A CRY OF DISTRESS.

That Which Comes All the Way From the Newfoundland Fisheries.

The Greatest Failure in the "Catch" Known Since 1868—Only One-Third of the Average For Ten Years.

General Destitution and Great Suffering—The Quebec Government to the Rescue.

OTTAWA, ONT., October 9.—Further advices received from Newfoundland to-day state that the fisheries have not proved such failures since 1863, as this year. On the northern coast of Labrador, which belongs to Newfoundland, the catch has only been one-third of the average of the past ten years.

Reports of greater suffering and distress come from the southern portion of Canada, which belongs to the Province of Quebec. So great are the appeals for help, and so general the destitution that some delay has been caused, the Quebec Government not caring to undertake sending supplies until a full meeting of the Cabinet could be held.

Villard's successors endeavored to repudiate the lease, but the Judge decided that the lease holds good.

POLITICAL.

What the Brewers and Distillers Propose to Do at the Last Hour. WASHINGTON, D. C., October 9.—Following is a copy of a secret and confidential circular issued to all Ohio brewers and distillers. It was received here yesterday, and shows what the brewers are doing to defeat General Robison, who is alleged to be a temperance man:

CINCINNATI, O., September 30, 1884.—DEAR SIR: The Brewers' Association of Cincinnati propose that all the brewers in Ohio shall have tickets printed and distributed to customers and friends. The names of the Republican candidates for Secretary of State and of Judge of the Supreme Court shall be changed and in their places substituted the names of Democratic candidates for the same offices. On the rest of the ticket let every voter follow his own choice.

of the Prohibitionists—we must carry the Democratic ticket in October. By resorting to the same measure the brewers of New York, at the last State election, furnished similar tickets against a Prohibition candidate and defeated him. Very respectfully, EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE ANTI-BREWERS' ASSOCIATION. Signed, Henry Muhlhauer, George Gerke, Emilie Schmitt, Michael Schaller, John Goetz, Wm. Boss, John C. Bruckmann.

Letter Number Two.

DETROIT, MICH., October 9.—General Alger yesterday wrote Mr. Beecher as follows: DETROIT, MICH., October 8. The Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, Brooklyn, N. Y. DEAR SIR:—Confirming my impressions given in letter to you of yesterday's date, I have this day received the following cablegram from Mr. Joy:

LONDON, October 8. To Alger, Detroit:—I judge from New York telegrams Beecher who's miscollected conversation with me. No such talk as stated by them ever took place. [Signed] Joy.

of course I have no means of knowing the contents of the telegrams mentioned, but have no doubt but they give in substance your version of the matter. Now, reverend sir, I submit to you as a gentleman, after having received the hospitality of Mr. Joy in his own home, and when it is so evident that you are doing Mr. Joy, Mr. Blaine and the Republican party so great a wrong in the course you are pursuing, that it is your plain duty, in justice to all parties, as publicly to retract your statements as you have, in your zeal for the Democratic party and the Democratic nominee, spread them before the whole country. Especially so when you recollect there is no claim set up that Mr. Joy ever saw Mr. Blaine personally concerning the affair, but that the whole matter, whatever it was, came through third parties, who were doubtless trying to drive a sharp bargain without any knowledge or consent on the part of Mr. Blaine. [Signed] R. A. ALGER.

Marching Through Ohio.

ORVILLE, O., October 9.—Blaine spent the night at the residence of Major McKinley, in Canton. When he arose this morning at 8:30 he felt much relieved and in excellent spirits. The train left Canton for Columbus at nine. At Massillon Judge Tenney and Moody Boyington joined the party. Few persons were at the depot when the train stopped for a moment. Brief stops were made at Orville, Wooster, Londonville and Mansfield.

At Orville.

WOOSTER, O., October 9.—A crowd of 500 people greeted Mr. Blaine when the train arrived at Orville, Wayne County, at 9:40 a. m. Blaine was introduced and said: I was interested principally in stopping here because it gave me an opportunity of seeing my old friend and classmate, one whom I have known nearly forty years. I congratulate you on the deal I see in the Republican party in Ohio—deal which must result in success. I am especially glad to see great zeal in this Congressional district. If you are in favor of protection, you will certainly vote for Major McKinley, one of the most able advocates of protection in this country. I take great pleasure in bearing testimony to his value. His worth is before his constituents. My voice has become worth with much speaking, and I will ask my traveling companion, Judge Tenney, to speak to you. [Applause.] Three cheers were given as the train left.

THE OLD CHARGE ANSWERED.

And John Logan Says He Didn't. CHARLESTON, W. VA., October 9.—While Logan was speaking at Hinton, a small town on the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway, from the rear platform of a car, a man named Henry West went up in front of him and said: "General Logan, you raised the first rebel flag in Illinois, and I want to shake with you." "Who said I did?" asked Logan. "I don't know who, but I know you did it," was the reply. "You see a liar," excitedly exclaimed the general, and spat full in the man's up-turned face. The train then moved on and Logan, speaking of the matter to his friends, said he wished he had had his mouth full of tobacco juice, that he
