The Japanese Minister of War in New York. NEW YORK, December 2.—The revenue cutter William E. Chandler, at half past six yesterday morning steamed down the bay to meet the Cunard steamship Servia on which the Japanese Minister of War and his suite were expected.

Republican Senators in Caucus. WASHINGTON, D. C., December 2.—Immediately after the adjournment of the Senate yesterday a Republican caucus was held, at which a caucus committee was appointed to select Senators to fill the vacancies which exist on the several standing committees.

DEFEAT-D POOL. Cincinnati Merchants to be Boycotted in Consequence. NASHVILLE, TENN., December 2.—The Southern Steamship & Railway Association, representing the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis Railway, the Memphis & Charleston, the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, and all steamship lines from the Carolina and Georgia ports, met last week to confer with the general managers of the Cincinnati Southern Railway relative to freight rates between Cincinnati, Memphis and southern points.

Have Signed the Bill. PHILADELPHIA, PA., December 2.—The shoe manufacturers who have signed the bill of wages presented by the Turn Shoemakers' Assembly No. 934, Knights of Labor, of Philadelphia, which went into operation yesterday and continues for one year, are the following: Laird, Schober & Mitchell, W. Drisbach, T. Miles & Sons, Ogden & Markley, Sellers, Morgan & Co., Milton Phillips, Nelson & Shepley, Willis & Trask, W. S. Reeves, Kelly & Moore, Jacob Fisher, Duling & Watson, Sailer, Lewin & Co., H. Gardner, M. Elkins & Co.

City of Mexico, December 2.—As a result of the Presidential election held in this Republic on the 13th of last August, Porfirio Diaz was yesterday inaugurated President in a manner befitting his eminent services of "Liberator" and statesman. The inaugural ceremony and the accompanying public celebration was the most imposing event ever witnessed in this city. The oath was administered by President Diaz.

and after the conclusion of the ceremonies, retiring President Gonzalez gracefully made way for his successor, amid a storm of applause, the firing of cannon, and the ringing of bells. Subsequently the President was escorted by a civic procession, followed by the military to the palace, the joy of the people, and their confidence in Diaz being abundantly manifested.

THE TURF. Brighton Beach Races. NEW YORK, December 2.—The weather was bracing and the attendance good at Brighton Beach yesterday. The track was rather close and heavy.

First Race—For beaten horses, three-quarters mile: Modoc, first; Typhoon, second; Jersey Maid, third. Time, 1:20 1-2. Mutuels paid, $10.45.

Second Race—For beaten horses, three-quarters mile: Mollie B., first; Red Fox, second; Burgunda, third. Time, 1:21 1-4. Mutuels paid, $9.15.

Third Race—Selling allowances, one and one-half miles: Tisdorf, first; Leroy, second; Paterson, third. Time, 2:40. Mutuels paid, $19.05.

Fourth Race—For beaten horses, seven-eighths mile: Pericles, first; Richard L., second; Ruchel, third. Time, 1:38 1-4. Mutuels paid, $15.40.

Fifth Race—For non-winners since November 1st, one mile: Geo. Slingerley, first; Haledon, second; Hickory Jim, third. Time, 1:49. Mutuels paid, $16.

Beatty Embarrassed. TRENTON, N. J., December 2.—Vice-Chancellor Van Fleet yesterday granted a rule to show cause why an injunction should not issue against Daniel F. Beatty, the organ and piano manufacturer of Washington, N. J., restraining him from doing business; also that a receiver may be appointed to take charge of the affairs of the company. The application is made by E. F. Fanciey, of Shelbyville, Ill., for the benefit of himself and other creditors of Daniel F. Beatty.

Still a Losing Concern. ANNAPOLIS, MD., December 2.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Chesapeake & Ohio Canal was held here yesterday. The report of the President shows that the Chesapeake & Ohio is still a losing concern, the receipts for the year being $165,000, while the expenses reached $200,000. During the year a reduction of salaries amounting to $15,000 annually was made. On motion of Governor McLane, who represented the State stock, Colonel L. Victor Baughman, of Frederick, was elected President. The following Board of Directors was elected: Colonel J. G. Brevet, James A. L. McClure, Patrick Hamill, John Humbird, Stephen Watkins and R. A. Dobbins.

