ELKS HAVE BIG DOIN'S TOMORROW

Grand Free Street Parade in Afternoon—Initiation and Banquet Follow

Globe lodge of Elks will have a big time tomorrow, beginning at 9 o'clock in the morning and ending at some indefinite time Saturday morning. In the words of the circus press agent, there will be something doing every minute and then some. The day has been set apart as Elks day and all of the business houses will close from 1 p. m. to 4 p. m.

The principal feature of the day will be a grand parade in which every Elk in Globe, whether a member of Globe lodge or any other, will have a part. There will be a vast array of silk hats and linen dusters and other features which will be kept secret until sprung on the unsuspecting public. It is known however that some twenty candidates for admission into Elkdom will furnish most of the amusement for the spectators in the parade, after which they will be properly trimmed in the lodge hall for the proper adjustment of the horns. Instruments of torture which were used in the days of the Spanish Inquisition have been imported from the old town of Tucson for this occasion and several boss billy goats have been brought in from surrounding goat ranches to assist the regular lodge goat.

The initiations will begin in the morning and last during the day and evening and vehicles will be furnished for the candidates who are otherwise unable to take part in the parade. The whole affair will wind up with a banquet. District Deputy Exalted Ruler O. C. Parker of Tucson will arrive here this evening and will take a prominent part in the doings.

RED DOMINO PLEASES ANOTHER LARGE CROWD

Ralph Riggs and his clever company again pleased a large house at the Dreamland theater last night, with "Red Domino," and many regrets were expressed that the company's stay in Globe was so limited. While not strong in numbers, the company is one of the best that has played in Globe and each member of the company is clever. Ralph Riggs, the young star, is a very versatile comedian and has an excellent chance of landing on Broadway in a short time, if he so desires. The company will be out with a new production next season and the Dreamland management has already spoken for a date.

CARKEET HEARING ON MURDER CHARGE SATURDAY

The preliminary examination of Albert Carkeet, one of the men charged with complicity in the murder of George Welch, the miner who was killed at Pinto Creek several weeks ago, has been set for Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The hearing of Clinton Rapier, who was arrested at the same time, has not been set. It is understood that the district attorney has secured additional evidence regarding the killing which will be brought out at Carkeet's hearing Saturday.

KNIGHTON IS SLATED FOR CHRISTMAS CAMP

Ever since the recent trouble at Christmas, Sheriff Thompson's staff of deputies have been sidestepping a detail to that camp. Deputy Pemberton had enough of it after killing a Mexican he was trying to arrest and none of the officers had any great hankering for the vacant place. Yesterday Sheriff Thompson decided to send Jack Knighton there after he returns from Winkelman and Jack will probably have an opportunity of demonstrating his fighting proclivities before long. It takes a fighting man to keep order at Christmas around pay day time and the company doctor will probably be kept somewhat busy mending broken heads after Knighton gets warmed up to the task.

COPPER METAL MARKET

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, April 17.—In London copper was £2 higher, with spot and futures quoted at 598 10s. Locally the market continues dull and there is more or less controversy over the proper quotations, some big producers claiming that the quotations commonly accepted are too low. Under the circumstances the prices given must be regarded as more or less nominal. Lake, 24.00 to 25.00; Electrolytic, 23.25 to 23.50; Casting, 22.50 to 23.00. Lead in London was 5s higher at £20 2s 6d. Locally the market was dull at 6.00 to 6.10. Spelter in London was unchanged at £75 10s. Locally unchanged at 6.70 to 6.80. Bar silver, 65%. #### Saved Strings Thirty-two Years

For thirty-two years Mrs. Sarah Herb of this place has been saving the string that has come into her home tied around store goods and winding them into a ball. The ball at present measures forty-five inches in circumference and weighs ten pounds. The string, if unwound, would stretch from Reading to Boyertown, a distance of eighteen miles. The solidity of the ball shows with what care the woman wrapped it. It is hard as a rock and feels like a bag of lead after being held for five minutes.

The Herb family was always small, otherwise the ball might have weighed fifty pounds or more by this time. A ball-fashioning machine could not have made the ball rounder than Mrs. Herb has done.—Reading, Pa., dispatch to the New York World.

Trials of a Woman Suffragist

Keir Hardie had a trying experience the other evening. Addressing a meeting mainly attended by the other side, he failed to get a hearing until the chairman said: "Gentlemen, if you will listen to Mr. Hardie quietly he will be happy to answer any question you may put to him at the end of his speech."

When the honorable member had resumed his seat a question written on half a sheet of note paper was sent up to Mr. Hardie, and passed by him unopened to the chairman, who read it and grew very red in the face. "Read it out!" roared a dozen men, and the chairman at last obeyed. The question was "Why do they call you a Gibson girl?" It finished the meeting.—Owlhook.

Pointed Paragraphs

Many a bluff refuses to come when it is called. A back stoop may be all right—when it isn't on your shoulders. How frequently has a large hope been erected on a small foundation! And the man who knows it all never fails to tell just a little more. A changeable climate is all right as long as it can be changed for a better one. Get on the sidetrack when you meet men who point with pride or view with alarm. Did you ever notice what a lot of friends you haven't got when you happen to need one?—Chicago News.

Photos of Feasters

At nearly all of the large dinners this year a flashlight photograph has been taken of the feast, photographs being developed and ready for the diners by the time the dinner has been over. Such a thing has not been allowed before by the places where the big dinners were held. That such photographs have been taken this year has been due to an ingenious contrivance which the flashlight man now has for collecting the smoke. This is a large inverted baglike arrangement into which the smoke ascends and is caught so successfully that not a vestige can be detected afterward. Now the flashlight man, instead of being tabooed, seems to be one of the adjuncts of the large public dinners.—New York Sun.
