MONTAGUE. (Special Correspondence to the Press.) MONTAGUE, March 8.—Town meeting Tuesday, March 10th. Annual school meeting Tuesday, March 17th at 2 o'clock in the afternoon in the Grove Church, school house. The board of education at a meeting held last Tuesday, March 3d, reconsidered the amount necessary to run the schools in this town and recommended $400 instead of $700 the first estimate. Six trustees will also be elected. Eph. Williams had the misfortune to cut his right knee last Friday in falling a painful wound. Miss Olive Black is home from New York for a short time. Eston Cole, a student of the Philadelphia dental college, is at home, having finished his term. John Sigler of New York, has moved on to the John Cassidy farm. Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Merrill have returned from their wedding tour. We can't find fault with the weather, it is genuine first class covered with patents, March.

The tenant house of Fanny Westfall is again occupied. Deerpark, Orange county, went Republican last week and the good Deacon Neppass was defeated for the office of Supervisor by T. J. Quirk by 75 votes. Where is I. Sickles?

Goe Whis! The church fight in Sandyston goes merrily on, the old school trouble is in danger of being resurrected by some one who is dissatisfied with the action of the board of education down there. Go it the right will win in the end no matter what the cost. DICK.

MONTAGUE, March 11.—Town meeting here yesterday was fairly well attended. The accommodations were poor, but a session did a rousing business within a hundred yards of the polls. The Democratic ticket was elected by majorities from 17 to 28. Here is the list of the successful candidates and their votes: Democratic ticket—Justice of the peace, Sanford Neppass, 81; Emanuel Drow, 86; town clerk, Geo. McCarty, 81; town committee, Loren T. Cole, 89; constable, J. Henry Ludwig, 79. Republican ticket—Justice of the peace, Lewis Marthis, 58; town clerk, Frank Kerr, 57; town committee, Jacob McCarty, 52; constable, Alanson Hotalen, 62. The following were on both tickets—Game constable, Napoleon Morriam, commissioner of appeals, Alonzo W. Little, 3 yrs., John Kite, 2 yrs., Martin V. Westbrook, 1 yr.; overseer of poor, William Owen; pound keeper, Isaac Koss; surveyors of highway, Gottfried Weiland, William Reinhardt. Town money, $200. Road money, $1,200. Hand and team on road per day, $1.25. Shovel and snow per day $1.00, 74. Next town meeting and election at Tappan town, 90.

A house on the Jas. P. Van Auker place one mile below the Brick house was totally destroyed by fire Monday about noon with nearly all of its contents. The building was occupied by Isaac Westbrook. A defective chimney caused the fire. Building and contents I believe are insured but I have not heard the amount.

DINGMAN'S FERRY. (Special Correspondence to the Press.) DINGMAN'S FERRY, March 8th.—Peter T. Doty, of Jersey city, made a business trip to Dingman's last Monday. Cecelia North, of Centre, has gone to Brooklyn, N. Y., to visit friends and relatives. W. H. Layton the genial pedagogue, who has been confined to his bed since before Christmas, is rapidly improving. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Smith gave a large dance at their residence near Centre, on the 28 ult. All had a merry time, returning home at an early hour. Carrie Smith and Mercer Jagger, have gone to New Jersey, for the summer. They are both employed at the same place near Deckertown. Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Peiper, residing on the Turnpike near Albright's corner, was greatly surprised on the 28 of last month, by a party. It being Mrs. Peiper's twenty-eighth birthday. Dancing was indulged in until the early hours of morn.

Mrs. Garrett Broadhead, of Centre, has returned home, after spending a few days with her mother. Mrs. Schuyler, of Lehman. Mrs. Harriett Walters, an aged and highly esteemed lady, died at her home in Dingman's, Friday morning at 6 a. m. Aged 84 years 11 months and 24 days. She is survived by one daughter, Sarah Evans of Dingman's. The funeral took place in the Presbyterian church. W. H. Benson, now on Miss Angle's farm near Centre, expects to move into J. B. Van Auker's tenement house, about April 1st, and farm Mr. Van Auker's property near Dingman's.

There will be a State and Capital social at the residence of I. H. Smith of Centre, on Friday night, March 13. All are invited to attend. Lillie J. should be more particular to find out the truth about things, before she sends it to be printed. A READER.

