THE DAILY BULLETIN. Only Morning Daily in Southern Illinois. OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY AND COUNTY.

ABOUT THE CITY.

The Illinois Central Railroad authorities have determined to take down the "Yellow Warehouse," damaged during the late storm.

The Roman Catholic Church, corner of Ninth street and Commercial Avenue, is greatly improved in appearance by a handsome coat of paint.

The wind yesterday sent clouds of dust flying in every direction, penetrating every nook and cranny. Out-door locomotion was rendered extremely disagreeable.

Mr. Carle has, on exhibition at his livery stable a brand new buggy, the work of his spare moments. It is exceedingly handsome, and it is pronounced by those competent to judge a first-class piece of workmanship.

It is whispered, in a quiet way, that a young gentleman whose business is akin to printing, is on the eve of bidding a long farewell to single wretchedness, preparatory to emerging into the "green and gold of life"—or something of that kind.

The anniversary of the Cairo Encampment No. 124, I. O. O. F., will be celebrated by the members, at their hall, on Tuesday evening next. The festivities incident to such an occasion will be indulged in, and a very good time is anticipated.

Mr. Ed. Close, an employe of Mr. Geo. E. O'Hara, druggist, at the corner of Eighteenth street and Commercial Avenue, met with a painful and serious accident last evening, while in the performance of his duties.

Sam Blue, alias "Stonewall," an escaped convict, CONFIDENCE MAN AND THIEF CAPTURED. Sam Blue, alias "Stonewall," a notorious confidence man and thief, was sentenced some time since from Memphis to a term in the Nashville (Tenn.) penitentiary.

County Jailor Miller has now eleven promising wards under his guardianship—ten males and one female. Among the former are Burkelow, who is under sentence of death, and in whose behalf a motion for a new trial will be argued before the State Supreme Court in June next.

Preparations for Decoration Day drag their slow length along. A member of the committee having the arrangements in hand reports considerable difficulty in securing available speakers; Gen. Butler and Dristow have declined on account of previous engagements; Gov. Coulton might possibly be in Washington on that day and can give no positive assurance of his presence here.

Gen. Logan has been pleaded with, but while anxious to be present, he, too, declines to accept positively. Altogether, the outlook, so far as speakers are concerned, is not at all what we would all wish it.

A very interesting cock fight occurred yesterday outside the Mississippi Levee west of the gas works about five hundred yards. The cocks belonged to Mr. James Summerwell and Mr. Okey Boughner, and the battle was very stubbornly contested.

The European Hotel, Sixth street, between Commercial and Washington avenues, conducted by Mrs. Harry Walker, offers superior inducements to the public. All the appointments are first-class, and the tables are supplied with the best our market affords, well cooked and served.

the third round he was knocked out of time, but left the ground with his reputation for gameness untarnished. Mr. Summerwell looked mournful, but he took his defeat with philosophical calmness and gave up the stakes without a murmur. From fifty to seventy-five men witnessed the bloody contest, and greatly enjoyed it.

The social gathering of the African Methodist Sunday School on Wednesday evening last, was the scene of what promised at one time to be a very interesting scrimmage. A colored bully, whose surname we have lost, but who answers to the name of Bob, entered the hall and began abusing and maltreating a colored brother named Martin Hamlin. He was remonstrated with and urged to desist. Appeals of this nature, instead of mollifying him, served only to exasperate, and he met them with increased violence.

He was finally ordered from the hall, and told to depart in a peaceful manner. This he looked upon as a declaration of open hostilities, and was in the act of going down for his "razor," or "shooter," when Constable Gladney appeared upon the scene, and before Bob was aware of it he was safely in the clutches of that sturdy minion of the law. He was tried before Justice Robinson yesterday and fined $5 and costs. He's a "bad nigger."

The rank and file of the High School Guards turned out yesterday afternoon, and went through a variety of military evolutions on their exercise grounds, in a highly creditable manner. The organization, although of recent date, has, under its efficient instructors, attained a considerable degree of proficiency. The following named young gentlemen comprise its membership: Will J. Hunter, Captain; Will L. Wright, Lieutenant; Chas. W. Frank, Color Bearer; George Christian, Orderly Sergeant; Arthur French, Third Sergeant; James Clark, Fourth Sergeant; Ed. Halliday, First Corporal; Bert Close, Second Corporal; Roy Allen, Third Corporal; Will Johnston, Fourth Corporal; George Collins; Scott White; Max Black; John Dennis; Will Williamson; Patrick Powers; Phil Wicker; Herman Schuh; Jim Sandusky; Michael Fitzgerald; Wallie Hawkins; Thomas Sprout; Jack Baird; Will Hogan; Edward Rendall; George Williamson; Will Black; Frank Carle; Eddie Kelly; Willie Geck; Val Mulkey; Charlie Hodge; Albert Susanka; Edward Holy; Oliver McNulty; Aleck Phillips, Drill Master.

