

PROFESSIONAL CARDS—PHYSICIANS. W. R. SMITH, JR., M. D. Office and Residence: NO. 21 THIRTEENTH STREET, CAIRO, ILL. C. W. DUNNING, M. D. Office and Residence: OFFICE—No. 10, W. cor. Sixth st., near Ohio levee. RESIDENCE—Corner Walnut and Ninth streets. DENTISTS. DR. W. C. JOCELYN. Dentist. OFFICE—Eight Street, near Commercial Avenue. DR. E. W. WHITLOCK. Dental Surgeon. OFFICE—No. 12, Commercial Avenue, between Eighth and Ninth Streets. ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW. S. P. WHEELER. Attorney-at-Law. OFFICE—Ohio Levee, bet. Fourth and Sixth sts. J. INEGAR & LANSDEN. Attorneys-at-Law. OFFICE—No. 113 Commercial Avenue.

ANNOUNCEMENTS. We are authorized to announce JOHN Q. HARMAN, of Alexander County, as a candidate for Clerk of the Appellate Court, Fourth District, Illinois, subject to the decision of the Democratic convention called to meet at Centralia, May 16, 1878. We are authorized to announce R. A. D. WILBANKS, of Washington County, as a candidate for Clerk of the Supreme Court, Southern Grand Division, Illinois, subject to the decision of the Democratic nominating convention, to be held at Centralia, May 16, 1878. We are authorized to announce HARDIN CASE, of Carlin County, as a candidate for Clerk of the Appellate Court, Fourth District, Illinois, subject to the decision of the Democratic convention called to meet at Centralia, May 16, 1878. We are authorized to announce W. C. LE CRONE, of Effingham County, as a candidate for Clerk of the Appellate Court, Fourth District, Illinois, subject to the decision of the Democratic convention called to meet at Centralia, May 16, 1878.

THE DAILY BULLETIN. Only Morning Daily in Southern Illinois. OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY AND COUNTY.

ABOUT TOWN.

For other local matter see third page. The City Council holds forth to-night. Mr. Dyas T. Parker, of Fulton, was in town Sunday. Mr. Jas. S. Morris, of Ullin, was in the city yesterday. Hudson, the skater, accepts Antrim's challenge—the skater. Mrs. Harbert, during her stay in the city, is the guest of Mrs. Dr. Wardner. Col. Lowery spoke to a large audience at the M. E. Church Sunday night. A. Antrim has returned from St. Louis, whether he had gone with his bride, to enjoy the honeymoon. Mr. John H. Oberly left yesterday on the noon train for Springfield. He may extend his trip to Chicago. Mr. M. A. Smith, of the Johnson County Journal, favored THE BULLETIN with a call on Sunday last. There will be a business meeting of the Cairo Temperance Reform Club this evening, at their hall, at 7:30 o'clock. Steam was raised for the first time in Trigg's new planing mill, Tenth street and Washington avenue, on Saturday last. Capt. Geo. Hill, was taken sick in St. Louis, was compelled thereby to leave the steamer Kochler, and has returned home. Chief Arter yesterday "took in" a thief who had stolen a pair of breeches. He was given temporary lodging with Pat Mahoney. To-night Cairo Encampment, I. O. O. will celebrate its anniversary at Odd-Fellows' hall. It is looked forward to with anticipations of rare enjoyment. Capt. Williams will leave to-day on a tour of inspection along the line of the Cairo and Vincennes Railroad to select grounds for the proposed picnic of the Red Ribbon Club. Constable Gladney last night arrested two darkies, named Bob Stokes and Simon Shungli. They had been fighting on the corner of Thirteenth and Poplar streets, and hence their arrest. Chas. Smith, for carrying concealed weapons, was yesterday fined $25 by Judge Bird. Extenuating circumstances appearing in the case, City Attorney McFee entered a stay of execution. Eddie Close, who, on Friday last, while attempting to cork a bottle of creosote, received some of the fluid in his eyes, is reported out of danger and will soon be able to see again the light of day. The picnic of the Cairo Casino Club, on Sunday last, was well attended and will yield a handsome profit to the club. Mirth and merriment ruled the occasion, and those present spent in warm terms of its management. Mrs. W. P. Wright, known as one of Cairo's favorite vocalists, who has been in Boston for the past three months receiving musical instruction, came home on Saturday. She will receive a warm welcome from her many friends. It costs just $95 to move a car of strawberries from New Orleans to Chicago. Any person having surplus time on hand will oblige us greatly by informing us of the cost of a strawberry delivered in Chicago at these figures. Patience and cheerfulness in figures will accomplish the task. A fight—a regular stand up and knock down—occurred on Sunday last on Ohio

