MONTAGUE NUZZETS.
A Grist of News from Our Correspondent—Personal and Local Matters.

MONTAGUE, Nov. 12.—Wanted.—A few Democrats, in New Jersey, for seed.

We imagine that harvest teams will be plentiful around Trenton when Henry C. Kelsey & Co. are relieved.

Emmet Kyte, who is engaged in the grocery and feed business in Newton made his friends in Montague a short visit. He returned on Wednesday.

The iron work on the new bridge in the clove is completed. It will need considerable filling in on either side before it can driven. We understand that the committee appointed to view the work failed to agree, so it has not been accepted.

Mr. Lester Van Etten, principal of the brick house school, has resigned his position as teacher to accept an appointment in the Custom House, New York city. The Board of Education will meet at school house No. 3 on Saturday, Nov. 16 at 2 o'clock p. m. to employ a teacher to fill the vacancy.

We have been informed that the cards are out for the wedding of Mr. James E. Kerr and Miss Alice Westbrook, both of Montague. The ceremony to take place at the home of the bride on Thanksgiving night.

Mr. Andrew Yetter, the lumber merchant, has finished two lumber tracts, is working on a third, and has recently purchased three others. When he leaves Montague the people will have to import their bean poles.

Mr. Charles E. North has finished repairing the break in the dam near his mill, and is now prepared to attend to his customers and fill all orders promptly.

School No. 2, near Sanford Nearpass's has had a vacation of about two weeks owing to the sickness of Miss Casterline the teacher.

Report says William Westbrook, son of Martin V. Westbrook, has rented a farm adjoining William Cortright's near Shaytown, and will move on it the latter part of this month.

It May Be Chatanqua.
The Stroudsburg Times says Hon. M. F. Coolbaugh, who attended the Ottenheimer funeral in New York had a talk with a prominent New York jeweler named Lambert who stated that the day before Mr. Ottenheimer died the plans had been perfected by which Forest Park was to be transformed into a Chatanqua, but whether the death of the chief promoter would alter the plans is not known. Forest Park offers exceptional advantages for a seat of learning like Chatanqua. The prospects of a railroad up the Delaware Valley are now very bright and it will assuredly be built. This would mean easy access to the Park and at a cheap rate of transportation.

What Our Neighbors Say of the "Press."
(From the Dispatch, Oct. 24.)
The press for the new newspaper to be started in this town arrived last week and has been put in position over Brown & Armstrong's store. The paper will be a seven-column folio and issued on Fridays. The paper will be known as the PIKE COUNTY PRESS and, of course, Republican in politics. It will be edited and managed by J. H. Van Etten. About thirty years ago Dr. Edward Haliday, since deceased, hoping to furnish the Republicans of Pike county with a paper devoted to Protection principles, started the Northern Eagle in Milford, but though well edited and managed, it had only a brief existence.

(From Wayne Citizen, Nov. 7th.)
The PIKE COUNTY PRESS is the name of a Republican paper in our neighboring county the first number of which appeared last week. It is under the management of J. H. Van Etten, a well-known member of the Pike county bar. Its appearance is highly creditable; its news department comprehensive; and its editorial columns exhibit marked ability and an elevated tone, and define the position and purpose of the paper with clearness and force. It is calculated to do excellent work in the dissemination of Republican principles among the yeomanry of Pike.

(Easton Free Press, Nov. 8th.)
We have received the first issue of the PIKE COUNTY PRESS, published at Milford by J. H. Van Etten, a well-known lawyer of that place. It is, we believe, the first Republican paper ever printed in that county, and we trust that it will find the field so profitable that it will grow and increase in influence and power. The PIKE COUNTY PRESS is in good hands and has made a good start.

(From Sussex Register, Nov. 6th.)
We have received the first number of the PIKE COUNTY PRESS, published at Milford, Pa., by J. H. Van Etten. It has a bright appearance, and, though the field does not look promising to us, yet we give the venture our best wishes.

(Monroe Democrat, Nov. 7th.)
The first issue of the PIKE COUNTY PRESS is before the public. A copy reaching our office and an inspection of this initial number indicates that the Republicans of that county will now have a mouth piece creditable to them, and full of information both local and general.

(Milford Dispatch, Nov. 7.)
The PIKE COUNTY PRESS made its first appearance on Friday last with J. H. Van Etten as editor. The initial number is well filled with local and general news and is a credit to its publisher. The Press will be issued weekly.

(From Stroudsburg Times, Nov. 7th.)
A copy of the first issue of the PIKE COUNTY PRESS has reached this office. It is edited and published by J. H. Van Etten, of Milford, and is a seven-column folio, printed in good, clear type on an excellent quality of paper. From the matter contained in its columns in the initial number it shows that Editor Van Etten has the right stuff in him for a newspaper man and the Republican residents of Pike county have a paper that they may well be proud of.

