MONTAGUE. (Special Correspondence to the Press.)

MONTAGUE, June 21.—Hello, Milford. Montague now can talk to you. Telephone is up and headquarters at present at the Brick House.

Daniel Rosecrance was over here yesterday exclaiming "Rose Wreath" the pride of Pike county on the Brick House track. "Rose" did well yesterday, she paced in 9:38.

J. V. Jewett and the Misses Grace and Olive Jewett, of Brooklyn, are visiting at Shady Glen.

Mrs. Sarah Kleinsteuber, of Sawkill, Pike county, visited Mr. and Mrs. L. Crane at Millville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Townsend Westbrook, of Port Jervis, visited friends down here today.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Armstrong are visiting friends in Sullivan county.

The Montague Board of Education held a meeting last Friday afternoon. It was out and dried. Teachers were engaged. The salary for the smallest school in the town was raised $5.33 per month to suit some one person while others were cut down.

It cost the county last year $1,806.39 for the bridges in Montague, and our freeholder's bill was $188. How is that Brother H?

Some one is itching for free board and the chances are they will be accommodated.

Several city guests are at the Riverside. The people on the upper end of the river road are bound to improve the road, the lower won't give any more money, so there will be an ice cream and strawberry social at the Riverside house next Friday evening, June 28. The proceeds is to be used for road improvement. Milford is cordially invited to come over and help a good cause.

The Children's Day exercises prepared by the Reformed Church Sunday School which were postponed a week ago this morning on account of the rain took place in the evening. The superintendent of the school, Miss Nettie Brink, deserved credit for the excellent programme prepared and the manner in which it was rendered.

William Ost, well-known over in Pike, has moved into the John Shields' house near the Pike Woods.

Lauren Cole says he has a hen which sat on hens eggs and hatched out two kittens.

For the benefit of the Press readers who don't know the names of some of the places along our river road. I will give them to the owners call them.

Harold Chambers calls his house, Bellevue, Wade Westbrook's farm is Cedar Grove, Robert Armstrong's, Brookside; Mrs. John Kerr's, Riverside; Mr. de Salligne's, Springdale, and C. E. North's residence is Shady Glen. Others to hear from.

The old store house at Millville is being repaired, it improves its looks.

Corn is growing fine, so are potato bugs and grasshoppers, the weather is hot enough, so we won't find any fault.

LAYTON. (Special Correspondence to the Press.)

LAYTON, June 24.—Please let the Overseers of roads throw out loose stones often, very often, and all other shortcomings will be looked upon much more leniently. No money can be better expended this year.

Burns Dupue is home from a two years term of study at Knoxville, Tenn. His improvement is manifest, so much so, that it suggests the idea that a like course would be very beneficial to some other young men in the neighborhood who seem at present to have no very definite object in life.

Miss Sue Creveling a Normal school graduate is spending her vacation with the family of her brother-in-law, James N. Miller, M. D. at Layton. Miss Creveling has taught during the last year at Long Branch, N. J.

LINCOLN AND JACKSON.

Two Patriots Whose Names Should Never Be Forgotten.

Lincoln owed nothing to his birth, everything to his growth; had no training save what he gave himself; no nurture, but only a wild and native strength. His life was his schooling, and every day of it gave to his character a new touch of development. His manhood not only, but his perception also, expanded with his life. His eyes, as they looked more and more abroad, beheld the national life and comprehended it, and the lad who had been so rough cut a provincial became, when grown to manhood, the one leader in all the nation who held the whole people singly in his heart—held even the southern people and would have won them back, and so we have in him what we must call the perfect development of native strength, the rounding out and nationalization of the provincial. Andrew Jackson was a type, not of the nation, but of the west. For all the tenderness there was in the stormy heart of the masterful man, and stanch and simple loyalty to all who loved him, he learned nothing in the east; kept always the flavor of the rough school in which he had been bred; was never more than a frontier soldier and a gentleman.

Lincoln differed from Jackson by all the length of his unmatched capacity to learn. Jackson could understand only men of his own kind. Lincoln could understand men of all sorts and from every region of the land; seemed himself, indeed, to be all men by turns as mood succeeded mood in his strange nature.