Levee, near Sayer's hide store, between two "promoters." They beat each other up in a manner that showed them possessed of much skill and ability in the manly art of self-defense, and for a time they afforded infinite amusement to a crowd of lookers-on. A well-known young man, who had an hour or so previously set upon and abused a stranger in a disreputable den on Commercial avenue, while standing in front of Burger's store, was assaulted by the individual whom he had abused, and severely trounced. He deserved it. It occurred on Sunday. That was a pitiable scene in Judge Bird's court yesterday morning, wherein fourteen laborers, who work on the Kentucky side of the river, figured as defendants with the city as prosecutors. They were charged with and pleaded guilty to the charge of drunkenness. But two were able to pay the fine of $2 imposed upon them. The remainder were consigned to the cooler. A free lecture will be given by Rev. Mr. Pope at the A. M. E. church Wednesday night. Mr. P. is a West India Missionary—on and off for thirty years—does not represent any creed or denomination, but travels under the auspices of the American Evangelical Society. His chief aim is to preach against the barriers which divide the various sects of Christian believers. He is said to possess considerable knowledge of the subject which he treats. The transit of Mercury which occurred yesterday was visible in all portions of the country through telescopes. It required seven and a half hours for this planet to cross the sun's face. Its diameter is 3,000 miles. The first transit of Mercury ever observed was in 1631, when it was witnessed by Gassendi. Haley saw it from St. Helena in 1857. The shortest time known between these passages is three and a half years; the longest, thirteen years. This is the record, as kept since Gassendi's time. There will be another transit November 7, 1881, and two more will follow before the close of the present century. At a meeting of the building committee of the Hillman Fire Company, held last night in the office of M. J. Howley, the following bids for the construction of the proposed new engine house was submitted. John McEwen (brick work), $2,200; Richard Walsh (brick work), $2,125; Henry Stout (brick work), $2,150; John Madden (completion of building), $3,437; George Hendricks (completion of building), $3,340; Daniel Kelly (completion of building), $3,347; Kenner & Duncker (completion of building), $3,267. Another meeting of the committee will be held shortly, at which an award for the construction of the building will be made. If THE BULLETIN reporter who was present at the Woman's Temperance Christian Union meeting last night has a peculiarly distinctive trait of character, apart from his moral loveliness, it is his extreme modesty. Binsling is as natural with him as with the girl just budding into womanhood. He can't help it. The sympathetic reader, capable of appreciating such delicate natures, can readily imagine our feelings when, upon being escorted to the reporter's table (an elegant little affair, charmingly situated, by the way), we found a feast for the senses. On either corner of the table was a fresh cut magnolia—the rarest of exotics—and a bunch of fragrant flowers tastefully arranged. To say we were overwhelmed would but faintly describe our feelings. And if we do here what an overwrought system prevented us from doing at the proper time and place—to return thanks—we hope the ladies who so kindly arranged the affair will accept it as a partial reparation; for we are, indeed, very grateful.

At a meeting of the building committee of the Hillman Fire Company, held last night in the office of M. J. Howley, the following bids for the construction of the proposed new engine house was submitted. John McEwen (brick work), $2,200; Richard Walsh (brick work), $2,125; Henry Stout (brick work), $2,150; John Madden (completion of building), $3,437; George Hendricks (completion of building), $3,340; Daniel Kelly (completion of building), $3,347; Kenner & Duncker (completion of building), $3,267. Another meeting of the committee will be held shortly, at which an award for the construction of the building will be made. If THE BULLETIN reporter who was present at the Woman's Temperance Christian Union meeting last night has a peculiarly distinctive trait of character, apart from his moral loveliness, it is his extreme modesty. Binsling is as natural with him as with the girl just budding into womanhood. He can't help it. The sympathetic reader, capable of appreciating such delicate natures, can readily imagine our feelings when, upon being escorted to the reporter's table (an elegant little affair, charmingly situated, by the way), we found a feast for the senses. On either corner of the table was a fresh cut magnolia—the rarest of exotics—and a bunch of fragrant flowers tastefully arranged. To say we were overwhelmed would but faintly describe our feelings. And if we do here what an overwrought system prevented us from doing at the proper time and place—to return thanks—we hope the ladies who so kindly arranged the affair will accept it as a partial reparation; for we are, indeed, very grateful.

At a meeting of the building committee of the Hillman Fire Company, held last night in the office of M. J. Howley, the following bids for the construction of the proposed new engine house was submitted. John McEwen (brick work), $2,200; Richard Walsh (brick work), $2,125; Henry Stout (brick work), $2,150; John Madden (completion of building), $3,437; George Hendricks (completion of building), $3,340; Daniel Kelly (completion of building), $3,347; Kenner & Duncker (completion of building), $3,267. Another meeting of the committee will be held shortly, at which an award for the construction of the building will be made. If THE BULLETIN reporter who was present at the Woman's Temperance Christian Union meeting last night has a peculiarly distinctive trait of character, apart from his moral loveliness, it is his extreme modesty. Binsling is as natural with him as with the girl just budding into womanhood. He can't help it. The sympathetic reader, capable of appreciating such delicate natures, can readily imagine our feelings when, upon being escorted to the reporter's table (an elegant little affair, charmingly situated, by the way), we found a feast for the senses. On either corner of the table was a fresh cut magnolia—the rarest of exotics—and a bunch of fragrant flowers tastefully arranged. To say we were overwhelmed would but faintly describe our feelings. And if we do here what an overwrought system prevented us from doing at the proper time and place—to return thanks—we hope the ladies who so kindly arranged the affair will accept it as a partial reparation; for we are, indeed, very grateful.

