregation present. A council of the Appendant Order of the Red Cross and Sepulchre will be convened on Wednesday, June 27, at 8:15 p. m. The degree will be conferred on a number of candidate Knights in full form. The general regulations call for white ties and gloves. George McDonald, of Reynoldsville, suffered a very painful injury one day last week at Tionesta. He was crossing a railroad bridge when he accidentally fell through, falling a distance of twenty-eight feet. In falling one of his thumbs was bent back until it touched the wrist, snapping the ligaments. The Rathmel Grange, which was organized not many months ago with about 30 members, now has a membership of about 60. There are six candidates to be initiated at the meeting on Friday evening of this week. This grange has just received new paraphernalia, which will be used for first time Friday night. Charles E. Clark has taken charge of The Avalon, a boarding house at corner of Jared street and Washington Ave., DuBois. Mr. Clark moved from this place to DuBois the first of this week. There is no doubt but that The Avalon will be a good place to board, as Mrs. Clark had six years experience in the hotel business in the south and knows that good cooking is what wins in conducting a boarding house or hotel. Mr. Clark is genial and will make a good proprietor.

Finger Cut Off. Contractor Thomas E. Evans, who has leased the Reynoldsville Clay Manufacturing Co. plant, had the index finger of his right hand cut off yesterday afternoon in the repress machine at the brick plant. Express Agent Resigned. Joseph Shaffer, who has had charge of the Adams' Express Company's business in Reynoldsville about twenty-seven years, has sent his resignation to the company, but it has not been accepted yet. Mr. Shaffer tendered his resignation on account of poor health. Hit by Ball. Thomas O'Hare, of this place, manager of the Erie ball team, was accidentally hit on base of brain with a base ball at Bradford last Thursday and four doctors worked with him some time before he returned to consciousness again. He has not been able to play ball since accident. Grange Picnic. The grangers will hold a basket picnic in Fuller's Grove on Wednesday of next week, June 27. A good program consisting of speeches and music has been arranged for the day. The committee from Rathmel Grange extend a cordial invitation to everybody to fill a basket and take it to the picnic and spend the day with the grangers. Early Closing. There is some talk now of the dry goods and shoe stores of Reynoldsville closing at 6:00 p. m. every day, excepting Saturday, during July and August. Most all the men in these lines of business have already agreed to close at 6:00 p. m. and it looks now as if it would be a go. In other towns stores are closed at six o'clock. Second Class Postoffice. After July 1st the Reynoldsville postoffice will be a second class office and Postmaster Burns' salary will be increased to $2,000 per year and a good sum allowed for clerk hire. When the office is changed from third to second class the money order window will be open from 8.00 a. m. until 6.00 p. m. Under the third class rule the money order business is open from 7.00 a. m. to 8.00 p. m. Syphrit-Breaker. At 8:00 p. m. Tuesday, June 12, 1906, Miss Esther Breaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Breaker, of Stanton, Pa., and Edward R. Syphrit, of Bradock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Syphrit, of Paradise, were united in marriage at home of the bride's parents. Rev. Adair officiated. Edward and bride spent several days of last week with his parents in Paradise, returning to Stanton Saturday and from there went to Bradock yesterday, where they will reside. This young couple have the best wishes of a host of friends. Bold Highwaymen. About 3:30 p. m. Saturday as Fred Burns was driving along the public road near silk mill four tough looking characters boldly stopped him and demanded that he deliver to them his money. With an iron pipe, used on lock, Mr. Burns kept the fellows away from him until he drove closer to the silk mill and J. A. Bloydton, electrician at mill, came to Mr. Burns' assistance and fired a couple of shots at the bold villains before they skipped over the hill and made their escape. It was the boldest attempt at highway robbery that ever occurred in this section. The bad quartette walked down the railroad track from Falls Creek or DuBois Saturday morning. Former Citizen Dead. H. A. Kernott, of East Liverpool, Ohio, who was in business in Reynoldsville twelve or thirteen years ago, died at Washington, Pa., yesterday. He had been ill since first of year and several weeks ago had started to Reynoldsville to visit his sister, Mrs. L. J. McEntire, in hope that the change would do him good, but he was only able to get to Washington, where he stopped with a sister, got worse and died. Mr. and Mrs. L. J. McEntire left here this morning to meet the funeral party in Pittsburgh and go to East Liverpool where interment will be made. Miller-Kuntz Nuptials. W. P. Miller, of this place, a former school teacher in Winslow township, now conductor on the Jefferson Traction Company line, and Miss Edith Kuntz, of Wislaw, who has taught school in Winslow township a number of terms, were married at the Reynoldsville Presbyterian parsonage by Rev. A. D. McKay at noon June 14, 1906. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. Miller and bride left on the P. R. R. 12.52 p. m. train east for Washington, D. C., and other points of interest. On their return they will go to house-keeping in this place. THE STAR joins with their host of friends in extending congratulations and good wishes for a happy and successful journey through life. When in need of a new roof, try Caroy's magnesia flexible cement roofing guaranteed for 20 years. Costs less than shingles. Reynoldsville Hardware Co., sole agents. One of the largest line of Monarch and Choett shirts in town at Bell's.

