On "Friday the Thirteenth" of De cember, the big seven-masted schooner Thomas W. Lawson was wrecked in a fierce gale. And still there are some who say there is nothing in a name.

"Funston Finds Symptoms of Trouble," reads the headline of a Phoenix paper. Was there ever a time the doughty Kansan couldn't find "symptoms" or even the real article, if he went looking for it?

Billy Stiles has bobbed up again. Or rather, he has not, except in the mind of some imaginative sleuth. This time he was supposed to be teaming at Bouse on the Arizona & Colorado railroad, but market today, the closing prices being when the officers got there, there was £6, 5s below the closing prices Saturday, no Billy in sight.

The Clifton papers allege that in his decision in the famous tailings case, Judge Nave delivered "a deathblow" to the mining companies of the Clifton-Morenci district, and they want to know what they are to do with the tailings. They might try eating them.

A pop-corn vender at Tueson was given a heavy fine for selling infected popcorn in violation of the pure food act. But the saloons keep on selling the same old "seat" that never saw the inside of a distillery.

It can hardly be expected that all men who edit newspapers can be blue ribbon takers at a beauty show, but at the same time you occasionally run chapel and at the grave by Rev. George neross one who could take the sweepstakes at a kennel show, is "A sheet of paper printed and discearly days. A large number of friends tributed, at short intervals for conveying intelligence of passing events; a public print that circulates news, etc." An alleged newspaper is one purporting here continuously ever since. He was to be the same, but which is not.

No one likes a spy. But when one compares a McPartland who tries to down labor unions and another who unsolicited and unpaid, seeks evidence in the same manner against a corporation, McPartland must benefit by the comparison, because that's the way he makes his living.

We would suggest to the city couneil that at their next session they amend the license ordinance, raising the tax of stock brokers who do a margin business. The license is now the Alexander. $45 per quarter, and it should be made at least $1,000 a year. No argument is necessary in favor of a prohibitive license on margin trading.

The star of a theatrical company traveling from Phoenix to Tucson, raised a howl because he had to ride in a tourist, claiming that his usual method of travel was in a standard his line. Call and be convinced. Pullman drawing room. There are lots of actors who go out of Arizona in a side door Pullman and are mighty glad they don't have to walk.

WAS NOTED RANCHER

Even Gerenimo and Murderous Band Did Not Molest the Late Colonel Hooker

Word was received in this city this week that Col. H. C. Hooker, one of the oldest and most widely known cattle men and stock raisers in this section of the territory, died suddenly at his home in Los Angeles, on Thursday, of last MALGAMATED TUMBLES, AS DO OTHER COPPER LEADERS, BUT O. D. GOES UP THREE POINTS.

Old Dominion advanced yesterday in the face of a bad slump in which Amalgamated, the copper leader took the lead. Closing at 25 on Saturday in a generally weak market, Old Dominion opened two points above that figure and showed strength rather than weakness while others declined. It sold as high as 28, where it closed, although the bid price was 27 3-4. Globe Conschidated was also strong, bids under 6 toiling to bring any of it out except in very small blocks. The expected strike in the Mallory mine is probably the reason for Globe's strength.
