SPECIAL LOCAL ITEMS.

Notices in this column, five cents per line, each insertion.

THE ELECTRO-VAPOR BATHS.

Are you or any of your friends suffering from nervous debility, neuralgia, rheumatism, dyspepsia, constipation, disease of the liver or kidneys, female weaknesses, chills and fever, scrofula, or any diseases of the skin, mercurial, lead or whisky poisoning, or any disease, either acute or chronic, which you have despaired of ever curing by the use of drugs? Do not think there is no relief for you until you have tried the Electro-Vapor baths, and you will be astonished and gratified at the result you will so speedily obtain at such a trifling cost. These baths have been tried and are endorsed by many of our most prominent citizens. They are the universal favorite of the ladies. They clear the complexion and give a buoyancy and elasticity to the step, which nothing else will impart. Administered daily at the office of Dr. Maroon, No. 140 Commercial avenue, between Eighth and Ninth streets, over Black's shoe store. A lady always in attendance to receive lady patrons.

ICE CREAM.

The undersigned will, on and after May 1st, be prepared to furnish our citizens a first rate quality of ice cream, equal in every way to that furnished in Chicago, made fresh daily, and furnished in freezer, from one gallon upwards; delivered to any part of the city. This cream is made by an experienced artist and cannot fail to give satisfaction on trial. Orders left at ice house, corner Eighth and Levee, will receive prompt attention. Will be furnished at $1.25 per gallon in quantities from one gallon upwards. ROBERT HEWERT, Agent.

LEMONS! LEMONS! LEMONS!

Receiving on consignment a choice selected stock of Catania, Messina and Palermo Lemons, all fresh and direct from cargo of steamer Hansavalia, at New York. I offer them to the city and country trade, duplicating St. Louis, Cincinnati or New Orleans invoices for the month of June or July. S. E. WILSON, No. 83 Ohio Levee.

OSTRICH PLUMES.

Tinted or cleaned by the new liquid process, at J. Burger's. Old plumes can be changed so that no difference can be detected between them and the new; an item of economy for ladies to make a note of. Orders left at the store will receive immediate attention. The liquid is also kept by me in bottles for sale with full directions for its use. J. BURGER.

ICE KING.

To my old customers and as many new ones who read this, greeting: I am prepared to deliver in any part of the city ice of best quality and at the lowest possible price. I respectfully solicit your patronage and guarantee satisfaction. Ice box on Eighth street, next to Bristol's, open at all hours, day or night. Orders filled either from wagon or at the ice box. Yours, Respectfully, JACOB KLEE.

ICE! ICE! PURE LAKE ICE!

F. M. Ward has entered the field again, this season, with his ice wagons, and is prepared, as formerly, to furnish pure lake ice, in any part of the city, every day, in any quantity desired. The fact that he gives the business his personal supervision, furnishes a guarantee that his patrons will be promptly, faithfully and satisfactorily served.

UNEQUALLED.

Stock and variety of boots and shoes at C. Koch's, Commercial avenue shoe store, between Fifth and Sixth streets. We have just received and now on hand the largest stock of the best St. Louis and Cincinnati custom made goods ever brought to this city, all styles and sizes in men, women and children's shoes. Having recently refitted and enlarged our store more conveniently we now carry the largest stock of hand made work in the city at the lowest possible prices. Our motto is large sales and small profits. Also always on hand a complete stock of leather and findings at the lowest prices. Call around when in need of any goods in our line for bargains.

HAUNTED ME.—A workman says: poverty and "debt, suffering haunted me for years, caused by a sick family and large bills for doctoring, which did no good. I was completely discouraged, until one year ago, by the advice of my pastor, I procured Hop Bitters and commenced their use, and in one month we were all well, and none of us have been sick a day since; and I want to say to all poor men, you can keep your families well a year with Hop Bitters for less than one doctor's visit will cost."—Christian Advocate.

Bronchitis, a precursor of consumption, is characterized by catarrh or inflammation of the mucous membrane of the air passages, with cough and expectoration, short breath, hoarseness, pains in the chest. For all bronchial affections, sore throat, aphonia or loss of voice, cough, "Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry," is a well known curative. Price 25 cents and $1 a bottle, or six bottles for $7. The large size is the most economical. Prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Sold by all prominent druggists in Cairo and elsewhere. (1)

UNBOUNDED CONFIDENCE.—Peck's Sun, Milwaukee, Wis., in referring to Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, and other of Warner's Safe Remedies has the following: H. H. Warner & Co., Rochester, N.Y., are the sole proprietors, we have a perfect faith in the efficiency of their preparations, and an unbounded confidence in the truth of all that is good, and said of them.