A General Shut-Down and Reduction. ELKTON, MD., December 2.—The extensive fertilizer works of D. Scott & Bro., of Elkton have shut down and discharged all their employees. This is the first time this ever occurred since the formation of the firm, fifteen years or more ago, and it throws out of employment a large number of men. Note of the iron or cotton mills on the creek near here are running on more than half steam. The Elk Cotton Mills have also shut down. The McCallough Iron Company have reduced the running hours to half the usual time.

Last of His Name. NEW YORK, December 2.—Abram C. Wortendyke, President of the Wortendyke Silk Manufacturing Company, at Wortendyke, Bergen County, N. J., died very suddenly on Saturday night. He was the last of a line of Wortendykes who have carried on manufacturing in his native village since early in this century. He leaves no brothers nor children to succeed him, and the probability is that the business will pass into other hands.

Neville's Condition. TOLEDO, O., December 2.—Bigamist Neville rested quietly last night, and there are no signs of immediate dissolution. When conscious he continually asks for Miss Whitney, saying he wishes to see her once before he dies. His orders are that his other Detroit wife should not be admitted to his cell, as he blames her for all his misfortune. His lawyers will demand a new trial.

Barnum and the Cabinet. NEW YORK, December 2.—Chairman William H. Barnum, C. J. Candia and Smith M. Weed were in conference at the Fifth Avenue Hotel yesterday morning. It was said afterward that Mr. Barnum is himself a candidate for Cabinet honors, if Connecticut is thus to be honored, and does not propose to be overlooked for Governor Waller, General Franklin, ex-Senator Eaton, or any other man.

Forty-Eighth Congress. Senate. WASHINGTON, D. C., December 2.—Mr. Sheffield, the new Senator from Rhode Island, was sworn in. The Vice-President laid before the Senate the reports of the Treasurer and the Comptroller of the Currency.

Senator Vest offered a resolution directing an investigation into all leases of lands in the Indian Territory for grazing purposes by the Indian tribes, the number acres embraced in the said leases, their terms and the persons or corporations becoming the lessees, also all the circumstances under which the leases were made, the means used in obtaining the leases, and whether they are authorized by law.

House. Mr. Wilson (of Iowa) presented the credentials of Smith, member-elect from the Seventh Iowa District, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. Kasson. Mr. Smith took the oath of office.

Mr. Follett, as a question of privilege, presented a preamble and resolution impeaching Lot Wright, United States Marshal for the Southern District of Ohio, of high crimes and misdemeanors in connection with the October election in Cincinnati.

Mr. Ketter made a point of order against the reception of the resolution, but the speaker overruled it, deciding that the resolution presented a matter of privilege, and the House could determine for itself how far the investigation should be proceeded with and what committee should have charge of it.

After long discussion the House adopted the resolution for the investigation. The House proceeded to the consideration of the later-Senate commerce bill. The discussion ran all day.

NAMED THE CULPRIT.

Supposed Author of the Chicago Bogus Election Tickets Found at Last.

Fatal Use of Knife and Gun—John T. Tewesse Arrested For Forgery—Fight With a Gang of Robbers.

Defalcations Amounting to $300,000 Discovered By Experts—The Swain Court-Martial.

Supposed Author of the Chicago Bogus Election Tickets Found.

CHICAGO, ILL., December 2.—A sensation was caused to-day by the publication of the fact that testimony before the Grand Jury connects the name of James C. Mackin, Secretary of all the Democratic Committees, with the alleged fraud in the Second precinct of the Eighteenth Ward. J. S. Thompson, an employe of the printing house that printed the bogus ballots, testified that the order for the work was given by Mackin personally. Mackin, who has been interviewed, denies Thompson's statement, and any complicity whatever in the fraud.

Fatal Use of the Knife and Gun—Two Dead. UPTON, KY., December 2.—A double murder was committed at the residence of Alexander Wells, colored, near here, at a dance Saturday night, in which Taylor Phillips and Kate Howard, both colored, were the victims. Phillips was asked for a few cents, which he refused. This angered Howard, who began carving Phillips with a knife, cutting him so badly that he ran out of the house and died. As Howard tried to make his escape he was shot in the back by Jim Phillips, a cousin of Taylor Phillips, and died in a few minutes. Jim Phillips is still at large.

