LAYTON.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.)
 LAYTON, July 1.—The Sandyston Board of Education met Saturday evening to audit bills and hire teachers. The session was an harmonious one, and the business on hand was satisfactorily disposed of. There was numerous applications from teachers outside the valley. The Board seemed disposed to consult the best interests of each district, and expressed a desire to employ home teachers first, especially such as were well known and competent. A moderate reduction in salaries was made in some instances, and gracefully submitted to by the teachers who seemed willing to agree with the Board in the necessity of economy. The State appropriation being less each year the two horns of the dilemma seems to be either to reduce salaries or to lay a township tax. The prospective high tax rate this year precludes the idea of meeting the emergency that way. At least no patron will need to chip in from his own pocket this year. The following is the list of teachers, and the salaries paid for the coming school year. School commencing Sept. 8.
 District No. 1, Fullers, Nettie Brink, $85.00.
 District No. 2, Fishers, Alonso Dupue, $85.00.
 District No. 3, Berans, Emma Dunmell, $80.00.
 District No. 4, Layton, Anna Cole, $85.00.
 District No. 5, Hainesville, W. C. Hursh, $85.00.
 District No. 6, Shaytown, Ida Leaning, $80.00.
 District No. 7, Tuttle's Corner, A. Estelle Hursh, $85.00.
 District No. 8, Brookside, Marilda Brink, $85.00.
 The Church at Layton has been reconstructed and is improved much in inside appearance; the workmen seemed to be skillful and have given good satisfaction. Now for a good coat of outside white and the harmony will be perfect.
 The musical entertainment in the church at Layton on Thursday evening last was well attended, and the Phonograph with amplifying trumpet for the audience made the evening pass very pleasantly. The spectators rendered on the PAUPAC.

 (Special Correspondence to the Press.)
 PAUPAC, June 29.—Our ribbon social last week was a success both socially and financially for the benefit of the Rev. J. O. Raymond. We cleared nearly twenty-five dollars. It was held at the residence of B. K. Nye, the room was tastefully decorated with evergreens, lanterns lighted the yard, and some of the tables were set there. Mrs. Maria Killam from Kimbles is spending a few weeks with Mrs. M. Killam. Miss Anna Taft stayed there last week. Mrs. Killam looks very comfortable in her invalids chair, in it she can be wheeled out to the table and eat with the family a part of the time.
 Mrs. May of Hawley is staying with her aunt, Mrs. G. N. Killam.
 Mrs. A. Simons of Dunmore is stopping with her mother a short time.
 Mrs. A. J. Kinable returned from her western trip a couple of weeks ago, having enjoyed it very much.
 J. P. Rose agent for the Railroad Company is buying a few of the largest trees he can find.
 Strawberries have been very plentiful. Berries of all kinds bid fair to be.
 A Reader.

DELAWARE.
 (Special Correspondence to the Press.)
 DELAWARE, June 29.—The new house of George W. Little is nearing completion. Joseph Benaley is doing the carpenter work. The Lehman township board of school directors will hold a meeting on Thursday afternoon for the purpose of hiring teachers for the ensuing term.
 H. C. Bowen who was bit by a dog some time ago came very near bleeding to death on Sunday last. One of the vets bursted which was in close proximity to the bite.
 Mr. Richard W. Huffman is very sick again and as we write a doctor is being sent for.
 Owing to the inclement weather, the Meadow Brook Sunday school did not observe Children's Day on June 14th. It was postponed until June 21st.
 Farmers are busily engaged in sowing buckwheat at present.
 Harvest will soon be here.
 Rye is going to be a fairly good crop, while wheat will be short and light.
 Oats are looking fine, and have a rich green color. Hay will be little more than half crop.
 Corn is looking good in places while others are affected by an insect, which works at the root. Potatoes are looking well.
 SPECTATOR.