LEGGEDALE. (Special Correspondence to the Press.) Henry Simons, of Pike county side was working for Messrs Gillett and Simons last Friday in their blacksmith shop. Messrs Smith and Watson completed their shingle mill last Friday Feb. 28 and had it in good running order. Saturday afternoon the high water took the Leggedale dam away, and left Messrs Smith and Watson by the road side high and dry with out any way to manufacture shingles until Messrs Gillett and Simons get their temporary dam built. Mable Walker is visiting friends in Scranton and Carbondale. Friend Simons visited his parents at Salem on Sunday. Benjamin Titchner an aged resident of Salem township died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Harris near this place, on Sunday. WAYNE COUNTY.

PAUPAC. (Special Correspondence to the Press.) PAUPAC, March 10.—Deborah A. Masker, died March 2 at the advanced age of ninety six. She was the mother of eight children, five of them are still living. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. J. G. Raymond. Interment in the Paupac cemetery. Kumble. Mrs. C. A. Pellett is spending a few days in Hawley and Homestead. A READER.

GREENTOWN. (Special Correspondence to the Press.) GREENTOWN, Pa., March 9.—Peter Corey was recently bitten by a vicious dog owned by one David E. Jones. The dog seized him by the hand as he was going to the house on friendly business, and inflicted a severe wound. David has been legally notified to take care of the animal. Black Blow met with his equal the other day when he attacked T. H. Gilpin. Like a true gentleman Mr. Gilpin tried to turn him from his purpose. He then said he was going over to the mill to "clean out the whole gang." He was told if he did he would have to be carried out, whereupon he struck Mr. Gilpin, breaking his glasses and cutting his eye very badly. Mr. Gilpin's son seeing this struck Black Blow, splitting his ear, and leaving a severe wound in the side of his head and almost lifeless on the ground. Amos! Do it again! only worst next time. Frank Buckler and Miss Ida Robacker were united in holy matrimony at the home of her father, where they intend to stay, as she is the last daughter and child, and Mr. Robacker can not get along very well with his work on account of his age. OREGON.

MATAMORAS. (Special Correspondence to the Press.) MATAMORAS, March 9.—Winter must surrender. March goes marching on. What are the wild winds saying? The election came, the Democrats saw, and the Republicans conquered. Our sidewalks are too spongy for comfort. Nature offers an every-day argument in favor of flag walks. Supervisor Van Sickle has proved himself a capable, painstaking official. Bicyclists and the traveling public in general commend his work. Rev. J. A. Wiegand, the popular pastor of Hope church, has returned from Conference, and will take up his second year's pastorage in Matamoras. He preached an excellent sermon, Sunday evening, showing how Christ is the mediator between God and man. Jesus is the foundation of peace and happiness. Sol is still smiling. That bright bouncing baby boy is nearly a week old. The funeral of the late Mrs. Jacob Eager was held from Hope church, Sunday afternoon. Two highwaymen, who displayed more daring than discretion, met their match one night last week when they attempted to interrupt Alex. Brink in a peaceful promenade across Barrett bridge. Alex, knocked one of them away over into the state of Pennsylvania, and after taking a sociable roll on the bridge with the other, pursued his homeward way. The miserable miscreants took a sudden departure. Grit, muscle and agility saved Mr. Brink's pocket-book, but what is to protect defenseless females who are compelled to cross this rendezvous of thieves and toughs. Since the sages of Port Jervis removed the electric light and put all the work of lighting the bridge on the moon, this bridge offers special inducements to foot pads and kindred sneaks. A Mill Rift hunter recently killed a fox with ears missed. How, when or where said fox lost said ears remains unsaid. Two prominent Democrats of this township have announced themselves as candidates for the assembly. Probably the Republicans will also name a Westfall man. Why not? Pike county should have some of the trout fry so generously offered by Mr. Ford, or soon there will be no trout to fry. The B. F. L. S. of Epworth church has changed its name to Junior Aid Society. Music and marbles, sweet harbingers of spring, are making their appearance on our streets, and seed catalogues are the most popular works of fiction in the hands of the farmer. I. SICKLE.

