

FORMAL OPENING TER-CENTENNIAL

Day of Beginning of Jamestown Exposition Is Crowded with Many Incidents.

CROWD THREATENS TO CRUSH REVIEWING STAND

President Forced to Call on People to Behave and Troops Help Him—Greatest Naval Review in Recent Years.

By Associated Press.

NORFOLK, Va., April 26.—President Roosevelt, the diplomats, naval and military representatives of foreign nations and the governors of scores of states participated today in the opening exercises of the Jamestown Tercentennial exposition. The exposition is far from complete, but this was not allowed to interfere with today's celebration of the three hundredth anniversary of the first English settlement in America.

From the firing of the sunrise salute of three hundred guns by the United States army, through the picturesque review of the international fleet of war vessels anchored in Hampton roads, through the ceremonies of dedication at which the president spoke, down to a late hour tonight, when the chief executive went aboard the naval yacht Sylph to spend the night, the day was crowded with notable incidents.

Spectators in Panic

Chief among the day's events was the action of the president in assuming command of the situation in front of the crowded grand stand from which he spoke when a panic seized the surging throng of spectators. Pressed against the guard ropes by thousands of eager persons, the safety of those who had more favorable positions was endangered.

The president had just been introduced by Harry St. George Tucker, the head of the exposition company, when the disorder and unrest reached its height and the civil guards in front of the grand stand seemed about to be swept from their posts. The president jumped on a table which had been placed on the speaker's balcony and cried out to the men of Virginia to live up to the traditions of gallantry and cease the pushing and crowding which was threatening the lives of the women and children in the assemblage. The crowd heeded the president's warning, but when he had settled down into his speech, the immense audience became uneasy again and those on the outskirts began to press forward in their anxiety to hear.

Cavalry Is Called

The president was interrupted and mounted officers and men of the United States cavalry were called in to take charge. They rode up and down along the front of the crowd and gradually relieved the pressure which at one time threatened to hurl an avalanche of humanity against the president's stand and the boxes occupied by diplomats.

A detachment of artillerymen was also called into service and thousands of people settled into a peaceful assemblage. Apparently oblivious to the unusual situation he occupied on top of a somewhat shaky table, the president made his speech. The impromptu and unsteady platform did not interfere in the slightest degree with the characteristic vigor of his delivery. Some of his remarks, noticeably when he touched upon the subject of the recent peace congress in New York, were addressed to the representatives of the many nations of the world, others were emphasized to the soldiers and sailors and other thoughts directed toward the general public.

The military camped about the exposition grounds began the day's ceremonies with the firing of a three-century salute. Soon from across the waters of Hampton Roads came the boom of guns signalling the beginning of the review by the president of the most formidable fleet of international battle-ships and cruisers the world has witnessed in many years.

President Saluted

On board the yacht Mayflower the president was greeted first by a round of twenty-one guns from each of the vessels, foreign and American. Then, as the Mayflower steamed along the lane of men-of-war, he was saluted individually by every battleship and cruiser anchored in the roadstead.

When the yacht had anchored amidst the naval line the president received aboard the flag and commanding officers of the foreign fleets and home squadrons. Among those who called was Admiral Sir George Neville, commanding the British cruiser squadron; Commodore Kalau Von Hofe, commanding the German cruisers; Commodore Hermann Von Plezscot, commanding the Austrian ships and the commanding officer of the Argentine ship Sarmiento.

The hospitality of the nation was extended by the president, who in turn received many expressions of esteem in which he personally and the American people are held by foreign nations.

Lands at Exposition

The president landed on the exposition grounds shortly after 11 o'clock. The immense government pier undergoing construction are still many weeks from completion and it was with difficulty that the way was cleared for

EL PASO POLICE CATCH MURDERER

Believed that They Have One of the Mexicans Who Killed Plunkett and Kennedy.

MURDER AT LIVINGSTONE ALMOST TWO YEARS AGO

Thought that Martinez, Arrested in Pass City, Is One of Men Who Worked for the Ranchers Before the Crime.

By Associated Press.

A telegram was received at the sheriff's office yesterday from El Paso stating that Ricardo Martinez, suspected of being one of the two Mexicans who murdered Plunkett and Kennedy, the Livingstone ranchers, almost two years ago, had been captured in that city. The telegram was from Chief of Police Campbell, who wished to be advised if the man was wanted here. Sheriff Thompson immediately wired for detailed information of the capture and for a description of the man, and if a satisfactory reply is received, an officer will be sent for Martinez tomorrow, if extradition proceedings will be waived by the Mexican. Sheriff Thompson believes that Martinez is one of the two men who worked for Plunkett and who after the crime disappeared.

