SHORT STORIES OF THE CITY

Pair of Big Yams—J. W. Braddock, one of the best known farmers in the Salt river valley, has sent to the Silver Belt two yams as large as California pumpkins, which fairly represent a large patch, all so far taken from the earth being of equal size, and some much larger than the specimens sent to this office. There is a strong probability that if the section had experienced a late fall that the "sweets" would have attained a size equal to that of a hoghead.

For Prospective Citizens—Applications for citizenship will be heard in the United States court next Tuesday by Judge Nave. Announcement to this effect was made in court yesterday and all those who have declared their intention of becoming citizens will appear in court then. Five applications have so far been received.

City Feels Stringency—At the regular weekly meeting of the city council held last evening, it was decided to pay all claims against the municipality by cash and warrant. Claims presented last evening were principally for salaries of city officials and amounted to something over $1,800. It was decided to pay 75 per cent cash and the remainder by warrants, which will be called in as the revenue comes into the treasury. City Treasurer Elliott reported that there was a little over $1,500 in the treasury. The city has over $6,000 in the Globe National bank and when that institution suspended, the city opened an account with the First National bank.

Interesting Trial Today—The damage suit of John Hall against the Gila Valley railroad will be tried in the district court today. Hall was injured by being thrown from a motor car about a year ago and is suing for $10,000. He will be represented in court by Judge A. C. Baker of Phoenix and Senator J. S. Ives and Wiley E. Jones will look after the interests of the railroad company.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

E. W. De Langton of Atlanta, Ga., is registered at the Dominion.
J. F. Ketcherside of Young is spending a few days in the city on business.
William Buckingham, traveling representative for the Fairbanks-Morse company, is a visitor in the city.
E. B. Fatman, the well known El Paso drummer, came in on last evening's train for a few days with the local trade.
Dr. W. E. Platt, a prominent citizen of the Gila valley and president of the Graham county state bank, is a visitor in the city from Safford.

A. T. Colton, of Safford, is in the city on business before the United States grand jury. Mr. Colton is United States commissioner at Safford.

Senator Eugene S. Ives of Tucson, chief counsel for the Randolph lines, arrived in the city last evening and will spend several days here on legal business.

Morris Simon, proprietor of the El Paso store, Safford, and one of the most up-to-date and enterprising business men in the valley, is transacting business in the city.

A. L. Harris, assistant engineer of the reclamation service, who has been connected with the Roosevelt project almost since it was commenced, is a business visitor in the city.

B. A. Fowler, president of the Salt River Valley Water Users Association, arrived in the city last evening from Phoenix on business in the district court connected with the association.

T. L. Herrmann, attorney for the Lewisohn syndicate, was an arrival in the city from New York last evening. This is not Mr. Herrmann's first visit here as he was in Globe last March when the Lewisohns were contemplating the purchase of the Inspiration mine.

A Photographic Novelty
Printing from real spiders' webs is a photographic novelty. The web is sprayed with a solution of size as it hangs on the garden fence, and is then lifted off by placing a plate behind it. The web sticks hard and fast to the plate, which can ultimately be used for printing pictures of a spider's web. By the combination method many curious photos can be obtained, one of the strangest being that of a child apparently held tightly in the web.—Pearson's Weekly.

A New Definition.
A rather cynical joke has been recently credited to Senator Platt. The senator on his last visit to the Manhattan Beach hotel allowed a pretty little girl, a western millionaire's daughter to be presented to him. The little girl in the course of one of her many delightful chats with the aged statesman, said:
"Tell me, won't you senator, what political economy is?"
"Political economy, my dear child, is the art of never buying more votes than you actually need."—Washington Star.

BURGESS FOUND GUILTY MURDER SECOND DEGREE

Jury Makes Recommendation for Mercy and Sentence Will Be Passed Today.

Wesley Burgess, the colored barber of Lower Pinto Creek, who was tried for the murder of Juan Cabrera, was yesterday found guilty of murder in the second degree, by the jury which was out all night. The verdict contained also a recommendation to the court for mercy for the convicted man. The jury which took the case late Wednesday afternoon did not agree upon a verdict until shortly before the noon recess yesterday. Burgess will be sentenced this morning when court opens.

Helena Mendoza, indicted for murder, pleaded not guilty yesterday morning and her trial was set for December 13. In the case of the territory against Lennie Harris, indicted for robbery, the prosecution admitted the absence of the principal witness against Harris and on motion of District Attorney Henry, the jury which had been empaneled to try his case, was ordered by the court to return a verdict of not guilty.