The ladies of the M. E. Church have completed their arrangements for the ice-cream and Strawberry Festival to be given on the evening of Thursday, May 9th, in Dr. Wardner's building on Commercial Avenue. Admission, 10c; ice-cream, 15c; ice-cream and strawberries, 25c; ice-cream, strawberries and cake, 35c.

PERSONAL. Mr. Clark, a well-known and respected citizen of Golconda, was in the city yesterday. He left for home last evening.

Dr. Arter's many friends will be gratified to learn that the old gentleman continues to steadily improve. There is an abundance of vitality left in the old lad yet.

Among the arrival at the St. Charles Hotel yesterday were: H. Clancey, St. Louis; John Marr, New Madrid; Bend, S. B. McCombie, New Orleans; C. H. Crosby, St. Louis; Mr. W. H. Purcell, Little Rock; Mrs. Fanny Kidd, Paducah, Ky.; H. C. Warner, Wooster, Ohio.

A CHALLENGE.—I challenge Mr. Louis C. Schenckers to skate with me at Turner's hall for the gold medal and five dollars to be awarded on Tuesday night next to the most graceful skater. WM. HUDSON.

TAKEN IN. SAM BLUE, ALIAS "STONEWALL," AN ESCAPED CONVICT, CONFIDENCE MAN AND THIEF CAPTURED.

THE GALIGHER FESTIVAL.

A SPLENDID DISPLAY AT THE HOUSE OF CAPT. GALIGHER.—THE HOME OF THE PERI, THE BOWER OF BEAUTY AND THE GYPSY'S CAMP.—AN ENJOYABLE AFFAIR ENJOYED BY A LARGE COMPANY OF OUR BEST PEOPLE.

The festival given by Mrs. Chas. Galigher last night for the benefit of the Church of the Redeemer was an affair that attracted much attention, and was delightful in all its details. The mansion, the most spacious and splendid in the city, had been carefully prepared for the occasion by the hostess. It was crowded at an early hour, and the people all enjoyed themselves until a late hour of the evening.

The guests were received at the door (after they had run the gauntlet of the smiling cashier) by Mrs. Galigher; and soon, under the careful leadership of the amiable ladies of Rector Dillon-Lee's congregation, they enjoyed all the scenes of beauty prepared for the entertainment of the public, and were bewildered in an attempt to decide whether they enjoyed themselves most in the Bower of Beauty, the Home of the Peri or the Gypsy Camp.

The Home of the Peri, on the main floor, first attracted attention. It was a crystalized cave, illuminated by red and blue lights that made it glitter with beauty. But the beauty of the cave was somewhat eclipsed by the greater beauty of the charming Peri, Miss Lillie Morris, who, arrayed in pink silk and lace, adorned by gold and silver trappings, looked, acted and talked like the Peri she represented. Indeed, we left her Home fully impressed by the belief that she was Peri and to this conclusion we still adhere. The Peri was attended by two Genii—William H. Morris and Frank Galigher—who, elaborately costumed, ministered to the wants of their queen. They ruthlessly made prisoners of the unwary and compelled them to do homage to the Lady of the Cave. Two Furies—Lilly Schuller and Edith Walbridge—also added attraction to the Home; while a Great Frog—Master Fred Galigher—gave a semi-comic feature to the affair. The Cave was the work of Mr. Frank Galigher and entitles him to the praise of much ingenuity and great skill of a peculiar and rare kind.

The next attraction was the Bower of Beauty, on the second floor. It was decorated by festoons of evergreens and flowers, and was presided over by Mrs. William Winter, Miss Carrie Ungles, Miss Ella Walbridge, Miss Ella Armstrong, Miss Fannie Pfeifer and Miss Mollie Riley—all three rare beauties of whom Cairo is justly proud. Attending upon the Beauties were five beautiful girls—Carrie Morris, Lila and Laura Halliday, Mamie Lentz and Alice Warner.

The next attraction was the Gypsy Camp in which Mrs. G. G. Alvord presided. Miss Kitty Alvord personated the Gypsy Queen and dressed and conducted the character to perfection. Her attendants, also in costume, and very charming in their unique disguises, were Misses Fanny Barclay, May Harman, Jennie McKenzie, Nettie Schuller and Lily Pfeifer.

The next attraction was the supper table loaded with the good things Capt. and Mrs. Galigher had provided; but the fact must not be overlooked that the ice-cream and cakes were furnished by the other ladies of the church. To Mrs. Wm. M. Morris, Mrs. Henry Halliday, Mrs. Chas. Pink and Mrs. Samuel Walters in an especial manner, much credit is due. They labored with much industry to make the affair successful; and to them Mrs. Galigher, as well as the whole church, owe a debt of thanks.

The raffle for "Silvertail," the well-known grey pony, will take place as soon as all the chances are taken. There are one hundred and twenty-five chances, at one dollar per chance. The time of the raffle will be made known through the city papers. J. H. ENGLISH.