At a meeting of the building committee of the Hillman Fire Company, held last night in the office of M. J. Howley, the following bids for the construction of the proposed new engine house was submitted. John McEwen (brick work), $2,200; Richard Walsh (brick work), $2,125; Henry Stout (brick work), $2,150; John Madden (completion of building), $3,437; George Hendricks (completion of building), $3,340; Daniel Kelly (completion of building), $3,347; Kenner & Duncker (completion of building), $3,267. Another meeting of the committee will be held shortly, at which an award for the construction of the building will be made. If THE BULLETIN reporter who was present at the Woman's Temperance Christian Union meeting last night has a peculiarly distinctive trait of character, apart from his moral loveliness, it is his extreme modesty. Binsling is as natural with him as with the girl just budding into womanhood. He can't help it. The sympathetic reader, capable of appreciating such delicate natures, can readily imagine our feelings when, upon being escorted to the reporter's table (an elegant little affair, charmingly situated, by the way), we found a feast for the senses. On either corner of the table was a fresh cut magnolia—the rarest of exotics—and a bunch of fragrant flowers tastefully arranged. To say we were overwhelmed would but faintly describe our feelings. And if we do here what an overwrought system prevented us from doing at the proper time and place—to return thanks—we hope the ladies who so kindly arranged the affair will accept it as a partial reparation; for we are, indeed, very grateful.

At a meeting of the building committee of the Hillman Fire Company, held last night in the office of M. J. Howley, the following bids for the construction of the proposed new engine house was submitted. John McEwen (brick work), $2,200; Richard Walsh (brick work), $2,125; Henry Stout (brick work), $2,150; John Madden (completion of building), $3,437; George Hendricks (completion of building), $3,340; Daniel Kelly (completion of building), $3,347; Kenner & Duncker (completion of building), $3,267. Another meeting of the committee will be held shortly, at which an award for the construction of the building will be made. If THE BULLETIN reporter who was present at the Woman's Temperance Christian Union meeting last night has a peculiarly distinctive trait of character, apart from his moral loveliness, it is his extreme modesty. Binsling is as natural with him as with the girl just budding into womanhood. He can't help it. The sympathetic reader, capable of appreciating such delicate natures, can readily imagine our feelings when, upon being escorted to the reporter's table (an elegant little affair, charmingly situated, by the way), we found a feast for the senses. On either corner of the table was a fresh cut magnolia—the rarest of exotics—and a bunch of fragrant flowers tastefully arranged. To say we were overwhelmed would but faintly describe our feelings. And if we do here what an overwrought system prevented us from doing at the proper time and place—to return thanks—we hope the ladies who so kindly arranged the affair will accept it as a partial reparation; for we are, indeed, very grateful.

At a meeting of the building committee of the Hillman Fire Company, held last night in the office of M. J. Howley, the following bids for the construction of the proposed new engine house was submitted. John McEwen (brick work), $2,200; Richard Walsh (brick work), $2,125; Henry Stout (brick work), $2,150; John Madden (completion of building), $3,437; George Hendricks (completion of building), $3,340; Daniel Kelly (completion of building), $3,347; Kenner & Duncker (completion of building), $3,267. Another meeting of the committee will be held shortly, at which an award for the construction of the building will be made. If THE BULLETIN reporter who was present at the Woman's Temperance Christian Union meeting last night has a peculiarly distinctive trait of character, apart from his moral loveliness, it is his extreme modesty. Binsling is as natural with him as with the girl just budding into womanhood. He can't help it. The sympathetic reader, capable of appreciating such delicate natures, can readily imagine our feelings when, upon being escorted to the reporter's table (an elegant little affair, charmingly situated, by the way), we found a feast for the senses. On either corner of the table was a fresh cut magnolia—the rarest of exotics—and a bunch of fragrant flowers tastefully arranged. To say we were overwhelmed would but faintly describe our feelings. And if we do here what an overwrought system prevented us from doing at the proper time and place—to return thanks—we hope the ladies who so kindly arranged the affair will accept it as a partial reparation; for we are, indeed, very grateful.

At a meeting of the building committee of the Hillman Fire Company, held last night in the office of M. J. Howley, the following bids for the construction of the proposed new engine house was submitted. John McEwen (brick work), $2,200; Richard Walsh (brick work), $2,125; Henry Stout (brick work), $2,150; John Madden (completion of building), $3,437; George Hendricks (completion of building), $3,340; Daniel Kelly (completion of building), $3,347; Kenner & Duncker (completion of building), $3,267. Another meeting of the committee will be held shortly, at which an award for the construction of the building will be made. If THE BULLETIN reporter who was present at the Woman's Temperance Christian Union meeting last night has a peculiarly distinctive trait of character, apart from his moral loveliness, it is his extreme modesty. Binsling is as natural with him as with the girl just budding into womanhood. He can't help it. The sympathetic reader, capable of appreciating such delicate natures, can readily imagine our feelings when, upon being escorted to the reporter's table (an elegant little affair, charmingly situated, by the way), we found a feast for the senses. On either corner of the table was a fresh cut magnolia—the rarest of exotics—and a bunch of fragrant flowers tastefully arranged. To say we were overwhelmed would but faintly describe our feelings. And if we do here what an overwrought system prevented us from doing at the proper time and place—to return thanks—we hope the ladies who so kindly arranged the affair will accept it as a partial reparation; for we are, indeed, very grateful.

