

Thoroughly Satisfied

We have always claimed that the thoroughly satisfied customer is the best advertisement any store can have. We go perhaps to unusual ends to make people who trade here always feel that way about our store but we have built up around us a clientele that come to us in confidence for their every drug store want.

We should be glad to have you experience some of our examples of Good Drug Store Keeping.

Mrs. Anna Wilbur, Past State President of the W. R. C., inspected the Corps at this place yesterday afternoon.

On account of the absence of the pastor there will be no preaching service in the Baptist church next Sunday.

Rev. F. S. Neigh, pastor of the M. E. church at Cambridge Springs, Pa., was a caller at THE STAR office Monday.

John Hoffman, who had been working in the woods near Dents Run five or six months, returned to Reynoldsville Monday.

Fathers Brady and Lynch went to Brookville yesterday morning to assist in Forty Hours Devotion in the Catholic church at that place.

Glen Rea is substituting on R. F. D. No. 4 this week in the absence of the regular carrier, George H. Rea, who is in New York state.

Mrs. Law's sweet, refined manners, with her strong, forcible arguments and earnest appeals, are winning many to our cause.—Union Signal.

E. A. Galbraith, of Brookville, now county commissioner's clerk and Republican candidate for sheriff, was in town several hours Saturday.

John Thornton, principal of the Snyder township high school at Brookwayville, came down Friday night and took part in the musicale in the Presbyterian church.

At the Fuiton-Coleman wedding at Summersville Wednesday, October 7, Miss Kathryn King played the wedding march and Miss Elva Coleman was bridesmaid.

Miss Edna Baum, of Punxsutawney, formerly of this place, and Robert E. Perry will be married on Wednesday, October 21. Invitations have been issued for the wedding.

Rev. A. D. McKay will go to Beaver, Pa., this week to attend the Presbyterian Synod, which meets next Thursday and closes Tuesday. There will be no preaching service in the Presbyterian church Sunday.

The subject of Rev. John F. Black's sermon in the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday morning will be "The Secret and Revealed Things." There will be no preaching service in the evening.

The Reynoldsville High School football team went to Clarion Saturday and defeated the Normal school team. Particulars of game will be found in the High School Bulletin column in this issue of THE STAR.

Evangelist Joseph E. Kirkwood, of Reynoldsville, missionary of American S. S. Union, will begin a series of evangelistic meetings in Stronach Hall, Clearfield county, Tuesday evening of next week, October 20.

Nathan Weary, farmer from Horn-town, has our thanks for some fine apples brought to THE STAR office Monday. Some of the apples were Wolf River Reds, thirteen inches in circumference. Fine fruit.

The Sykesville Post-Dispatch says that Alex Zimmerman brought a potato to that office that weighed two pounds and one-half ounce. Have any of our farmer friends found a larger potato in their patch this year?

Rev. J. E. Kirkwood is attending the union evangelistic meetings in Brookville this week. Seven churches of Brookville have united in these special meetings. Evangelist Ralph Atkinson is preaching able and interesting sermons.

A few weeks ago THE STAR'S Paradise correspondent stated that Engle's cider mill had shut down, a statement which, we have since been informed, was erroneous. The Engle mill is turning out the sparkling amber juice just as of yore and doing a good business as well.

In comfortable circumstances and leaving no word to explain his rash act, Grant Williams, of Penfield, Clearfield Co., Friday afternoon of last week placed a shot gun to his head and blew out his brains. He was about forty years old and leaves a wife and five children.

The Ladies' Mission Circle of the Baptist church was to have had charge of a special service in that church last Sunday evening, but on account of it being impossible for several ladies who were on program to take their part, the ladies decided to postpone the service.

A. F. Reitz, of Ohi, Republican candidate for county commissioner, was in Reynoldsville last Friday and called at THE STAR office. Mr. Reitz is well qualified to fill the office of county commissioner and the voters of the county will make no mistake in voting for him at the general election next month.

Three of John W. Goughler's children have typhoid fever. The youngest two years and the oldest six years. Mr. Goughler, who resides on a farm in Winslow township, says they get water from a good flowing spring which the dry weather did not effect and he cannot imagine how his children got the disease.