The trial of Jose Castro Dorego, charged with the larceny of a piece of retorted gold on Lower Pinto Creek, occupied most of the afternoon. The jury returned a verdict of guilty of petty larceny, the value of the stolen metal not having been made clear. J. M. McCollum defended Dorego.

SENTENCED FOR SELLING BOOZE TO NATION'S WARDS

Athway and Gonzales, Who Pleaded Guilty, Draw Six Months in Jail and $100.

In the United States court yesterday P. P. Athway and Nuevas Gonzales, who on Tuesday pleaded guilty to indictments charging them with selling liquor to Indians; were each sentenced by Judge Nave to pay a fine of $100 and to imprisonment for six months in the county jail.
No pleas have as yet been taken in the cases of the parties indicted for violating the Edmunds act. Upon being arraigned yesterday, Thomas Smith and Edna Earl were given until today to answer. They will be represented by Judge J. M. McCollum. William Green and Bertha Reed, indicted for a similar offense, will also answer the indictment today. They have retained Attorneys Stoneman and Jacobs to defend them.

Muldoon Has Rival in Fitzsimmons
The laurels gained by Muldoon, the ex-wrestler, who treated Secretary of State Root at his sanitarium, are now threatened by Bob Fitzsimmons, the ex-pugilist. Mr. Fitzsimmons believes that the strenuous sanitarium will be all the rage soon, and intends to get in line.

In outlining his plans today, Fitzsimmons said:
"I've got a fifty-acre place at Dunellen, N. J., between Plainfield and Bound Brook. The way the newspapers advertised Muldoon because Secretary Root was stopping there showed me that I would make a hit by opening a strenuous sanitarium of my own at Dunellen."
"I have drawn up plans for a fifty-room plant with an immense gymnasium. The contractors are at work now and as soon as they are through I will quit the show business."—Worcester dispatch to the New York Times.

RAILROAD CHANGES

Phoenician Pleaded to Learn of Landis' Recall to That City.
The Phoenix Republican says of the changes recently made in the local Gila Valley railroad office:

On December 1, L. H. Landis will resume his former duties as general agent for the Southern Pacific in this city and return from Globe, where he has held a similar position a short time. His return to this city is due to the quiet conditions in Globe, business being almost at a standstill compared to the briskness of the past summer. Mr. Landis has been with the Gila Valley, Globe and Northern railroad.

George Mank, who has been his chief clerk, will attend to the duties of general agent at Globe, following Mr. Landis' return to Phoenix. Mrs. Landis is now in Cleveland with her father who is not well since the death of Mrs. Dellanbaugh. Mr. Landis has a host of friends who will be glad to hear of his return to this city. The announcement of the change was made yesterday by M. O. Birknell, traveling passenger and freight agent.

The change will cause some shifting about in the local offices. Mr. Gattor and Mr. Tretheway will take the positions they occupied before Mr. Landis was transferred to Globe, that of city passenger and ticket agent and assistant, respectively. Both have made excellent and well liked officials, but the necessity for the change of Mr. Landis will also involve a moving back to the old haunts. Mr. Page will probably be given a position with the company at some other point.

The name of Hanna on a box or bottle of medicine is positive assurance of purity, accuracy and reliability.

IT INSURES you getting what you asked for when you gave your order at the drug counter.

How to Frighten Book Agents.

From the New York Sun.

"If you are bothered with agents, beggars or other undesirables at your door, the finest way in the world to get rid of them is to have a trained nurse open the door," said the West Side woman who lives in a big apartment. "They have their story all ready or their card held out, but at the sight of a white cap and apron they will back off with scarcely a word. Beggars especially seem to be deathly afraid of 'catching,' something and will almost run if a nurse goes to the door. You will find it out when you have a nurse on your staff."

Whenever you feel that your stomach has gone a little wrong, or when you feel that it is not in good order, as is evidenced by mean headaches, nervousness, bad breath and belching, take something at times, and especially after your meals, until relief is afforded. There is nothing better offered the public today for stomach troubles, dyspepsia, indigestion, etc., than KODOL. This is a scientific preparation of natural digestants combined with vegetable acids and it contains the same juices found in every healthy stomach. KODOL is guaranteed to give relief. It is pleasant to take; it will make you feel fine by digesting what you eat. Sold by Hanna's Drug Store.

Sam Kee's for underwear and shoes.

Are you having trouble with your kidneys? There are lots of people today who wonder why they have pains across the back, why they are tired and lacking in energy and ambition. Your kidneys are wrong. They need relief without delay. Take DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills; they are for weak back, inflammation of the bladder, backache and weak kidneys. Sold by Hanna's Drug Store.
