ABOUT TOWN.

—Mr. and Mrs. Dan. Hogan, of Mound City, spent yesterday in Cairo.

—Mr. Joy, of the Carnal Times, was in the city yesterday. He has been at Mound City on a visit to his father.

—Rumors of several cases of sunstroke reached a reporter of this paper yesterday, but upon investigation they were found groundless.

—The thermometer on Halliday & Phillips' wharf-boat yesterday showed 105 degrees, from 12 to 2 o'clock. This is by several degrees the hottest weather experienced in Cairo for many years.

—The Pulaski County Democrats held their convention to appoint delegates to the congressional convention to be held at Jonesboro next Tuesday, on Thursday afternoon. Pulaski did not instruct her delegation.

—Yesterday morning at half-past two o'clock, at Pulaski station, the store house of B. F. Porterfield, together with two small frame buildings, one occupied by Mrs. Scott, were totally destroyed by fire. Loss 1,000.

—In a cutting affray on board the Mary A. Miller yesterday morning, one negro had his face badly slashed by another. The assailant was arrested by Sheriff Saup after a long chase, and the wounded man was removed to the hospital.

—On the 4th of next month, we are informed by Bill Elliott, the Lane ball faced horse and Wash Sullivan's bay mare will run a half mile heat race in this city for fifty dollars. Elliott says the race will be won by the best horse, sure.

—It was reported yesterday that Mr. Charles Baughman, agent for the Cairo City Coal Company, had been a victim of sunstroke, but upon inquiring we found his illness to be nothing more than a slight attack of chills and fever. He will be all right in a day or two.

—Miss Thelicke, while attending to the wants of a customer in the store of her brother, Mr. Ed. W. Thelicke, on Eighth street, yesterday afternoon was overcome by the heat and fell to the floor. She was taken care of by ladies in the neighborhood, and is now comparatively well.

—The Ballard county kuklux have been quiet for the past few days, notwithstanding reports in this city yesterday were to the effect that another raid had been made on Thursday night. The gang is said to be camped near Clear Lake, about two miles back from the river, just opposite this city, where they hope to evade the sight of the authorities.

—A lady named Mrs. E. C. Clark, whose home is in the South, arrived in Cairo by the Illinois Central train yesterday morning, in a very feeble state and was taken to the Arlington House, where she is receiving medical attention. She was one of the victims of sunstroke in St. Louis on Tuesday. She is yet in a very critical condition.

—It is said that the negroes who were raided by the Ballard county Ku-Klux, though they do not fear another attack at present, believe that their enemies will not rest until they have murdered some or all of them, and they are leaving the country. Several of the colored men have camped on this side of the river with their families, near Cache, and will build themselves cabins and settle there for good.

—An unsophisticated youth named Brown, hailing from Caledonia, came to Cairo yesterday on his way to New Madrid. While loitering about the St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern railroad company's wharf-boat, waiting for a boat he fell in with two gentlemen who in a very short space of time succeeded in fleecing him of eighteen dollars, all the money he had, by the use of these cards. Brown sold his valise for money enough to get out of town on.

—Robert Kernthal, a white man, was very anxious from some cause to whip John Hewey, a darkey, and attacked John at the corner of Eighth street and Commercial avenue yesterday about noon. It was a lively bout that they were indulging in when Squire John Robinson stepped in and marched the combatants off to his tribunal of justice. Kernthal was fined five dollars and costs and sent to the city jail, while John, who, it was ascertained, did not want to fight, but was compelled to keep his antagonist from beating him all up, was discharged to return his work at the Farmers' tobacco warehouse.

—About two o'clock yesterday morning Mrs. Weber, wife of Mr. Chas. Weber, proprietor of the Cairo saloon, was awake from her slumbers by sounds of distress, which she discovered came from her husband. She arose from bed and upon striking a light found Mr. Weber to be laboring under some severe illness that made him speechless and entirely helpless. By her cries the distressed lady soon brought several neighbors to his bedside, and Dr. Gordon was sent for, when it was found that the patient had succumbed to the heat. Mr. Weber lingered in this state until five o'clock yesterday morning, when he died. Mr. Weber was well known to the entire community, and deep sorrow is felt at his untimely death. The funeral will take place from the late residence of the deceased, at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

"L'HOMME QUI RIT."—The man who laughs is a happy man, and no man can be happy with his blood loaded with impurities. The remedy which all can depend upon for every vitiated condition of the blood is Dr. Bull's Blood Mixture.

