LAUNDRY.

CAIRO STAR LAUNDRY

I would respectfully announce to the citizens of Cairo, that I have opened and am carrying on a first class laundry in the rear of Winter's Block, on Seventh Street, where I am prepared to do all kinds of work in my line in a superior and workmanlike style, defying competition, and at reasonable figures. All work guaranteed, and prompt payment if any goods are lost. MARY HENNELLY, 724-3 N. B.—Entrance to laundry, through the private entrance to the Winter's Block.

GENERAL LOCAL ITEMS

—Col. Charles Hamilton, of the St. Louis & Cairo Road, was in the city yesterday.

—Mr. Max Hyman has gone east to purchase the fall stock for the dry goods house of J. Burger.

—Joe Reed has been confined to his room for more than a month with a sort of malarial fever.

—Fresh Oysters at Joe Steagala's saloon and restaurant, corner Sixth and commercial.

—Miss Nettie Ayers, daughter of Mr. S. D. Ayers, of Kansas City, is in the city—at the home of Mr. Thomas Lewis. She will remain some days on a visit.

—E. P. Jackson, "Texas Jack," as he is known in Texas where he is traveling, has our thanks for late papers from Fort Worth.

—Just received our fall stock of men's, boys' and children's; soft and stiff hats in all colors. Fry & Rossman.

—Surgeon Rye left some days ago, but his family is still here. A letter from him yesterday to Assistant Officer Tarr says that he is well pleased with LaCrosse.

—The latest styles, soft and stiff hats in the following colors—plum, chocolate, rubin, slate, brown and black—at the Famous Clothing House. Fry & Rossman.

—Mr. Peter Coraher has his house at the corner of Sixth and Washington nearly finished, and has put teams to work filling the lots up to the Washington avenue grade.

—Miss Virgie Bask leaves to-day for her home in Chicago. She has been here several weeks, making many friends by her varied accomplishments and amiable disposition.

—Mr. William Perce is back again from DuQuoin. He resigned his position of Agent for the Illinois Central there and will probably locate again among his friends in Cairo. That he may do so will be the wish of many.

—In Palaski county the Prohibitionists will hold a convention on the 23d of August, for the purpose of nominating a county ticket and sending delegates to the Congressional and State conventions. Villa Ridge is the place designated for the convention.

—Conductor Bates, of the M. & O. R. R., with his family, leaves to-morrow for a six-week's visit to Lake Minnetonka, Minn. They will be accompanied by the family of Mr. John Jones. Miss Ella Robbins and Miss Edie Close will also be members of the party.

—The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry. Co. has issued Bill Nye's humorous article, "A Howl in Rome," in pamphlet form, with numerous grotesque illustrations that are excruciatingly funny. Copies of this pamphlet and also "North and Far West" may be obtained free by addressing A. V. H. Carpenter, G. P. A., Milwaukee, Wis.

—This is genuine Dixon Spring weather; go there if only to spend one or two days; the good music, cool nights and dancing will pay you for your trip. Don't say you cannot dance; you will when you go there; the sedate, the liveliest, the strongest, the weakest, everybody dances, walks, runs and climbs rocks and hills at Dixon twenty-four hours after their arrival.

—Mr. Ed Dezonis returned Friday from Murphysboro, where he had gone to see about the new banking institution in course of establishment, of which he is to be the cashier. He thinks the preparations will be all completed by about the first of next month, and the bank will be open for business perhaps on the 5th of September.

The capital will be $15,000, and the name of the institution will be the Jackson County Bank. Who will be Mr. Dezonis's successor in the City National Bank here is still in doubt, but Mr. T. W. Halliday will perform the duties of both cashier and teller until a suitable person shall be found to take the responsible position vacated by Mr. Dezonis.

—Capt. Shield's residence is now receiving the finishing touches. It will be ready in about ten days, and the Capt. expects to occupy it by the first of next month. It is one of the most elegant and perfect structures in the city—an interior arrangement that combines comfort and grace in an admirable manner, and an exterior that is attractive in form and finish.

—Cairo will be well represented in the different exhibitions this fall by machines from the works of J. B. Reed, Esq. He has already sent 3 lathes of different sizes to Louisville, will send three or more to the New Orleans exposition, and has reserved space in the St. Louis exposition building for three more. These machines of his manufacture have a reputation second to none built in the east or west.

—Grand Sunday excursion to-day, August 17th, on the ferry-boat Three States, to Columbus, Kentucky, and return. Boat lays at Columbus 2 hours, and will make all way landings. Will leave wharf at Cairo at 1:30 p. m., arriving at Columbus at 4:30; returning, arrive at Cairo at 8. Music by Lower's band. Refreshments in abundance. Plenty of seats for all. Tickets, 50 cents; children under 12, 25 cents. WINTER & LOWER, Managers.

—Mr. Julius Sarbian and his force of men and teams finished filling Sixth street last evening. The street is now up to the grade of Washington avenue, from its junction with this avenue to its junction with Cedar street. Mr. Sarbian will be engaged for several days this week filling the lots of several residents on Sixth street, among them those of Mr. L. B. Church and Mr. F. Rector. He has already commenced filling these lots, but will require a day or two to finish them.

