THE SENATORIAL STRUGGLE.

OR THE WAYS AND MEANS BY WHICH SUCKER REPUBLICANS DON'T AGREE UPON A SENATORIAL CANDIDATE.

The Senatorial struggle now going on in Springfield is a spectacle that no good man can witness without feelings of disgust, if not of alarm. Never before, in the political history of Illinois, have the people been called upon to witness a contest in which trickery, bull-dozing, and other illegitimate and belittling means were so industriously and unceasingly employed. To give our readers an idea of the desperate resorts of the friends of the candidates and the candidates themselves, we give place to the following extract from the Springfield correspondence of the Chicago Tribune, which paper is, by the way, both fierce and unhesitating in its opposition to Logan. The Tribune says:

"The scene which was produced in the Logan camp yesterday by the postponement of the caucus till Friday evening is unadvised, and, while the managers endeavor to keep up their courage, it is apparent to the most casual observer that they have in a great measure lost their grip. The seventy or eighty votes which they boasted for the first formal ballot have very materially dwindled away, and Long Jones is now satisfied with claiming simply a bare majority. The Jo Daviess statesman begins to weary of his job, and this evening he had no hesitation in publicly declaring that he never could again undertake its like.

Logan has taken on himself the task of working up the doubtful and wavering. His applications to the former and his promises to the latter have assumed mammoth proportions. The telegraph is kept busy all day long, urging outside pressure. Prominent men all over the state who are known to be favorable to the swartzy Egyptian are implored to come over and fix things with those members whom it is supposed they can influence. Private receptions are hourly held, and nothing is left save the tortures of the inquisition to extort from the unwilling members the pledges necessary to secure his election. Different is the situation at the Farwell and Oglesby headquarters.

THERE ARE NO INDICATIONS OF AGUE, everybody feels happy over the prospect of hearing the great American bolter of two years ago, and this seems to be the inevitable result. John B. Hawley, of Rock Island, assistant secretary of the treasury, arrived here to-night. He intimated to the ubiquitous interviewer that he has a case before the supreme court. This is scarcely accurate, for the reason that head officials of Washington departments are not in the habit of traveling around the country attending the supreme courts of the different States. Mr. Hawley is a dark horse of very uncertain size. Some half-dozen of the Logan men, who live in the vicinity of Rock Island and adjoining counties, have joined on Mr. Hawley as their second choice in the event of the break-up of the Logan combination. Hawley is here to witness the effect. Some of his friends claim that he would make an excellent compromise candidate, and that, by a judicious course, he might be able to concentrate enough votes to elect him should the opposition to Logan fail to agree. Being very close to the administration and the possessor of a first class record, his friends naturally think that he has more than an average chance of success.

The fact is, everybody but the candidates themselves are beginning to get tired of the everlasting ear-chewing and secret caucusing which has been going forward here without cessation for the past ten days and are

and for the tranquility of an undisturbed existence. There are 106 Republican members of the general assembly, each one of whom has doubtless been approached quietly by some confidential friend about 400 times, dragged off into a deserted corner, and requested to give up his true inwardness on the subject. The result has been marked down on the roster opposite his name by the confidential friend aforesaid as "Solid for Logan," "Sure for Farwell," or "Shouting for Oglesby," as the case may be. In this manner, as well as by written pledges, the status of most of the members have been obtained, and the general complexion of things deduced from the grand total.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

THE CIPHER DESPATCHES AGAIN—THE FITZ JOHN PORTER CASE—CHIEF JOSEPH IN WASHINGTON—PROF. GANGE AND THE YELLOW FEVER.

(Special correspondence of the Bulletin.)

WASHINGTON, January 14, 1879.

Of legislative business little has been done since congress met on the 7th, doubtless because of the deaths of Messrs. Hartridge and Schleicher, elsewhere referred to.

