Thos. Sully, Editor. Democratic Nominations. FOR STATE TREASURER. EDWARD L. CRONKHITE, of Stephenson.

FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION. SAMUEL M. ETTNER, of McLean. CATHERINE E., sister of Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, is dead.

Another communistic workers' nest has been discovered. It is at Parkersburg, West Virginia. THE first pattering drops of a great rain of crooked whiskey have fallen at Cincinnati.

"CAPT. EADS is not the kind of man to be crushed," says THE CAIRO BULLETIN. At any rate, it will take a pile-driver, and not a Picayune hammer, to do the crushing business.—New Orleans Times.

In March, 1877, the Illinois Central earned on the Illinois line $368,123, and in March, 1878, $400,117. On the Iowa line in the same month of 1877, the company earned $130,248, and in 1878, $118,978.

The candidates for Congress in the district opposite Cairo in Missouri, are R. A. Hatcher, the present member, L. H. Davis, Nassie Ward, Posey Woodside and Sol G. Kitchens. Mr. Kitchens is a National. The other gentlemen are Democrats.

The tendencies of the Nationals, says the Washington correspondent of the New Orleans Times, are all toward communism. We think their tendencies are all toward offices into which they will never get.

MR. SHANNON is making the Valley Clarion an influential journal. He is one of the men who think for themselves; and, without regard for consequences, tell their opinions of men and things.

MR. PACKARD will be rewarded, if the Senate is willing, for the good manners he exhibited in getting out of the way of President Hayes, when that amiable political fraud carried out his promises to give the State to the Democrats as the consideration to be paid by him for the office to which Mr. Tilden was elected.

Gov. CULLOM has ordered a careful official scrutiny of the books of the several charitable institutions of the State. The Governor is anxious to know; he is hungry for information; he is pining to be informed.

BISHOP McCOSKEY has withdrawn his resignation and proposes to vindicate his character before he goes to Europe. He denies that he has been guilty of the great transgression and holds himself in readiness to meet definite charges made to responsible parties.

Mr. J. P. McCartney, in the last number of his paper, the Metropolis Times, defends himself against an attack made upon him by the Vienna Journal, the "home organ" of Mr. Kuykendall.

that he saw the wrong of American slavery and opposed it; that in 1856 he cast the only vote that was cast in his county for John C. Fremont; and that he rushed to the rescue of the flag when Logan and Kuykendall were making up their minds, doubting whether they would make more by going South or standing by the government.

It is said, upon authority of the truthful Washington correspondent, that the President is daily in receipt of letters requesting him to put down the Communist societies that have lately been organized in the principal cities of the east and west. The President will consider the matter, and do nothing. He knows there is no substance in the rumors of the bloody designs of the Communists.

FIRST BLOOD FOR ALLEN. Hon. W. J. Allen, of Carbondale, has announced himself as a candidate for Congress, and is now industriously engaged at the work of making his calling and nomination by the Democratic convention of this district sure.

Mr. Allen made one of his able speeches, and the convention instructed its delegates to vote for him in the Congressional district convention soon to be held. This is the first blood of the canvass and it indicates the result of the contest. The other Democrats, who are desirous of serving their constituency at Washington, are not active.

And, if he should be nominated, can he be elected? We have no doubt he can secure a handsome majority. It is true Mr. Allen's candidacy would induce the Republican leaders to develop all the strength of their party in the district, but the old weapons used by them in former contests would be of little use in this. The war issues have passed away; the war prejudices have died out.

MR. HARTZELL A CANDIDATE. There has been some doubt in the public mind concerning Mr. Hartzell's intention in regard to the pending canvass for congress in this district.

Some thick-headed editors seem to be incapable of recognizing the Clanton's strictures on Hartzell's proposed joint resolution to amend the Constitution, with its support of that gentleman for a re-nomination to Congress.

For four years the district has been represented by Hon. William Hartzell, of Chester, and now that the time draws near to select a standard-bearer for the Democracy for the succession, it is proper to discuss the question of who that standard-bearer should be.

At the ensuing November election the people of the 18th Congressional District will be called upon to choose a member of the House of Representatives, to serve for two years from the 4th of March, 1879.

The arrangement of the Directory for ready reference, and for the special and general business purposes of advertisers, is excellent. First we have the general newspaper list, furnished in geographical sections, from which we find that in the New England section there are 725 newspapers, of which 75 are daily, 1 tri-weekly, 18 semi-weekly, 527 weekly, 7 semi-monthly, 21 bi-monthly and 13 quarterly.

