CORRESPONDENCE.

MATAMORAS.

The funeral of the late Webb W. Courtwright took place on Tuesday afternoon at his late home on McCollum street and was largely attended. The Order of Red Men, of which he was a member, was out and had charge. Rev. Mr. Gross, pastor of Hope church, preached the sermon and was assisted by Rev. Mr. Chadwick of the Methodist church of Port Jervis. The pall bearers, members of the order, were as follows: D. Miller, Henry Gibson, George Cuddeback, Jacob Holden and Clark Colder.

Little Miss Lucia London, aged 4 years, gave a birthday party to about 15 of her young friends Tuesday afternoon from 2 until 6 o'clock at her home on Washington street. They had a nice supper prepared by Mrs. London, which was very much enjoyed. Games were played and all had a pleasant time.

Mrs. Warren Ridgway was in town Thursday afternoon calling on some of her friends.

Mrs. M. Bowden, an aged lady and aunt of Mrs. Crine and also of Mrs. Brunell, is the guest of these ladies. She will spend the winter in Matamoras. Her former home was at Stroudsburg.

The two ministers from New York, Revs. C. S. McDonnell and F. E. Romanczyk, are called the "musical revivallists." One plays the cornet and the other the cello. They came here to assist Rev. Mr. Spencer, pastor of the Epworth church, on Nov. 18th.

The ladies of St. Joseph's church are making great preparations for their fair, which is to be held at Lackawaxen, Pa., on Thanksgiving afternoon and evening.

The Busy Bees are making great preparations for their entertainment which is to be given at their Orange tea tonight at the home of Miss Nellie Westfall on Third street.

Fred Corwin has been ill for the past week but is now able to attend to his duties. Grafton Crane assisted at the store during Fred's sickness.

The C. E. social took place last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Wm. F. Spield on Cookson street and was largely attended. During the business meeting held in the early part of the evening the subject discussed was a circulating library that is about being started in the society. A committee was appointed and at the next meeting further particulars will be recorded. The social was a success and the evening was spent in a pleasant manner. Games were played, good music was enjoyed and ice cream was served during the evening.

Rev. Mr. Allen of the Sparrow-bush Methodist church, preached at Epworth church on Sunday morning.

Mrs. William Cook from Princeton arrived in town on Saturday evening and was the guest of her sister, Mrs. D. B. Allen. Mrs. Cook left for her home Monday. Mrs. Allen has been ill but is improving.

Miss Augusta Koerner, who was injured on the Barrett bridge a short time ago, is improving. The doctor has hopes of her recovery.

Miss Grace Soybolt, a trained nurse from New York city, who has been spending her vacation in Matamoras, returned to the city Monday.

Mrs. Harry Lilley and little son, Alfred, from Tri-States are spending a few days at Mrs. Fred Billman's on Cookson street.

There were no meetings of church societies this week.

The L. A. S. held a cake sale at the Matamoras postoffice this afternoon from 2 to 5 p. m.

At Hope church Sunday morning the presiding elder, Rev. T. L. Wents, of Reading, Pa., took part in the services and also in the evening. At the morning service the sacrament of the Lord's supper was administered. There was a large congregation.

DINGMAN'S FERRY.

What has become of "W. H. L." Considerable complaint is being made about bad roads on the hill. Well, election will soon be here and the people can then make other selections of supervisors if not satisfied.

The section built by John H. Lead improves by wear. It was constructed on proper principles and has settled down for a long time unless it is, as frequently happens, torn up by his successors.

Honesty is the best policy, unless one can make a large enough haul to keep out of the woods and state's prison. We do not believe in the principle but it seems fashionable.

Take care of the interests of your employers. They will then prosper and look after yours because they are his.

Several city gentlemen have recently been annoyed here by being arrested for violations of the game laws which on examination before a justice were not sustained. The antecedents of some of the informers may be enquired into and one at least have difficulty in clearing himself of a more serious offense than unlawfully killing game.

Many farmers here are posting up "no trespassing" notices. In less than five years with the present laws farmers may find rabbits as numerous and destructive here as they were in Australia a few years ago. Why are the Harrisburg gentlemen so active in preventing city people who spend their money freely from coming here? If the same energy was shown in suppressing our own criminals future generations might rise up and call them blessed.

Mrs. G. W. Donaldson of Ardortish left Sunday for New York and tomorrow will sail for England to join her husband, who is introducing American goods in that country.

Rye generally was sown late this fall and the drought prevented it from doing well.

Apples are worth $3 a barrel here, eggs are 30 cents a doz. and butter 22 cents a pound.

A city gentleman recently wrote as follows: "It seems you have considerable red tape about game since I was last in your place. I would not object to paying $10 for a license if permitted to take my game home." The result is no license money and all for the sake of keeping a little game here.

