YOUNG MINER DIES

T. J. Turner Succumbs After Operation for Abscess of the Liver

T. J. Turner, a well known young miner, died at the Old Dominion hospital yesterday morning, death being caused by an abscess of the liver for which he underwent an operation on Friday. He was 29 years of age and unmarried. The deceased came here from Creede, Colo., some time ago and was a member of Globe Miners union No. 60, which will have charge of his funeral tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock. Since he was a small child Mr. Turner made his home with Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Belcher, who reside in Globe, and at the time he was taken ill he was employed in Mr. Belcher's mine.

DEFECTIVE SWITCH IS CAUSE OF FATAL WRECK

By Associated Press. PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 22.—One man was killed and ten passengers injured this afternoon when the New Haven accommodation train on the Monongahela and Youngbushen division of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad was badly wrecked in the yards at the foot of South Twenty-first street. Joseph Wright, conductor, of West Newton, Pa., was killed. An unknown foreigner, suffering with a fractured skull, will die.

A defective switch is thought to have caused the accident.

FOREST FIRE IN THE GRAHAM MOUNTAINS

Passengers arriving last evening report forest fires in the Graham mountains, which can be clearly seen from the railroad. Some state that it looks as though the mountain were in eruption and that the fire has already covered a considerable area. The fire so far is confined to what is known as the Little Gramms, which are practically uninhabited.

Matinee at the Iris

The best comedy bill yet will be shown. Go to the matinee today. There will be a crowd tonight.

Iris Has the Best Show Yet

The program at the Iris was changed last night and the house was crowded to the doors at both performances. Every one pronounced the show the best yet shown at this house. Every picture was applauded and the two great comedy pictures, "The Terrible Kids" and "The Electric Belt," kept the audience in a roar of laughter. "The Electric Belt" is the best comedy yet shown at the Iris.

Charles Smith made a hit with his song, "When You Know You're Not Forgotten by the Girl You Can't Forget." Mr. Keith sang the chorus from the back of the house and they were obliged to repeat it three times.

This program will be shown tonight for the last time. The fans were running and kept the house cool and comfortable throughout the performance.

Manager Keith announced that there will be a matinee today at 3 p. m. and every day hereafter.

If the Iris keeps the program up to the standard set last night the house deserves the patronage of the amusement loving people of Globe.

Commencing Tuesday night at Dreamland for four nights Professor Steele will give his unparalleled exhibition of acrobatic skating and chair jumping.

District Court News

In the suit of Philip Oates and Dr. Wightman against W. R. Norton for debt, judgment was rendered the plaintiffs for $105. The case of Goswick vs. Van Winkle, an appeal from the justice court, was decided in favor of the plaintiff. The suit involved a team of horses.