At a meeting of the building committee of the Hillman Fire Company, held last night in the office of M. J. Howley, the following bids for the construction of the proposed new engine house was submitted. John McEwen (brick work), $2,200; Richard Walsh (brick work), $2,125; Henry Stout (brick work), $2,150; John Madden (completion of building), $3,437; George Hendricks (completion of building), $3,340; Daniel Kelly (completion of building), $3,347; Kenner & Duncker (completion of building), $3,267. Another meeting of the committee will be held shortly, at which an award for the construction of the building will be made. If THE BULLETIN reporter who was present at the Woman's Temperance Christian Union meeting last night has a peculiarly distinctive trait of character, apart from his moral loveliness, it is his extreme modesty. Binsling is as natural with him as with the girl just budding into womanhood. He can't help it. The sympathetic reader, capable of appreciating such delicate natures, can readily imagine our feelings when, upon being escorted to the reporter's table (an elegant little affair, charmingly situated, by the way), we found a feast for the senses. On either corner of the table was a fresh cut magnolia—the rarest of exotics—and a bunch of fragrant flowers tastefully arranged. To say we were overwhelmed would but faintly describe our feelings. And if we do here what an overwrought system prevented us from doing at the proper time and place—to return thanks—we hope the ladies who so kindly arranged the affair will accept it as a partial reparation; for we are, indeed, very grateful.

At a meeting of the building committee of the Hillman Fire Company, held last night in the office of M. J. Howley, the following bids for the construction of the proposed new engine house was submitted. John McEwen (brick work), $2,200; Richard Walsh (brick work), $2,125; Henry Stout (brick work), $2,150; John Madden (completion of building), $3,437; George Hendricks (completion of building), $3,340; Daniel Kelly (completion of building), $3,347; Kenner & Duncker (completion of building), $3,267. Another meeting of the committee will be held shortly, at which an award for the construction of the building will be made. If THE BULLETIN reporter who was present at the Woman's Temperance Christian Union meeting last night has a peculiarly distinctive trait of character, apart from his moral loveliness, it is his extreme modesty. Binsling is as natural with him as with the girl just budding into womanhood. He can't help it. The sympathetic reader, capable of appreciating such delicate natures, can readily imagine our feelings when, upon being escorted to the reporter's table (an elegant little affair, charmingly situated, by the way), we found a feast for the senses. On either corner of the table was a fresh cut magnolia—the rarest of exotics—and a bunch of fragrant flowers tastefully arranged. To say we were overwhelmed would but faintly describe our feelings. And if we do here what an overwrought system prevented us from doing at the proper time and place—to return thanks—we hope the ladies who so kindly arranged the affair will accept it as a partial reparation; for we are, indeed, very grateful.

At a meeting of the building committee of the Hillman Fire Company, held last night in the office of M. J. Howley, the following bids for the construction of the proposed new engine house was submitted. John McEwen (brick work), $2,200; Richard Walsh (brick work), $2,125; Henry Stout (brick work), $2,150; John Madden (completion of building), $3,437; George Hendricks (completion of building), $3,340; Daniel Kelly (completion of building), $3,347; Kenner & Duncker (completion of building), $3,267. Another meeting of the committee will be held shortly, at which an award for the construction of the building will be made. If THE BULLETIN reporter who was present at the Woman's Temperance Christian Union meeting last night has a peculiarly distinctive trait of character, apart from his moral loveliness, it is his extreme modesty. Binsling is as natural with him as with the girl just budding into womanhood. He can't help it. The sympathetic reader, capable of appreciating such delicate natures, can readily imagine our feelings when, upon being escorted to the reporter's table (an elegant little affair, charmingly situated, by the way), we found a feast for the senses. On either corner of the table was a fresh cut magnolia—the rarest of exotics—and a bunch of fragrant flowers tastefully arranged. To say we were overwhelmed would but faintly describe our feelings. And if we do here what an overwrought system prevented us from doing at the proper time and place—to return thanks—we hope the ladies who so kindly arranged the affair will accept it as a partial reparation; for we are, indeed, very grateful.

At a meeting of the building committee of the Hillman Fire Company, held last night in the office of M. J. Howley, the following bids for the construction of the proposed new engine house was submitted. John McEwen (brick work), $2,200; Richard Walsh (brick work), $2,125; Henry Stout (brick work), $2,150; John Madden (completion of building), $3,437; George Hendricks (completion of building), $3,340; Daniel Kelly (completion of building), $3,347; Kenner & Duncker (completion of building), $3,267. Another meeting of the committee will be held shortly, at which an award for the construction of the building will be made. If THE BULLETIN reporter who was present at the Woman's Temperance Christian Union meeting last night has a peculiarly distinctive trait of character, apart from his moral loveliness, it is his extreme modesty. Binsling is as natural with him as with the girl just budding into womanhood. He can't help it. The sympathetic reader, capable of appreciating such delicate natures, can readily imagine our feelings when, upon being escorted to the reporter's table (an elegant little affair, charmingly situated, by the way), we found a feast for the senses. On either corner of the table was a fresh cut magnolia—the rarest of exotics—and a bunch of fragrant flowers tastefully arranged. To say we were overwhelmed would but faintly describe our feelings. And if we do here what an overwrought system prevented us from doing at the proper time and place—to return thanks—we hope the ladies who so kindly arranged the affair will accept it as a partial reparation; for we are, indeed, very grateful.

