Firemen Pic-Nic.

The picnic held under the auspices of the Citizens' Hose Co., of Freeland, at the park last Friday was a grand success numerically, socially and financially. As per announcement in last week's TRIBUNE the members of the Company met at the house on Friday morning and proceeded with one horse carriage and tested all the fire plugs in the borough, as well as the three located in the township, and found them all in good condition.
 At six o'clock a parade of the members took place, headed by Sachs' Cornet Band. After parading all the streets they returned to the picnic ground at the park, where dancing commenced, the Depiero's Orchestra furnishing the music. At seven o'clock the St. Patrick's Cornet Band arrived, and later the P. O. S. of A. Band, of Freeland, each of these organizations bringing large numbers, and in the evening it was estimated that nearly one thousand people were on the ground. The heat of order prevailed, and at the close all retired well pleased with the first home picnic of the Citizens' Hose Co.
 At the meeting of the committee in charge of the arrangements, held in their meeting room Saturday evening to audit the accounts, the report showed that there was placed to the credit of the Company the sum of one hundred and twenty-three dollars.
 At the same meeting a vote of thanks was tendered to Adam Sachs, the St. Patrick's Cornet Band, the P. O. S. of A. Band and all others who in any way assisted to make the occasion a success.

Too Much Mother-in-Law.

Tuesday evening John Baely, a Hungarian, living on the lower end of Main street, was brought before T. A. Buckley, by a warrant issued at the instance of his wife, Annie Baely, charging him with beating her and failing to properly support her. On the trial it was proven that the mother-in-law and the wife paid for the furniture and other effects in the house—the mother-in-law having a quantity of money in her own right—and that the biggest share of the supplies for their support were paid for by her, and now when the money is all gone she has no more use for her and wants his wife and her mother to go away. Failing to comply with his own rights and resorting to threats and violence as stated above. The amount meted out by this fiend to his wife for the support of three persons never exceeded $15 a month, as shown by their store book. And yet this man was hoarding up money, and hiding it in different places around the house and stable and frequently taking it with him to the mines.
 A compromise was effected, by which the wife received fifty dollars, and will, with her mother, shortly sail for her native country.

Council Meeting.

At a special meeting of the Borough Council, held at the council room last evening, the question of the drain on Front street was settled. The parties interested agreeing to extend the drain to the borough line and connect with the public drain and the council agreeing to re-lay the pipes taken up some time ago as soon as the new drain reaches that point. Work is expected to be begun on the drain by Monday next and will be finished as soon as possible.

A Man Tied to a Railroad Track.

What would undoubtedly have proven a fatal and deliberate tragedy was happily prevented by the engineer of a D. & H. train at Smithville, near Wilkes-Barre, on Saturday last. At that place there lives four Polishers—Albert Koska, John Koska, Albert Straw and John Smoga—who were recently robbed of a trunk that contained a small amount of money and several articles of clothing. No trace of the trunk was had until Saturday, when the wife of Thomas Tobin, a neighbor of the Polishers, went to procure some food which was stored under the latter's house. In so doing she discovered the trunk and immediately informed her husband and the Polishers of the find. The latter, however, became angry over the matter and began to beat Tobin, at the same time charging him with the theft. Their wrath became so violent that at the end they carried him off and tied him to the railroad track where, we suppose, they thought he would die. But he was released by the engineer of the train. The perpetrators were arrested for their fiendish act.

DEATHS.

HELLER.—At Freeland on the 23d inst., Bessie, infant daughter of Milton and Lottie Heller, aged 4 months and 14 days. Interment to-morrow (Friday) afternoon at 1 o'clock in Freeland cemetery.
 RUTTER.—At Freeland, July 23, 1890, John C. Rutter, infant son of Dr. E. W. and Celestia Rutter, aged 9 months and 29 days. Interment to-morrow at White Haven funeral leaving L. V. depot by train at 12.21. Albert, undertaker.
 In the Tunnel.
 The men at work in the South Wilkes-Barre mine, closing up the workings, have now penetrated in the tunnel in which the fatal broke. Their progress is very slow for the workings are almost closed with fallen roof, timbers and wreckage. It is not impossible that the remains of some of the eight victims may be found in the tunnel or in the tunnel or in the workings immediately beyond.—News-Bulletin.

Base Ball.

MAHANOY-DRIFTON.
 The Mahanoy City Club crossed bats with the Drifton team on the latter's grounds on Saturday. Ten innings were necessary to decide the game, which resulted in favor of Mahanoy by a score of 10 to 9.

THE KICKERS DEFEATED BY THE TIGERS.

The Kickers, of Jeddo, came to Freeland on Sunday afternoon to test their knowledge and skill in base ball with the Tigers and were vanquished by a score of 14 to 2. The Kickers were anxious to redeem the defeat they met at the hands of the Tigers recently, and placed the strongest team they could procure against them, even players of the Freeland Club, viz., S. Welch, E. McGeehan and D. Gillespie. Umpire McGarvey called the game promptly at 2.30 p. m. with the Tigers at the bat, in which inning they scored seven runs on account of the wild pitching of "Pie" Brislin. The latter retired in the half of the first inning and was substituted by Welch. The Kickers scored their first and last runs in the seventh inning. With two men on base McGeehan knocked a fly out between center and left field, which was sought by McGeehan and Gallagher, who, however, collided just as the former was reaching for the ball, and allowed two runs to score.
 The score by innings as follows:
 Tigers.....7 0 1 0 0 0 2 0—14
 Kickers.....0 0 0 0 0 2 0 0—2
 The Tigers Base Ball Club would like to launch their boat in the base ball sea with the Drifton Club in the near future. Should they agree to give them a game it would be well if they could name a date as soon as possible, as the Tigers are anxious to cope with them.
 The Junior Gimmers, of Highland, went to White Haven on Saturday last and defeated the First club of that place, in a game of six innings, by a score of 13 to 8.
 The Tigers will play a game of base ball with the Terrors, of Eckley, Sunday afternoon on the latter's grounds.