Mrs. E. Norine Law, of Detroit, Mich., certainly combines in herself a union of all the qualities that go to make up an effective and delightful speaker. She is perfect in form and feature; has a melodious and musical voice, a perfect control of language.—Yonkers (N. Y.) Herald. At Centennial hall October 18, 19 and 20.

Following is list of Reynoldsville High School football players that defeated the Clarion Normal team at Clarion Saturday: Milo Coleman, Leo Nolan, Leon Westcott, Edgar Shields, Frank Burns, Harry Fisher, Thomas Eddy, Harvey Moyer, Hamlin Postlethwait, Frank Smith, Lawrence McDonald. David Hartman was substitute.

After choir practice in the M. E. church last Thursday evening the ladies of the choir were invited to the festal hall of the church, where a luncheon was served. It was a complete surprise to the ladies. The gentlemen of the choir were responsible for the very agreeable surprise. Husbands and wives of the singers and Rev. John F. Black and wife were invited.

What is probably the costliest mile of railroad track in the whole country, has recently been completed on the Franklin and Clearfield road, in Clarion county. Within the mile are two tunnels, one of them 2,100 feet in length, and the other 1,721 feet long; a mammoth concrete arch, and a long concrete bridge. This mile of road cost for its construction two and a half million dollars.—Brookville Democrat.

REA BEE AND HONEY CO.

Was Organized—Officers Elected—Will Apply for Charter.

In this issue of THE STAR we publish a charter notice for the Rea Bee and Honey Company of Reynoldsville, which was recently organized. The officers of the company are: President, Dr. A. J. Meek; vice-president, George O. Lutz; secretary-treasurer, E. A. Hull; managing apiarist, George H. Rea. The headquarters of this new company will be in Reynoldsville, but it is not the intention of the company to keep all of their bees in this vicinity. They will have apiaries in other sections. Mr. Rea is now in New York state buying one hundred colonies and if in a good section of the country the bees will not be moved from where they are. This company proposes to go into the honey business on a large scale and there is no doubt but that they will make a success of it and that Reynoldsville will be known before many years as a honey town.

Misstatement Last Week.

The statement made in THE STAR last week that Mrs. I. D. Kelz has tuberculosis and would go to Kane, was not correct. She does not have tuberculosis and will not go to Kane. Mr. Kelz has moved his family to Eighth street and now resides opposite the public school building.

Injured in Runaway.

James J. Hoffman and his nephew, Ambrose Hoffman, son of C. F. Hoffman, formerly of this place, now residing at Wetumpka, Alabama, were injured several days ago by their team of horses running away. They were hauling a load of cornfodder. James had his left wrist dislocated and Ambrose had one ear almost torn off and one foot smashed.

Had Narrow Escape.

Ira S. Smith, of this place, coal inspector for the B. & P. Ry., had a narrow escape one day last week from sudden and horrible death at Watertown, N. Y. They were testing a battery of large boilers and the blow-off pipe burst and the force of steam and hot water from all the boilers flew out with terrific force. Mr. Smith's right hand, right side of face and right ear were scalded. Mr. Smith had just stepped away from being directly in front of the blow-off pipe.

Johns-Deter Wedding.

Mal Johns, of Brookville, and Mrs. Ella Deter, one of the twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gricks, of Reynoldsville, were married at the home of the bride's parents on Railroad street at 10.30 a. m. Thursday, October 8, 1908, in the presence of about twenty-five relatives. Rev. John F. Black, pastor of the M. E. church, officiated. Mrs. John Bashor, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Samuel Williams, brother-in-law of bride, was groomsmen. Wedding dinner was served and Mr. and Mrs. Johns left on the 1.05 p. m. trolley via Punxsutawney to Barnesboro and Pittsburg on a wedding trip. They will reside in Reynoldsville.

Colt Show Saturday.

The Reynoldsville Percheron Horse Co., owners of Papillon, who was imported in December, 1905 offered $300 in prizes for the best Papillon colts, and last Saturday was the day set for the colt exhibition. Fifteen nice looking colts were brought to the Burns livery stable Saturday forenoon and the owners were given a free dinner at the home of Postmaster E. C. Burns. The company offered four prizes, two for first and second best yearling colts and two for first and second best last spring colts. The prizes were awarded as follows: First prize, $100.00, best yearling, T. F. Dougherty colt, Allens Mills; second, $50.00, Charles Dean colt, Washington township; first prize, $100.00, best spring colt, V. L. Moore colt, Washington township; second, $50.00, A. G. Haag colt, L. W. Robinson farm, Helvetia. There was a parade on Main street at 2.00 p. m.

