Have you been much at sea? No, not exactly, but my brother married an admiral's daughter.
Were you ever in France? No, not exactly, but my mother's name was French.
Did you ever have the rheumatism? No, not exactly, but my father has and he cured it with Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil. Sold by Paul G. Schuh, Drugist.

"DON'T KNOW HALF THEIR VALUE."

"They cured me of Ague, Biliousness and Kidney complaint, as recommended, I had a half bottle left which I used for my two little girls, who the doctors and neighbors said could not be cured. I would have lost both of them one night if I had not given them Hop Bitters. They did them so much good I continued their use until they were cured. That is why I say do not know half the value of Hop Bitters, and do not recommend them high enough."—B. Rochester, N. Y. See other column—American Rural Home.

SAMUEL A. HEWITT, Montevay, Mich., writes that Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil cannot be beat by any medicine for coughs and colds, and for rheumatism, it works like a charm. It has been thoroughly tried in this place and is in great demand. Sold by PAUL G. SCHUH, Drugist.

—"Between the acts" cigarettes, wholesale and retail, at F. Kornsmeier's.

—Who says Damron is not making a strong fight? He invested five cents in beer in an up town saloon Tuesday night, and—drank the beer himself.

—Election tickets, one to fifty thousand, at $2.50 per thousand. E. E. Ellis, printer, Office, Ohio Levee.

—Our magnificent campaign drum corps had their pictures taken in a group, in full uniforms, yesterday. We should very much like to have a copy for sanctum walls.

—The teamsters, who cross the track at Twenty-eighth street, are loud in their complaints against the railroad for keeping the crossing blocked with cars until half-past seven o'clock, yesterday morning.

—John T. Raymond and party will furnish, to our theatre going people, a fine rendition of Mark Twain's American Comedy "Colonel Sellers." Mr. Raymond is one of the best comedians on the stage, and Cairo should consider herself peculiarly favored.

—Jim Orange came into the city yesterday on top of the last load of watermelons of the season, each melon containing the germs of half-dozen cases of fever and ague. When last seen Jim was hunting for a straight-ticket candidate and the usual antidote.

—Republicans Tuesday night were uncertain whether the procession was a Garfield and Arthur or an independent candidate boom. The enthusiasm among the colored torch bearers seemed all to break out in cheers for Hann Irvin and Jack Hodges.

—The cane voted to the most popular candidate at the Anchor Fire company's ball was passed over to Jack Hodges on a majority of 167 over Nellis—not one-third of what his majority will be in November. The company's funds were increased $40 by the transaction in cane.

—At the regular annual election of officers of Cairo Chapter, Royal Arch Mason, held on Tuesday evening, the following members were elected: Chas. Wilson, M. E. H. P.; J. A. Goldstine, E. K.; Fred Kornsmeier, E. S.; P. W. Farley, treasurer; J. S. Rearden, secretary.

—John Poore narrowly missed serious injury while at work at the New York store Tuesday. A board on which he was standing gave way, precipitating him head long to the floor, a distance of fifteen feet, but he fortunately escaped with a few bruises and a bad sprain of his left wrist.

—The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will hold Saturday Oct. 23d as a day of prayer and especially for the success of the woman's convention in Boston. The Union will meet in the Reform club hall on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to be present.

—This being the last day of the fair and festival by the ladies of St. Patrick's church, the admission has been reduced to fifteen cents. The cane for the most popular candidate for sheriff will be disposed of this evening, and will no doubt be warmly contested by the friends of Messrs. Nellis and Hodges.

—Postmaster general Maynard directs that, hereafter, such of the dead letter office mail as is made up of magazines, pictorial papers, or other acceptable second class matter, shall be turned over to the charitable society of the district. Heretofore, it has been sold as waste paper, and although considerable in quantity, has yielded a very small sum to the government.

—The "independents" are enjoying a boom that will last until after the "straight ticket" is carefully and tearfully laid away in its little bed in November. Yesterday $100 was placed in the hands of an up-town business man to be used in accommodating a gentleman, who, last Sunday, had that amount to put up on John Reeve. To-day he is hardly anxious to bet.