PAIN in the side nearly always comes from a disordered liver, and is promptly relieved by Carter's Little Liver Pills.

GENERAL LOCAL ITEMS.

Notices in these columns, ten cents per line, each insertion.

—Mr. B. T. Blue, Was in the city yesterday.

—Judge Green is home again from Cincinnati.

—It should be remembered that the usual morning and evening services will be held in all the churches to-day.

—The original of Garfield's receipt for the De Gollyer fee has been obtained, and will be lithographed at once.

—Garfield feathered his own nest (provisionally) when he framed the bill doubling the president's salary. Did he have a prophetic intuition of the future?

—Capt. Shields, being a good Democrat, it has been suggested that he be offered the position of postmaster immediately after the presidential election.

—No braver nor better man than Winfield S. Hancock ever trod the earth. It can be said of him as of the Knight Bayard, "he is without fear and without reproach."

—Miss Mary B. E. Grief, of Paducah, who was a passenger on the Gus Fowler yesterday, and who is on her way to St. Louis, will remain in this city about a week, visiting Mrs. Payne.

—It is believed that Miss Gill, who died a few days ago at the age of sixty, has, at last, had her long desired want gratified. She was the author of the popular song, "I Want to Be an Angel."

—Mr. Wm. McEwen shot what appeared to him to be a mad dog yesterday. The animal was running in a crazy manner along Thirteenth street and was foaming at the mouth.

—The irreligious radicals of Cairo, under the good influence of the Democratic nominees, are becoming moral and generally religious. They walk about our streets with a meek air; with downcast eyes and long faces.

—A Republican exchange says that "the religious press is highly pleased with Garfield." It is a sad commentary on the religious press to say that it is pleased with Garfield's record. Our exchange probably meant to say the irreligious press.

—Agnes Smith was drunk yesterday. She has gained a reputation for drunkenness and when drunk, extremely disagreeable. She was arrested yesterday in one of her worst cases by Officer Tyler and fined five dollars and costs by Justice Olmsted.

—We yesterday inadvertently got the names of Tom O'Laughlin and Dennis O'Callahan, badly mixed, and called the former gentleman by the latter's name, and the latter gentleman—by no name at all. But since both of them survive, we presume that it is "all the same."

—Mr. Wm. H. Woodward, of Carbonale, one of the prominent attorneys of that city, was in Cairo yesterday. Mr. Woodward is a radical Republican, but had the fairness to say of the Democratic nominees for president and vice-president, that they were "most excellent gentlemen."

—We add new names to our already large subscription list every day in the week, which fact clearly shows that the people regard THE BULLETIN in the proper light—as THE newspaper of Southern Illinois. Many of our new subscribers, lately received, do not reside in this city.

—The steamer Gus Fowler was here from Paducah on her first trip yesterday. She had all her banners flying and is a magnificent little boat, which will no doubt become as popular as the Fisk ever was. It is expected that she will be able to make eleven miles an hour but this is somewhat doubtful.

—Garfield says that he is not superstitious, but that he has felt the utmost confidence in his success since he learned that, about the time that the ballot was being taken on which he was nominated, an American eagle lighted on the roof of his house at Mentor. The probabilities are that the supposed eagle was one of his own turkeys that had strayed from the flock.

—Mr. W. P. Dunavant, of the great railroad contracting firm of Dunavant & Co., who is now seeking to employ 1,000 men and three hundred wagon and scraper teams on the extension of the M. & O. railroad, between Columbus, Ky., and this city, called at THE BULLETIN office and asked permission to subscribe for our paper, which permission was cheerfully granted.

—The tax sale that was begun by Sheriff Hodges some time ago has progressed quietly and steadily until block forty-five has been reached and not a single lot forfeited. This is a remarkable showing. It has no parallel in the financial history of the county, and shows either a decided improvement in the state of the affairs of our citizens, or an improvement in the selection of a man to fill the office of collector.

—J. Madison Wells, of the intamous Louisiana returning board that counted out the Democratic electors in that state in 1876, is said to be as happy as a lark over Garfield's nomination, the reason being that he regards himself as particularly solid with the Republican candidate for president on account of their close connection in the Louisiana fraud four years ago, and he therefore indulges in great expectations in the event of Garfield's election.