At a meeting of the building committee of the Hillman Fire Company, held last night in the office of M. J. Howley, the following bids for the construction of the proposed new engine house was submitted. John McEwen (brick work), $2,200; Richard Walsh (brick work), $2,125; Henry Stout (brick work), $2,150; John Madden (completion of building), $3,437; George Hendricks (completion of building), $3,340; Daniel Kelly (completion of building), $3,347; Kenner & Duncker (completion of building), $3,267. Another meeting of the committee will be held shortly, at which an award for the construction of the building will be made. If THE BULLETIN reporter who was present at the Woman's Temperance Christian Union meeting last night has a peculiarly distinctive trait of character, apart from his moral loveliness, it is his extreme modesty. Binsling is as natural with him as with the girl just budding into womanhood. He can't help it. The sympathetic reader, capable of appreciating such delicate natures, can readily imagine our feelings when, upon being escorted to the reporter's table (an elegant little affair, charmingly situated, by the way), we found a feast for the senses. On either corner of the table was a fresh cut magnolia—the rarest of exotics—and a bunch of fragrant flowers tastefully arranged. To say we were overwhelmed would but faintly describe our feelings. And if we do here what an overwrought system prevented us from doing at the proper time and place—to return thanks—we hope the ladies who so kindly arranged the affair will accept it as a partial reparation; for we are, indeed, very grateful.

At a meeting of the building committee of the Hillman Fire Company, held last night in the office of M. J. Howley, the following bids for the construction of the proposed new engine house was submitted. John McEwen (brick work), $2,200; Richard Walsh (brick work), $2,125; Henry Stout (brick work), $2,150; John Madden (completion of building), $3,437; George Hendricks (completion of building), $3,340; Daniel Kelly (completion of building), $3,347; Kenner & Duncker (completion of building), $3,267. Another meeting of the committee will be held shortly, at which an award for the construction of the building will be made. If THE BULLETIN reporter who was present at the Woman's Temperance Christian Union meeting last night has a peculiarly distinctive trait of character, apart from his moral loveliness, it is his extreme modesty. Binsling is as natural with him as with the girl just budding into womanhood. He can't help it. The sympathetic reader, capable of appreciating such delicate natures, can readily imagine our feelings when, upon being escorted to the reporter's table (an elegant little affair, charmingly situated, by the way), we found a feast for the senses. On either corner of the table was a fresh cut magnolia—the rarest of exotics—and a bunch of fragrant flowers tastefully arranged. To say we were overwhelmed would but faintly describe our feelings. And if we do here what an overwrought system prevented us from doing at the proper time and place—to return thanks—we hope the ladies who so kindly arranged the affair will accept it as a partial reparation; for we are, indeed, very grateful.

At a meeting of the building committee of the Hillman Fire Company, held last night in the office of M. J. Howley, the following bids for the construction of the proposed new engine house was submitted. John McEwen (brick work), $2,200; Richard Walsh (brick work), $2,125; Henry Stout (brick work), $2,150; John Madden (completion of building), $3,437; George Hendricks (completion of building), $3,340; Daniel Kelly (completion of building), $3,347; Kenner & Duncker (completion of building), $3,267. Another meeting of the committee will be held shortly, at which an award for the construction of the building will be made. If THE BULLETIN reporter who was present at the Woman's Temperance Christian Union meeting last night has a peculiarly distinctive trait of character, apart from his moral loveliness, it is his extreme modesty. Binsling is as natural with him as with the girl just budding into womanhood. He can't help it. The sympathetic reader, capable of appreciating such delicate natures, can readily imagine our feelings when, upon being escorted to the reporter's table (an elegant little affair, charmingly situated, by the way), we found a feast for the senses. On either corner of the table was a fresh cut magnolia—the rarest of exotics—and a bunch of fragrant flowers tastefully arranged. To say we were overwhelmed would but faintly describe our feelings. And if we do here what an overwrought system prevented us from doing at the proper time and place—to return thanks—we hope the ladies who so kindly arranged the affair will accept it as a partial reparation; for we are, indeed, very grateful.