Middle Section—216 daily, 6 tri-weekly, 23 semi-weekly, 1,440 weekly, 42 semi-monthly, 148 monthly, 11 bi-monthly, 31 quarterly. Total, 4,157. Western Section—268 daily, 20 tri-weekly, 26 semi-weekly, 2,745 weekly, 42 semi-monthly, 26 monthly, 4 bi-monthly, 11 quarterly. Total, 3,281.

Pacific Section—65 daily, 2 tri-weekly, 7 semi-weekly, 249 weekly, 2 semi-monthly, 11 monthly, 1 bi-monthly, 1 quarterly. Total, 344. Southern Section—128 daily, 22 tri-weekly, 11 semi-weekly, 1,295 weekly, 18 semi-monthly, 106 monthly, 5 quarterly. Total, 1,526.

British America—14 daily, 15 tri-weekly, 15 semi-weekly, 290 weekly, 4 semi-monthly, 41 monthly, 3 bi-monthly, 1 quarterly. Total, 492. The total number, including the papers in British America, is 8,615.

The directory also contains a list of all the papers, by counties; a list of all the daily papers; a list of the weekly and monthly papers having circulations of over 500 copies; a list of religious weekly papers; a list of agricultural and horticultural publications, and comprehensive lists of leading European and Australasian newspapers.

The newest feature in the present directory is the department devoted to descriptive sketches of some of the prominent journals of the country, and their offices. The book is handsomely embellished with faithful portraits of S. M. Pettengill, the publisher; Geo. W. Childs, Hon. Bayard Taylor, Bret Harte, the late James Gordon Bennett, and the late Samuel Bowles.

The advertising pages at the end of the Directory, are occupied with announcements that are important to newspaper men, printers and publishers only. The preparation of the directory bears evidence of extensive and careful labor on the part of the compiler, and the result is a book which is indispensable to newspaper publishers and to that large class of business men who advertise in newspapers.

THE RED RIBBON CLUBS OF MICHIGAN. On the 9th of April, the Rockford (Ill.) Register, made the statement that the Red Ribbon Clubs, organized by Dr. Henry A. Reynolds in Michigan, had all gone out of existence, and that the last one—the Detroit Club—had been sold out, etc. This statement coming to the attention of Mr. Joshua W. Smith, the president of the Detroit club, he promptly wrote a contradiction of it to Mr. E. A. Goodwin, the president of the Rockford club. Mr. Smith's letter was published in the Rockford Journal of a late date. In it he says:

"I pronounce the statement a base and malevolent falsehood. I am not aware that a single Reform Club organized by Dr. Henry A. Reynolds in this State has passed out of existence. The clubs organized by the doctor, and all others, were never in a more flourishing condition than at present. The doctor organized the Red Ribbon Reform Club in this city a little more than fourteen months ago, and from the organization of our club until the present time, nearly eight hundred men have signed the pledge. And I am proud to say that a very small percentage, not more than ten per cent of the whole number, have ever violated their pledge, and in many cases when they have done so, have resigned, and to-day are sober, loyal, law-abiding citizens. Our club has a spacious, well-furnished hall, with a good library. We hold and have held during the winter three meetings each week. Our Sabbath evening meetings are held in the Detroit Opera House, the largest public hall in the city. We will commence our eighth week, in two weeks, every evening for two or three weeks. Nearly two hundred thousand men have signed the pledge in Michigan; and we have every reason to thank God and Dr. Reynolds for the one or two thousands of wretched, impoverished and unhappy homes that now back in the sunshine of love, temperance and Christianity."

Mr. Norman Geddes, of Adrian, Michigan, having also read the statement of the Register, in a letter to Mr. James Lamont, of Rockford, gives to it a denial as emphatic as that of Mr. Smith. He says:

"I write to brand the whole statement as indignantly false. It isn't even the shadow of a foundation. Never at any period since the good Doctor commenced his labors in Michigan have the clubs established by him been so prosperous as to-day. Never before were they doing such good missionary work—pushing out into the small towns and among the farmers, and establishing new clubs. They are accomplishing far more than could have been anticipated by their founder. With scarcely an exception, the clubs founded by the Doctor have not only increased their membership, but their efficiency to a remarkable degree. In Adrian, it not only has more than doubled its membership, but has quadrupled its working power; and so it is in Detroit, and nearly all the important towns in the State, and to-day there isn't a man living who has more devoted friends in Michigan ready to resent any imputation upon his honor and his work than has Dr. Reynolds, the originator and founder of the red ribbon movement."