Plunkett and Kennedy were murdered on July 12, 1905, the crime being one of the most bloody in the history of the county, being surpassed only by the recent Roosevelt tragedy. The bodies of both men were found badly bruised and lacerated and it was later learned that robbery had been the motive. Six arrests were made for the crime at different times, but only one man came to trial. He was Felipe Sanchez, who after being kept in jail for many months was liberated last fall.

All Suspects Freed

Cruz Morelos and Esquivel Rivera, who were arrested in the southern part of the territory as suspects, were brought to Globe, but eventually discharged. Later Christopher Gonzalez was arrested at Alamogordo, N. M., and it was thought that he was the right man. He was indicted by the grand jury, but no conviction could be obtained. Anacion Samanica was arrested in February, 1906, but he was also discharged. Panteleon Ortega, who conducted a saloon in Globe, was arrested shortly after the crime as an accessory, as there was strong evidence that he assisted the murderers to escape, but again lack of evidence resulted in a dismissal.

Several months after the crime was committed it was learned that two Mexicans strongly suspected of the crime were employed at Minas Prietas, a Sonora mining camp. Former Captain Rynning of the rangers went there to secure the men, but both had gotten wind of his coming and had fled to some camp farther south. Martinez, the man arrested at El Paso, is believed to be one of these men.

SHOOT HIMSELF ON OCEAN LINER

Former Railroad President Sui-cides While at Sea—Bad Health Assigned

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 26.—David Wilcox, former president of the Delaware & Hudson railroad, committed suicide at sea last Wednesday while a passenger on the North German Lloyd steamer Barbarossa, according to a report made by the captain tonight.

The Barbarossa arrived at quarantine this evening from Genoa and Naples. Upon arrival of the liner it was reported that Wilcox died of heart failure. As it was known that he was in ill health and had gone abroad recently in the hope of recuperating, it was no great surprise to his friends to learn that he had succumbed.

Subsequent investigation, however, according to the captain, developed evidence that Wilcox had shot himself. Wilcox recently, because he had not secured benefit in health, cabled his resignation of the presidency, which was accepted by the directors, who chose as his successor Leonard F. Lore, former president of the Baltimore & Ohio.

SALT LAKE MAYOR PREVENTS A STRIKE

By Associated Press.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, April 26.—There will be no strike of the employees of the Utah Light & Railway company. Mayor Thompson, acting as peace maker, secured the consent of President Bancroft of the company to arbitrate the wage question with the men and later to arbitrate other questions at issue. This was satisfactory to the men tonight at a meeting of the company employees held to ratify the agreement.

MORE ARRESTS FOR SMUGGLING

Indiscriminate Arrest of Americans Cause Indignation at Nogales

By Associated Press.

NOGALES, Ariz., April 26.—Yesterday Conductor Alvarez of the Guaymas train was arrested at Nogales, Sonora, on a warrant from the Hermosillo judge charging him with complicity in the general smuggling of arms and ammunition into Sonora. He is held in the jail on the Mexican side awaiting trial.

This afternoon Rafael Gourden, the prescription clerk at Saldamido's drug store, on the American side, was arrested on the Mexican side by customs officials and put in jail.

No formal charge has yet been placed against him. These frequent indiscriminate arrests by Mexican officials in many cases of persons afterwards proven entirely innocent, are causing great indignation.

SCOUT WHO ATE HUMAN FLESH DIES

Alfred Packer, Known as Man-eater, Was in Prison for Murder of Five in 1873

By Associated Press.

DENVER, Colo., April 26.—The body of Alfred Packer, known as the "man-eater," whose death occurred last Wednesday in a cabin in Deer Creek canyon, was brought to Littleton today for interment. Packer, who was an army scout, started to guide a party of five men from Salt Lake City to New Mexico in 1873. They became lost in the mountains where the snow was six feet deep and Packer alone survived. The bodies of the other five men were found later. One body was dismembered. Packer disappeared but was captured in 1883. He was convicted of murdering his five companions and was sentenced to forty years imprisonment.

Packer always declared his innocence of the murders. He claimed that in his absence from the camp one of his companions killed the other four men and on his return attempted to kill him with a hatchet, but he shot the man. Packer admitted that in order to keep from perishing he ate some of the flesh of the dead men. He was released on parole in 1901.

Carmody and Harry Sullivan, the two men arrested last night.

The police have not yet found any of the other five men accused by McCarthy.

GOOD PROGRESS IN RUEF CASE

Nine Men in the Jury Box, Five of Them on Probation—Adjourn to Monday

By Associated Press.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 26.—More progress was made today in getting a jury to try Ruef on the charges of extortion than on any of the previous days of that seemingly endless task yet undertaken. When adjournment was ordered to Monday the number of jurors in the box had been increased from five to nine. Five of these, however, may be dismissed by the exercise of peremptory challenges.