MONTAGUE.
 (Special Correspondence to the Press.)
 MONTAGUE, June 29.—It rains now-a-days as easy as rolling off a log.
 Montague will come over next Saturday and help Milford celebrate.
 Say I might get going notorious, if people over there don't get killed fast enough by accident they go at it and try and kill themselves.
 E. L. Newman, the boss fisherman and son, Gordon, of New York, have arrived at the Springdale house.
 Master Britton Youngs, of East Orange, is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Armstrong.
 Fish and Game Warden J. B. Henderson is bound to make some serious respect the law. That's right, a few convictions for Sunday hunting will be sufficient.
 The team of the Hon. Joseph J. Hart was over here last Wednesday after a load of hay. Somehow the road wasn't wide enough for Edgar Boyd, the driver, and he managed to spill the load into the Millville mill pond. The team attached to the empty wagon went for home on a faster gait than "Jed" will run for Congress. No particular damage was done only a little extra work to get the hay out of the pond.
 Our assessor, Wm. P. Hornbeck is making his annual rounds. Farmers, I don't believe have got richer the past year, but the taxes will stay up all the same.
 The bridge near E. Coopers was sold yesterday by our Freeholder to Judson Kerr for $20.00.
 The festival for the benefit of Road District No. 1 Friday evening was fairly attended, the proceeds amount to $20. The overseer of the district is making a little private canvass for funds the result of which with the donors' names will be given later.
 One candidate for the Democratic nomination for Sheriff has loomed up, Peter P. Swarts, who got the nomination three years ago but was defeated by Peter Gunderman, the Republican nominee. There are more to follow, the woods are full of would-be office-holders.
 DICK.

DINGMAN'S FERRY.
 (Special Correspondence to the Press.)
 DINGMAN, Pa., June 29.—The M. E. Church will hold a festival and art exhibition on the Fourth of July, afternoon and evening. A grand good time is expected. A variety and ample supply of choice refreshments will be served by the ladies of the church. Come one and all and assist in a good and noble cause. Benefit the church.

GORELEY.
 (Special Correspondence to the Press.)
 GORELEY, June 29.—We are having beautiful weather at present with just rain enough to keep vegetation growing nicely and also other crops accordingly doing well.
 Our school madam took a trip to Port Jervis on Friday returning here on Monday. She also made a visit with her mother at Lackawaxen.
 Miss Tina Burcher returned to her home at Damascus last week from this place where she had been spending some time with her brother, W. V. Burcher of this place.
 The warm weather is sending the city folks to the country as we notice quite a number pass here every Sunday leaving themselves around in different places among their friends and filling up the boarding houses as fast as possible.
 Maggie Landuskey was called to her home last week on account of sickness of her mother. Dr. Howard is the attending physician he has also other cases he is attending at this place one of them is Mrs. George Hartwell, he has a patient at Mrs. Dodge's it being a gentleman who came out there for his health.
 G. M. Burcher is spending a few days at his home this week with his parents, W. V. Burcher.
 Miss Louise Witt is spending most of her time at the Lackawaxen house where she is dress making for Mrs. Asher and family.
 Mr. Robert Clark of Jersey City is spending his vacation at the suite, Mrs. Dodge.

Mrs. Henry Clark and family of Jersey City will come to this place on July 2nd to spend two months as they have one of W. V. Burcher's cottages rented from year to year.
 Mr. Gus Knoedler is filling his large and commodious house with city boarders as he has a quite a number, now he expects to fill it next Sunday.
 Mr. James Conright was at Groesby on Monday, that being the day set by him for collecting taxes.
 Mr. Godfrey Welland of Howlands makes his weekly trip through this vicinity with his beer wagon to accommodate those who indulge.
 Mr. Lew Banfo called on friends here on Monday with his old friend Howard Greening, returning to Barryville in the evening.
 Mrs. I. B. Kosencranz will have to go back to Port Jervis hospital again. She had a tumor taken off her finger some time ago, it is returning again and is very painful.
 Those excursions to Shohola Glen on Sundays make it very lively here, as so many people pass to and from the Glen.