—It is argued by the friends of Hon. D. T. Linegar that he should receive the nomination for representative from this district, for several reasons. Firstly, because he is in every respect qualified for the position; secondly, because he has for several years worked industriously and effectually for the Democracy, and thirdly, because he expects to take an active part in the coming campaign.

—The Illinois Central railroad will run an excursion train from Cairo to Clear Lake in Iowa on the 13th of July. The fare for the round trip will be only thirteen and a half dollars, and the sights with which the traveler meets and the scenery at the place of encampment, are the grandest ever seen by any one. The excursion is destined to overshadow every other means that will be presented to the people for general enjoyment.

—We publish a call this morning which requests the presence of every Democrat at No. 77 Ohio levee on Tuesday evening next for the organization of a Hancock and English club. It is the duty of every man to have the interests of his country at heart and we hope every Democrat will be there and make it his business to see that his neighbor is also present. The club promises to be the largest ever before organized in Cairo.

—The custom of putting large strawberries at the top of the basket and the smaller and poorer ones below, seems not to be of purely American invention, being mentioned by Queen Elizabeth, who said of her ministers: "When first chosen by me, all goes well, for they do put forth their best virtues like the large strawberries in market baskets; but by and by small vices and faults appear in them like the little fruits hidden beneath the big."

—The Western Catholic, published in Chicago, contains the following concerning Hon. John H. Oberly: "Hon. John H. Oberly, the great Egyptian Statesman, whose name is a household word in Southern Illinois, was unanimously nominated for secretary of state. Oberly's name is a tower of strength to the ticket, and the fact of his being a candidate will bring out thousands of votes in the southern portion of the state, which have been in former years lost to the party."

—It is told of Sol. Silver that he proposes to take the measure of one of the custom house offices to-morrow. Sol is a Democrat and will occupy one of the offices after November next without a shadow of a doubt. The only thing he is at present concerned about is its size and, if he finds that satisfactory, he will rest his soul in peace until after the election, when he will hang his hat on one of its pegs and take formal possession.

—Mr. W. B. Matthews, the father of our fellow citizen M. W. Matthews, who formerly resided in Centralia, has taken up his home in this city, and knowing THE BULLETIN to be a "good thing," subscribed for it immediately upon his arrival here. Some years ago he resided in Ohio, in the village in which Garfield taught school, and then and there became acquainted with that worthy. He says that Garfield was regarded as a good teacher, but by no means as a man of more learning than the law allowed.

—County Clerk Humm yesterday evening received a letter from the secretary of the soldiers' orphans' home, located at Normal, which conveyed the intelligence that Alexander county is not represented in that institution, and stating also, that since it was the desire of the faculty to equalize the population of the institution, if the proper blank were filled out and returned by any indigent soldier's family in Alexander county, it would be favorably considered by the board of trustees of the orphans' home. "We give publicity to this for the benefit of those whom it may concern."

—Health Officer Orr has of late been quite successful in inducing those people whose privy vaults are in a bad condition, to abandon them and accept the tubs as provided by ordinance. Tubs were yesterday delivered to six families in different parts of the city and four more families have signified a willingness to adopt them to-morrow. This is as it should be. It shows that our people are waking up to the necessity of preserving the present good health of the city—and we may say, that this waking up is timely.

—Will Smyth returned from the Cincinnati convention Friday night, well pleased with his visit to Cincinnati and his trip over the Cairo and Vincennes railroad. He expresses his surprise at the superb management of the Vincennes railroad, which, although a new institution, combines all the advantages of a first-class road with those of a rapid and pleasant route to the east. It opens a country rich in exhaustless grain resources, and gives to Cairo a local enterprise which deserves the encouragement of all her citizens.

—To secure the perfect health of the city, every household must take a personal interest in the matter; the health of the family and the city must be a part of his religion. The principal danger in the summer months comes from decaying vegetable and animal matter. Animal and vegetable matter must not remain in the house, the yard, or the street in front of the house. Decay cannot go on unless dampness is present; therefore every yard should be kept dry. Slops should not be thrown upon the yard. Disinfectants should be used every ten or fifteen days, to prevent all nasty and health destroying odors.

—Whether it is an honest conviction, or whether the declaration was promoted by pique at his defeat before the Chicago convention, is not known, but General Grant has declared it as his opinion that Hancock will be elected. Out of this expression of opinion grew the report that he would support the Democratic ticket. He may reach this latter point before November, but whether he does or not is of no consequence, and we feel as did Hon. D. T. Linegar yesterday when he said: "We don't need the support or good will of Grant or any of his clique—to us the enmity of such men is more desirable than their friendship."

