Last Week of Contest And Silver Belt Yielding to Requests Offers Biggest Premium Ever Organization of Twenty-Clubs Begins With a Rush and Week Promises to Be Liveliest of Race

Well, well, well! There was certainly some tall hustling in contest circles yesterday. There is going to be at least three clubs of twenty voted on Wednesday night—maybe more. One candidate had seventeen new yearly subscribers at 6 o'clock last night; another had a dozen; and still another had ten. There are other candidates with lists of three, four and five. It is to be hoped that they will secure the desired number and win the big vote of fifty thousand for their work.

A number of candidates yesterday expressed the opinion that the Silver Belt should pay a higher premium this week for new names than heretofore. They hold that it is the last full week before the close and that they should be offered something big to work for. All right, young ladies; here it goes. To the candidate securing the greatest number of NEW subscription points, the contest editor has decided to pay a premium of 20,000. Now get to work in earnest. This premium is paid for NEW subscribers. Don't make a mistake.

Many people visited East Globe on Sunday and inspected the beautiful lot to be given away by the Silver Belt. This is considered one of the most valuable prizes offered. The East Globe company, of which F. L. Toombs is manager, has notified the public of a $50 advance in lots in their addition after January 1. This adds $50 to the prize. The East Globe addition has been and is today the most popular in the city. It has shown greater development and more costly improvements have been made on it than anywhere else in the city. It is the coming hon ton residence portion of Globe. This is conceded. A lot purchased in East Globe today will double in value inside of one year. The lot the Silver Belt is going to give away will easily be worth $500 in one year from now—maybe more. If the lady in second place when the votes are counted wishes this lot in preference to the verte grand piano, it will be presented to her. If she takes the piano the lot will go to the lady in third position. Go up and look at these lots and take your parents with you—so you will know how to decide. You may be in second place. The pianos are now on display at Naquin's—and they are both beautiful.

There was a comparatively light vote cast yesterday. Miss Lange advanced her figures about 1000 and Miss Armstrong increased her lead several hundred.

List of Candidates. The list of candidates, entered at 8:30 o'clock last night, with their respective vote, is as follows: Miss Dollie Armstrong 88244 Miss Millie Williams 74603 Miss Geneva Fryer 66430 Miss Norma Dixon 64384 Miss Mildred Voris 56310 Miss Gladys Kelsey 54325 Miss Gertrude O'Connor 32808 Miss Ada Lange 24070 Miss Lillie Kinsman 23212 Miss Georgia Carvil 18690 Miss N.