From the above we draw the conclusion that the Michiganders have not gone back to the flowing bowl. The Register was mistaken.

A REMARKABLE RESULT.—It makes no difference how many physicians or how much medicine you have tried, it is now an established fact that German Syrup is the only remedy which has given complete satisfaction in severe cases of lung diseases. It is true there are yet thousands of persons who are predisposed to throat and lung affections, consumption, hemorrhages, asthma, severe colds settled on the breast, pneumonia, whooping cough, etc., who have no personal knowledge of Boschee's German Syrup. To such we would say that 50,000 dozen were sold last year without one complaint. Consumptives, try just one bottle. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all druggists in America.

LETITIA COLEMAN'S LAUNDRY. Mrs. Letitia Coleman has reopened her laundry on Fourth street, between Washington and Commercial avenues, and takes this method of informing her old friends and patrons that she is again at their services, and solicits their patronage. She has reduced prices to suit the times.

THE ALDINE.

PROSPECTUS OF THE 9TH VOLUME, 1878-9.

THE ALDINE, THE ART JOURNAL OF AMERICA.

SOLD ONLY TO SUBSCRIBERS. Complete in 24 Parts, at Fifty Cents Each. ISSUED MONTHLY.

IT IS THE PURPOSE of the publishers to preserve in their efforts to keep the Aldine, as an exponent of art work, free from competition, and to spare neither thought nor expense to still further beautify and improve the broad pages of the work. While urging the necessity of cultivating a taste for the beautiful in nature and art, the Aldine has not been unmindful of the more practical and profitable side of the art, and has been a constant study to show in the pages of the work itself, that improvement so certainly consequent upon sincere devotion to such subjects. As in the past, so in the future, the Aldine will continue to be an example of the progressive and refining influences of connection and association with the beautiful and true.

The volume now in preparation, while it will not suddenly part from the general course of its predecessors, will yet present many modifications and improvements, the result of study and experience in fitting the Aldine to worthily maintain its position as "the art journal of America."

In the more mechanical department of the arrangement, or make-up, changes, in themselves slight, will largely enhance the general beauty of the pages, which had already won admiration so hearty and universal.

Editorially, the Aldine will deal broadly and fairly with art in general and American art in particular. Carefully prepared papers will keep the reader well informed on all the important art centers of this country and Europe. The important exhibitions will receive full and timely notice; and articles whose object is to enlighten the public, shall be introduced and given a proper prominence by sketches biographical and critical. It will be the purpose of the editor to carry out the critical and literary department of the Aldine a recognition in every way worthy of its established and admitted pre-eminence in art literature.

The art department of this volume will be richer in representations of American natural scenery than any of its predecessors. To all a popular devotion on the claims of rival localities to the title, "the Switzerland of America," our articles are exploring the wonders of those regions of our country which have more recently been brought into notice. The Yosemite and the Yellowstone, the Sierras and the Rockies shall be brought home to the patrons of the Aldine—not the cold, sterile, or the most familiar surroundings.

Experience, and capital largely increased by the liberal patronage of an appreciative public, has made possible the introduction of greater space and plan in selecting the art exhibits, so as better to cover all desirable ground, enabling an harmonious and judicious combination and progression, so to speak, through the wide world of art. Examples by figure, animal, and landscape painters of every school—ancient and modern—American or foreign, will appear with all the old and refreshing variety, yet with an added advantage of more deliberate arrangement and defined purpose, to instruct and inform as well as delight.

The publishers have entire confidence that the public will continue the evidence of their appreciation of these efforts to maintain an art publication that shall be characteristic and worthy of the progress and liberal tastes of Americans, and they anticipate with pleasure the opportunity for a practical verdict on their just achievements, which the commencement of a new volume affords.

PLAN OF PUBLICATION. The Aldine volumes will, in future, be completed in 24 parts, at 50 cents each, published monthly and sent only to subscribers for the complete volume. Subscribers will pay on delivery for the parts actually received, and no canvasser or deliverer is authorized to make any sales or to make any representations on the faith of the publishers on the side of the regular prospectus.

The Aldine will not be sold by book or news-vendors, generally, and in no case will it be sent by direct application to the publishers. Any person desiring to act as the agent for any particular locality, should apply promptly, giving full particulars as to business, references, and territory desired. Liberal arrangements will be made with the best parties.

The Aldine Publishing Company, JAMES SUTTON, President. 18 Vesey Street, New York.