At a meeting of the building committee of the Hillman Fire Company, held last night in the office of M. J. Howley, the following bids for the construction of the proposed new engine house was submitted. John McEwen (brick work), $2,200; Richard Walsh (brick work), $2,125; Henry Stout (brick work), $2,150; John Madden (completion of building), $3,437; George Hendricks (completion of building), $3,340; Daniel Kelly (completion of building), $3,347; Kenner & Duncker (completion of building), $3,267. Another meeting of the committee will be held shortly, at which an award for the construction of the building will be made. If THE BULLETIN reporter who was present at the Woman's Temperance Christian Union meeting last night has a peculiarly distinctive trait of character, apart from his moral loveliness, it is his extreme modesty. Binsling is as natural with him as with the girl just budding into womanhood. He can't help it. The sympathetic reader, capable of appreciating such delicate natures, can readily imagine our feelings when, upon being escorted to the reporter's table (an elegant little affair, charmingly situated, by the way), we found a feast for the senses. On either corner of the table was a fresh cut magnolia—the rarest of exotics—and a bunch of fragrant flowers tastefully arranged. To say we were overwhelmed would but faintly describe our feelings. And if we do here what an overwrought system prevented us from doing at the proper time and place—to return thanks—we hope the ladies who so kindly arranged the affair will accept it as a partial reparation; for we are, indeed, very grateful.

At a meeting of the building committee of the Hillman Fire Company, held last night in the office of M. J. Howley, the following bids for the construction of the proposed new engine house was submitted. John McEwen (brick work), $2,200; Richard Walsh (brick work), $2,125; Henry Stout (brick work), $2,150; John Madden (completion of building), $3,437; George Hendricks (completion of building), $3,340; Daniel Kelly (completion of building), $3,347; Kenner & Duncker (completion of building), $3,267. Another meeting of the committee will be held shortly, at which an award for the construction of the building will be made. If THE BULLETIN reporter who was present at the Woman's Temperance Christian Union meeting last night has a peculiarly distinctive trait of character, apart from his moral loveliness, it is his extreme modesty. Binsling is as natural with him as with the girl just budding into womanhood. He can't help it. The sympathetic reader, capable of appreciating such delicate natures, can readily imagine our feelings when, upon being escorted to the reporter's table (an elegant little affair, charmingly situated, by the way), we found a feast for the senses. On either corner of the table was a fresh cut magnolia—the rarest of exotics—and a bunch of fragrant flowers tastefully arranged. To say we were overwhelmed would but faintly describe our feelings. And if we do here what an overwrought system prevented us from doing at the proper time and place—to return thanks—we hope the ladies who so kindly arranged the affair will accept it as a partial reparation; for we are, indeed, very grateful.

At a meeting of the building committee of the Hillman Fire Company, held last night in the office of M. J. Howley, the following bids for the construction of the proposed new engine house was submitted. John McEwen (brick work), $2,200; Richard Walsh (brick work), $2,125; Henry Stout (brick work), $2,150; John Madden (completion of building), $3,437; George Hendricks (completion of building), $3,340; Daniel Kelly (completion of building), $3,347; Kenner & Duncker (completion of building), $3,267. Another meeting of the committee will be held shortly, at which an award for the construction of the building will be made. If THE BULLETIN reporter who was present at the Woman's Temperance Christian Union meeting last night has a peculiarly distinctive trait of character, apart from his moral loveliness, it is his extreme modesty. Binsling is as natural with him as with the girl just budding into womanhood. He can't help it. The sympathetic reader, capable of appreciating such delicate natures, can readily imagine our feelings when, upon being escorted to the reporter's table (an elegant little affair, charmingly situated, by the way), we found a feast for the senses. On either corner of the table was a fresh cut magnolia—the rarest of exotics—and a bunch of fragrant flowers tastefully arranged. To say we were overwhelmed would but faintly describe our feelings. And if we do here what an overwrought system prevented us from doing at the proper time and place—to return thanks—we hope the ladies who so kindly arranged the affair will accept it as a partial reparation; for we are, indeed, very grateful.

At a meeting of the building committee of the Hillman Fire Company, held last night in the office of M. J. Howley, the following bids for the construction of the proposed new engine house was submitted. John McEwen (brick work), $2,200; Richard Walsh (brick work), $2,125; Henry Stout (brick work), $2,150; John Madden (completion of building), $3,437; George Hendricks (completion of building), $3,340; Daniel Kelly (completion of building), $3,347; Kenner & Duncker (completion of building), $3,267. Another meeting of the committee will be held shortly, at which an award for the construction of the building will be made. If THE BULLETIN reporter who was present at the Woman's Temperance Christian Union meeting last night has a peculiarly distinctive trait of character, apart from his moral loveliness, it is his extreme modesty. Binsling is as natural with him as with the girl just budding into womanhood. He can't help it. The sympathetic reader, capable of appreciating such delicate natures, can readily imagine our feelings when, upon being escorted to the reporter's table (an elegant little affair, charmingly situated, by the way), we found a feast for the senses. On either corner of the table was a fresh cut magnolia—the rarest of exotics—and a bunch of fragrant flowers tastefully arranged. To say we were overwhelmed would but faintly describe our feelings. And if we do here what an overwrought system prevented us from doing at the proper time and place—to return thanks—we hope the ladies who so kindly arranged the affair will accept it as a partial reparation; for we are, indeed, very grateful.

