EUROPEAN INTELLIGENCE.

THE AUSTRIAN ARMIES ENTERING BOSNIA.

ENGLAND'S POLICY DISCUSSED IN PARLIA-MENT—QUARREL BETWEEN THE TURKISH PLENIPOTENTIARIES—EXCITEMENT OVER THE ELECTIONS IN GERMANY—FIRST MEET-ING OF THE COMMERCIAL CONGRESS AT PARIS.

VIENNA, July 30.—The AUSTRIAN ARMY that has entered Bosnia, under the command of Feldzeugmeister Philippovich, who is himself of Bosnian descent, is moving from Essek through the valley of Bosnia, toward Sarajay. It is accompanied by a civil commissioner, who is to superintend the reorganization of the administration of Bosnia. Thus far the inhabitants have made no demonstrations of hostility. The other columns of occupation are in motion and will cross the frontier probably to-day—one marching directly on Novo Banzulka and the other under Feld-zeugmeister Jovimovich, advancing from Selzma and Spolato, toward Livna. The three columns number 80,000 men.

A LIVELY DEBATE.
LONDON, July 30.—In the house of commons to-night there was a very lively debate on the foreign policy of the government. Lord Beaconsfield, in a lengthy speech, warmly justified his recent attack on Mr. Gladstone in the house of commons.
There was also a warm debate on the government policy, but without any definite result.

THE TERRIBLE OUTRAGES.
An official dispatch received at the foreign office, exposes the fearful outrages committed upon the Mohammedans by the Balgarians.

A QUARREL IN THE CAMP.
VIENNA, July 30.—Carathodore Pasha and Mehemet Pasha, the Turkish plenipotentiaries, who are here to complete the negotiations with the Austrian government for the occupation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, have quarrelled and Mehemet Ali has abruptly quitted Vienna, disgusted.

THE TREATY RATIFIED.
LONDON, July 30.—A dispatch from Constantinople says: The Porte has ratified the treaty of Berlin.

AN UNSUCCESSFUL PROTEST.
A dispatch from Vienna says: The Turkish-Bosnia officials endeavored to serve the Austrian general with a protest, but were unsuccessful.

THE ELECTION IN GERMANY.
BERLIN, July 29.—The excitement concerning the general election to-morrow is deep and widespread, but it is for the most part suppressed and kept within bounds.
In the fear of unpleasant consequences, the police are extremely alert and are somewhat inclined to be aggressive. In the several Democratic circles there is some expectation of the return of fifteen or sixteen members, an increase of three or four over the present number.

A CASABAD.
It is reported to-day that the story respecting the coming to Berlin of the papal nuncio from Munich is a canard, invented by the Liberals to slacken the zeal of the Catholics. The whole number of opposition members, including the National Liberals, it is thought, will be not less than 150.

APPROACHING NUPTIALS.
VIENNA, July 30.—The Fremdenblatt announces the approaching betrothal of Count Andrassy's only daughter with Prince Alfred, a distant cousin of the emperor of Austria.

SAFETY OF THE LITTLE NAUTILUS.
LONDON, July 30.—The little craft Nautilus, from Boston, forty-five days out, passed Scilly islands yesterday. All on board were well.

AN APPOINTMENT ACCEPTED.
ALEXANDRIA, July 30.—Nubar Pasha, who was summoned from Paris by the Khedive to assist him in the establishment of reforms in Egypt, has accepted the post of minister without a portfolio.

A COMMERCIAL CONGRESS.
PARIS, July 30.—The delegates from the American members of commerce, appointed to attend the convention in this city to arrange a commercial treaty between France and the United States, assembled here yesterday, Mr. Pollock presiding. The treaty was read and discussed. Messrs. Charles P. Chouteau, of St. Louis, Cairo, of Louisa-iana, and Leon Chotteau, the French commissioner, were appointed a committee on organization. Another committee, consisting of Messrs. Kinard, of Boston, Rhodes, of Washington, and Lozier, of New York, were nominated to confer with the American government commissioners.

At a preliminary meeting of the delegates to the congress held yesterday, the draft of a treaty was submitted and will be discussed at a future meeting. It is proposed that the French government shall engage to admit all American productions at the same rate as are imposed on the most favorable nations, and the United States shall make the same engagement regarding the productions of France, that if either nation imposes a domestic duty upon its own productions, the same duty may be imposed on the productions of the other party of the treaty.

The feeling in French commercial and political circles is not altogether favorable to M. Chotteau's proposed special treaty with the United States, and some of the Americans in Paris seem to doubt its expediency and also the probability of the American congress consenting to such concessions as France would be sure to ask.

INSURMOUNTABLE BANK NOTES.
PARIS, July 30.—Owing to the excitement respecting the forged bank notes, the bank of France has decided to issue notes of a new design, which, it is believed, will prove inimitable.

AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT.
BERLIN, July 30.—The elections to-day were against the government.

YESTERDAY'S DEBATE.
LONDON, July 30.—Debate in the house of commons on the foreign policy of the government was resumed to-day by Lord Sandon, who defended the policy of the government. Mr. Gladstone followed, delivering a fine oration, in which he fiercely denounced the Anglo-Turkish convention.
Hon. Mr. Cross, secretary of the home department, made a very spirited reply and the debate was then adjourned.

A CAUSTIC REPLY.
LONDON, July 31.—Mr. Gladstone having written Lord Beaconsfield demanding a list of the occasions when he (Gladstone) had personally attacked the premier, Lord Beaconsfield has sarcastically replied that he will get some one to look up Mr. Gladstone's speeches and pamphlets for the last two and a half years.

THE FALL CAMPAIGN.

THE MAINE REPUBLICANS FIGHTING FOR HARD MONEY—GEN. BUTLER OUT OF THE RACE FOR CONGRESS.

NEW YORK, July 30.—The Herald's Portland, Maine, special says: The Republican state committee has been in session discussing the prospects of the campaign.
Only one question came up prominently, and that is the attitude of the party on the finance question. The sweep which the Greenback element has made in all the districts of the state, make it necessary for the Republicans to declare themselves squarely.
The entire congressional delegations are here, including the venerable Hannibal Hamlin, Mr. Blaine fought for the word "coin," while Hamlin, Ferry, Hale and Wheeler insisted on the old hard-money platform of "gold or its equivalent." Hamlin and his followers insisted that the only way to save the party was to come out squarely for hard money, raise the old war cry and rally the entire voting strength of the party for a final struggle. Blaine, who took a position in congress in favor of silver, maintained that the new dollar is now a part of the currency and the word "coin" would be more in harmony with the views of a large portion of the Republicans, and its platform would keep the money men, who now lean toward the Greenback doctrine, from seceding. There is a general desire to keep this question out of the convention. It is understood that the gold men succeeded in carrying their point and the party will go into the campaign to try the conclusions with the Greenbackers on an out-and-out hard money platform.

BUTLER OUT OF THE RACE.
NEW YORK, July 30.—The Times' Washington special says: Gen. Butler, in a conversation with a friend, has declared that he would not be a candidate for election to congress. He has already served ten years as a representative and has no ambition for further honors in that direction. Speaking about the reported candidacy of Grant for a third term Butler did not believe Grant desired to run again, but he favors the passage of an act of congress creating Grant field marshal for life, with a salary of $25,000 a year. Some recognition of this kind, Butler thinks, would be a fitting climax to Grant's illustrious career.

YELLOW FEVER.

TRAVEL SUSPENDED BETWEEN NEW ORLEANS AND MOBILE.

NEW ORLEANS, July 30.—The board of health reports to noon: New cases the past 24 hours, 24; deaths, 1.