MINING SITUATION. No Change at the Mines Surrounding Reynoldsville.—Everything Quiet. It is expected that the newspapers will publish news from time to time concerning the mining situation, but in this immediate vicinity at least there is no news to publish. The miners are peaceable and quiet and the J. & C. C. & I. Co. has made no effort yet to start the mines at Rathmel, Soldier, Sykesville or Wislaw. There has been various rumors about mining matters which could not be traced to a reliable source, and we did not publish the reports, considering it better for both capital and labor that only reliable news be published at this critical time. Over Thirty-Two Years Service. Dr. J. W. Foust, who retired from the school board in this borough on 5th instant, had served the public in some official capacity for over thirty-two years continuously up until his retirement from the school board, and we will just add here that he was not a candidate this year for re-election as school director. In March, 1874, Doctor was elected burgess of this municipality, then auditor, school director, associate judge of the county, postmaster, and then school director again. Altogether he served twenty seven years on the school board. Thirty-two years of continuous public service is a pretty good record, and it is doubtful if there is another man in the county that has served the public that long without a break, stepping from one official capacity to another. Linen and Kitchen Showers. Monday evening of last week, Miss Inez Brown, who will be married at 10.30 a. m. to-day to Thomas F. Adam, was given a "handkerchief shower" at home of Miss Ella Seeley, mention of which of which was made in THE STAR last week. Last Friday evening Miss Brown was given a "linen shower" at home of Missus Erma, Caroline and Nell Robinson. It was a generous and beautiful "shower." Games were played. Mrs. G. W. Lenkerd won the prize. Refreshments were served. Saturday afternoon Miss Brown was given a "kitchen shower" at home of Mrs. Frank P. Alexander, and like the others, it was a generous "shower." Games were played. Miss Julia Kirk won the prize. Refreshments were served. Mrs. W. W. Decker Dead. At 4.00 p. m. on Wednesday, June 13, 1906, Mrs. Ella Decker, wife of W. W. Decker, died. Consumption was cause of her death. She was born in New York City August 31, 1871, and would have been 35 years old next August. Deceased is survived by her husband and one son nine years old. The day Mrs. Decker died the family was moving from Main street to Tenth street and some of the household goods had been moved before she died. Funeral services were held at family residence on Tenth street at 2.00 p. m. Sunday, conducted by Rev. J. C. McEntire. Interment was made in Reynoldsville cemetery. Mr. Decker is a member of Mazomania Tribe No. 341, I. O. R. M., and members of that Tribe and Poochontas Degree attended the funeral in a body. Secured Big Contract. John Reed, superintendent of the B. & P. mining operations at Ernest has awarded a big contract to T. E. Evans, of Reynoldsville. The contract calls for the erection of 26 dwellings in this city on Washington, Weber and Chestnut streets. The buildings are to be of brick two stories high and are to be finished in a short time.—DuBois Journal. Taxes Must be Paid. The county commissioners, West Reynoldsville borough officials and school board, also my bondsmen, demand a settlement of all taxes, and I hereby notify all persons who have not paid their taxes to make prompt payment or I will positively proceed to collect same according to law. P. J. WARD, Tax Collector. Enameled Ware. Special prices this week on enameled ware, coffee and tea pots, buckets, basins, pans and kettles, at a saving of 15 to 35 per cent. Bing-Stoke Co. The auditors' report of the West Reynoldsville school district for year ending June 4, 1906, will be found in this issue of THE STAR. Butter-fly batistes at Millirens. The Reynoldsville Hardware Co. are putting a Carey roof on W. J. Boner's large barn at Sandy Valley. See the white goods at Millirens. Turn your thoughts on anything in the men's line towards Bell. Suit cases and traveling bags at Millirens. Take your watches and clocks for repair to Samuel Katzen, the jeweler. He guarantees all his work for one year. Next door to Postoffice, Reynoldsville. Balbriggan underwear at Millirens. Miss Mollie Horn, of Hill st., had a Carey cement roof placed on her dwelling last week by Reynoldsville Hardware Co.