—The consumption of fruit must be increasing prodigiously in this country, and is undoubtedly improving the national health. In addition to the enormous consumption of berries and small fruit which has grown up in the last twenty years, there is a vast consumption of apples, oranges and grapes and imported pineapples and bananas. There were received at New York for the year ending with March, 155 cargoes by sail, and 113 by steamer of bananas alone, and immense numbers are received at other ports. During the same time 48 cargoes of pineapple and 22,000 barrels by steamer were received at New York.

—For several days past this city has been honored by the presence of distinguished railroaders from different parts of the country. On Friday a large squad of Texas and St. Louis men came up on special train, from a tour of inspection, and were met by Agent Loomis with a tug at Bird's Point. This party consisted of C. F. Stevens, N. J. Stevens, W. R. Woodward, S. M. Woodward, S. S. Woodward, A. C. Taylor, I. I. Frey, J. C. Reynolds, H. O. Harris, W. B. Jones, and H. B. Hibbard, prominent officials of the road. On the same day Mr. Jeffreys, of the Illinois Central, and party, arrived here from Chicago, and after spending a few hours in looking around, went south. Another party consisting of Mr. J. E. Joy, of Detroit, successor of Jay Gould as President of the Wash system, his son and Mr. Stevens, Division Superintendent. They came in a special car which they abandoned here, going to St. Louis in the regular train yesterday.

—Johnson county is one of the strongholds of Reguleanism in this Congressional District. It is also the home of several members of the celebrated Smith family, of the M. A. species; and there is no room for wonder that, under this combination of afflictions, it should also be, as it is, one of the strongholds of that most pernicious of political heresies paradoxically termed "Prohibition." According to the assessor's reports made to the State Auditor this year, Johnson County's total assessed valuation of personal property, lands and lots, of $770,924, which is less than half the valuation of the same property in any other county in this district, excepting Pulaski, which has a valuation of $898,249. It has the least valuation of any county in the State, excepting one Hardin. It has no "shares of stock of State and National banks"; no "patent rights," nor "steamboats and sailing vessels"; no gold and silver plated ware; no "diamonds and jewelry"; no "credits of bank, banker or broker." But it has 1,481 mules and asses (exclusive of the Smiths), and 14,151 hogs. It has no saloon property, and as a consequence it can point with much pride to the magnificent sum of $1,349 accumulated in its banks and to $5,041 that is being hoarded by its individual citizens to the serious depression of the circulating medium in the country at large; and it can also point to an illicit liquor traffic indulged in by its most prominent citizens and which is infinitely more destructive of good morals than open, well regulated business could possibly be, and to a county jail that is so decrepit from constant use that prisoners have to be brought to this county for safe keeping until they can be tried and sent to Chester.

—Such is one aspect of Johnson county, the home of the Smiths of the M. A. species, the Gibraltar of Reguleanism and of Prohibition in this Congressional District.

ACRES OF FLAMES.

Ten Acres of Lumber Consumed by Fire at Vincennes, Ind., and Still Burning.

Ten Horses and Mules With Mill and Stables, Also Help Feed the Flames.

Twenty-Two Buildings in the Business Part of Anoka, Minn., Fall a Prey to the Devouring Element.

Ten Acres of Flame. VINCENNES, IND., August 16.—Late last night a fire broke out in the Riverside Lumber Mills of Wiley Tindolph, and at last accounts ten acres of lumber were ablaze. The fire is no doubt of incendiary origin, as blazes were discovered simultaneously in the mill, stable, and lumber piles. Some boys put out the blazes in the mill, but the stable was destroyed, burning up ten horses and mules, about a million feet of lumber have been burned, and as the fire is beyond control, another million is doomed. Mr. Tindolph says he is fully covered by insurance. The lumber is worth $30,000. Fire was discovered at this same place one evening last week, but by information was suppressed. Though it is out of the city limits, the department is on hand, and will probably save the mill. This is the third time the Riverside Mills have been destroyed within five years by incendiaries.

Conflagration at Anoka, Minn.—Losses a Million Dollars.

ANOKA, MINN., August 16.—A fire started at two o'clock this morning in the skating rink and spread with alarming rapidity. The department, being unable to cope with the flames, telegraphed to St. Paul and Minneapolis for assistance, and special trains with engines started from both cities at daylight, and are now on the ground. Nearly the entire business portion of the city is already consumed, including the immense Washburn Mills, the Post-office block, First National Bank building and Hotel Chamberlain. The loss already reaches a million dollars. Twenty-two buildings were consumed, including the new opera-house just completed. Washburn's losses exceed $500,000.

A Confirmed Fire Bug.

