Judge Nave Renders Decision Against Smelters in the Famous Tailings Suit—All Graham Banks on Certificate Plan Except the Gila Valley.

Special to the Silver Belt.
SOLOMONVILLE, Ariz., November 12.—The results of the two weeks of court just closed here were eighteen men sent to the penitentiary at Yuma. Probably three-fourths of the convictions were for gun and knife plays, a highly favorite pastime among the Mexican population. In several instances these attacks ended in murder being committed and the trials were for murder. The sheriff and his deputies have taken the last of the mournful delegations to Yuma, thus relieving the county jail, which was crowded to its full capacity.

For many years the question of whether or not the mining companies had the right to deposit tailings in the streams to the detriment of irrigation water has been agitated in this county and last week the first judicial opinion was rendered. After May 1, 1908, the companies in the Clifton-Morenci district are enjoined from polluting the San Francisco river in any way. At Clifton the Arizona Copper company runs its refuse matter directly from the smelters into the stream, the deposits aggregating hundreds of tons daily. It will require a large outlay in order to obviate this and probably the smelters will have to be moved to another location. An appeal to the supreme court has been taken.

Both the elements and the financial slump are working something of a disadvantage in this valley. Hay, which a few weeks ago was in great demand at $13 per ton is now slow sale at $9 and $10 per ton and in addition the cold, damp weather has practically ruined the last cutting of the alfalfa crop. However, on the whole, the season has been very profitable and satisfactory and little of complaint is heard.

All of the banks of this county are operating on the certificate plan except the Gila Valley Bank & Trust company of this town. The plan is causing no great inconvenience except to persons who desire to travel, they finding it difficult to obtain cash for railway tickets. It is said that numerous persons who desired to visit the territorial fair were unable to do so on that account.

PAYS FOR PONIES; WILL HE GET BRIDE?

Carlisle Indian Maid a Figure in a Romance of Brave of the Utes

DENVER, Colo., November 12.—Unsuccessful in the suit to win the hand of an Indian maiden who is in the Carlisle Indian school, Charlie Red Horse, whose name in the Ute language is unpronounceable, sat in the Union depot awaiting the departure of the east-bound train, having in his pocket a scrawled letter from the girl's parents on the New Mexican Ute reservation telling that the girl had been sold to him for the sum of four ponies. The question now arises—Charlie has evidently overlooked it—whether or not the girl who has enjoyed four years' schooling at Carlisle will be willing to marry him simply because the Indian went through the primeval custom of handing over four ponies to the girl's parents, who are in need of stock.

There is much of Indian romance connected with the story of Charlie and his fair Ute maiden of Carlisle, whose name he pronounced in the Ute language, but did not know the English interpretation. Both were children together on the reservation years ago. The girl was placed in the Carlisle school when she was 15 years old, while Charlie was appointed one of the Indian police on the reservation. When Charlie concluded that it was about time for him to marry he began looking for a bride among the maidens of the Utes on the reservation, and finding none whose beauty compared with she who had gone to the Indian school years before, he concluded that he must win the affections of the girl at Carlisle. Consequently, two months ago he went to the school, obtained a hearing with the girl, received no encouragement, and concluded that the best thing for him to do was to work in the American way and win the sanction of the prospective parents-in-law. In consequence he hurried up the poor and aged parents of the girl and set about winning their sanction to his marriage with their daughter.

MINING DEAL INVOLVING THREE MILLIONS REPORTED AT YUMA

CINCINNATI PARTIES BUY THE NORTH STAR GROUP RECENTLY BONDED BY MAYHEW

YUMA, Ariz., November 12.—Reports are current to the effect that the Rodgers brothers have sold the North Star group for $3,000,000. The price probably is fictitious, but J. E. Black, who returned from the Kofa district last night, says that credence is placed in the rumored sale. Cincinnati people have had the property experted twice within a few weeks.

This is the old Mayhew strike bonded by Mayhew, Larsen and Corsica to the Rodgers brothers of New York for $500,000. Three months ago fabulously rich ore was found in the North Star shaft and since then several men who were dismissed are reported to have been under suspicion either of high-grading or of giving out reports concerning the value of the ore, which was said to be worth $1.50 a pound.

Tabulates Joys of Wedded Life.

If any of the 100 residents of Chicago recently invited to an anniversary party on November 7 hesitated to accept it was not because they were unacquainted with information on the condition of servitude, past and present of the hosts. Frank Baum, well known to the young citizens as Father Goose, and Mrs. Baum celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary on that date and issued invitations in booklet form. It contains in addition to the announcement of the party, a record of the married life of the hosts which is excellent. The marriage certificate is reproduced in full, signed by the 162 guests at the wedding, and is re-inforced by the following record of their married life:

Resided in Syracuse, N. Y., Aberdeen, S. Dak., and Chicago—the latter for sixteen years.

Raised four boys, smart as the average.

Quarreled just a few.

Wife in tears three times. (a) When cat died. (b) When bonnet was spoiled. (c) When she had a sore toe.

Husband swore 167 times.

Wife swore none.

The swearing of the husband is accounted for on the grounds that he was notary public for four years.

Causes for jealousy—none.

Broke occasionally.

Bent often.

Unhappy none.

Future prospects good.

Failed to Ask Her in English.

A pleasant-faced woman, cleanly and well-dressed, occupied a seat on the immigrant train over the Pennsylvania Railroad today. Interpreter and passengers tried to converse with her in a dozen languages, but she only looked puzzled. "What time does this train reach Braddock?" she asked the conductor in perfect English when the train reached Altoona. Her traveling companions had failed to talk English to her, the only language she knew.—Altoona (Pa.) Dispatch to the Philadelphia Record.

Mysteriously Loses Power of Speech.

Physicians at the Williams Hospital have been trying in vain to learn the cause for the unusual ailment that has left Rudolph Gross, eighteen years old, of 141 Stockton street, Williamsburg, without the power of speech. He also has been unable to sleep for almost three days. The physicians say the boy is suffering from a form of aphasia, but the case is very puzzling.

Gross has not spoken or slept since Sunday. He went to visit relatives on Sunday night and sat in a rear room. When his relatives spoke to him he did not answer, but seemed in a daze. He sat in the one position all night and on Monday could not be aroused.—New York Herald.

You can't be well if you have a weak, unhealthy, tired out stomach. Neither can you feel good if by some little irregularity in eating you have caused the stomach to get out of order. These little stomach troubles are signs of indigestion, which may and very often does turn into a very bad case of dyspepsia. Don't allow them to go on a single day without doing something to overcome it. Take some good, reliable and safe digestant like KODOL for dyspepsia. KODOL is the best remedy known today for heartburn, belching and all troubles arising from a disordered digestion. It is pleasant to take and affords prompt relief. Sold by Hanna's Drug Store.