—A letter received in this city by one of Judge Mulkey's relatives, conveys the intelligence that he has arrived at Karlsbart, Russia, to which place he has gone on the advice of a distinguished German physician, and he finds that even his short stay there has greatly improved his health. He speaks of the place as one of great beauty, and says that it is overrun with travelers in search of health. Shortly after his arrival he met our former fellow citizen, Mr. Jacob Roth, in the city, who is abroad on a pleasure trip, and was, of course, greatly pleased to find a familiar face among so great a crowd of strangers.

—The state board of health which met at Springfield on the 25th inst., resolved, in compliance with the request of the national board of health, to recommend the appointment of Dr. W. R. Smyth of this city as inspector at inspection station No. 3, below Cairo, and that the national board of health be requested to place said station in commission on the first of July; also that after said inspection station has been put in commission the secretary of the state board of health be directed to notify the authorities of all ports in this state not to allow boats from points below Cairo to land unless they present a clean certificate of inspection as for cargo, officers and crew.

—Yesterday afternoon at about 4 o'clock, a sneak thief entered the house of a sick family on Twenty-seventh street, between Poplar and Commercial and stole from a table in one of the rooms, a box of Dr. Wood's fever pills, containing two doses, and a pocket book containing a small amount of money, and left the premises without being observed. The officers of the law concluding that a man who would run the risk of incurring the displeasure of the law for a box of Dr. Wood's excellent pills and a few pennies had too much brains for them, and was therefore a dangerous man for them to "tackle," let him "rip"—in other words did not concern themselves about him.

—A gentleman from this city who attended the Cincinnati convention, told us that while in conversation with Senator West, he (West) told him that as he stepped on the train at Washington bound for the convention, General Logan came up to him and raising himself upon tip toe, whispered in his ear: "Don't make a mistake and your nomination." These words, together with the manner in which Logan spoke them, give ground for the belief that he was anxious to see a man at the head of the Democratic ticket sufficiently strong to beat Garfield. It is reasonable to suppose that the Republican party has soured on his stomach, and that he would like to throw it up and retrace the step taken in 1868, when he joined it.

—Jno. Soet, the man to whom we referred a few days ago as being greatly in need and deserving of assistance from our charitable people is still unimproved. The relief which he and his wife so much need, such as the necessities of life, clothing and medical attention, have not been forthcoming as abundantly or promptly as they should have been. The man is really very sick and the woman has done all in her power to supply herself and sick husband with food, drink and medicine, but without success. It is true that several good citizens interested themselves in their welfare, and supplied them with some food and medicine. Dr. Carter has of late given them medical attention and Messrs. W. H. Duffey, Ben Lynch, Geo. Sargeant and Officer Wooten have several times taken them a few articles of food, for which they deserve not only the blessings of the sick man and woman but the admiration of the community. The poor sufferers are yet far from well, and a consistency with their past record, demands that our people should furnish them all they need in their hour of trial.

—For several years a considerable amount of money has been made in this market by shipping new potatoes, grown in this neighborhood, to northern markets. This year the trade in new potatoes has not been a fortunate one. The planting was succeeded by the long dry term that was so general a check to agricultural operations in the spring. This hindered the growth of potatoes, and frequently checked it altogether, so that replanting became necessary. As the dry weather was warm, the growth in the north was forwarded by what caused this delay here. The result of the nature of the season on the whole is that we have a deficient and late crop, which has just put us at disadvantage in supplying the north, where their own yield soon followed our own, cutting short our market. Although our crop has been restricted individually, the whole yield has been equal to that of the previous season for the reason that a larger number of persons near this city planted potatoes for shipment this year than on any former one. This makes the disappointment extend wider, and it is very dispiriting to those who have for the first time grown potatoes this season. We remind them, however, that the unfortunate check that enterprise has received must not abate their efforts. A considerable amount of money has been made from potatoes shipped in Cairo; and a great deal more will be made. With a full and early crop there is money in them, so growers must follow the good old maxim, "Pick your flint and try again."