—An exchange says: "This is 'a year of surprises.' The surprises begun when the third term was knocked into the Chicago ditch, continued when Maine slipped through the fingers of Blaine and Indiana turned wrong side up, and we do not think the last of them has been seen. There is, to say the least, a very strong probability—we say a certainty—that what Indiana would not do for Landers she will do for Hancock."

—The hose, purchased by the city from a Cleveland company was yesterday again put to test in the presence of Mr. Munroe, agent of the company, and a committee of the board of aldermen. The result was not at all favorable to the hose. One section burst at a pressure of 210 pounds and another at 315 pounds. The hose was guaranteed to the city to stand 450 pounds. The committee will make their report at the special meeting of the council to-night, but will not recommend that the hose be accepted. Mr. Munroe is not satisfied with the result, but will make a new test to-day, and is confident he can make their guarantee good.

Judge Yocum has reversed his opinion in reference to his right of issue naturalization papers, and will hold a term of the Alexander county court next Wednesday for that special purpose. We learn that quite a number of foreigners will be down from Massac county to take out papers as citizens. Any of our readers who have not yet the necessary certificates to entitle them to vote should not fail to make a note of this.

—"Mr. C. R. Woodward, as he was standing upon the stand last night, was hit with a rock by some low down contemptible democrat."—News.

The "low down, contemptible democrat" was found after Mr. W. got through shaking him, to be an eight year old republican boy, who threw the pebble into the crowd from pure love of mischief, just as the editor of the News wrote the above item from pure love of lying.

—The Catholic Fair had a much larger attendance last night than the night before. The friends of the church were liberal in their patronage of the tables and fancy bazaars. The contest for the cane was a very exciting one and soon narrowed down to the candidates for sheriff. At the time our reporter left the Hall, the votes were coming in lively with Jack Hodges in the lead, but neither that nor the neck chain contest had been decided. The Fair will continue to-night and then close.

—We learn by a letter from Mr. C.A. Saup, late job room foreman of this office, who writes from the home of his childhood, in Ohio, that the disease with which he is prostrated is not consumption, but a general derangement of kidneys and spleen. Although the best medical skill to be had has declared his case incurable, Charley is cheerful and game to the last. Speaking of his disorders and general wrecked condition, he says his "inwards are corrupt as the republican party." Brave Charley; if good wishes could restore him to health, THE BULLETIN force have stock enough of that sort of restoratives to make him live a thousand years.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Geo. H. Leach Jr. formerly a teacher in the Cairo public school is in the city on a visit.

—Dr. Leach contemplates a visit to Houston Tex. leaving for that point to-morrow.

—Dr. Wheeler, has removed to Hodges Park where he will continue the practice of his profession.

—Mrs. Thomas, wife of the member of congress from this district, died last Sunday at her home in Metropolis.

—Dennis Meskil, of the Fifth ward, rejoices over the arrival on Tuesday at his residence, of a brand new, bouncing baby boy.

—Miss Kate McTigue will be married next Tuesday, to a young gentleman connected with a manufacturing establishment up town.

—Hon. F. E. Albright called on THE BULLETIN last night. He reports everything lovely for the Democrats in the district, and has no doubt of the triumph of Hartzell.

—Hon. John H. Oberly arrived in the city yesterday evening. He goes to Jonesboro this morning where in a speech, he will show the voters, of all parties the path wherein they should walk.

—Bailey S. Harrell, of Cleves, Ohio, is in the city, visiting friends and relatives. His eight-year absence from Cairo has had no visible effect on him. He looks as young as the day he pulled out for Ohio.

—Mr. Angus and family are temporarily quartered at A. J. Alden's, on Seventh street, where they will be until they get possession of their own residence, where they will keep house at home and board at the same place.

POLICE NEWS.