MATAMORAS. (Special Correspondence to the Press.) MATAMORAS, March 9.—Messrs Haukins and Bidsell have purchased the stone quarry recently opened by A. Johnston and will commence work there at once. Mrs. Isaac Jennings, who has been very ill for several days is getting better. The order recently issued by the Erie, restricting the gangs of trackmen to a limited number of working days per month will necessitate the laying off of a number of men several days during the month. Mrs. Scharff, who has been at Port Jervis for the past two weeks, under treatment of Drs. Best and Lambert for abscess of the face, returned home Thursday much improved. Mr. Joseph Dick, of New York city arrived here on train one Sunday en route for Tusten, N. Y., to visit his aged father Mr. Chas. Heide, who is thought to be dangerously ill. An attempt was made last Thursday night to blow down the large flag pole which stands in front of Mr. Dietrich's saloon, Narrowsburg, N. Y. A hole was bored into the pole near the bottom and filled with dynamite and exploded shattering the pole some, but not sufficient to fall it. The culprit or culprits who did it, no one can affirm. "However if found out" they should be dealt with severely as the pole is 70 feet high and about 15 inches in diameter at the butt. Had it fallen the property and lives of others besides Mr. Dietrich, were endangered also. Mr. Paul Tyler, of Narrowsburg, N. Y., was in town to-day on business. Mr. F. C. Hankins has accepted a position as conductor on a street car on one of the lines in New York city.

MATAMORAS. (Special Correspondence to the Press.) MATAMORAS, March 9.—Constable Kelley and James Logan took a ride to Port Jervis on Sunday, and returned Monday night. Work on the new bridge is going slow on account of the frost. The people of Hanners are having quite a time finding an suitable name for the anticipated Postoffice. W. P. Hale reports the prospects good for the stone business this season, he expects to do a good business this summer, and has advanced in his prices already. Emma Goodwin, of Hawley is visiting Mrs. Bishop, of this place. Chas. Childers has opened another new stone quarry on the west side of the river. M. F. Ryan is confined to the house with La Grippe. Frank Atkinson's family is improving, and his belief is out of danger. We see in the news paper that there have two parties applied for license just below here, if both are successful there will be no excuse for people to go dry this summer. All expect a good time at the oyster supper at Wesley Griffin's to-morrow night. CITIZEN.

SANDYSTON NEWS. SANDYSTON, March 18.—On March 6, at the residence of the Rev. M. V. B. Warner, Layton, N. J., Benj. A. Rutan, of Branchville, N. J., to Eva J. Hendershot, of Swartwood, N. J. The following were elected: Sandyston township—For town clerk, Benjamin F. Rosenkrans; for town committee, John Schoonover; for commissioner of appeal, Dennis Aber; for constable, Manning Hotalen; for surveyors of highway, Robert Aber, Daniel Utter; for pound keeper, Warren Raser. Committee's estimate of road money for 1896, $900; town meeting and election of 1897 at Porters Valley.

Such Stuff as Dreams Are Made of. The Milford correspondent of the Philadelphia Times says in a dispatch of March 5th: Rev. W. P. Chase, of Millbridge has accepted the call to the Christian church, of Milford, and will take charge on the first Sunday in May. The vacancy in the pastorate of this church was caused by the resignation of Rev. James Maple several months ago, and who is now pastor of a church at Warren Indiana. Will this correspondent please inform the people where the Christian church is located, when the Rev. James Maple ever preached here, and what inducement is offered to send such trash to a newspaper? Oats and Peas.

At the Farmers Institute held in Deckertown N. J., it was recommended to sow Canada peas and oats for soiling cattle, 1 1/2 bu. peas and 3 bu. oats to the acre sow as early as possible, and make the plantings of the patches about 10 days apart. Plow the peas under about five inches deep, and then five or six days after sow oats and harrow them in. Suspicious—The proprietor of the only hotel in the village was also the undertaker. The guests were gathered around the table one day, and the solemn man looked up, sighed heavily, and then let his gaze fall on his plate. "I see," he said, in measured tones, that there has been another funeral. Every one looked up inquiringly. "How do you know?" asked the bristly little widow. "Because," and the solemn man sighed again "there are flowers on the table and ice on the butter."

The questionable innovation in the form of the sacred Scriptures by the issuance of the Woman's Bible furnished a Connecticut genius with an idea. He got out an illustrated edition of the Bible and made all the angels to appear with black skins and kinky hair, took the whole edition South, where he is retailing them to the colored people at eight dollars each. The original cost was about one dollar each.—New Ideas.