—Dr. J. H. Rauch, secretary of the state board of health—he who was in Cairo a few days ago, and who marshals his ideas by sucking the head of a gold-headed cane—is a genius. He is not a gentleman who puts on more airs than a person can grind out of a hand organ, but on the contrary he is a gentleman who is justly famous for his modest and unassuming air, and in the lauding of these his biographers will vie with each other for years to come. This, however, is neither here nor there and is not what we intended to say. What we intended to say is that a year or more ago the national board of health sent in the neighborhood of one hundred barrels of rosin to this city and placed the same in the charge of Dr. Rauch with orders to send the same to Memphis in case of an emergency in that city. Upon the arrival of the rosin here the doctor had it safely stored away in L. H. Myers' brick building which is situated on Commercial avenue between Sixth and Seventh streets. Here the rosin remained until recently, when Mr. Sanders rented the building and moved into it, when it was removed and stored under Wilcox's block. There it now is, and there it will probably remain for another year or more unless somebody besides the doctor takes an interest in it; and the government, which has already paid a large amount of money for its storage will continue to "fork over" until each barrel of rosin shall cost it ten times its original cost, and this too while we have a large custom house standing empty within two blocks of the very place where the stuff is stored and while the government has an empty quarantine boat at this point and a man upon it, who is paid forty dollars per month for watching nothing. But this may be all right. We are not complaining. We merely mention it as an "item of news," and to show the wisdom and greatness of Dr. Rauch, who can well be compared to the ruler of the universe, since, like him, he, "in a mysterious way, his wonders doth perform."

THE CAIRO BULLETIN.
Almost every train that enters this city brings us a new subscriber or two. With yesterday evening's mail we received the following:
Editor of the Bulletin, Cairo, Ill.:
SOMERVILLE, Tenn., June 23, 1880.
DEAR SIR:—Being somewhat interested in Southern Illinois, I desire to see, occasionally a paper from your section, and believing yours to be the best one published, would be pleased to have you send me your weekly paper for as long a term as the enclosed I will pay for. Very Respectfully,

Owing to the increase in our weekly list we were unable to send THE WEEKLY BULLETIN in exchange for "Barton's Free Press" last week, whereupon Mr. John H. Barton, its publisher who is the leading Republican editor in Southern Illinois writes us the following:
"Editor Bulletin:
I did not get your weekly last week. What is the matter? Send it on as I can not run shop without it. Yours, etc."

ATTENTION DEMOCRATS!
A HANCOCK AND ENGLISH CLUB
TO BE ORGANIZED.

The Democrats of Cairo, young and old, are requested to meet at No. 77 Ohio levee, up stairs, at 7:30 o'clock sharp, on Tuesday evening next, for the purpose of organizing a Hancock and English club. Good speakers will be on hand, and the presence of every Democrat in Cairo is earnestly desired.

For the Cairo Bulletin.
LOOK ON THE BRIGHT SIDE.

"When troubles come and grief assails,
He acts the noblest part,
Who turns his face full to the gale,
And keeps a steadfast heart
So let us then what 'ere betide,
Like brave men bear the breast,
And standing firm by virtue's side
To heaven leave the rest."

If poor human nature could but trust a little more in the Divine Hand which is guiding us all, what a vast amount of fretting would be saved. If we could but wait patiently for the silver which lines every cloud, however dark to make its appearance. It has been said that one fretter can destroy the peace of a family, can disturb the harmony of a whole neighborhood, can unsettle the councils of cities, and hinder the legislation of nations. He who frets is never the one who mends, who heals, who repairs evils, more he discourages, enfeebles and too often disables those around him, who, but for the gloom and depression of his company, would do good work and keep up brave cheer. The effect upon a sensitive person in the mere neighborhood of a fretter is undecipherable. It is to the soul what a cold ray mist is to the body—more chilling than the cold storms of winter. And when the fretter is one who is beloved, then the misery of it becomes, indeed, unsupportable. Let us school ourselves not to fall in the habit of fretting, but look for the bright side of every thing. The times may be hard but your prospects may not be encouraging, but it will make things no better to wear a gloomy and sad countenance. It is the sunshine and not the cloud that gives beauty to our surroundings. There is always before or around us that which should cheer and fill the heart with warmth and gladness. The sky is blue ten times where it is black once. You have troubles of course; none are free from them, and perhaps it is well that none should be; they give sinew and tone to life, fortitude and courage to man. That would be a dull sea, indeed, and the sailor would never acquire skill, were there never anything to disturb its surface. It is the duty of every one to extract all the happiness and enjoyment from within and without him; and above all he should look on the bright side of life. What though things do look a little dark? There is a bright side and if you look for it you will surely find it. The lane will have a turning and the night will end in broad day. In the long run the great balance rights itself. What appears ill becomes well, that which appears wrong, right.