Arrested For Forgery. DENVER, COLO., December 2.—John T. Dewesse, a well-known Denver attorney, was arrested last evening on a charge of forging the name of Albert N. Smith to a deed for real estate in this city. The prisoner gave bond. For several months Dewesse has been in St. Louis, and last winter was a very successful lobbyist in the Missouri Legislature. Dewesse has had a very checkered career. After the war he was a carpetbag member of Congress from North Carolina, and for several years has made his residence alternately in Denver, St. Louis and Kansas City.

Fight With Robbers. SAN ANTONIO, TEX., December 2.—An unknown man was robbed and murdered by a gang of thieves forty miles east of Clarksville. The gang was overhauled yesterday by a posse of officers thirty miles from the scene of the murder, when a fight ensued, and several of the gang were killed and another fatally wounded. Two of the pursuing party were dangerously wounded.

Heavy Defalcation. PHILADELPHIA, PA., December 2.—A report will soon be submitted in reference to the peculations by ex-clerks of the Gas Trust. For eighteen months experts have been examining the books to discover the sum of the defalcations, which are said to be nearly $300,000.

The Swain Court-Martial. WASHINGTON, D. C., December 2.—The Swain court-martial convened yesterday and refused to take another adjournment as requested by the defense. J. Stanley Brown, formerly private secretary to President Garfield, was examined and gave testimony similar to that given at the Court of Inquiry.

A DISGRACE TO BUFFALO. A Defenseless Old Man and His Daughters Stoned by Roughs. BUFFALO, N. Y., December 2.—The Rev. Geo. H. Ball, of this city, is having a hard time of it, and doubtless wishes the election was really over for him. Last night a gang of toughs surrounded his parsonage and pelted out the windows with chunks of coal. One large chunk was hurled into the sleeping apartment of his two daughters, frightening them badly. No arrests have yet been made.

Saved by a Kitten. NEWBURYPORT, MASS., December 2.—The house of Michael Dunn, on the outskirts of the city, was burned early yesterday morning, when the cries of a kitten awakened the family. The alarm was so sudden that the inmates had to flee for their lives. A son found in his trousers a watch and a watch stolen from his vest. Michael Dunn's trousers, containing money, were also stolen. It was undoubtedly a case of robbery and incendiarism.

An Insane Convict Cuts His Throat. JEFFERSON CITY, MO., December 2.—Geo. Graves, a convict at the penitentiary, cut his throat last night with a shoe-knife, from the effects of which he can not recover. He was sent here from Jasper County for grand larceny and was serving a second term. He was considered insane, and had been in the hospital for several months. He became insane during his first term of imprisonment and was taken from the Penitentiary to the lunatic asylum.

Shot Himself in the Head. PHILADELPHIA, PA., December 2.—Gustav Schwarz, of the firm of Koons, Schwarz & Co., commission merchants at 137 North Water street and 144 North Delaware avenue, attempted to commit suicide yesterday afternoon at his home by shooting himself in the head. No cause is assigned for the act. The wound is said to be of a fatal character.

The Bussard Gang. WEST CHESTER, PA., December 2.—A special from Lancaster last night says mounted troops from Goodville, Bowersville and Compassville, with a number from Caermarton left early yesterday morning in pursuit of the Welsh Mountain outlaws. Sunday night robberies were committed near Interoctra. A horse and buggy have been stolen from Miller King. The mountains were scoured and no trace of the outlaws was found.

party captured a crowd comprised of William Marshall and four colored men, in whose possession was found harness, jewelry, clothing and other articles. The posse with their prisoners are on their way to Lancaster Jail. It is reported by good authority that Abe Buzard, the leader of the gang, left the swamp in which the outlaws were cornered last Saturday and was seen going East on Sunday, armed to the teeth.

THROUGH A HOLE IN THE WALL. Illicit Love Behind Prison Bars, and What Came of It.

LANCASTER, PA., December 3.—At a meeting of the Prison Inspectors yesterday, it was revealed that Salome Whitman, a horse thief, and Frances Fisher, another notorious woman in the same cell, had made a hole through to the cell of Geo. Spangler and Thomas Sharpe, with whom they had constant communication. The female horse thief has made a confession of her guilt, which involves an illegitimate child as the result of this unheard of shame. The only action of the Inspector so far has been to censure the prison officials. The affair is the sensation of the hour.