The venire of seventy-five talesmen this morning was quickly reduced to thirteen by excuses and by absence. Of the former there were forty-nine and of the latter thirteen. Seven talesmen were examined during the day. Four withstood the qualification tests and took their seats as probationary jurors. The other three disqualified themselves and were excused. It is thought likely that still another venire will have to be issued by Judge Danne before the jury is completed.

He was subject to fainting fits and it is believed that an attack of this sort caused him to fall into the water. The body has not been recovered.

RANDOLPH SUES FOR BIG AMOUNT

Another Suit for Recovery of Cananea Central Stock Is Filed in Los Angeles.

MAY DEVELOP SENSATIONS AT THE HEARING TODAY

Arizonan Alleges Conversion of Funds by Lindsay, and Cole Is Implicated—Quarter of a Million Is at Stake.

By Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 26.—Colonel Epes Randolph, president of the Harriman lines of Arizona and New Mexico, today brought suit against Lycurgus L. Lindsay of this city for the recovery of $2,250,000, alleging conversion of funds obtained in the sale of stock of the Cananea Central Mining company, located in Mexico.

Interested in the suit are Thomas F. Cole, the copper magnate of Duluth, and W. W. Esterbrook of Nashua, N. H., the latter being Lindsay's mining partner and the defendant in a separate action.

Stripped of legalities, the complaint alleges that Randolph was victimized by his associates in a mining transaction in which he acted as agent for the sale of the property, which netted the defendants $2,250,000 in cash. Randolph alleges that he executed two notes, each of $25,000, which were given to the defendants, Esterbrook and Lindsay, in full payment of fifty thousand shares of stock in the company. The stock was retained as collateral for the notes, which are due in January, 1908. He further alleges that the stock has materially increased in value since the payment was made by Cole and his associates of $2,000,000, the balance due on the property. Randolph now alleges that on April 18 the notes were returned by the defendant Lindsay without comment and that his stock had been sold. According to Randolph the stock has never been transferred and still remains in his name on the books of the company.

The hearing, which promises sensational developments, is scheduled for tomorrow.

MAY DISCLOSE A BIG CONSPIRACY

Wall Street Scandal to Result from Theft of Bonds from Trust Company

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 26.—The district attorney's office tonight succeeded in delaying for another day publicity concerning the details of the conspiracy through which the Trust Company of America was robbed of bonds, the aggregate value of which is known only to the persons directly interested. The authorities denied that a third person yet to be named publicly was involved and that another arrest is imminent. Oakley Thorn, president of the Trust company, said that his bank would not lose more than the $140,000 required to reimburse brokers who innocently accepted the stolen bonds as security. No bonds are now missing, he said. Jerome declared tonight that he would say nothing for publication. Attorneys for W. O. Douglas, the loan clerk, and O. M. Dennett, the broker, now in custody, the former charged with the larceny of $50,000 worth of bonds and the latter with receiving the stolen goods, refused to discuss the matter. This persistent secrecy has given color to the report that the prisoners may turn state's evidence and reveal a Wall Street plot of large proportions. Both Dennett and Douglas dictated statements at the district attorney's office today. When they concluded the prosecution refused either to make public statements or give a hint of their import.

There were seven in the gang and all were arrested.

LIE PASSED BETWEEN OPPOSING ATTORNEYS

Judge Forced to Interfere when Defendant's Attorney Insinuates that Prosecutor Is an Ananias Club Candidate.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The question of whether Binger Hermann, former member of congress and former commissioner of the land office, is guilty of the destruction of public records, was placed in the hands of the jury this afternoon at the conclusion of the twelfth week of the trial.

Argument in the case culminated in the lie being passed between opposing counsel. Justice Stafford administered a severe reprimand, saying that he should regard any further colloquy between counsel as contempt of court and would act accordingly.

The incident which aroused the ire of Attorney Worthington for the defense was the reference made by Prosecutor Baker to the testimony of Mrs. Hermann, wife of the defendant. Baker asked the jury if they noticed Worthington's face when Mrs. Hermann was asked if she had discussed with any one the testimony she was to give.

Called a Liar

"Do you mean to insinuate that I in any way signalled to the witness during the testimony. If you do it is absolutely a lie," interjected Worthington with much heat.

"Oh," replied Baker, "I simply mean your face turned red—that you blushed."

"That is false," shouted Worthington. Mr. Baker concluded with a scathing denunciation of the defendant, saying that after six years of dishonesty as commissioner of the land office, he had destroyed thirty-five letter press books to conceal the traces of his dishonesty. Upon receiving the charge the jury at once retired. Justice Stafford, after waiting more than an hour and receiving no sign of a conclusion, then went home.