(From Hawley Times, Nov. 8th.)
The PIKE COUNTY PRESS edited by J. H. Van Etten at Milford, Pike county, Pa., started its career last Friday with many indications for the success we heartily wish it.

(From the Jeffersonian, Nov. 7th.)
The PIKE COUNTY PRESS is the name of the new paper started at Milford, Pike county, Pa. J. H. Van Etten, Esq., editor. The Press will be Republican in politics and is issued every Friday. It is four pages, seven columns to the page. It presents a neat appearance and it contained a vast amount of news for the first issue. Editor Van Etten in his salutatory says, "in morals it should be chaste, in virtue above suspicion, in politics clean, and in religion devoutly respectful." With these and many other promises, we do not see why, and hope it will soon be, on the way to prosperity and permanently settled in that famous old town.

(From Port Jervis Gazette, Nov. 9th.)
We are just in receipt of the first number of the PIKE COUNTY PRESS, of Milford, Pa., edited and published by J. H. Van Etten, Esq., of that village. The first number is a very creditable production and must be very satisfactory to the editor. The Press is Republican in politics and in news matters, the editor states, "it will be truthful, chaste and pure." The attractive head was designed by Lundelius, the artist of this village. We take pleasure in congratulating Mr. Van Etten on the general excellence of his first number as a whole and heartily wish him abundant success in his venture.

What Our Old Friends Say of the "Press."
DUBUQUE, Iowa, Nov. 5, 1895.
MY DEAR VAN:—I received Vol. 1, No. 1 of the PIKE COUNTY PRESS and sat down last night and read it through. It evidently comes from the hand of a master. It receives my biggest blessing and hope that it will prove a great success. Pike county will welcome its educating influence. It may not be able to transform the "dyed in the wool Democrats" to enlightened Republicans, but salvation must come to the younger class. You recollect that Jonah went down to Nineveh and made a great success of it and transformed the king into a fairly good fellow. Although I am of the opinion that it would take more grace to transform the Pike county Democrats into good Republicans than it did to change the Ninevites into fairly good Christians; yet with this example and a number of others to which I might refer, you need not have any fear. Long may the PIKE COUNTY PRESS wave, and its editor prosper.
As ever yours,
M. M. CADY.

UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA, DEPARTMENT OF GEOLOGY, PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7, 1895.
MR. J. H. VAN ETTEN,
MY DEAR FRIEND:—If the PIKE COUNTY PRESS continues to be as interesting, and well gotten up in almost every respect, as the copy just received, I shall feel like a Milford man who will get a first-class bicycle for one dollar and fifty cents. Go on in your mad career; if you have decided in giving so much value for so little money you will certainly establish the best advertising medium in the northeastern section of our state. Let me suggest to you to remind the people of Pike county that they are Pennsylvanians, and I hope that they will be proud of it, and of so creditable a journal as J. H. Van Etten's PIKE COUNTY PRESS. This is a University man's opinion.
Sincerely,
MAXWELL SOMMERVILLE.

From Our First Subscriber.
NEW HAMPTON, N. Y., Nov. 8, '95.
DEAR FRIEND VAN ETEN:—No. 2, Vol. 1 of your excellent paper came this morning. For a beginner you have done well in the two numbers. The heading is fine and your bow to the public in No. 1 is just right and to the point, enough and not too much.
Yours very truly,
THOMAS RODMAN.

Happenings at Paupack.
PAUPACK, Nov. 14.—Mr. E. Jacob attended the funeral of his daughter, Mrs. Bauer, of New York last week and returned Tuesday.
The funeral of Mrs. C. Dimon was held at her residence in Tafton, Pike county Saturday Nov. 9. She was 76 years of age and is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Alice Fitch and Mrs. Down, who have the sympathy of all of their Paupack friends.
Mr. J. Keller passed through this place one day this week, staying over night at his old homestead.
Anthony Ploss caught a bear in a trap last week. The same bears in Hawley market now.
Mr. Ira Killam and Tom Gillett were in town last Saturday looking around.

Our neighbor Mr. Jacob was suddenly called to Brooklyn, New York, to attend the funeral of his daughter, Mrs. John Bauer. She has been sick a long time but got so well she was able to visit her father last summer.
Our enterprising townsman, Walter Veterline, is going he rounds threshing out the farmers' grain.
Mrs. Dimon, who has been sick so long was buried Saturday, Nov. 9th, in the Paupack cemetery. A very large funeral was in attendance, the casket was beautifully decorated with flowers.

MATAMORAS AND QUICKTOWN, Nov. 11, 1895.—Why should we farmers of Pike Co. be so quiet in regards to a grange, or something of that sort? I have been told that there used to be one back of Milford, but there is none there now. This does not look well for the Co. We must do better than that if we want an electric road through here. Let us come out and help the coming Farmers Institute at Milford all that we can.
Miss Fannie Aldrich is visiting among relatives at Johnsons, Orange county N. Y.—The Quicktown school has been very small so far this fall.—J. W. Hurst has lost one of his mules.—M. Aldrich raised 200 bushels of potatoes to the acre this year.