Slight Claw to a Murderer. CAMBRIDGE, MD., December 2.—On Sunday the dead body of James H. Willen, aged forty was found near Finchville. His death was caused by a terrible gun-shot wound in the neck. The only clue to the murderer is the finding of the wadding used in the gun from which was fired the fatal charge. It consists of part of an envelope which had been addressed to some one at the El Dorado Post-office.

She Chanced to Get a Razor. SALEM, N. J., December 2.—Mrs. Ellen Chance, residing at Brickstown, Cumberland County, while laboring under a temporary fit of insanity, got possession of a razor and made a frightful gash across her throat before it could be taken from her. She is expected to die momentarily. Two of the unfortunate lady's sisters died insane.

A Fiend Hanged. SALEM, N. J., December 2.—The legal execution of Howard Sullivan, which took place at the County Jail this morning, was the closing act of a tragedy seldom equaled. The story of the crime is as follows: Ella Watson, on the night of the 18th of August, while proceeding to her home over a lonely road near Yorktown, was waylaid, robbed, ravished and murdered and her body concealed in some bushes near by, where it was discovered a few days after. Sullivan, upon the trial, pleaded guilty. Sullivan was executed at 11:29 this morning and died without a struggle.

Cut the Wires. PHILADELPHIA, PA., December 2.—Water street, between Market and Chestnut streets, was all day yesterday a labyrinth of tangled wires. Messrs. Harding, Britton & Co., grocers, were annoyed by the wires and especially by the tramping of workmen over their roofs, and Harding, one of the firm, employed a man to cut them down, and late at night down they came.

A Brakeman and Fireman Each Lose a Leg. KEOKUK, IA., December 2.—This morning while a C. B. & Q. engine was switching stock here, a switch was left open, and the Wabash Cannon Ball came rushing along and dashed into the pony engine, injuring H. L. Gregsby, brakeman, and Scott P. Ounds, the fireman. Both had their legs badly crushed. Each will lose a leg. The engines were considerably demolished.

Western River Improvement. WASHINGTON, D. C., December 2.—The River and Harbor Commissioners held a session this morning and considered the engineers' estimates briefly. The estimate for the Mississippi River from Cairo to the passes is $7,000,000; for the Mississippi from the mouth of the Ohio to the mouth of the Illinois, $1,000,000; from Des Moines to the Illinois River, $500,000; for the dry dock at Des Moines, $65,000; for the removal of snags on the Missouri River, $188,000; and for other work on the Missouri River, only $80,000, the general estimates for the Mississippi River being left to the new commission, which will send them in soon. In the State of Missouri the Gasconade River gets $20,000 and the Osage $5,000 in the estimate, all of which will, of course, be cut down materially.

LEMAN-BRAND. Governor Hamilton Awards the Certificate to Lemman. CHICAGO, ILL., December 2.—It is reported this morning that United States District Attorney Tutthill has prepared a report in the Lemman-Brand case, to be presented to Judge Blodgett, declaring that over 200 ballots were taken from the box and an equal number of fraudulent ones substituted, but that the Federal Court has no jurisdiction in the matter as the fraud was in connection with a State office, and urges that the State authorities take up the case and bring the guilty parties to justice. A dispatch from Springfield says that Governor Hamilton in a decision of 8,000 words, awarded the certificate to Lemman, Republican, thus making the Legislature a tie.

Journalistic. MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., December 2.—The Tribune of this city has changed hands. The new proprietors are A. J. Blitham, of the Kansas City Journal and W. E. Haskell, a son of E. B. Haskell, of the Boston Herald. The paper will be Republican.

Wholesale Discharges—Reduced Wages. NEW HAVEN, CONN., December 2.—The force of laborers on the consolidated railroad was yesterday reduced by the discharge of about 250 men. The laborers retained will have their wages reduced from $1.50 a day to $1.35. The hands in the company's shops yesterday started on the eight-hour schedule.

Man and Money Missing. BROOKLYN, N. Y., December 2.—Thomas R. Conant, Secretary of the A. & W. S. Carr Company, manufacturers of railway supplies, is missing, and is alleged to be a defaulter to the amount of $2,800. Mr. Conant disappeared several days ago, and his thoughts have been turned to the mountains.