We are to have an investigation of the "cipher despatches." I suppose no one will rejoice at this more than the eminent gentleman who was elected President in 1876, and whose name has been so freely and persistently connected, in the radical press, with the sending or receiving these telegrams. Mr. Tilden's emphatic denial of any knowledge of them has long been before the public, and it is not too much to say that every man who was willing to be convinced of the truth was satisfied with it. But if confirmation is needed we shall no doubt have it, through this investigation, from those who sent and those who received such of the published despatches as were sent or received. We shall have a full statement of the circumstances under which the despatches were sent.

The funeral of Representative Schleicher yesterday, at the house, was an imposing affair. Following soon after that of Mr. Hartridge, another much respected representative, and preceded briefly by the deaths of Messrs. Williams and Douglas, already referred to in this correspondence, it not only led to a full attendance of senators and representatives, and to the presence of an immense crowd of citizens, but was an occasion of much solemnity to all Messrs. Hartridge and Schleicher, though comparatively new members, were extremely popular among the men of both parties in the house and senate.

Senator Thurman has sent to the Teller Committee his third letter naming sources from which information in the line of its legitimate inquiry can be expected.

The N. Y. World, upon what authority is not known here, says the report of the officers inquiring into the Fitz John Porter case, will be favorable to that gentleman. The report whatever it may be, will be sent to Mr. Hayes, who ordered the inquiry, and, if favorable, will probably be the subject of a special message to congress. It is impossible to see how any other course can be pursued.

After the adjournment of the Woman's Suffrage Convention, a few days since, some of the leaders called upon Mrs. Hayes. They were very cordially received, but that judicious lady expressed no views on the question of suffrage. She evidently has not that facility of utterance which enables Mr. Hayes to speak on both sides of any question in a few minutes.

The friends of ex-Senator Henderson, of Mo., are making an active effort to secure that gentleman's appointment to the German mission. Mr. Hayes might do much worse than to send the eloquent Greeley Republican Missourian there. But he might do better by ignoring politics altogether.

Chief Joseph is a visitor here. His greatest triumphs, it will be remembered, were achieved in the campaign with General Howard. General H. has the satisfaction of knowing that he will be remembered as long as history recounts the deeds of this really able Indian. Chief Joseph's business is not strictly official, but he will receive attention from government officials.

Attention ought to be given in all parts of the country, to a meeting, to be held here in February next, of school superintendents. Eminent educators from North, South, East and West will participate in the discussions of the occasion, and doubtless much information of value will be disseminated.

There is one man, at least, who claims to understand the means of stamping out, or more strictly, freezing out, the yellow fever. This is Prof. Gangee, of London, who claims that he can reduce the temperature of a house or vessel to zero in fifteen minutes time, and that germs of the disease are killed at such temperature. He has considerable scientific and official support here, and, backed by this, will ask and probably obtain a sum of money from congress sufficient to put his plans to a test. The disease causes such a terror in the South at this time, because of its ravages last season, and the fear of its return, that the professor will receive from Southern representatives a warm support.

In connection with the proposed aid to New Orleans and New York lines of steamships to South American ports the following figures are interesting: [These figures having been published yesterday, we now omit them.—Ed.]

Nonny should go to church or a public meeting, hacking away and disturbing the preacher or orator with their Cough. Use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup at once it costs only 25 cents a bottle.

BON. WILLIAM MORRISON.

A HIGH TRIBUTE FROM A REPUBLICAN SOURCE.

T. M. Clark, editor of the Gate City, a Republican journal, published at Keokuk, Iowa, in his "Washington Notes," pays Hon. Wm. R. Morrison, representative in congress from the seventeenth Illinois district, the following high tribute:

Contraries are one of the elements of the mental law of suggestion; and are somewhat fierce diatribe is suggested by the grace of courtesy and the sterling qualities of two gentlemen who carry their office without affectation. We never had so good an opportunity to see the true inwardness of Mr. Morrison, of Illinois. Nature has so stamped him with true manliness that one at all familiar with men need never speak a word to him to know that he is genuine unaffected, brave, sagacious, high principled and trust-worthy. To know him better is easily to know why the people of this district trust him so unreservedly, and why Speaker Kerr, a man as genuine and unaffected as himself, picked him to be chairman of the committee of ways and means. There is lots of Grant about Morrison, but more worldly sagacity or worldly capacity. The men look somewhat alike; there is the same low, square set body and brain with work and reliability in both. Morrison, as he told us, "entered public life by the back door." Born and raised on a farm, talking such learning as came to him from southern Illinois district school, growing to manhood to take care of his own business, but compelled by the growing confidence of the people he had lived among in his trustworthiness and sagacity to take both military and civil office, he has been long in public life with the diffidence and reserve of a man who meant all his life to be an impetuous farmer. So he is very modest of his ability to meet the demands of public station with the completeness that he imagines a scholar or a courtier might do it. But only a simpleton would mistake his reserve for affectation or discourtesy. And the limitations which it is easy to see he thinks his lack of accomplishments but upon him exist only in his imagination and are an unconscious tribute to his own genuineness and manliness. His opinions about the public men of Illinois and the country past and present, giving the freedom of friendly discourse were acute and far sighted. We shall state none of them, for we have great dislike for the interviewing reporter in journalism; he is interesting, but an impertinence and nuisance; not from his own choice always, but the compulsion of a public with a morbid craving for news. Morrison is fifty-three medium size, square of head, brain and body; iron gray—the conformation of work and power rather than brilliance. A Democrat and irretrievable partisan, but plainly philosophical, given to looking on all sides of his partisanship, moderate and catholic in his judgments of other men and other measures, cautious to avoid extremes of opinion or conduct, generous, honest and warm-hearted, he is a typical western American of the best sort. The measure of his party may from our standpoint be hopelessly wrong but in the sterling manliness of a man like Mr. Morrison one can have a trust more supreme than any worry over ill policies and ill politics.

SUFFERING FOR A LIFE TIME.—Persons afflicted with rheumatism often suffer for a life time, their tortures being almost without remission. The joints and muscles of such unfortunate are in most cases shockingly contorted and drawn out of shape. To afford them even temporary relief, the ordinary remedies often prove utterly useless. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, on the other hand, is avouched by persons who have used it, to be a genuine source of relief. It keeps the blood cool by promoting a regular habit of body, and removes from it impurities which, in the opinion of all rational pathologists, originate this agonizing complaint and its kindred malady, the gout. Besides this the Bitters remedy disorders of the stomach, liver and nerves, prevent and eradicate intermittent and remittent fevers, promote appetite and sleep, and are highly recommended by physicians as a desirable medicinal stimulant and tonic.

YOU CAN BE HAPPY.—If you will stop all your extravagant and wrong notions in doctoring yourself and families with expensive doctors or humbug cure-alls, that do harm always, and use only nature's simple remedies for all your ailments—you will be wise, well and happy, and save great expense. The greatest remedy for this, the great, wise and good will tell you, is HOP BITTERS—obtain it. See "Proverbs" in another column.

YOU MUST CURE THAT COUGH.—With Shiloh's Consumption Cure you can cure yourself. It has established the fact that Consumption can be cured, while for Coughs, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Asthma, and all diseases of Throat and Lungs, it is absolutely without an equal. Two doses will relieve your child of Croup, it is pleasant to take and perfectly harmless to the youngest child, and no mother can afford to be without it. You can use two thirds of a bottle and if what we say is not true we will refund the price paid. Price 10 cts., 50 cts., and $1.00 per bottle. If your Lungs are sore or chest or back lame use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by Barclay Brothers.

HAVE YOU DYSPNOEA, ARE YOU CONSTIPATED, have you a Yellow skin, Loss of Appetite, Head Ache, if so don't fail to use Shiloh's System Vitalizer. It guaranteed to relieve you, and will you continue to suffer when you can be cured on such terms as these. Price 10 cents, and 75 cents. Sold by Barclay Brothers.

WELL'S Persian Perfume "HACKMAYN'S" is rich and fragrant, try it. Sold by Barclay Brothers.