—BEFORE JUDGE OLMSTED.
—Joseph Wright and Davis Burke had a set-to yesterday evening, and were arrested therefor by Officer John P. Hogan. Five dollars and costs were assessed in each case.

—Milton Lucas was complained of by Belle Vance for disturbing the quiet of her neighborhood night before last. Milton came up like a little man and acknowledged the charge to be correct, and took a fine of $5.00 and costs.

U. S. MAIL BAG NO. 3.

A correspondent writing from Elco says: "Damron has been riding around through the country with a U. S. mail bag filled with crackers, sausage, yellow bills, dirty shirts and soiled socks. He left it in a saloon at Sandusky in 'soak' for the drunks. He made a speech in Sandusky, in which he tried to create sympathy by pleading poverty and condemning a third term for Leek. His stay in Sandusky is always brief as there is no colored friends to nurse him through an attack of 'spasms.' This is the man, nominated by a packed convention on his arrival from Johnson county, against the express will of the people who insist upon the right to name their own candidate. The "spasms" that will overtake him on the 2d of November will be simply wonderful.

ATTENTION COLORED VOTERS.

At a meeting of the colored state executive committee formed under the auspices of the late colored convention, held at the city of Springfield, Illinois, the following officers were elected, and entered upon the discharge of their respective duties: John J. Bird, president; John G. Jones, vice-president; T. F. M. Kay, secretary, and C. Mitehen, corresponding secretary.

A resolution was passed instructing the president to issue an address to the colored voters, urging them to vote for the Hon. John H. Oberly, for secretary of state.

Mr. Oberly has strong claims for the suffrages of colored men, he having been for years their true and tried friend on all matters of legislation affecting their rights and privileges. He advocated Negro Suffrage, as an act of justice, claiming that he having been emancipated, should be clothed with the ballot. He defended, supported and voted for the revised school laws of this state. He is the friend of the laboring classes, and should have their hearty and united support irrespective of race, color or party affiliations. We therefore appeal to you in the name of all that is near and dear to you as men and citizens, to work and vote for him at the coming election, and thereby achieve for yourselves that distinction and respect which your intelligence and numbers entitle you to.

Mr. Oberly's opponent, Henry Dement, though a Republican, has not had the courage to meet those questions with that boldness and impartiality which is so essential in party leaders—especially those who are aspirants to office. His election would be a repetition of what we have witnessed in the past, and tend to postpone our advancement to positions in life, in accord with our fitness and qualifications.

Respectfully,
JOHN J. BIRD, President.
T. F. M. KAY, Secretary.

Bloomington, Ill., Oct. 14, 1880.

The above circular was received from Judge Bird at THE BULLETIN office last night. We submit it without comment.

It speaks for itself. The Judge is expected to return to Cairo to-day.

INDIANA.

General Crook, the famous cavalry officer in speaking of Ohio and Indiana, referring to the election expresses great confidence in the ability of the democrats to carry Indiana for Hancock, leaving only Ohio in any kind of doubt. The division, in the councils of the party in the former state, have been cemented together by the frauds perpetrated, and the importation of negroes by the republicans, in order to carry the state election.

The smoke of battle has blown aside and the atmosphere is clear again. The democrats have recovered from surprise at the disaster that almost demoralized them, and are jubilant over the prospect. There is not a careful thinking man in the party who does not feel confident that Indiana will cast her electoral vote for the hero of Gettysburg. It will not be a Landers at the head of the ticket, nor is it a Porter that will oppose him.

THE EDELSTEIN.

Naught could I give thee to be thine,
That magic hath so filled,
The warm and sweet as garnet wine—
On sweet red lips just spilled
'Tis over changeful, as the curls
That on sea maiden's shine—
Now ruby red, now white as pearls—
This little edelstein.

Though drifts of snow glide o'er its gleam,
'Twill come again to thee,
Even as some oft awaked dream
Arises from love's sea,
Storms may not tear its light apart,
Flash of lightning never tinge—
Yet ever wear it in thine heart—
This little edelstein. LINDWOOD
