If proposition No. 10 is a poem in geometry, the Seniors do not like geometrical poetry.

The literary society of room 15 was very interesting Friday—Graydon Robinson's talk on "Girls" is especially worthy of mention.

Seniors—"Try settling down with a glass, a bow, and some sand" and see how interesting it is," is Mr. Marsh's suggestion.

A candy party was given by some of the Jr. girls at the home of Miss Naomi Mitchell Thursday evening. After mating the couples to make the candy, names were drawn to tell which kind was to be made. Light refreshments were served and each enjoyed a pleasant evening.

Let's give up our Cicero, is the talk of Room 15.

Miss Fonda King gave a farewell dinner last Thursday in honor of Miss Helen Kunes, who will leave for her home in the South in a few days.

Wallace Mitchell sang a solo in chapel on Monday morning. This is his last morning with us for a while, as he is going away.

Oh my kingdom for that diamond.

The Literary society of room 15 met last Friday and a short program was given. President and Secretary being away, Misses Foley and Sutter filled their places. It being the first meeting for some time made things rather mixed up but we hope to improve. Mr. Marsh, as critic seemed to think he should have been called a policeman instead. How about it?

First in war, first in peace, a mighty fine specimen and good work for the eye specialist, that diamond ring.

Come early and avoid the rush.

We were greeted last Wednesday morning in chapel by Hon. S. B. Elliott, who gave a lecture on extinct volcanoes, using Mt. Shasta, 14,443 feet above the sea level, as his example. On his visit previous to this he spoke of an eclipse of the sun.

On last Friday morning several speeches and some music was given for part of the exercises of the morning. Misses Bell, Stoke, McKee gave short recitations as extract from their programs of society and Miss Maud Jennings, a piano solo. Each Friday morning hereafter we shall have some parts of the literary programs given in chapel.

It is the fault of the boy when he fails to raise his hat when he passes a girl who speaks to him.

R. H. S. opened the basket ball season last Friday evening by defeating St. Mary's H. S. with a score 27-10. It was an interesting game from start to finish. Although it was easily seen at the end of the first half that the Reynoldsville five were much superior to the St. Mary's team. The line up was as follows.

Reynoldsville High school.—Alex Gillespie (sub), Law Sykes, Leonard Harris, Blair Sykes, Bert Hoffman, John Thornton, Eugene Murray (sub). Goals, Law Sykes 4, Hoffman 2, Blair Sykes 4, Eugene Murray 2, foul goals, John Thornton.

St. Marys.—Anderson 4 foul goals, Mulhern 2 foul goals and 2 goals.

Gas Heating Stoves at $1.75.

We are making a specialty of one size gas stoves. That is the reason we can sell them so cheap. They are put up in a good substantial manner and would compare favorably with stoves that other dealers sell for $2.50 or 3.00. You cannot get a better heater for any money. UNION PLUMBING CO.

Three Deer Shipped in Yesterday.

Yesterday morning three nice looking deer were shipped into town on the 8.08 a. m. passenger train from Medix Run. The deer were killed by Dr. J. B. Neale, Lawyer G. M. McDonald and Henry C. Delble, of this place. Dr. Neale has been going deer hunting every year for fifteen years and this was the fourth deer he ever saw running in the woods and the first one he ever killed.

There have been more deer killed in Elk and Clearfield counties this season so far than their have been killed any one season for a number of years.

Thirty-six dead deer have been shipped from Medix Run station already this season, and that is only one of a number of points where deer are shipped from.

It is estimated that there are five hundred hunters in the mountains near Medix Run and that section of the country.

Reduction in Fares by B., R. & P. Ry.

On November 1st, local one way passenger fares on the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg Ry., were reduced to two and one half cents per mile. While the previous local ticket rate was three cents per mile, this company has had on sale for many years and will continue to sell 1000 mileage tickets at $20.00. As these mileage tickets are valid for any number of persons, unlimited as to time of use, and good on several connecting lines, a large percentage of travelers on the B., R. & P. take advantage of the opportunity to secure a rate of two cents per mile by purchasing mileage books.

The Neighbor Talks

Good morning, Mrs. Brown. My husband made me promise that I run over and ask you where you got the oysters you gave us at dinner last night. He simply raved over them—said he hadn't tasted a real oyster before since he came West.

"Sealshipt?" What an odd name. O, I see what it means—shipped under seal. Well, that accounts for their delicious flavor. John says its "the real thing."

"I'm so glad to know about them. You say that Sealshipt oysters never come in contact with ice? The ice packed round the sealed case? How wholesome and safe! And the case of white enamel? Well, that is an improvement on the old way!

I'm going straight down to Frank's Restaurant to order some for dinner to-night. Won't John be pleased.