DR. C. C. RUMBERGER DEAD. Former Pastor Reynoldsville M. E. Church Died at Big Run Monday Evening. At 7.45 Monday evening Dr. C. C. Rumberger, pastor of the Big Run M. E. church, died in the parsonage at that place. Dr. Rumberger, former pastor of the Reynoldsville M. E. church, had been in poor health for a couple of years. He spent several months of the past winter in Florida for benefit of his health, but did not get the benefit hoped for. Funeral service will be held in the Big Run M. E. church at 3.00 p. m. to-day, and the body will be taken on the 7.00 a. m. B., R. & P. train to Craigville to-morrow for interment. Dr. Rumberger was pastor of the M. E. church two years, leaving here seven years ago this fall. He had a large circle of friends in Reynoldsville. Lecture in Presbyterian Church. "I have heard, with much pleasure, Rev. Dr. Donald C. MacLeod's lecture entitled, 'An American Abroad.' His experiences are related in a most attractive, humorous and interesting manner, and much useful and valuable information is imparted. Having practically traveled over the entire ground covered by the lecture, I unhesitatingly say that his presentation of the subject-matter is unsurpassed by any lecturer in the field. This particularly, because he leaves the beaten path and presents the subject in his own unique and original manner. "Dr. MacLeod is a forceful and eloquent speaker, and handles all his subjects with credit to himself and to the entire satisfaction of his audience." —A. E. L. Leekie, Washington, D. C. Dr. MacLeod will deliver this lecture in the Presbyterian church, Thursday evening, June 21. Tickets 25 cents; children 15 cents. Farewell Social. A social was held in the Baptist church Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Hannah Prescott, who will leave here to-morrow to spend a year in Nebraska and Missouri. A large number attended the social, including members of Women's Relief Corps, of which Mrs. Prescott is a member. A short program of recitations, songs, &c., was given. The W. R. C. presented Mrs. Prescott with a recognition pin. Refreshments were served. Everybody had a pleasant time until the good byes were said. Daughters of Rebekah. District Deputy Mrs. Anna B. Redding, of Lindsey, installed the following officers in the Daughters of Rebekah Lodge in this place on the 12th instant: N. G., Susie Marshall; V. G., Cora Larimer; R. S. to N. G., Alice McConnell; L. S. to N. G., Edith Hoover; R. S. to V. G., Carrie Deter; L. S. to V. G., Lizzie Bolt; Chaplain, Elva Deemer; Worden, Alice Byers; Conductor, Annie Brewer; Oyster Guard, Minnie Herpel; Inner Guard, Jennie Barkley; R. S. S., Mollie Yenewine; L. S. S., Lovie Austin. Second in Class. Miss Effie Milliren, a graduate of the Reynoldsville high school, will graduate in the Allegheny College at Meadville to-morrow, June 21, in a class of thirty-seven and she is second in the class, which is not only a great credit for Miss Milliren, but speaks well for our high school. Miss Milliren has been offered a position as teacher in the Allegheny College. We have not been informed whether she will accept it or not. Clarion District Conference. The sixty-seventh annual session of the Clarion District Conference of the M. E. church will be held at Summersville on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, beginning at 2.00 p. m., Monday and closing Wednesday noon. Mrs. W. C. Mealing, of this place, takes part on the program Tuesday forenoon. "Showered." Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lenkerd, who were married May 23rd and began house-keeping a few days ago on Grant street, were given a "kitchen shower" by a number of their friends last Thursday evening. The "shower" was a surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Lenkerd. Wanted. Customers for 75 bushels finest strawberries ever grown. Prices right for canning. Delivery this week and next. See Robinson & Mundorf. Men's Tan Oxfords. Broken lots, not many of a kind left; were $2.50, $3.00 and $3.50. Your choice of this lot only $1.98. The best safety razor on the market, 12 blades, only $1.00. Keystone Hardware Co., near postoffice. Bell's shirts are now at their best. E. M. Evans, groceryman, just had a very handsome roof put on his store building. It's Carey's cement roofing. Reynoldsville Hardware Co. did the work. Boys' wash suits at Millirens. Souvenir postal cards of the new and old E. churches are on sale at Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. store, Bing-Stoke Co. department store, Reynolds Drug Co. store and at THE STAR printing office. Parasols at Millirens.