WASHINGTON.

HOW BLAINE CAPTURED BURNSIDE—SOL-DIER'S PENSION—OUR MEXICAN TROUBLES.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Senator Burnside and his committee to form a plan for reorganizing the army are in session today at the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs.
The object of secret sessions is, it is said, to prevent pressure being brought upon them to change their action as they progress in their work. I don't believe a committee which is too timid to meet criticism while performing its duties will have courage to recommend a radical change in anything.
Burnside never would have been chairman of that committee if Blaine, who prepared the whole job, had not determined that the army should remain substantially as it is—larger than it should be and with one officer to five or six men. I was in the senate on the day when the adroit Maine politician put through the amendment creating the committee, and I saw how cunningly he captured the Rhode Island Senator, who up to that day, had favored a different plan.
Burnside's head is as full of vanity as an egg is of meat, and Blaine drew his amendment in such a way that no one but Burnside could be chairman of the committee.
In this matter Blaine will really control the Republican portion of the committee and dictate the report of its Republican members. It seems to me that a regularly published report of the proceedings of the committee would be a good thing, and enable members of Congress as well as the people at large to determine what to do when Congress meets.

There was manifest at the last session of Congress a disposition to discourage the presentation of claims for pension by soldiers of the late war and their heirs. The legislation on the subject can hear no other construction, and the commissioner of pensions, in a communication of a few days since to the secretary of the interior, claims to have originated the legislation and very plainly and pointedly commends it. There are two views to take of this. One is that the Radical party is tired of paying what it imposed on the soldiers and their representatives.
The other is that the soldiers and their representatives are presenting fraudulent claims to such an extent as to make the pension list a mere record of frauds. The commissioner insinuates that the latter is the fact.

In common with fellow sufferers elsewhere we are rejoicing in the relief brought with the retreating mercury. Our losses have not been severe and those that occurred were among the intemperate, the very young and the chronic invalids.

MEXICAN BORDER TROUBLES.

Whether the report that Gen. Mackenzie has crossed the Rio Grande with 800 men be true or not, it is pretty evident that news of an exciting character may be expected from that quarter this summer. American troops will cross, if they have not crossed already, in pursuit of raiders from Mexico.
In spite of inadequate forces the government has determined to act with vigor and boldness on the border. The Mexicans living along the Rio Grande who obtain cheap horses and provisions and comparative immunity from such forays by encouraging Indian marauders to cross into Texas, will not welcome the troops hospita-lly, and the officers and army from this side of the river who have seen their freighted expeditions into Mexico made successful, and to some extent ridu-culed, by the course followed by the Mexican local authorities, are not conciliatory guests.
While visitors and visited are ungenial, nothing but trouble can be expected. The Mexican government itself seems to wish to check the border troubles and will not willingly rupture its relations with the United States, but the Indian raiders and the Rio Grande Mexicans who thrive on them have as little respect for the authority of Diaz when exerted in a direction contrary to their wishes as Sitting Bull and his braves have for that of the United States, and the Mexican government has been and is unable to exercise its authority in this section There is some danger, however, that Mexico may resent the actions of our government based on the knowledge of this fact, and that through collisions between the Mexicans and American troops it may become involved in complications with the United States from which pride will not permit a retreat. If any body of Mexicans, either of the regular forces or otherwise, attempt to stay the march of our troops in pursuit of the raiders our government's directions to Gen. Ord in accordance with the policy determined upon will make a hostile collision inevitable, so that Mexico may still feel embry, though the Lerdo movement is broken by the capture of Escobedo.

SILVER DOLLARS.

PROGRESS OF COINAGE AT THE VARIOUS MINTS.