High School Lecture Course.

Five excellent entertainments have been booked for the High School lecture course during the present term of school, as follows: October 21, Honolulu Students Concert Co.; December 22, Durno & Co., magicians; January 26, Commonwealth Ladies' Orchestra; February 3, Spillman Riggs, humorous lecturer and character delineator; March, Senator J. P. Dolliver. The five entertainments, including reserved seats, $1.50, or the five entertainments without reserved seats $1.00, giving the citizens of Reynoldsville and vicinity five entertainments worth from 50 to 75 cents each for 20 cents each. This course should be, and no doubt will be, liberally patronized.

On account of a number of people from Rathmel, Soldier and Sykesville wanting to attend these entertainments who must return home on last trolley car out or remain in town all night, Prof. Rife has decided to begin the entertainments promptly at eight o'clock.

JOSEPH KERR DIED SUDDENLY.

Deceased Was Eighty-four Years Old—Interment at Crates.

Joseph Kerr died suddenly at home of his son, C. J. Kerr, Esq., on Jackson street at 11.00 a. m. Monday, October 12, 1908. Heart trouble was cause of his sudden death. Mr. Kerr had been ill several weeks ago, but had recovered and was feeling in good health Monday morning.

Joseph Kerr was born in Fayette Co., near Connellsville, Pa., October 9, 1824, and was 84 years and 3 days old at time of death. When ten years old his parents moved to Clarion county, near Kingsville, where he ever after resided. He was married three times. His first wife died in 1862, second wife died in 1866 and third wife died in 1903. Mr. Kerr was an honest and industrious citizen of Clarion county and was highly esteemed by all his acquaintances. He was a christian gentleman. He never aspired to county office but was elected to several township offices.

Deceased is survived by seven children, six from first marriage and one from second marriage. The sons and daughters are: C. J. Kerr, Esq., of Reynoldsville, Mrs. Mary Haggerty, of Bowinkle, Clarion Co., Sister M. J. Hermanna, of the Institute of Holy Angels at Fort Lee, N. J., F. H. Kerr, of Kingsville, Isaac Kerr, of Reynoldsville, Joseph F. Kerr, Warren, Pa., Mrs. Clarion Burgoon, of Brookville.

Funeral service was held in the Catholic church at this place at 6.30 this morning and the body was taken from here on the 8.08 a. m. train over P. R. R. to Crates, Clarion county, for interment.

Sang With Vim and Snap.

The entertainment course given under the auspices of the Home Culture Club opened last night with the Honolulu Students. To say that they greatly pleased the audience is but stating the fact mildly. They are born entertainers and sang with a vim and snap that carried the audience with them from the start. Too much cannot be said in praise of the Sextette from the Hawaiian Islands. Every number was enjoyed. The entertainers proved themselves to be finished singers and instrumentalists. The illustrated views of the islands, alone, were worth the price of admission.—The Daily Herald, Northampton, Mass. At Assembly hall Thursday evening, October 21. Entertainment begins at 8.00.

Accidentally Shot in Foot.

Earl Dempsey, bookkeeper for the Bennetts Branch Supply Co. at Dents Run, and son of J. W. Dempsey, of West Reynoldsville, had his left foot badly injured by a load of shot lodging in his foot. Earl and another man were out coon hunting and his companion's gun was accidentally discharged and Earl will be a cripple for several weeks as a result. Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey visited at home of the former's father the past week.

Pheasant Flew Through Window.

About 7.00 a. m. Friday Peter Robertson's family, who reside on Eighth st., opposite the public school building, were startled by the crashing of glass in the kitchen window. A nice plump pheasant was found in the kitchen. The bird evidently had been frightened and in its flight struck the window and crashed through it.

Died in DuBois.

James Kerr, of DuBois, father of Miss Ida Kerr, of Reynoldsville, died at his home in DuBois at 10.30 Sunday night. Paralysis was cause of his death. Deceased was 72 years old. Interment in the Catholic cemetery in DuBois this forenoon.