Mr. Mott on Mechanical Flight.
 The Electrical World of June 20th, contains an interesting article by S. D. Mott, of this city, on the subject of mechanical flight. It is the first part of a forthcoming series on this interesting problem. The heading of the article is "Proposed Meteorological Machines For Raising Self Registering Instruments in the Higher Atmosphere by Orthogonal Flight," and is intended for uses by government weather bureaus as an aid in the forecasting of the daily probabilities. The device shown by Mr. Mott has been favorably reviewed by several meteorologists and mechanical experts, and is to be submitted to the Washington bureau by Farmer Dunn of New York. Mr. Mott's attention to the subject was aroused by the interest and suggestion of Dr. Maury, the professional head of the weather department of the New York Herald.—Passaic Daily News.

History Repeats Itself.
 In 1872 Mr. Nashy wich was postmaster, wrote from Baltimore where he was a delegate to the convention: "I came here a Groesby man. I am a leader in the people,—a Democratic leader in the people,—and consent to have but one principle—Post office. Convince me that a candidate is sound on that question," and in the words of the poet:
 "Es he is mine and I am hiszen,
 What kin I want besides."
 "What a beautiful thing it would be to be a Republican, and hev the same thing to talk in all parts of the country."
 After next Tuesday the above will probably be entertaining reading for the Democrats.

College Grad Fourth of July Orator.
 The college graduate orator at one stage or another in the proceedings is reasonably certain to bob up with chunks of wisdom from his valedictory. Filled with wise saws from the orators of 2,000 or 3,000 years ago, he is never tired of alluding to what Cicero said or Caesar did and recognizes no fact later than the time of Augustus, no axiom whose wisdom had not been proved by Seneca at the very latest. His skyscraping oratory invariably catches the boys who are accustomed to it, having heard so much of it at school, and were young America consulted the college senior would bear off the palm as the prize orator of the day.—Selected.

Just for Fun.
 Rollingstone Nonsense: I had an awful dream last night.
 Tattered Tom: Workin'?
 Rollingstone Nonsense: Yes; I thought I was turned into a cake o' yeast.

Sir Wilfrid Lawson the English temperance advocate, relates the following story about himself: There was a school in the north of England, and the master gave the children a long disquisition upon the steam engine; and when he thought they all understood it, he asked, "What is it that does the work of forty horses and drinks nothing but water?" And they called out, "Sir Wilfrid Lawson!"

"Ada, dearest Ada, will you be mine?"
 "Oh, Charles, this is so unexpected you must give me a little time."
 "How long, darling?"
 "Oh, I will just call mamma. She is waiting in the next room."

Gussy: Why do you so persistently wear the hair of another woman on your head?
 Beatrice: For the same reason that you wear the skin of another calf on your feet.

"George, dear, you go in and ask papa's consent and—George—if anything should happen I'll go to see you every day till you're well again."

The negro sexton of a church in New York has a very stylish mulatto wife. Asking for a bigger salary he gave as a reason: "It's mighty hard to keep a scalskin wife on a muskrat salary."

Great minds, like Heaven, are pleased with doing good. Though the ungrateful subjects of their favours Are barren in return.—Rowe.

The Protection Against Flies.
 To keep off flies, rub the horses' ears with elder leaves, one farmer writes us. Oil of tar, mixed half and half with cottonseed oil or when this mixture is applied to the face by hunters, to keep off black flies. The horn fly, the worst of all flies that attack cows, may be kept off by applying with a large brush to backs and sides of animals, and especially about the ears and horns, a mixture of two parts of any cheap oil and one part of thin tar (the latter is cheaper than oil or tar and almost as good), to which add a little crude carbolic acid. Prof. Weed of the Mississippi station, who has made a special study of the horn fly, recommends a daily spraying of infested cattle for eight days with kerosene emulsion (one part of sour milk and two parts kerosene, thoroughly mixed with a spray pump and then diluted with nine parts of water). If the job is thus thoroughly done in June or July, ordinarily it will so exterminate the horn flies that they will not return during the season in sufficient number to require repetition of the treatment. Others who have effective methods of protecting stock against the scourge of flies will confer a favor upon man and animals by writing full particulars to the Press.