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET Primary Election Held Saturday—County Convention at Brookville Monday. The Democrats of Jefferson county held their primary election Saturday and the county convention in the court house at Brookville Monday afternoon. Lawyer George M. McDonald, of Reynoldsville, was chairman of the convention and Thomas Cumings, of Walston, M. D. Blakeslee, of Coal Glen, and Major John McMurray, of Brookville, were secretaries. Ex-Sheriff Dunkle, of Bell township, at one time sheriff in Centre county, was elected county chairman. Following delegates were elected to State convention: M. D. Blakeslee, of Coal Glen, David Neale, of Perryville, William Carter, of Punsutawney, and Perry L. Wingert, of Young township. These delegates were instructed to vote for Lewis Emery, Jr., for governor. A resolution was passed by the convention condemning the law that was passed by the legislature establishing the State constabulary. A committee of five was appointed to revise the rules of the Democratic party to conform with the recent act of assembly governing the holding of primary elections. This committee is: G. M. McDonald, John McMurray, E. T. McGaw, George C. Brown and W. H. Himes. A committee of three, G. M. McDonald, George C. Brown and Mr. Green, were appointed to fill all vacancies. Following is the county ticket nominated for fall election: Congress, A. C. Smith. Assembly, Wm. M. Gillespie and McKean Harl. District Attorney, W. L. McCracken. Jury Commissioner, John Hutchison. Hon. A. C. White Dead. Wednesday afternoon of last week, June 13, Hon. A. C. White, one of the oldest attorneys in Jefferson county, died at his home in Brookville, after two months' illness. Funeral was held Friday afternoon, attended by most all the attorneys of the county. Alexander Colwell White was born in Armstrong county December 12, 1833. He was reared on a farm and attended public school until the age of twenty years. He graduated from Jacksonville Institute and Dayton University. In the summer of 1860 he took charge of the public schools at Punsutawney. That fall he commenced studying law under the Hon. Phineas Jenks. In the spring of 1861 he enlisted with the first three-months' men in Company I, 8th P. V. I. On his return he completed his legal studies and was admitted to practice at Jefferson county bar in December, 1862. May 25, 1864, was married to Ellen M. Murray, an aunt of Dr. John H. and Ex-County Commissioner W. C. Murray, of Reynoldsville. In 1867 Mr. White was elected district attorney; was re-elected in 1870. In 1874 he was elected to Congress and served one term, two years. Politically he was a Republican and always took an active part in political matters. Surprise Party. Thursday, June 14, 1906, rose in splendor over Prospect Hill and witnessed a gathering of people intent on celebrating the birthday of Mrs. O. H. Broadhead, who was detained in town until those comprising the surprise party had assembled at her home. A fine china closet and some choice pieces of china were presented to the hostess. The day being an ideal one, tables were placed on the lawn and groaned under the load of edibles. The day was spent in a delightful manner, the guests wending their homeward way as the shades of evening began to fall, every-body wishing the hostess many long years of prosperity and joy, besides thanking the genial host for his hospitality. Sixty-five grown persons were present; numerous children also graced the occasion, all tending to make the day a happy and memorable one. A GUEST. The House-Keeper. The Prizer Stoves and Ranges represent the best of every thing in stove making. They please the house-keeper because they are what they want at prices they can afford to pay.