ABUNDANCE OF STANDARD MONEY READY NEXT MONTH—FOREIGN COINS, THEIR VAL-UE AND HOW TO DISPOSE OF THEM.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—In consequence of the extreme heat during the first part of the present month the mint at Philadelphia was not able to make the usual number of silver dollars, and the supply of silver bullion at the San Francisco and Carson City mints having been quite limited, the silver dollar coinage for July is not expected to exceed $2,000,000. A fair supply of silver bullion was purchased yesterday, however, for delivery at the San Francisco and Carson City mints. Therefore the silver dollar coinage for August will, it is believed, be between three and four million dollars. The secretary of the treasury has completed all arrangements for furnishing United States depository banks with standard silver dollars. He has also notified all national banks of this fact, the location of the depository banks and of the process necessary in order to obtain standard silver dollars for the accommodation of their customers. There can now be no difficulty in the way of farmers and other obtaining this currency instead of one and two dollar bills, for the purpose of moving crops and all other legitimate products unless such obstacle is laid by the banks.

In a letter to the director of the U. S. mint, dated the 12th inst., Freer Herzog, the celebrated Swiss financier, states that the tables of Sir Hector Hay, which the English silver commission insists are correct, are incorrect in some particulars. He says that the annual production of gold is placed too low, and that the figures as to the German production of silver are also low. The latter Sir Hector places at 220, 000,000, whereas, according to Mr. Herzog, the production during 1874 actually reached 300,000,000 francs. He adds that the principal error of the day was in taking the export of the Australian continent as the actual production of gold there in 1875, omitting the coin which went to the Melbourne and Sidney mints. He also omitted the gold production of Nova Scotia, New Zealand and British Columbia.

FOREIGN COINS.

The following circular has been issued for the information of the general public:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF DIRECTOR OF THE MINT, WASHINGTON, July 25, 1878.

In consequence of the number of inquiries received relative to the value of the new silver dollar and the terms at which it is received at the mints, the following information is furnished:

Section 3584, revised statutes of the United States declares that "no foreign gold or silver coins shall be a legal tender in the payment of debts." The Mexican dollar, therefore, has only a valuation as bullion which depends upon the price of silver. At the present price of silver bullion it is worth about 90½ cents in gold per piece. Its circulation in the United States is optional, and at whatever value may be agreed upon. The United States trade dollar also is not a legal tender, and therefore has only a bullion value. The standard silver dollar, being a legal tender for all debts, public and private, is received at par at all government offices in payment of duties, differing in this respect from the Mexican and trade dollar, which are not received.
The Mexican dollars, as well as all other foreign silver coins and United States trade dollars, are purchased at Philadelphia and the assay office at New York at the equivalent of the London rate for silver bullion on the day of purchase, less one-half cent per ounce of fine silver. All silver coins so purchased are melted and assayed and the seller paid for the fine silver contained in the standard silver dollars. All parties desiring to sell foreign silver coins or trade dollars to the government on the above terms will send them at their own expense to the superintendent of the mint at Philadelphia or of the assay office at New York. The express charges on silver dollars sent in return also to be paid by the seller. All correspondence relative to silver coins so sent to be addressed to the superintendent of the mint or assay office to which they are forwarded. The following table shows the bullion value in cents and tenths of a cent in United States legal tender coin of a Mexican silver dollar of full legal weight and fineness at various London quotations for silver bullion, calculated at the par of exchange—486 65-100 to the pound sterling:

London quo- tion in pence	Val. Mexican Dollars in pence	London quo- tion in pence	Val. Mexican Dollars in pence	London quo- tion in pence	Val. Mexican Dollars in pence
50	86 1	55	94 7	92½	90 8
50½	86 9	55½	95 6	93	91 6
51	87 8	56	96 4	93½	92 5
51½	88 7	56½	97 3	94	93 4
52	89 6	57	98 2	94½	94 3
52½	90 4	57½	99 1	95	95 1
53	91 2	58	99 9	95½	96
53½	92 1	58½	100 8	96	96 9
54	92 9	59	101 7	96½	97 8

The trade dollar is worth two-tenths of a cent more than the Mexican dollar at the respective quotations furnished. The deduction at the mint of half a cent per ounce of the fine silver contained amounts to about four mills on the dollar.

Director of the Mint.

THRILLING TRAGEDY.

AN INSANE MAN AND A SILLY COMMUNITY— AN INFIDEL LECTURE AND A DRAMATIC SUICIDE.