All hunters and all parties keeping brush dogs are requested to keep them out of the woods between July 26 and September 26, 1890, as the hunting grounds are to be baited to kill foxes and other animals destroying game.

Women's Work.

The San Francisco Call suggests a society for lightening the burdens of women, and says:
 "When the shoemaker try to lighten the woman's work by sewing the buttons on honestly or 'tipping' the foot-wear with honest leather? Does the tailor who makes the pants with his boasted benevolence of 'double knees' ever put them on the right place or large enough? Does the carpenter ever put the nails and hooks where a medium-sized woman, let alone a child, can reach them?
 Is there ever but the fewest possible shelves that a woman can reach without standing on a chair at the risk of breaking her back?
 Is there a very little thing to have no water back to a stove—so a man thinks, but to a wife-of-all-work it is—well, there is no word strong enough to express the trouble it causes. A sink or a level, with cold water, is not an easy thing to keep clean. Why not make a little decline? Also bring the zinc over the edges somewhat. The continual settling of grease in the fine cracks, on intestines is very trying to a delicate-stomached woman.
 The bureau-drawers that never open or shut without a trial of temper, why cannot they be made to run smoothly?
 It should be declared a punishable offense to make a window that can not be brought in to clean.
 Men invented all these awkward and inconvenient things, and men made them, and they are responsible for the broken-down, haggard-looking women we see on the streets, or rather in the houses.

 —A desperate battle was fought on Friday night near Scranton, between Frank Clark, the light weight champion of Canada, and Richard Dunn, of Chicago. Ten rounds were fought and Dunn was entirely knocked out in the last round. The fight was awarded to Clark.
 The coroner's jury in the case of James Hughes, of Pittston, who died lately from it, was supposed the result of a beating, found that death resulted from heart disease. The three men who were arrested last week on the charge of being Hughes' assailants were dismissed.
 —George Enoska, a Polisher, employed as a miner at No. 8 colliery, Lockton, was instantly killed yesterday afternoon. He had fired a shot and upon returning to the breast a fall of rock occurred which buried him beneath. Deceased was 30 years of age and had only been in this country a few months.

What He Had in His Box.

"People fetch some mighty clear articles aboard of a car now and then," said the conductor of a Walnut avenue train last night on his home trip. "They seem to think a street-car is a combined junk-shop or freight-house on wheels or a general delivery wagon. One evening at Sixteenth street a fellow rolled a barrel of apples out to the track. The car was full of passengers and the platform hadn't standing-room for the car. He took the rear platform and stood the box on end next to the iron gate. He was a stupid-looking foreigner, and I took him to be a carpenter moving his tool-box to another job. At Twenty-fifth street, as there was no one else on the platform, I got to talking to the man and asked him what he had in the box. "Oh, that's my son," he said, in an easy sort of way. "What? I gasped, thinking the man was joking. "It's my youngest son. He died a couple of days ago and I took him out to the graveyard this morning, but the man at the gate said I must have a pass for the box, and I'm taking him back home until I can get one." "He was telling the truth. I suppose he had gone to the cemetery without a burial permit, and there he was going home again, with corpse standing on end aboard of a street-car. It's the time I ever acted as conductor on a hearse and I was glad when he got off at Thirty-ninth street with his box."—Chicago Mail.

Soap Bubbles.

All boys and girls like to make soap bubbles, but few know how to make those that will last for an hour if left undisturbed. To make them, take palm-oil soap and shave finely, then put the shavings in a large bottle of distilled water, and shake until dissolved. Filter through a piece of fine filtering paper, fold the paper in crimps so that it will fit into a funnel. When the solution is filtered add about one-third as much glycerine as you have solution. Always shake well before using. These bubbles must be blown through a rubber tube fitted on the tube of a small glass funnel with a rim two inches in diameter. To have the bubbles last a long time blow them into iron rings laid on a piece of carpet and wet with the solution.—Good Housekeeping.

Weekly Coal Report.

The anthracite coal trade is very quiet and new orders for coal are not plentiful, though a considerable tonnage is being moved at May and June prices. The manufacturing sizes continue active and in good demand, but stove and chestnut are a drug in the market. At the meeting of the general sales agents of the anthracite companies, held at New York last week, an understanding was reached by which the output for this month will be restricted to 3,000,000 tons, if possible, or 250,000 tons less than had been previously agreed upon. The proposed advance in prices was not made, as the actual selling prices at present are about the lowest obtained thus far this year.
 The total amount of anthracite coal sent to market for the week ending July 12th, as reported by the several carrying companies, was 753,913 tons, compared with 815,395 tons in the corresponding week last year, a decrease of 61,482 tons. The total amount of anthracite mined thus far in the year 1890 was 16,580,061 tons compared with 16,590,577 tons for the same period last year, a decrease of 10,516 tons.—Ledger.