At a meeting of the building committee of the Hillman Fire Company, held last night in the office of M. J. Howley, the following bids for the construction of the proposed new engine house was submitted. John McEwen (brick work), $2,200; Richard Walsh (brick work), $2,125; Henry Stout (brick work), $2,150; John Madden (completion of building), $3,437; George Hendricks (completion of building), $3,340; Daniel Kelly (completion of building), $3,347; Kenner & Duncker (completion of building), $3,267. Another meeting of the committee will be held shortly, at which an award for the construction of the building will be made. If THE BULLETIN reporter who was present at the Woman's Temperance Christian Union meeting last night has a peculiarly distinctive trait of character, apart from his moral loveliness, it is his extreme modesty. Binsling is as natural with him as with the girl just budding into womanhood. He can't help it. The sympathetic reader, capable of appreciating such delicate natures, can readily imagine our feelings when, upon being escorted to the reporter's table (an elegant little affair, charmingly situated, by the way), we found a feast for the senses. On either corner of the table was a fresh cut magnolia—the rarest of exotics—and a bunch of fragrant flowers tastefully arranged. To say we were overwhelmed would but faintly describe our feelings. And if we do here what an overwrought system prevented us from doing at the proper time and place—to return thanks—we hope the ladies who so kindly arranged the affair will accept it as a partial reparation; for we are, indeed, very grateful.

At a meeting of the building committee of the Hillman Fire Company, held last night in the office of M. J. Howley, the following bids for the construction of the proposed new engine house was submitted. John McEwen (brick work), $2,200; Richard Walsh (brick work), $2,125; Henry Stout (brick work), $2,150; John Madden (completion of building), $3,437; George Hendricks (completion of building), $3,340; Daniel Kelly (completion of building), $3,347; Kenner & Duncker (completion of building), $3,267. Another meeting of the committee will be held shortly, at which an award for the construction of the building will be made. If THE BULLETIN reporter who was present at the Woman's Temperance Christian Union meeting last night has a peculiarly distinctive trait of character, apart from his moral loveliness, it is his extreme modesty. Binsling is as natural with him as with the girl just budding into womanhood. He can't help it. The sympathetic reader, capable of appreciating such delicate natures, can readily imagine our feelings when, upon being escorted to the reporter's table (an elegant little affair, charmingly situated, by the way), we found a feast for the senses. On either corner of the table was a fresh cut magnolia—the rarest of exotics—and a bunch of fragrant flowers tastefully arranged. To say we were overwhelmed would but faintly describe our feelings. And if we do here what an overwrought system prevented us from doing at the proper time and place—to return thanks—we hope the ladies who so kindly arranged the affair will accept it as a partial reparation; for we are, indeed, very grateful.

At a meeting of the building committee of the Hillman Fire Company, held last night in the office of M. J. Howley, the following bids for the construction of the proposed new engine house was submitted. John McEwen (brick work), $2,200; Richard Walsh (brick work), $2,125; Henry Stout (brick work), $2,150; John Madden (completion of building), $3,437; George Hendricks (completion of building), $3,340; Daniel Kelly (completion of building), $3,347; Kenner & Duncker (completion of building), $3,267. Another meeting of the committee will be held shortly, at which an award for the construction of the building will be made. If THE BULLETIN reporter who was present at the Woman's Temperance Christian Union meeting last night has a peculiarly distinctive trait of character, apart from his moral loveliness, it is his extreme modesty. Binsling is as natural with him as with the girl just budding into womanhood. He can't help it. The sympathetic reader, capable of appreciating such delicate natures, can readily imagine our feelings when, upon being escorted to the reporter's table (an elegant little affair, charmingly situated, by the way), we found a feast for the senses. On either corner of the table was a fresh cut magnolia—the rarest of exotics—and a bunch of fragrant flowers tastefully arranged. To say we were overwhelmed would but faintly describe our feelings. And if we do here what an overwrought system prevented us from doing at the proper time and place—to return thanks—we hope the ladies who so kindly arranged the affair will accept it as a partial reparation; for we are, indeed, very grateful.

At a meeting of the building committee of the Hillman Fire Company, held last night in the office of M. J. Howley, the following bids for the construction of the proposed new engine house was submitted. John McEwen (brick work), $2,200; Richard Walsh (brick work), $2,125; Henry Stout (brick work), $2,150; John Madden (completion of building), $3,437; George Hendricks (completion of building), $3,340; Daniel Kelly (completion of building), $3,347; Kenner & Duncker (completion of building), $3,267. Another meeting of the committee will be held shortly, at which an award for the construction of the building will be made. If THE BULLETIN reporter who was present at the Woman's Temperance Christian Union meeting last night has a peculiarly distinctive trait of character, apart from his moral loveliness, it is his extreme modesty. Binsling is as natural with him as with the girl just budding into womanhood. He can't help it. The sympathetic reader, capable of appreciating such delicate natures, can readily imagine our feelings when, upon being escorted to the reporter's table (an elegant little affair, charmingly situated, by the way), we found a feast for the senses. On either corner of the table was a fresh cut magnolia—the rarest of exotics—and a bunch of fragrant flowers tastefully arranged. To say we were overwhelmed would but faintly describe our feelings. And if we do here what an overwrought system prevented us from doing at the proper time and place—to return thanks—we hope the ladies who so kindly arranged the affair will accept it as a partial reparation; for we are, indeed, very grateful.