Phoasants are scarce but quail, coons, rabbits and ground hogs are plentiful.

The law against running deer with dogs doesn't seem to trouble our hunters much. When they want to raise a deer they use a cow bell which answers the purpose and is more convenient than a bow-wow.

It is said a landlord cannot charge for a game dinner but he can charge for condiments and service and invite a constable to see that he keeps within the law.

The downfall of big Tammany, the parent of our little Tammany, at the late election does not seem to affect our braves. The people here are always grumbling about the township officials but they always walk up and vote them back in office if the big chief so desires. Our amiable representative as usual was very attentive recently to the welfare of the blind, the maimed, the illiterate and other unfortunates who could not mark their ballots properly. He was solicitous to see that their tickets were marked just right. He is a ripper election days and sometimes other days, too.

McCarriok, the general outside business manager, is lively these days buying produce, veal, hogs,

Colds

"I had a terrible cold and could hardly breathe. I then tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and it gave me immediate relief."
W. C. Layton, Sidell, Ill.

How will your cough be tonight? Worse, probably. For it's first a cold, then a cough, then bronchitis or pneumonia, and at last consumption. Coughs always tend downward. Stop this downward tendency by taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

These three are strong for an ordinary cold. For a severe cold, however, use the large bottle, etc. It is most economical for shipping and is long on hand.

J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

turkeys and in fact almost anything suitable for the city markets.

John Gould intends erecting his house as soon as the cellar is finished.

Frank Downs has accepted a situation as clerk in a New Jersey store.

E. A. Wells with a party from Port Jervis was hunting here recently. No arrests were made. Every time Mr. Wells shot the same was pretty sure to land in his bag. CAESAR.

SANDYSTON.

The vendue of Mrs. Mottler's Wednesday last brought out a large crowd. DeAlton kept things humming and a large amount of property was sold and at good prices.

B. B. Harsh, now traveling through the west writes that he is greatly pleased with what he has seen of that great section. He is at present in Michigan and will take in most of the states west of the Mississippi before returning some time in December.

Parties are starting a little early this fall, but if the succeeding ones are as pleasant as the one at Mr. Little's in Montague on Friday evening the young folks are in for many good times, as most of the participants did not get home until near morning.

Most of the hotels in this valley are entertaining city hunters and as a rule they are having very good success. Passing through Berans a day or two ago, I found Mr. Franklin, Edward Vail and Mr. G. Alseing, who were stopping there a few days in quest of game, and I am glad to say they were having great luck.

The church at Layton is nearly painted and this week will see the second coat on. It improves the appearance of the building very much.

Sunday was a real winter's day the cold being severe and with the strong wind blowing it was very uncomfortable to be out of doors. The high wind suttered corn stalks, husked and unhusked, all over the fields and in many cases stalk stacks were uprooted.

I received a pleasant call on Sunday from Mr. Van Anken of Wilkes-barre, Pa., who is stopping for a few days with his uncle, D. B. Lattimore. Mr. Van Anken's health is not of the best, and he is en route to some point in North Carolina or Georgia to spend the winter months.

W. Frank Rosenkrans on Monday last removed his family to Rutherford, N. J., where he is employed in a drug store.

Ed. Crane and family of Port Jervis are spending a few days in Sandyston visiting friends and relatives.

Irving Raser and wife of Allamuchy, N. J., are making a brief visit to his parents, Mr and Mrs. Daniel Raser. Ir is telegraph operated at Allamuchy railroad station.

Watering troughs for the use of the public are a public blessing, but when the keeper of such a trough allows the water to escape into the road, thereby causing damage to such an extent that on Thursday last it took a team and three men a day to make the needed repairs costing the town about $5.50 and $2 more rebate in tax to the party maintaining the trough, our committee should look into the matter.

Election is over and you hardly hear it mentioned, except by those who claim that the Roe fish bill will entail tremendous costs to the county later on. Well, I rather doubt that. I am sorry that the sponsor of that bill was defeated, but with 32 republican majority at Trenton Mr. Diff can do very little.

Walpack township gave the free fishing bill a black eye, a majority of 10 against it, and Montague went it 12 better. I am at a loss to account for such action but millions, I am told, are down on that bill and those townships may be full of them, but the bill went through just the same.

Esten O. Van Sickle will leave in a few days to join his father, John J. Van Sickle, who is engaged in business at Bucyrus, Ohio.

Spreads Like Wildfire.

When things are "the best" they become "the best selling." Abraham Hare, a leading druggist of Belleville, O., writes: "Electric Bitters are the best selling bitters I have handled in 20 years." You know why? Most diseases begin in disorders of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, blood and nerves. Electric Bitters tones up the stomach, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves, hence cures multitudes of maladies. It builds up the entire system. Puts new life and vigor into any weak, sickly, run down man or woman. Price 50 cents. Sold by all druggists.