COURTHOUSE SALOON.—This saloon, under the management of Mr. John H. Boeher, grows in popularity with its patrons. And so it should, for Mr. B. prides himself on the quality of his liquors, wines and cigars. He dispenses none but the best of these articles. Meals are also provided at the house at all hours. The public are invited to give him a call.

SMOKERS, if you wish a fine "Key West" or "Imported" cigar, call at Kormeyer's cigar store. It is the only place in the city almost daily in receipt of fresh goods.

PROVISIONS.

Choice Bacon, Hams, Sides and Shoulders. Dry Salt Shoulders and Sides, Tierce, Keg and Bucket Lard, Breakfast Bacon, etc., etc., all in good stock and for sale at lowest market price. W. P. WRIGHT, Nos. 70 and 71 Ohio Levee.

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.

A LITTLE FOUR-YEAR OLD GIRL DROWNED IN A CISTERN.

In the rear addition to the Vicksburg House, on Commercial avenue, is a room used for sleeping purposes. This room was evidently constructed over a cistern, for in the center of the floor is a trap-door, or covering to it. Between eight and nine o'clock last night, Annie Workman, a bright and handsome little four-year old girl, daughter of Mrs. Workman who is employed as cook in the house, was seated on this trap-door, untying her shoes preparatory to going to bed. It seems the trap was ajar, or it was not securely fastened, and the little one in leaning back, tilted it on end, and was precipitated backward into cistern. A little boy, sitting near her, instantly gave the alarm and many of the boarders hurried to the spot. In the confusion which followed, running hither and thither for lights, ropes, and ladders, it was fully fifteen or twenty minutes before a descent was made. A ladder was used, and a colored man, who volunteered to go down, got hold of the child at one time, but for some inexplicable reason abandoned his hold, and the child again sunk to the bottom. At least ten or fifteen minutes more elapsed before the lifeless body was brought to the surface and handed to those above in waiting for it. The delay in recovering the body seems almost inexcusable in the light of the fact that there was not more than five and a half feet of water in the cistern. It would be unjust to attach any blame to the men who went to the child's rescue, for they labored hard and earnestly, but the fact still remains that their work was misdirected and badly managed. Dr. Gordon was in waiting and took the little one in hand at once, but all his labor, assisted by others, and prolonged for about three-quarters of an hour, as in vain. Life was totally extinct when the child was recovered, but every effort was made to rekindle any vital spark that might have lingered in her. The mother in a faint in one corner of the parlor; women screaming and children crying and running confusedly in every direction; the physician trying to restore life, all combined to make a distressing and inexpressibly sad scene. Crowds were attracted to the house and lingered about it after the physician had abandoned his task and taken his departure. The child was well known in the neighborhood for its precocity and beauty, and was a general favorite.

Babies are the institution and should be guarded from attacks of Colic, Flatulence, etc., by Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup. Price 25 cents a bottle.

STOXS—People who will still adhere to look-at-your-tongue-and-feel-of-your-pulse doctor sometimes express not a little curiosity in regard to Dr. R. V. Pierce's original method of distinguishing all forms of chronic disease without personal consultation. Some even suppose that he accomplishes this through clairvoyance, or some other species of professional jugglery. All this is utterly false. He claims to determine disease by the rational methods of science only. Says Comly, in his Biographical Encyclopedia of New York State, speaking of this distinguished physician: "He perceived that in each of the natural sciences the investigator proceeds according to a system of signs. The geologist in his cabinet accurately determines and describes the cleft of rock, which he has never seen, from the minute specimen on his table. And the chemist in his laboratory notes the constituents of the sun with the same precision that he analyses a crystal of rock salt. The analogous system developed by Dr. Pierce in medical science is worthy of his genius, and has made his name justly celebrated." For a full explanation of this ingenious system of diagnosis, see the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, sent, post-paid, to any address on receipt of one dollar and fifty cents. Address the author, R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

ROYAL REDSKINS.