unfit for wear. They need ready made clothing of the plainest kind. Second-hand clothing would be very acceptable. Shoes are a much needed article, and in fact all kinds of clothing worn by young girls. They are in want of good seats for the school room. It is no small task for a teacher to take twenty-four undisciplined girls, using books of all grades, and maintain order where they are all seated in chairs around one common table. But this has been unavoidable, because the institution has not had the means to purchase any school furniture, the feeding, clothing and warming consuming the means at hand. The premises are in admirable condition, and the work is all done by the girls under the eye of an efficient superintendent and matron. As the number increases, there is also a want felt for means to give instruction in different occupations and industries, for it is found that the morals of the school are better when the girls are kept busy. The ladies and gentlemen of the association, comprising many of the best citizens of the State, are sustaining the school by personal effort and gratuitous services, looking for no reward except the pleasure of doing good to others. Quite a number of the most talented women of the State have on different occasions given their services to help increase the funds of the school. Not the least among these is Mrs. E. B. Harbert, the gifted editor of the Woman's Kingdom in the Inter-Ocean, who is expected to visit our city during the week to give a lecture for the benefit of the school. We citizens of Cairo, with all others of the State, have a personal interest in maintaining this school, where unprotected girls may be trained to usefulness and good citizenship, and thus kept from drifting into disgraced and debased womanhood. I hope every citizen will encourage the enterprise to extent of the price of one admission at least (twenty five cents), and at the same time have the pleasure of enjoying one of the most intellectual treats of the season, in a lecture on the popular subject of "Woman's Rights."

A FRIEND OF THE SCHOOL. FOR SALE.—Balloons Machine and Balloons. Inquire at Joseph Bross' grocery store, corner of Tenth street and Washington avenue. DON'T forget the lecture to be given by Mrs. Elizabeth Boynton Harbert on "Men's Rights," at the Athenaeum, Tuesday evening. Remember the lady gives her services for the benefit of a most worthy charity. Let her be greeted by a large audience. THE QUEEN OF MAY.—On next Friday night, at the Cairo Temperance Reform Club Rooms, there will be a social reception, to which all are cordially invited, men, women and children, at which time a ballot will be taken for the Queen of May, to be crowned at Glen Fern on Saturday, May 11th. List open for any young lady; ballots five cents each. By order of the PRESIDENT. THE ladies of the M. E. Church have completed their arrangements for their Ice-cream and Strawberry Festival, to be given on the evening of Thursday, May 9th, in Dr. Wardner's building on Commercial avenue. Admission, 10c.; ice-cream, 15c.; ice-cream and strawberries, 25c.; ice-cream, straw, berries and cake, 35c. GRAND EXCURSION.—The Cairo Temperance Reform Club will give a Grand Picnic Excursion to Glen Fern, on the Cairo and Vincennes Railroad, on Saturday, May 11. Trains will leave the depot promptly at 8 a.m., stopping at Tenth, Twentieth and Thirty-fourth streets. Fare Sixty Cents for the round trip; no half-fares or compliments will be issued. For further particulars see posters and small bills. John P. Hely, Marshal; Jas. P. Miller, Assistant Marshal. WM. M. WILLIAMS, GEO. E. OLMSTEAD, J. P. MILLER, C. R. WOODWARD, THOS. W. HALLIDAY, Committee.

Tickets for sale at Depot, at Box Factory, of Cap. Fields, at J. H. Metcalf's and the Club Rooms, of Geo. E. Olmstead. A REMARKABLE RESULT.—It makes no difference how many physicians or how much medicine you have tried, it is now an established fact that German Syrup is the only remedy which has given complete satisfaction in severe cases of lung disease. It is true there are yet thousands of persons who are predisposed to throat and lung affections, consumption, hemorrhages, asthma, severe colds settled on the breast, pneumonia, whooping cough, etc., who have no personal knowledge of Boschee's German Syrup. To such we would say that 50,000 dozers were sold last year, without one complaint. Consumptives, try just one bottle. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all druggists in America. DON'T forget the lecture on "Men's Rights" Tuesday evening, at the Athenaeum. The lecture will surpass any previous one of the season. Fill the house and show your appreciation of so worthy an institution as the Industrial school for girls, for whose benefit the lecture is given. CLEAR thought and vigorous action depend upon that perfect condition of system resulting from pure blood. When symptoms provocative of dullness and inactivity present themselves, then use at once Dr. Bull's Blood Mixture. BOAT FOR SALE.—Hull, 10x31, suitable for fisherman or family use. Price, $25. For particulars inquire of HIGHT CALLAHAN.

THE MEETING LAST NIGHT—A LARGE CROWD AND A VARIED AND PLEASANT PROGRAMME OF EXERCISES—SHORT TALKS BY MRS. HARBERT AND MESSRS. FISHER AND WHEELER. The number and character of the auditors assembled at the hall of the Temperance Reform Club last night was a gracious and deserved compliment to the lady who devotes so much of her time to the amelioration of the lot of the unfortunate and needy of her own sex. Nor does she confine her benevolent efforts solely to woman. They are broad enough to embrace the whole human race, as her services in