Credited to Another Paper.
Our neighbor the Union evidently wields scissors with a very fine discretion, but it is rather harrowing to the feelings of a beginner to find two news items which appeared exclusively in the Press credited in last Saturday's Union to the Dispatch. Are more rigid summary laws needed in that village of Port Jervis.

The Coming Farmers' Institute.
A meeting composed of a number of farmers was held this week to organize a local committee to aid the Institute to be held here Nov. 29 and 30. The officers elected are: A. D. Brown, Chairman; J. H. Van Etten, Secretary; Mr. J. H. Heller, Representative; John A. Fisher, Treasurer. All interested will please address the secretary.

INTERESTING ITEMS.
From Our "Lackawach" Correspondent—Personal, Impersonal and Otherwise.
KIMBLE, Pike Co., Pa., Nov. 12.—We were glad to receive the first copy of the PIKE COUNTY PRESS and hope the good people of Pike county will do all they can to make it a success, both in news and absence in any arrangement of subscription price.
Kimble Station has experienced quite a fall as having been thrown over its quiet neighborhood by the absence of one of its most jovial citizens, Mr. Ephraim Kimble, who is spending the winter in New Mexico in companionship with his invalid nephew Mr. Verne Holbert. But his genial wife proves herself a most entertaining hostess in his absence. Among those whom we saw at her home during the past week were Mrs. A. J. Kimble and Miss Kimble of Paupack, Miss Carrie Brunning of Westcolang, Mr. and Mrs. Holbert of Paupack, Rev. F. T. Angevene of Palenville N. Y., Mr. M. E. Bittenbender of Seranton, and Mr. S. W. Myers, of Binghamton.
During the past week Ed Malone and "Bill" Schmetzler succeeded in killing a very fine deer, while John DeGroot killed two.
Mrs. Herbert Heald and son returned home from New York Thursday evening.
Mr. J. P. Kirkendall, the overseer of Mr. Kimble's business with a small force of men loaded 20,000 feet of lumber on a canal boat Wednesday evening in one and one-fourth hours.
Mrs. E. Kimble, S. W. Myers, J. P. Kirkendall and Phillip Frank attended Mrs. Dimon's funeral at Tafton Saturday p. m.
The stone business is very "brisk" here just at present. Mr. Masten, who has charge of the stone, was called to his home at Pond Eddy Wednesday on account of an accident having befallen his father, which caused the amputation of one foot.
The operation proved very successful.
We understand at this writing that Mr. Yeomans an old man of 86 years is very sick. It is hardly probable that he will recover.
Mrs. Charles Hazen who has been very sick and under the care of Dr. Plum of Hawley is recovering.
Mrs. Lucy Kimble returned home Monday after spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Lafayette Rowland of Rowlands.

Rev. F. T. Angevene and Miss Corn Kimble spent Sunday at A. J. Kimble's at Paupack. OCCASIONAL.

Most Hope and Vicinity.
MAST HOPE, Nov. 11.—The Forest Lake Club House went into winter quarters Nov. 1st, and was placed in the care of Fred Barklow until May 1st next as caretaker. During the past season this club has improved several miles of roads which are not public highways, but are used as such, and in connection with M. C. Rowlands the proprietor of the Hotel at Tink Lake or Teedy-usung as it is now named has made the public highway from Rowlands' station to Decker's Mills near the Pike and Wagon line a very good carriage road. Such enterprises our county officials will do well to encourage.
The stone business at this place has been quite active the latter part of the summer.
The Westcolang Park House has also closed for the season.
One of the questions now being canvassed here is, whether the Delaware river will have any fish or eels in it for some time to come. The lowness of the water and the eel micks, it is thought have about cleared its waters of every living fish of any considerable size. This improved method of robbing the streams should have been dealt with severely and at once. PINE GROVE.

Adjourned Court Proceedings.
Court met at 12 m. Nov. 7 for the purpose of counting the votes and examining the returns as made by return Judges of the several townships in the County of Pike.
Present, Hon. John D. Honck, Associate Judge.
The court appoints G. A. Swopmizer and C. P. Mott tellers, who were duly sworn.
Petition for transfer of license of Wm V. Steimmetz filed, and continued to be heard Nov. 8 at 9.30 a. m. Nov. 8. President Judge Purdy and Associate Honck present.
Sheriff acknowledges deed to Kate B. Van Wyck for lands in Milford township sold as the property of D. M. Van Anken at the suit of H. D. Clark.

Bond of J. C. Plotz approved and Steimmetz license transferred to him.
No viewers were ordered for December term and there will be no jury court then. Court rose.