THE TROOPS AT UMATILLA CLOSING IN ON THEIR ENCAMPMENT—AN ENGAGEMENT IN WHICH THE HOSTILES WERE DEFEATED.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—A La Grand, Oregon, dispatch says the hostiles turned yesterday and are returning back on the trail by which they came, with the cavalry under Col. Forsythe close on the trail. A Baker City dispatch says the Umatilla Indians under Forsythe struck the hostile camp last night, about two miles and a half from Stall's Rancho, Daily road, killing seventeen warriors, capturing twenty-five women and children, and sixty or seventy head of horses. The hostiles are much demoralized, and the captive squaws report they are breaking into small bands with the evident intention of fleeing to Weiser and making their way to the Bannocks of the buffalo country.

Last evening Nez Perce scouts, under Lieutenant Williams, accompanied by white scouts belonging to Colonel Sanford's command, went into camp on North Powder. While sitting around the camp-fire all dressed in citizens' clothes, a man named Haines, captain of a volunteer company, who had seen the party enter the timber, fired two shots into the scouts from a tree about sixty yards distant, killing one of the Nez Perce scouts and mortally wounding another. The Nez Perce are much incensed at Haines, and it was with much difficulty the white scouts and Lieutenant Williams could restrain them from killing him at once. The Indians were rendering very efficient service and now they will scarcely continue longer in the service. It is feared this will also drive the Umatillas from the field. At last accounts Haines was under guard, and probably will be brought to Colonel Sanford's camp.

General Wheaton telegraphs Colonel Sanford from LaGrande that a few hostiles have made their appearance in Grande Ronde Valley; he hopes, with Sanford's help and command under him, to capture or make speedy work of them.

CLOSING ON THE HOSTILES.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—A Portland dispatch says: From late dispatches received from Umatilla it is learned that the Indians are fortified twelve miles from the agency, between McKay and Cottonwood creeks. Col. Sanford's column is approaching them from the south; Capt. Miles from the east; Col. Bernard from the west, and infantry from the agency. These forces are expected to give the hostiles battle soon.

The following dispatch is just received from Celilo, dated 18th: The steamer Northwest left Grande Ronde River yesterday at 9:30 p.m., and arrived here at 4 o'clock p.m. No signs of Indians were seen near the mouth of the Grande Ronde. Rumors are rife in Lewiston that Moses has notified the settlers on Spokane to look out for themselves, as he is unable to control his people, who threaten to go on the war path.

General Howard moved his camp from the mouth of Joseph Creek fifty miles above Lewiston Tuesday, with 130 men for Summerville.

THE PRINCESS OF WALES.

From Scenes in Hyde Park, London.

A single mounted policeman is seen approaching, and as he comes a line is formed up the center of the drive; he is soon followed by a simple victoria, drawn by gray horses, seated in which is the Princess of Wales with three of the young princesses, her daughters—two on the seat beside her, one on her knee, a pretty, charming sight. The princess looks lovely, as young as ever; everything about her is trim and neat; a tight-fitting costume and ruff high up round her neck, the little princesses in sailors hats. It is etiquette not to trouble the princess with much particular notice when driving in the park, but so endeared has she become to every heart that the rule has to be broken through, and ladies bow and smile and gentlemen take off their hats as she passes, and in turn all receive a kindly recognition from this truly angelic princess. This occurs every afternoon. Year after year the interest increases, her reward for a truly loving nature.

LIVER IS KING.—The liver is the imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system are all immediately connected with the workings of the liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all person's afflicted with dyspepsia or liver complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the liver and stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the western continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want.

LETTIE COLEMAN'S LAUNDRY.

Mrs. Lettie Coleman, who has her laundry on Fourth street, between Washington and Commercial avenues, takes this method of informing her old friends and patrons that she is at their services, and solicits their patronage. She has reduced prices to suit the times.

The Democrats of the Nineteenth Congressional district will open the campaign at Carnal on August 1st.