CHICAGO, July 25.—The Times' special from Capron, Ill., says that a dramatic suicide occurred there Sunday night. Early last May, Geo. W. Burleigh, who is an old resident of Ohio, having lived in various parts of that state, came to that town ostensibly to start a tansorial establishment.
Burleigh was a man of varied accomplishments, fine education and versatile conversation. While at Capron he was often in depression spirits. Last Sunday he published a card, informing the citizens that in order to gratify an often expressed curiosity on the part of the townsmen to witness some such tragedy as the hanging of Sherry and Connolly in Chicago, he would on the evening of the 23d inst., deliver a lecture in Thornton hall, and at its conclusion gratify them by shooting himself through the forehead. The price of admission would be one dollar, and the amount realized should be used in his funeral expenses and the remainder be invested in the works of Huxley, Tyndall and Darwin, for the town library. His idea in ending his life was to secure eternal peace by annihilation. At the appointed time the hall was crowded and after delivering an infidel lecture of wonderful power, in manner and tone which marked him as an adept, he suddenly drew a derringer, placed it to his forehead, and despite the attempts to prevent the rash deed fired and fell into the arms of two friends, who were in the wings of the stage for the purpose of hindering the execution of the design.
The large sized ball literally tore his brain to pieces. He left a request that his body be forwarded to Cincinnati friends.

EUROPEAN INTELLIGENCE

THE ENGLISH PREMIER'S IMPEACH- MENT DEMANDED.

AUSTRIA'S ARMY READY TO ADVANCE BOSNIA—THE BERLIN TREATY CAUSING IRRITATION IN BULGARIA—SIR CHAS.
DILKE'S OPPOSITION TO ROYAL ANNUITIES.

LONDON, July 25.—In the house of commons to-day, Joseph Cowan, Radical, will present a petition of a small faction of impeachment Turcofiles, demanding the impeachment of Lord Beaconsfield.

When the petition was presented Charles Edward Lewis, a conservative, rose to a point of order, but the speaker allowed the presentation.

The amount which the queen has for her personal use, independent of the salaries of the royal household, pensions to servants, allowance for alms, bounties and special services, is £102,000 per year, of which £42,000 comes from the duchy of Lancaster.

VIENNA, July 25.—News has reached here that the treaty of Berlin caused great irritation among the Bulgarians, who, since the Russian occupation, have been the ruling class in Eastern Rumania. A so-called Pan-Bulgarian committee has been formed at Adrianople to agitate for a Bulgarian king. The committee telegraphed Prince Cantuloff, the Russian ambassador at Constantinople, to Akasoff, chief of the Panslavish propaganda at Moscow, and to the czarevitch, informing them of the Pan-Bulgarian movement.

THE MARCH INTO BOSNIA.

Arrangements for the march of Austrian troops into Bosnia are complete, but the orders to march will not be given before the end of the week. The Turkish authorities in the provinces have received directions

LONDON, July 25.—In support of Sir Charles Dilke's motion antagonistic to the proposed grant to the Duke of Connaught on his approaching marriage, the following figures have been prepared: The annual grant to the queen is £385,000 out of the consolidated fund and £40,000 from the duchy of Lancaster. The Prince of Wales has £40,000 from the consolidated fund and £66,000 from the revenues of the duchy of Cornwall. The princess has £10,000; the duke of Connaught £15,000; Prince Leopold £8,000; Princess Friedrich Wilhelm of Prussia £8,000; Prince Ludwig of Hesse £6,000; Princess Christian of Schwarg-Holstein £6,000; Princess Louise, marchioness of Lorne, £6,000; the duchess of Mecklenburg £3,000; the grand duchess of Cambridge £12,000. The whole of the annuities to the members of the royal family, exclusive of the queen, paid out of the consolidated fund, amount to £143,000.

SIR CHAS. DILKE MAKES HIS MOTION IN OPPOSITION TO THE DUKE OF CON- NAUGHT ON THE GROUND THAT THE NATION HAS ALREADY BEEN MORE THAN SUFFICIENTLY PROVIDED FOR THE ROYAL FAMILY.

He made similar motions on the occasion of the grants to the Princess Louise and the Duke of Edinburgh, on their marriage.
He does not expect his motion to prevail, but makes it on principle. It is thought that on a division it will receive less than ten votes.