EAST NASHVILLE, TENN., August 16.—A dozen fires, some of them serious, have occurred in East Nashville, Tenn., in the last few weeks. The last was the burning of the Nashville Coopers Company's works on Thursday night, entailing a loss of $60,000. J. McBrooks, arrested yesterday on another charge, has confessed to being the author of all the fires, claiming that he was irresistibly impelled by the love of witnessing large conflagrations. McBrooks burned a house in Knoxville thirteen years ago, for which he served ten years in the Penitentiary. He confesses that the night he was released he started two fires in Nashville, and it is almost certain that he originated two fires which occurred in the Penitentiary shops during his confinement, the loss at the least being between $200,000 and $300,000. He started another fire here last night beside the one mentioned above.

PROHIBITIONISTS' PERIL.

A Resort to Infernal Machines to Win the Fight for Whisky.

BURLINGTON, IA., August 16.—W. E. Blake has been prominent in the prosecution of saloon-keepers since the prohibitory law went into effect. At two o'clock yesterday morning his family were awakened by a loud explosion and a bright flash of lightning. The explosion was that of an infernal machine. To the fact that it was too ignominiously or too hastily prepared is due Mr. Blake's safety. It was of a lap-welded iron-boiler tube, about two and a half feet long and two and a half inches in diameter, hammered over and closed at one end. This was partly filled with giant powder and then an oil cloth cartridge about one inch in diameter and ten inches long was inserted, filled with nitro-glycerine or dynamite. By the side of this was an ordinary blasting fuse, most of which was burned. Whether the bomb was improperly packed or whether the explosion was premature, only burning the powder at the top is uncertain. But the deadly materials remaining leave no doubts as to the object of the person who manufactured the machine. The composition of the explosion consisted of sawdust and cotton saturated with crystals of nitre, which is accepted as evidence that nitro-glycerine formed the base of the compound. Mr. Blake says so far as he knows he has not a personal enemy in the world, and that in these late prosecutions in which he has been engaged every saloon-keeper has treated him personally with uniform kindness and respect, and he did not believe any one had any design upon his life or property.

Through a Tree.

WILLIAMSPORT, PA., August 16.—A freight train of the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad was crossing a trestle five hundred feet in length, when a car containing coal jumped the track, broke the trestle and fell to the bottom, dragging down thirteen other cars. On the train were John Reichelderfer, aged forty years, conductor, and James McCarty, aged twenty years, brakeman. Both were carried down. The conductor was struck by a piece of timber, knocked insensible and thrown into the creek. His injuries consist of three ribs and one leg broken, with other injuries, which makes his recovery doubtful. McCarty attempted to jump, but was caught and horribly crushed.

Returned the Fire and Killed His Father.

MANHATTAN, KAN., August 16.—Sherman Waters, son of Captain M. D. Waters, a well-known citizen, shot and killed his father yesterday. The young man, armed with a shot-gun, was just starting on a hunting excursion when his father ordered him to shoot a neighbor's dog. The boy refused and a quarrel ensued, whereupon the parent entered the house, returned with a pistol, and fired at his son, who returned the fire with his own.

FOREIGN NEWS.

England.

BEATEN AT LAST. LONDON, August 16.—A dispatch from Melbourne, Australia, says the race between Beach and Haulan at Parramatta for £50 a side was won by Beach by six lengths.

FRANCE AND CHINA.

LONDON, August 16.—In regard to the warlike reports from China, published this morning, inquiries to-day by reporters of the United Press failed to elicit anything confirmatory of such a state of affairs. At the Chinese embassies in Paris and London it was stated that nothing indicating that France and China were on the eve of hostilities had been received. The latest information at hand pointed to a probable peaceful solution of the difficulty. English Government officials, who would likely receive advance information of a possible rupture between France and China, say they have received no news that an immediate attack on Foo Chow is probable. Mr. Ferry said to-day that negotiations are proceeding quietly, and that in his opinion they would terminate peacefully.

France.

REITERATED. PARIS, August 16.—Le Motin this morning reiterates the report published yesterday that the Hovas had recaptured Tamatave while Admiral Motot was absent establishing outposts. In regard to the assertion of Prime Minister Ferry that Admiral Motot reports from Tamatave, August 5, that the condition of the French posts is satisfactory, it says, it is impossible for Tamatave news of the 9th to reach Paris by the 15th.

FRENCH PARLIAMENT PROCEEDED.

PARIS, August 16.—The French Parliament was prorogued this afternoon despite the protests of many deputies, who are desirous of obtaining more definite information regarding the negotiations with China.

Yellow Fever at Key West.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 16.—The Navy Department received yesterday from Commander Batchelder of the Galena at Key West, a dispatch stating that Ensign Cape Hart had been sent to the hospital with what was believed to be yellow fever. The vessel has been put in quarantine. The case was subsequently found to be a positive case of yellow fever. The Acting Secretary of the Navy telegraphed for Commander Batchelder to sail at once for the lower harbor at Portsmouth. The Galena sailed this morning, no new case having developed.

Saw Mill Explosion.

LA CROSSE, WIS., August 16.—The boiler of Holley's saw mill exploded this morning. Four men were injured, one fatally. Damage to the mill will reach ten thousand dollars.
